

Press Paragraphs

John Hyatt, of Weston, was in Athena, Thursday.
 Frank Jackson of Weston, was in Athena Wednesday.
 Mr. and Mrs. Carl Sheard are home from Bingham Springs.
 Claude Estes hotel keeper at Meacham, was in Athena Monday of this week.
 Cloudy weather and light showers are welcomed as the end of the hot wave.
 Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Foss spent the past week visiting relatives at Moro and Terrebonne.
 Miss Walthia Haynie is spending a couple of weeks with relatives and friends in Spokane.

Mr. and Mrs. Newt O'Harra and Mr. Ivan O'Harra came over from Weston Wednesday.
 Mrs. J. F. Herr was reported seriously ill the first of the week with tonsillitis but is recovering.
 A. C. Froom, dentist, has fitted up a neat office in the Lash building next to Hill's jewelry store.
 W. O. Read and son Velton and Taylor returned this week from an outing trip in Central Oregon.
 Miss Laura Purcell returned from an auto trip of B. C., Saturday. Her school starts Monday at La Mar.
 Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Hill returned Monday from a trip to Camp McDougal, in the Weston mountains.
 Miss Blanch Johnson entertained a number of her friends with a party given at her home, Tuesday evening.
 Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Smith and children and Miss Genevieve Rogers are spending the week at Bingham Springs.

 Bert White, Henry Dell and C. L. McFadden left yesterday for a two-day hunting trip in the mountains east of town.
 Messrs Dudley Rogers, Frank Williams, Tom Kirk and John Benson left Sunday for Wallowa Lake, for an outing.
 The families of George Gerking and Charles Gerking enjoyed a vacation trip to Portland and the beach the past week.
 Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Hunt and sons have returned from a visit to relatives in Douglas county. D. B. got his limit hunting deer.
 Ray Logan, employed on Watts Bros., ranch, left yesterday morning for Nelson, B. C. where he will work in a logging camp.
 Mr. and Mrs. Casper Woodward who have spent the summer at the farm west of Athena, are visiting in Portland and Seaside this week.
 Miss Blanch Drake spent the weekend with Athena friends. She was en route to Red Lodge, Mont., where she will teach in the high school this year.
 Mrs. George Clore, sister of Mrs. W. R. Taylor, is in a serious condition in a Pendleton hospital, where she was operated on Wednesday of this week.
 W. H. Reeder is here from Tacoma, visiting at the home of his son, Otho Reeder.
 Mrs. Samuel Haworth returned home the first of the week from Salem, and reports her niece, Audrey Winship recovering from her recent attack of appendicitis.
 Scott Fisher has put in a beautiful fire place in Mr. and Mrs. Radtke's new home on upper Fourth street. The new home will be ready for occupancy about October first.
 Miss Eva Gries, primary teacher in the Athena schools has been spending the summer at the home of her mother in Nebraska. She is expected to arrive in Athena next week.
 Mr. and Mrs. Bert Logsdon, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Wood and Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Myrick left by automobile yesterday for Wallowa Lake, where they will remain for a week or ten days.
 The ladies of the Methodist church entertained in the church parlors one evening this week in honor of Grandma Clark, who leaves with her son to reside in the state of Washington.

Man's Size, Raine.
 Attorney E. C. Prestbye returned to Athena, Monday from his summer outing at Glacier National Park to resume his law practice. Mrs. Prestbye will return later, going by way of Aberdeen, Wash., to visit relatives.
 As announced in the Press last week, no meeting of the Civic Club will be held during the month of September. The first meeting after vacation will be held on October 3, with Mrs. Nelson A. Miller in charge of the program.
 O. O. Stephens, at the Pure Food Grocery has put in a stock of Boy Scout haversacks, mess kits and canteens. The mess kits and canteens are made of aluminum, and are a nifty outfit for hunters and camper, as well as scout troopers.
 The Athena schools open on Monday, September 11. The teachers will be here during the coming week to secure living quarters for the year. School supplies have been put in stock and vacation days for the youngsters are fast drawing to a close.
 Mr. and Mrs. Grant Prestbye returned Wednesday from their trip by auto to Alberta. They spent several days at Kalispell, Montana, visiting Mr. Prestbye's relatives. The southern part of Alberta is producing a fair wheat crop this season, reports Mr. Prestbye.
 Mrs. E. B. Johnson, who recently went to Los Angeles for the purpose of having cataracts removed from her eyes, withstood the operation successfully. Mrs. Johnson will remain under treatment longer than she expected, but her eyesight will be perfectly restored.
 Mr. and Mrs. Homer Watts left yesterday for Kietzly Creek B. C. They were joined at Waitsburg by Mr. and Mrs. Ed Leonard. The party goes by automobile on a annual hunting trip. Moose, caribou, deer and bear are the game animals hunted, and fish galore is found in the lakes and streams bordering the hunting grounds.

New Fall Arrivals as Follows

Wool and Cotton Blankets
 Ladies Silk and wool Hose
 Mens Silk and Wool Hose
 Childrens Fancy Wool Hose
 Mens Munsing Underwear
 Ladies Munsing Underwear
 Childrens Munsing Underwear

Athena Department Store
 For Lower Prices, Phone 152

Imported
Japanese Vases
 and
Incense Burners

Real Values
 Priced From
50c to $3.50

McFADDEN'S PHARMACY

Take the Slant Out of Hills

The ideal Piston Ring combination is our Superoil Ring in the top groove of each piston, to prevent excess lubricating oil from entering the combination chamber, and Leak Proof Rings in all the lower grooves, for compression and power.

We have them in all sizes.

Thompson's Garage

Main Street Athena Phone 471

Mr. and Mrs. George Lattin visited at the home of Mrs. Lattin's brother, J. W. Dunbar, in La Grande last week. Mr. Lattin is taking his vacation, this week the family is at Bingham Springs.
 A. L. Swaggart and family left Wednesday for Portland, where they will reside during the fall and winter. Mr. Swaggart shipped a carload of furniture and household goods from here.
 A new lamp post will be installed at the corner of Fourth and Jefferson streets. The trench is being excavated and the cable will soon be connected up with the remainder of the lighting system.
 The Athena branch library has subscribed for the Radio Instructor, a magazine much in demand at the present time. New rental books received include: Gentle Julia, Tarkington.

Dr. Dell is suffering from a batch of Job's afflictions this week.
 Frank Martin, a Umatilla reservation rancher, takes 44,000 sacks for his grain crop.
 The nights are becoming so cool that frost and even ice has been seen by early risers in Helix.
 Major Conroyer has been very ill at his home on the head of Thorn Hollow. The Press and many friends hope for the Major's speedy recovery.
 Wallie Ashpaugh, the brick mason left last week for his ranch on the Pend d'Oreille river, in Washington. Mr. Breckhill, his partner is still in the city.
 County Surveyor Arnold has completed a map giving a very accurate idea of the proposed road up the Wild Horse from Sax station to Adams, which will be a great convenience and cut off several miles between Pendleton and Adams.
 The outlook for the state normal school at Weston is considered very encouraging. Many people are removing to Weston to give their children an opportunity which the school will afford, and residences are in active demand.
 There will be a Sunflower concert in Gillis hall next Tuesday evening. The best musical talent of the city will be utilized. The Athena orchestra will also take a prominent part.
 Wilse Coyle, who shot a man in the leg in Swartz's saloon in Walla Walla not long since, received a trial last week and was discharged from custody, it being brought in the testimony that Coyle committed the deed accidentally.

29 Years Ago

September 1, 1893.

Dr. Dell is suffering from a batch of Job's afflictions this week.
 Frank Martin, a Umatilla reservation rancher, takes 44,000 sacks for his grain crop.
 The nights are becoming so cool that frost and even ice has been seen by early risers in Helix.
 Major Conroyer has been very ill at his home on the head of Thorn Hollow. The Press and many friends hope for the Major's speedy recovery.
 Wallie Ashpaugh, the brick mason left last week for his ranch on the Pend d'Oreille river, in Washington. Mr. Breckhill, his partner is still in the city.
 County Surveyor Arnold has completed a map giving a very accurate idea of the proposed road up the Wild Horse from Sax station to Adams, which will be a great convenience and cut off several miles between Pendleton and Adams.
 The outlook for the state normal school at Weston is considered very encouraging. Many people are removing to Weston to give their children an opportunity which the school will afford, and residences are in active demand.
 There will be a Sunflower concert in Gillis hall next Tuesday evening. The best musical talent of the city will be utilized. The Athena orchestra will also take a prominent part.
 Wilse Coyle, who shot a man in the leg in Swartz's saloon in Walla Walla not long since, received a trial last week and was discharged from custody, it being brought in the testimony that Coyle committed the deed accidentally.

The Churches

Church of Christ
 Bible school, 10 a. m. Communion, 11 a. m. The pastor will preach both morning and evening. Beginning September 3rd, the Sunday night service will begin at 7:30 instead of 8 o'clock. The subject of the morning sermon will be "Are Doctrinal Sermons Necessary?" At night the subject will be "A Parable of Redemption." You are cordially invited to worship with us.
 F. E. Russell, Pastor.

Baptist Church
 Sunday school, 10 a. m. Morning address, 11 a. m. Subject, "The One Thing Needful." Evening service, 7:30 p. m. Subject, "The Victorious Petitioner." Midweek service, Thursday, 7:30 p. m.
 E. B. Johnson, Pastor.

THE STANDARD THEATRE

Saturday, September 2

A
 Superb
 Picture

Jesse L. Lasky presents
Betty Compson
"At the End of the World"

International News

10c-25-35c tax included

Sunday, September 3
The Great Moment

The Beginning
 of Paramount
 Week

M. S. RUTKAY

Is this it? Elnor Glyn wrote the story of this latest Paramount picture, and Gloria Swanson is the heroine. Elnor Glyn—Gloria Swanson, Page Paul, the hero of "Three Weeks."

Pathe Review.

Admission, 10c-25c-35c, Tax Paid

Service
 At This Store

OUR
 VEGETABLES
 ARE
 FRESH
 AND SOUND

Eat plenty of fresh vegetables and you will be healthy and happy. Vegetables contain just the things you need to keep your system in fine working order and if you neglect it you may get all run down. Buy from us. The best vegetables on the market are forwarded to us daily. Give us your grocery order today.

THE PURE FOOD GROCERY

Quality Quantity, Service. Phone 171. Athena, Oregon