"Over The Hill"

Mrs. Lillian Fredericks motored to Pendleton Wednesday to transact business and spend a few hours with relatives.

Ed. Tucker and family of Holdmar were among the out-of-town visitors during the reunion.

Rev. C. L. McCausland, district superintendent of M. E. Church, South, will conduct services in the local church next Sunday.

Mrs. W. L. Rayborn and family came down from the mountain ranch Thursday and occupied their town house during the picnic festivities, returning Sunday to the farm.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Williams and son Gail were dinner guests Monday evening of Mayor and Mrs. Nelson H. Jones.

Miss Vera Morrison, who is spending the summer with relatives in Adams, visited with relatives and friends over the week-end.

Mrs. Ernest Ross has been quite ill with rheumatism during the week at the family home on Normal Heights.

Mrs. Hugh Walker of Wasco, accompanied by her daughter Rosemary and son Kenneth, were visitors this week at the C. F. Bulfinch home.

A band of 1700 sheep owned by Hoskins Bros. of Stanfield passed through town Wednesday morning, en route to summer pasture near Toll Gate.

Mrs. E. E. Sharon of Portland, who came to Weston to attend the reunion and look after property belonging to her mother's estate, was seized with a serious illness during her stay. She left Monday on her return home.

J. H. Williams and family have located on their timber land near Dent, Idaho, after storing their household goods in Weston, and it is their intention to live "the simple life" until October. Mr. Williams has let a contract for getting out a large number of cedar poles during the summer, and will devote his time at once to this activity. Esther and Gail Williams expect to attend college again this fall.

Earl, the 13-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Gould, was conveyed to Pendleton last week for an operation for acute appendicitis, which was performed by Drs. Hattery and McKinney. The boy is reported to be getting along nicely.

A. P. Perry, formerly in the meat market business in Weston, is reported to have met death by being struck by lightning in New York state, where he located a few years ago. He is survived by his widow and one child.

A baby daughter was born June 1st to Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Hurl at their home in Seattle. Mrs. Hurl is a daughter of Mrs. A. J. Sample, who has been visiting her at Seattle and is expected home tomorrow.

Frank English has an egg factory on Weston mountain which he is willing to back against O. A. C.'s best efforts in this line, or any other contender. It consists of 13 Black Minorca hens, which in two and one-half months have laid a total of 498 eggs. None of them has as yet offered to set.

Scott Banister and family were down from La Crosse for the picnic. H. B. Lee, well known Dry Creek pioneer, was seen in Weston during the picnic for the first time in several years. The condition of Mr. Lee's health has not permitted him to stir about much of late.

Mrs. Minnie Walker and Mr. Ernest Gillette of Helix were united in marriage at Walla Walla Saturday, June 3 immediately following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Gillette motored to Weston, where a wedding dinner was served at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. H. N. Greer.

The bride formerly lived in Weston and was regarded as one of its most popular matrons. A host of friends unite in wishing the newly-weds much joy and happiness in the years to come.

Mrs. Mary O. Nelson and Mrs. V. H. Chastain were among Weston's reunion visitors from Walla Walla valley.

Mrs. P. J. Purcell and Mrs. Eva Chase and sons came over from Free-water to visit with old-time friends during the picnic.

Anson Payne has gone to Holdmar, where he has employment with a state highway surveying crew.

Mrs. J. M. Swaggart came back from Baker with Mrs. Alick Johnson, who has been her guest at the Swaggart farm. Mrs. Swaggart attended Weston's reunion and Milton's Strawberry day.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Smock left Wednesday for Dayton to visit their children, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Driskell.

Mrs. J. M. Banister is under Dr. McKinney's care this week with a serious and painful illness.

"Bill" Blakeley and "Uncle John" Bentley were among the old Pendleton pioneers who attended the reunion.

Mrs. S. T. Gore and Mrs. J. O. Davis of Walla Walla were reunion guests of Mrs. G. DeGraw.

J. O. Davis, former superintendent of the Weston schools, has attended the school near Hood River, Oregon.

Guests of Mrs. F. C. Wood at a reunion dinner Friday were Mrs. Eva E. Hartman and Mrs. Allen of Portland; Mrs. Mary LaDow, Mrs. W. B. Mays and G. A. Hartman, of Pendleton.

Good friends of Memorial Hall are selling tickets for the first of a series of Radio Benefit shows, the proceeds of all of which will be set apart for the purchase of a radio outfit this fall. The first show is set for Tuesday evening, June 20, and includes a fine Paramount picture, "Woman God Changed," with all-star cast, and a Mack Sennett comedy.

Motoring trips, with picnic dinners in some favorite woodland nook as an objective, are delightful events in the daily routine of life, especially at this season of the year when all nature is "knee deep in June." A congenial coterie of friends who gathered Sunday at Rocky Ford on upper Pine creek to listen to the beguiling music of the stream and enjoy a lunch of enticing dainties, included: Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Jones, Winfield, Freeman and Robert Jones of Walla Walla; Mrs. Lillian Fredericks, Mrs. M. C. McNee, Mr. and Mrs. H. Goodwin.

Complimenting Mrs. J. H. Williams, who left Tuesday evening for Idaho, where the family will spend the summer months, Mrs. H. Goodwin entertained a few friends at tea, Tuesday afternoon. Reminiscences and chatty episodes furnished diverting entertainment, supplemented by a group of delightful piano numbers contributed by Mrs. Lillian Fredericks.

Those bidden to say farewell to the honor guest were: Mesdames F. D. Watts of Athena, Hugh Walker of Wasco, Lillian Fredericks, George W. Winn, A. J. McIntyre, C. F. Bulfinch, M. C. McNee, and Miss Dorothy Bulfinch.

The marriage of Rulon Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Smith of Weston, and Miss Marjorie Boyle, daughter of Mrs. John Ross of Pendleton, was solemnized Sunday evening at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Alex. Manning, in Pendleton. The ceremony was performed by Rev. George L. Clark, pastor of the Presbyterian church.

Orval Walden, one of Weston mountain's well-known young men, showed up in town the other day with his face covered with a network of scratches, as though he had tried to interrupt a feline convention. He told various stories to account for his lugubrious visage, but the true one is reported to be that "Fat" Walden yelled "fire!" in his sleep one night, and that Orva was so startled he jumped out of a second story window without waiting to investigate.

Mrs. A. J. McIntyre and Miss Erminie McIntyre went to Portland the first of the week to attend the graduation exercises of Hill's Military academy June 14. Eldon McIntyre was a member of the class. He expects to attend college next week.

Never quite happy unless he is doing something in the way of improvement at his farm in the Pea Ridge district, Newt O'Hara has lately had constructed a concrete foundation and back for his barn and has repainted the structure. Another recent improvement is a new chicken house 18x28 feet in size, with a concrete floor and foundation. Newt intends going slowly into the poultry business as a side line, and already has 200 young chicks, including 80 white leghorns—blooded stock from Fish Bros. of Seattle. If he meets with success in a small way he will enlarge his operations and establish ultimately the Pea Ridge Poultry farm.

J. E. McDaniel has applied for a state realtor's license, and will engage in business at Weston, handling both town and country property. He has listed already a considerable number of offerings. Mr. McDaniel will share office room with C. W. Avery on Main street. He feels confident that buyers can be interested in the undoubted merits of the Weston country.

The J. S. Ross family held an informal reunion at Weston during the picnic, but one member being absent. Those who enjoyed the occasion were the parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Ross of Walla Walla; J. A. Ross and family of Dayton, Will Ross and family of Washburn, Roy Cannon and family of Athena, and Arthur M. Ross and family of Weston. "Art," who was by way of being host, says that all of his visitors had hearty appetites.

Albert A. Payne, brother of Rev. W. S. Payne of Weston, passed away June 7 at San Jose, California, after a long illness from cancer of the stomach. Mr. Payne, who was 52 years old, held for 25 years a responsible position with the Sprague Milling Co. of Sprague, Wash., and was afterward in business at Milton. He is survived by one daughter and one brother, W. S. Payne, who was with him during his final days. He moved to California about two months ago, in search of better health.

During the "picnic" rain at Weston the precipitation was .65 of an inch, according to the records of Observer Baker. The rain was quite general throughout the Inland Empire, and did a vast amount of good. Wheat in this immediate section has shown the good results of this much needed moisture, which according to reports was more abundant in some other localities than here.

During the pioneers' reunion Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Smith entertained a house party which included Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Campbell and son Coyle of Spokane; Mr. and Mrs. William MacKenzie and the Misses Charlotte and Isabelle MacKenzie of Montana; Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Prentice of Seattle, Mr. Withers and Mr. Emmett of Walla Walla. Mrs. Campbell, who is the mother of Mrs. Kenneth Campbell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Smith.

Admired of all beholders was the "house on wheels" in which Mr. and Mrs. William MacKenzie left Monday for their farm near Coffey creek, Montana, accompanied by the Misses Charlotte and Isabelle MacKenzie, who have finished at Walla Walla High and expect to attend college in the fall. It is a conveniently and neatly furnished portable domicile, surmounting a motor truck. Mr. and Mrs. MacKenzie expect to make an outing trip to California in this rig, after the harvest is finished in the fall. It has both a bedroom and a kitchen, and makes touring a pleasure.

Mrs. E. M. Warren returned this week from an extended visit with the Will Nordheans at Portland, and will occupy her Weston cottage during the summer. She shares it with Miss Fay Warren, who has finished her school work at Pasco and will spend the vacation season with her mother in Weston. She motored down from Pasco with her brother, Claude. Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Warren were here for the reunion.

James Ritchey, well known former resident, came up from Forest Grove last week and has been a guest of the R. L. Reynolds. Mr. Ritchey, who has been afflicted with asthma, already finds his health improved by the change back to the good old climate.

Texas Raises Less Rice. It is estimated that the rice acreage in Texas this season is more than 50 per cent less than that of last year. Growers assert that they lost money on their crop last year, due to low prices and poor marketing conditions.

The Southern Rice Growers' association has gone out of business and its place is being taken by the American Rice Growers' association, which is said to be patterned after the California Fruit Growers' association, so far as its co-operative and marketing features are concerned.

Balloon Goes Higher Than Airplane. While the record altitude for airplanes is broken almost every year, that for manned balloons has stood unchanged since the balloonists Borson and Suering rose to a height of 35,400 feet above sea level at Berlin in 1901. This is a little better than the best airplane record.
