

Press Paragraphs

Mayor Barrett had business in Pendleton yesterday.

Jos. N. Scott was in town from Pendleton, Tuesday.

Fred Greer Weston farmer, was in Athena, Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Bishop of Free-water, were in the city Tuesday.

Mrs. M. L. Leeper is ill at the home of her daughter in Pendleton.

Mrs. T. P. Gilliland of Weston, was an Athena shopper, Wednesday.

Lorain Shick is home from the harvest field with an injured knee.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Smock of Weston were Athena shoppers, Wednesday.

Mrs. Charles Dupuis of Adams was a guest yesterday of Mrs. C. M. Eager.

M. L. Watts spent Sunday with his wife and daughter, at Bingham Springs.

Trouble with the engine magneto laid off the H. A. Barrett harvest crew, Monday.

Mrs. Charles Norris picked her first roasting ears from her garden, Tuesday of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Pambrun spent Sunday in the mountains near Meacham, huckleberrying.

Mrs. W. S. Ferguson and mother, Mrs. Vaughn went to Meacham Tuesday for huckleberries.

Bert White, barber in O'Dell's shop, spent Sunday with his family at the Lee Dennis mountain ranch.

Mrs. E. McPherrin will leave soon for an extended visit with her daughter at San Diego, California.

W. S. Ferguson contemplates trying a phosphate land fertilizer to enhance the production of wheat.

W. W. Williams now a rancher of the Gibbon district, but formerly an Athena barber, was in town yesterday.

Laurence Liewallen and Carl Christian, Adams residents and farmers, were in the city on business yesterday.

Bryce Baker, who is harvesting for Will Piper, fractured a couple of ribs, while working on the machine one day this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Pambrun spent Sunday in the mountains near Meacham, camping with La Grande friends.

Mrs. Homer I. Waits, who has been visiting her parents at Dallas, and friends at Portland, is this week a guest of Miss Blanche Drake at her summer home at Pacific City.

A son was born recently to Mr. and Mrs. Russell Piersol, at Wasco, Oregon. He has been named Russell H. Piersol.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. McPherson have returned from an extended visit with friends in southern Oregon and California.

Mrs. Maud Logsdon, Mrs. Bessie Beckham and Mrs. Bessie Myrick, went to pick huckleberries near Meacham Tuesday.

Mrs. Martin Stein of La Grande, has been visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Bergevin, south of Athena.

Jinks Taylor, Pendleton chief of police, is confined to his home here with a serious case of erisipelas in the eyes and face.

Mr. and Mrs. O. O. Stephens and son Dale, and Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Boyd spent Sunday in the mountains, near McDougal's camp.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Beckham are making substantial improvements on the interior of their residence on College and 3rd street.

Mrs. A. H. McIntyre and daughter Lois, accompanied by Miss Belle Anderson, left Tuesday for Meacham to gather huckleberries.

Mrs. B. D. Tharpe has been huckleberrying near Meacham this week, in company with Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Worthington, of Pendleton.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Keller, Mrs. Bert Logsdon and Mrs. W. S. Ferguson are among the berry pickers on Meacham mountain this week.

Tom Gilkey was called to his home at Oakesdale, Wash., Tuesday by the death of his brother, W. J. Gilkey, who died of cancer, July 29th.

The home of Mrs. Cora Calavan of Scio, niece of Mrs. S. C. Stanton, was completely destroyed by fire Wednesday night of this week.

Among the estimated average yields of wheat reported this week are W. S. Ferguson, 30 bushels per acre; John Bell, 40; Fred Gross, 30 to 35.

R. Barnes, Will Pinkerton, Ernest Zerba, Lloyd Michener and Amos O'Dell had no trouble in getting all the trout they wanted, Sunday, over on the Umatilla.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Proudfit and daughter Mary, spent Sunday at Bingham Springs, where Bob visited his favorite pools in quest of the festive speckled beauty.

While B. B. Richards is engaging in buying grain for the Northern Grain and Warehouse Company, Mrs. Richards is overseeing the insurance business at the office.

Fred Baddeley was down from his mountain ranch Tuesday. He reports his grain crop very light, but the potato growth is satisfactory. Rain is needed in his section to insure a good crop of potatoes.

Ed LaFave came in from the home of his son-in-law, Louis Bergevin yesterday and spent the day in Athena. Mr. LaFave will be 96 years of age in September, and is hale and hearty for one of his advanced age.

Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. C. L. McFadden left Wednesday morning by automobile for The Dalles where they will attend the American Legion reunion. They will visit in Portland before their return.

Mr. Chas. Williams, Misses Francis

and Ruth Williams, Mrs. Rex Hopper, Mr. and Mrs. George Banister Sr. Mrs. Ralph Haynie and Miss Katherine Kidder, comprise a party of huckleberry pickers who left Tuesday for Meacham.

Mrs. Burden left Wednesday evening for Gilman, Minnesota, where she was called by the death of her father, Anton Niedjelski, who died at the age of 80 years. The funeral was to have been postponed until Mrs. Burden's arrival at Gilman.

Mrs. J. H. Herr is enjoying a visit from her sister, Mrs. Trent, of Salt Lake City. Mr. Trent and son, who came with Mrs. Trent a couple of weeks ago on a motor trip, have returned home and she will visit in Portland during her stay in the west.

John Thompson was in two Monday having brought M. L. Watts over from the river. Mr. Watts who was returning from Bingham Springs encountered an accident with his car, when one of the front wheels broke down, leaving the car helpless on the highway.

A number of Athena people went to Meacham mountains this week to gather huckleberries, among them being Mrs. Bert Logsdon, Mrs. Jesse Myrick, Mrs. Robert Beckham, Mrs. Rex Hopper, Mrs. W. S. Ferguson, and her mother, and Mrs. Grant Prestbye.

John Barnes, Ernest Zerba and Jack Cunningham will dare to take descent and ascent over the rugged trail leading into and out of the Looking Glass, in quest of trout, Sunday. Ike Davidson and Mr. Atkins made the trip last Sunday, and were rewarded with a good string of trout.

A pleasant social meeting of the Methodist Missionary society was held Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. H. Herr, with Mrs. Lewis Stewart as the guest of honor. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Herr, assisted by her sister, Mrs. Trent, of Salt Lake City, and Miss Mattie Coppock. Eighteen ladies were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Purcell, Miss Amy Purcell and Miss Ruth Nelson, of Fresno, California, were guests of the M. W. Hansell home the first part of the week. Mr. and Mrs. Purcell came by auto, and Miss Ruth Nelson and Miss Amy Purcell came on the train. They are on their way to British Columbia. Mr. Purcell is a sister of Mrs. Hansell.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Thompson returned Friday from a two weeks trip to the beach, where they went in company with Mrs. Thompson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Edwards. They visited at various points, including Netarts, Neskevin and Pacific City, and feasted on clams and crabs. Like many others, they will go soon to the mountains to help harvest the huckleberry crop.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Emmel write friends here that they are well pleased with their new location at Newton, Iowa, which they describe as a live little town. They had a pleasant trip, and most of all enjoyed the visit to the National park, laying special stress on the view of the Pallasades and the Shoshone Pass, out the Cody entrance, a trip which they recommend to all touring friends.

Miss Dorothy Mahar, oldest daughter of Mrs. George Mahar, of Albert Lea, Minn., died recently at her home there of double pneumonia, according to a newspaper clipping received by friends in Athena. Burial was made at Lakeside, Minn. The young girl was nearly nineteen years old, and lived with her family here some years ago, when her father, now deceased, was electrician at the Preston Parton mill. She leaves her mother and two younger sisters.

Rev. Johnson returned Saturday from a prolonged visit to different sections in British Columbia. He was at Armstrong B. C. where he had temporary charge of a Baptist pastorate, and conducted 61 services in 45 days. Rev. Johnson is fairly well satisfied with the future prospects of certain sections of British Columbia.

Mrs. E. B. Johnson, wife of Pastor Johnson of the Baptist church, will leave today for Los Angeles, where she goes to visit a niece and to receive treatment for her eyes. She will be gone several weeks.

The Ladies' Aid of the Methodist Episcopal church will give a pastry sale at Watts & Rogers' store, Saturday, August 5th.

Mrs. Jack Swart and children of Kahlots, Wash., are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Walter, west of Athena. One of her little boys fell and broke his arm one day this week.

Best Berry Sugar
Per Sack
$7.95

Now is an opportune time to buy your harvest and Canning Sugar
The market is firm and you may expect higher Sugar prices

Athena Department Store
For Lower Prices, Phone 152

The Lure of the OCEAN BEACHES

was never more fascinating than now, because so much has been done to insure comfort and delightful recreation at all of the many resorts near the mouth of the Columbia River. You can plunge into the surf, fish, hunt, dig clams, play, rest and get the real joy that only a beach vacation can give. And you have this brilliant galaxy of beaches to choose from:

NORTH BEACH
CLATSOP BEACH

ask our agent for "Outings in the Pacific Northwest" and "Oregon Outdoors"

They tell the whole story. Then pack your trunk and purchase a ROUND TRIP EXCURSION TICKET via the

UNION PACIFIC SYSTEM

Insuring that most wonderful trip down through the Columbia River Gorge. Let our agent tell you all about it, arrange your itinerary and make your reservation.

Round trip from Athena, $17.65.

C. M. EAGER, Agent

Wm. McMurray, General Passenger Agent—Portland, Oregon

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Pambrun spent Sunday in the mountains near Meacham, huckleberrying.

Mrs. W. S. Ferguson and mother, Mrs. Vaughn went to Meacham Tuesday for huckleberries.

Bert White, barber in O'Dell's shop, spent Sunday with his family at the Lee Dennis mountain ranch.

Mrs. E. McPherrin will leave soon for an extended visit with her daughter at San Diego, California.

W. S. Ferguson contemplates trying a phosphate land fertilizer to enhance the production of wheat.

W. W. Williams now a rancher of the Gibbon district, but formerly an Athena barber, was in town yesterday.

Laurence Liewallen and Carl Christian, Adams residents and farmers, were in the city on business yesterday.

Bryce Baker, who is harvesting for Will Piper, fractured a couple of ribs, while working on the machine one day this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Pambrun spent Sunday in the mountains near Meacham, camping with La Grande friends.

Mrs. Homer I. Waits, who has been visiting her parents at Dallas, and friends at Portland, is this week a guest of Miss Blanche Drake at her summer home at Pacific City.

A son was born recently to Mr. and Mrs. Russell Piersol, at Wasco, Oregon. He has been named Russell H. Piersol.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. McPherson have returned from an extended visit with friends in southern Oregon and California.

Mrs. Maud Logsdon, Mrs. Bessie Beckham and Mrs. Bessie Myrick, went to pick huckleberries near Meacham Tuesday.

Mrs. Martin Stein of La Grande, has been visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Bergevin, south of Athena.

Jinks Taylor, Pendleton chief of police, is confined to his home here with a serious case of erisipelas in the eyes and face.

Mr. and Mrs. O. O. Stephens and son Dale, and Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Boyd spent Sunday in the mountains, near McDougal's camp.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Beckham are making substantial improvements on the interior of their residence on College and 3rd street.

Mrs. A. H. McIntyre and daughter Lois, accompanied by Miss Belle Anderson, left Tuesday for Meacham to gather huckleberries.

Mrs. B. D. Tharpe has been huckleberrying near Meacham this week, in company with Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Worthington, of Pendleton.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Keller, Mrs. Bert Logsdon and Mrs. W. S. Ferguson are among the berry pickers on Meacham mountain this week.

Tom Gilkey was called to his home at Oakesdale, Wash., Tuesday by the death of his brother, W. J. Gilkey, who died of cancer, July 29th.

The home of Mrs. Cora Calavan of Scio, niece of Mrs. S. C. Stanton, was completely destroyed by fire Wednesday night of this week.

Among the estimated average yields of wheat reported this week are W. S. Ferguson, 30 bushels per acre; John Bell, 40; Fred Gross, 30 to 35.

R. Barnes, Will Pinkerton, Ernest Zerba, Lloyd Michener and Amos O'Dell had no trouble in getting all the trout they wanted, Sunday, over on the Umatilla.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Proudfit and daughter Mary, spent Sunday at Bingham Springs, where Bob visited his favorite pools in quest of the festive speckled beauty.

While B. B. Richards is engaging in buying grain for the Northern Grain and Warehouse Company, Mrs. Richards is overseeing the insurance business at the office.

Fred Baddeley was down from his mountain ranch Tuesday. He reports his grain crop very light, but the potato growth is satisfactory. Rain is needed in his section to insure a good crop of potatoes.

Ed LaFave came in from the home of his son-in-law, Louis Bergevin yesterday and spent the day in Athena. Mr. LaFave will be 96 years of age in September, and is hale and hearty for one of his advanced age.

Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. C. L. McFadden left Wednesday morning by automobile for The Dalles where they will attend the American Legion reunion. They will visit in Portland before their return.

Mr. Chas. Williams, Misses Francis

and Ruth Williams, Mrs. Rex Hopper, Mr. and Mrs. George Banister Sr. Mrs. Ralph Haynie and Miss Katherine Kidder, comprise a party of huckleberry pickers who left Tuesday for Meacham.

Mrs. Burden left Wednesday evening for Gilman, Minnesota, where she was called by the death of her father, Anton Niedjelski, who died at the age of 80 years. The funeral was to have been postponed until Mrs. Burden's arrival at Gilman.

Mrs. J. H. Herr is enjoying a visit from her sister, Mrs. Trent, of Salt Lake City. Mr. Trent and son, who came with Mrs. Trent a couple of weeks ago on a motor trip, have returned home and she will visit in Portland during her stay in the west.

John Thompson was in two Monday having brought M. L. Watts over from the river. Mr. Watts who was returning from Bingham Springs encountered an accident with his car, when one of the front wheels broke down, leaving the car helpless on the highway.

A number of Athena people went to Meacham mountains this week to gather huckleberries, among them being Mrs. Bert Logsdon, Mrs. Jesse Myrick, Mrs. Robert Beckham, Mrs. Rex Hopper, Mrs. W. S. Ferguson, and her mother, and Mrs. Grant Prestbye.

John Barnes, Ernest Zerba and Jack Cunningham will dare to take descent and ascent over the rugged trail leading into and out of the Looking Glass, in quest of trout, Sunday. Ike Davidson and Mr. Atkins made the trip last Sunday, and were rewarded with a good string of trout.

A pleasant social meeting of the Methodist Missionary society was held Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. H. Herr, with Mrs. Lewis Stewart as the guest of honor. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Herr, assisted by her sister, Mrs. Trent, of Salt Lake City, and Miss Mattie Coppock. Eighteen ladies were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Purcell, Miss Amy Purcell and Miss Ruth Nelson, of Fresno, California, were guests of the M. W. Hansell home the first part of the week. Mr. and Mrs. Purcell came by auto, and Miss Ruth Nelson and Miss Amy Purcell came on the train. They are on their way to British Columbia. Mr. Purcell is a sister of Mrs. Hansell.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Thompson returned Friday from a two weeks trip to the beach, where they went in company with Mrs. Thompson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Edwards. They visited at various points, including Netarts, Neskevin and Pacific City, and feasted on clams and crabs. Like many others, they will go soon to the mountains to help harvest the huckleberry crop.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Emmel write friends here that they are well pleased with their new location at Newton, Iowa, which they describe as a live little town. They had a pleasant trip, and most of all enjoyed the visit to the National park, laying special stress on the view of the Pallasades and the Shoshone Pass, out the Cody entrance, a trip which they recommend to all touring friends.

Miss Dorothy Mahar, oldest daughter of Mrs. George Mahar, of Albert Lea, Minn., died recently at her home there of double pneumonia, according to a newspaper clipping received by friends in Athena. Burial was made at Lakeside, Minn. The young girl was nearly nineteen years old, and lived with her family here some years ago, when her father, now deceased, was electrician at the Preston Parton mill. She leaves her mother and two younger sisters.

Rev. Johnson returned Saturday from a prolonged visit to different sections in British Columbia. He was at Armstrong B. C. where he had temporary charge of a Baptist pastorate, and conducted 61 services in 45 days. Rev. Johnson is fairly well satisfied with the future prospects of certain sections of British Columbia.

Mrs. E. B. Johnson, wife of Pastor Johnson of the Baptist church, will leave today for Los Angeles, where she goes to visit a niece and to receive treatment for her eyes. She will be gone several weeks.

The Ladies' Aid of the Methodist Episcopal church will give a pastry sale at Watts & Rogers' store, Saturday, August 5th.

Mrs. Jack Swart and children of Kahlots, Wash., are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Walter, west of Athena. One of her little boys fell and broke his arm one day this week.

THE STANDARD THEATRE

Saturday, July 29

The Great Stage Play

OLIVER MOROSCO
Presents
"THE HALF BREED"

Millions

have applauded Morosco's Stage Production of this thrilling Drama, but it was left for the screen to give to the world the play in its entirety.

International News Century Comedy 10c-25-35c tax included

Sunday July 30

The

Rider of the King Log

Every inch a 100 per cent Picture

Pathe Review. Admission, 10c-25c-35c, Tax Paid Franey Comedy

Keep Sunday, Aug. 6th in mind:

"The Dangerous Curve Ahead"

OUR VEGETABLES ARE FRESH AND SOUND

Service At This Store

Eat plenty of fresh vegetables and you will be healthy and happy. Vegetables contain just the things you need to keep your system in fine working order and if you neglect it you may get all run down. Buy from us. The best vegetables on the market are forwarded to us daily. Give us your grocery order today.

THE PURE FOOD GROCERY

Quality Quantity, Service. Phone 171. Athena, Oregon

The Churches

Christian Church
Bible school, 10 a. m. Communion, 11 a. m. The pastor will preach in the morning and union services will be held at night. Evening service at the Christian church, Rev. Johnson, pastor of the Baptist church, occupying the pulpit.
F. E. Russell, Pastor,