

RESOLUTION

Be it resolved by the City of Athena, Umatilla County, Oregon, that the following Act to make charter provision governing finances of the City of Athena, and to amend the Act of the Legislature of the State of Oregon, filed with the Secretary of State, January 27th, 1905, being original House Bill No. 39, and amendments thereto, by adding to said City Charter Article XI, be and the same hereby is proposed for submission to the legal voters of said City for their adoption or rejection at a special election to be held on the 6th day of September, 1922, as follows:

ARTICLE XI—FINANCE

Section 1. The City of Athena shall have power—
1. To control the finances and property of the corporation and to acquire by purchase or otherwise, lands and other property for corporate uses provided by the charter and to dispose of any such property as the interest of the City may, from time to time, require.

2. To borrow money for corporate purposes on the credit of the corporation and to issue negotiable bonds therefor, upon the conditions and in the manner hereinafter provided, but the said City shall not in any manner or for any purpose, become indebted to an amount in the aggregate to exceed ten per centum of the value of the taxable property therein, as ascertained by the last assessment for city purposes previous to the incurring of such indebtedness, exclusive of indebtedness incurred for municipally owned water works, and local improvement bonds.

3. To issue bonds in place of or to supply the means to meet maturing bonds or other indebtedness heretofore issued or that may hereafter be incurred, for the purpose of funding the same.

Section 2. Whenever the City of Athena, acting by its Council or upon initiative petition, may deem it necessary or expedient to incur indebtedness or to borrow money for municipal purposes, the said City shall by ordinance authorize the issuance of general obligation municipal bonds. Such ordinance shall state the amount proposed to be raised and the purpose or purposes for which the money raised is to be expended, and shall immediately upon its passage, be referred to a vote of the legal voters of the City of Athena, upon notice provided for special elections in said City, provided that if the bonds to be issued, together with all outstanding indebtedness of the city, exclusive of any indebtedness for municipally owned water works, and local improvement bonds, shall not exceed two per centum of the assessed value of all taxable property in the City, such bonds may be issued and sold without any election authorizing the issuance thereof, upon the passage and approval of an ordinance authorizing the issuance of the same.

Section 3. Any bonds heretofore or hereafter issued by the City of Athena and any warrants so issued for indebtedness which shall hereafter have been approved by the legal voters of the City of Athena, may be refunded in the discretion of the City Council, whenever there is not sufficient money in the Treasury in the bond redemption fund or otherwise provided for that purpose, to pay such bonds, warrants or indebtedness and legally applicable thereto.

Section 4. Any bonds authorized by the City of Athena in denomination of not less than One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars nor more than One Thousand ($1000.00) Dollars; shall be numbered from one up consecutively; shall bear the date of their issue; shall be payable not more than twenty-five years from date, and shall bear interest at not more than six per cent. per annum, payable semi-annually, and the principal and interest shall be payable at such place as may be designated. The bonds shall be signed by the Mayor and attested by the Recorder, either by manual or fac-simile signature.

Section 5. Any bonds authorized to be issued by the vote of a majority of the legal voters of the City of Athena, or otherwise authorized under the provision of this Article, shall be printed, engraved or lithographed on good bond paper, and shall be in such form as may be prescribed by the City Council by resolution or ordinance, and shall be sold in such manner as shall be deemed advisable and advantageous by the City Council.

Section 6. No bonds issued under the provisions of this charter shall be sold or exchanged at less than their par value, and all moneys derived from the sale of such bonds shall be immediately deposited in a special fund and shall not be expended for any other purposes than that for which such bonds were authorized and issued.

Section 7. There shall be levied each year a tax upon the taxable property within the City sufficient to pay the interest on bonds outstanding as the same accrues, and the principal of said bonds from time to time, at the maturity thereof, which taxes shall become due and collectible as other taxes.

Be it further resolved by the City of Athena, Umatilla County, Oregon, that the following Act to make charter provision providing for the issuance of bonds and validating outstanding indebtedness, and to amend the Act of the Legislature of the State of Oregon, filed with the Secretary of State, January 27th, 1905, by adding thereto Article XIII.

ARTICLE XIII.

FUNDING BONDS FOR THE PURPOSE OF PROVIDING FUNDS WITH WHICH TO REDEEM THE PRESENT OUTSTANDING INDEBTEDNESS OF THE CITY.

Section 1. The City Council is hereby authorized and empowered to issue and negotiate general obligation coupon bonds of the said City in the principal sum of Twenty Thousand ($20,000.00) Dollars, said bonds to be of such denomination and to bear such date and rate of interest and to run for such length of time as may be determined by the City Council. Said bonds, when issued, both as to principal and interest, shall be exempt from all taxation and shall be a valid, binding and subsisting general obligation of the said City, and neither the said bonds nor the indebtedness funded thereby shall ever be open to contest by the City or any of its officers, or by any person, corporation or association for or on its or their behalf, for any reason whatsoever.

Section 2. The said bonds to be issued are for the payment of indebtedness heretofore incurred as follows: Upon judgment in a damage suit against the City of Athena; for addition to the lighting of the City; accrued salary; general expenses; for municipal water system, and other incidental expenses of the said City heretofore incurred, and the said indebtedness for each of said purposes for which moneys have been actually expended is hereby ratified and confirmed as a legal, binding obligation of the City of Athena.

Be it further resolved by the City of Athena, Umatilla County, Oregon, that the following Act to make charter provision governing claims against the City of Athena, and to amend the Act of the Legislature of the State of Oregon, filed with the Secretary of State, January 27th, 1905, being original House Bill No. 39, and Amendments thereto, by adding to said City Charter, Article XIII, be and the same hereby is proposed for submission to the legal voters of said City for their adoption or rejection at a special election to be held on the 6th day of September, 1922, as follows:

ARTICLE XIII.

CLAIMS AGAINST THE CITY

Section 1. All claims or demands against the City of Athena shall be presented to and audited by the Council in accordance with such regulations as they may by ordinance prescribe, and upon the allowance of such claims or demands, the Recorder shall draw a warrant upon the Treasurer for the amount allowed, which said warrant shall be countersigned by the Mayor and shall specify the purpose for which the same is drawn.

Section 2. No claim against the City shall be paid until it is audited and allowed by the Council and then only by warrant drawn on the Treasurer by the Recorder, countersigned by the Mayor.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that this resolution for the proposed charter amendments to be submitted to the legal voters of the City of Athena by the Council, be filed with the Recorder of said City of Athena, for submission to the legal voters for their rejection or approval, to be voted on at a special election to be held as herein provided.

NOTICE OF SPECIAL ELECTION NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that on Wednesday the 6th day of September, 1922, a special election of the legal electors of the City of Athena will be held in the Council Room of said City Council, at which time there will be submitted to said electors the following measures:

ARTICLE XI—FINANCE

Section 1. The City of Athena shall have power—
1. To control the finances and property of the corporation and to acquire by purchase or otherwise, lands and other property for corporate uses provided by the charter and to dispose of any such property as the interest of the City may, from time to time, require.

2. To borrow money for corporate purposes on the credit of the corporation and to issue negotiable bonds therefor, upon the conditions and in the manner hereinafter provided, but the said City shall not in any manner or for any purpose, become indebted to an amount in the aggregate to exceed ten per centum of the value of the taxable property therein, as ascertained by the last assessment for city purposes previous to the incurring of such indebtedness, exclusive of indebtedness incurred for municipally owned water works, and local improvement bonds.

3. To issue bonds in place of or to supply the means to meet maturing bonds or other indebtedness heretofore issued or that may hereafter be incurred, for the purpose of funding the same.

Section 2. Whenever the City of Athena, acting by its Council or upon initiative petition, may deem it necessary or expedient to incur indebtedness or to borrow money for municipal purposes, the said City shall by ordinance authorize the issuance of general obligation municipal bonds.

Such ordinance shall state the amount proposed to be raised and the purpose or purposes for which the money raised is to be expended, and shall immediately upon its passage, be referred to a vote of the legal voters of the City of Athena, upon notice provided for special elections in said City, provided that if the bonds to be issued, together with all outstanding indebtedness of the city, exclusive of any indebtedness for municipally owned water works, and local improvement bonds, shall not exceed two per centum of the assessed value of all of the taxable property in the City, such bonds may be issued and sold without any election authorizing the issuance thereof, upon the passage and approval of an ordinance authorizing the issuance of the same.

Section 3. Any bonds heretofore or hereafter issued by the City of Athena and any warrants so issued for indebtedness which shall hereafter have been approved by the legal voters of the City of Athena, may be refunded in the discretion of the City Council, whenever there is not sufficient money in the Treasury in the bond redemption fund or otherwise provided for that purpose, to pay such bonds, warrants or indebtedness and legally applicable thereto.

Section 4. Any bonds authorized by the City of Athena in denomination of not less than One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars nor more than One Thousand ($1000.00) Dollars; shall be numbered from one up consecutively; shall bear the date of their issue; shall be payable not more than twenty-five years from date, and shall bear interest at not more than six per cent. per annum, payable semi-annually, and the principal and interest shall be payable at such place as may be designated. The bonds shall be signed by the Mayor and attested by the Recorder, either by manual or fac-simile signature.

Section 5. Any bonds authorized to be issued by the vote of a majority of the legal voters of the City of Athena, or otherwise authorized under the provision of this Article, shall be printed, engraved or lithographed on good bond paper, and shall be in such form as may be prescribed by the City Council by resolution or ordinance, and shall be sold in such manner as shall be deemed advisable and advantageous by the City Council.

Section 6. No bonds issued under the provisions of this charter shall be sold or exchanged at less than their par value, and all moneys derived from the sale of such bonds, shall be immediately deposited in a special fund and shall not be expended for any other purposes than that for which such bonds were authorized and issued.

Section 7. There shall be levied each year a tax upon the taxable property within the City sufficient to pay the interest on bonds outstanding as the same accrues, and the principal of said bonds from time to time, at the maturity thereof, which taxes shall become due and collectible as other taxes.

ARTICLE XII.

FUNDING BONDS FOR THE PURPOSE OF PROVIDING FUNDS WITH WHICH TO REDEEM THE PRESENT OUTSTANDING INDEBTEDNESS OF THE CITY.

Section 1. The City Council is hereby authorized and empowered to issue and negotiate general obligation coupon bonds of the said City in the principal sum of Twenty Thousand ($20,000.00) Dollars, said bonds to be of such denomination and to bear such date and rate of interest and to run for such length of time as may be determined by the City Council. Said bonds, when issued, both as to principal and interest, shall be exempt from all taxation and shall be a valid, binding and subsisting general obligation of the said City, and neither the said bonds nor the indebtedness funded thereby shall ever be open to contest by the City or any of its officers, or by any person, corporation or association for or on its or their behalf, for any reason whatsoever.

Section 2. The said bonds to be issued are for the payment of indebtedness heretofore incurred as follows: Upon a judgment in a damage suit against the City of Athena; for addition to the lighting of the City; accrued salary; general expenses; for municipal water system; and other incidental expenses of the said City heretofore incurred, and the said indebtedness for each of said purposes for which moneys have been actually expended is hereby ratified and confirmed as a legal, binding obligation of the City of Athena.

CLAIMS AGAINST THE CITY

Section 1.
