

Press Paragraphs

Dean Dudley was in Holdman this week.

Bert White was in Pendleton Wednesday.

Mrs. Fred Gross was in Milton, Monday.

Seth Hyatt of Gibbon, was in Athena, Tuesday.

Mr. Bill Murray left yesterday for La Grande, Oregon.

Albert Gould, Weston farmer, was in Athena, Thursday.

Mrs. Alfred Pambrun visited friends in Pendleton, Tuesday.

Otho Reeder was a business visitor in Pendleton, Tuesday.

W. S. Ferguson transacted business in Pendleton, Tuesday.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Flint Johns, September 10, 1922, a son.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Keller have returned from Wallowa Lake.

E. C. Prestbye was in Pendleton Wednesday on legal business.

Mrs. Hazel Raymon and baby are visiting friends in Walla Walla.

Mrs. G. W. Gross and Miss Varva Gross were in Pendleton, Thursday.

Ralph Haynie and Mose Banister were Pendleton visitors, Wednesday.

Vernie Marr, Will Hall of Weston mountain, were in Athena, Tuesday.

Mrs. Henry Dell and daughter Lucinda were in Walla Walla Tuesday.

Tom Gilkey has joined the party of Athena hunters on the Grande Ronde river.

Elmer Booher is up from Condon. He raised a good crop of wheat this season.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Gagnon spent the week-end at Bingham Springs.

Miss Areta Littlejohn visited relatives in Pendleton the fore part of the week.

The Walla Walla fair is drawing many visitors from Umatilla county this week.

Scoutmaster Stephens and his troop returned Saturday morning from Bingham Springs where the lads enjoyed a fine outing. The trip was made in automobiles.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Haynie and Mrs. L. H. Kretzer motored to Milton, Sunday.

Mrs. Marion Jack of Pendleton was a guest of her mother, Mrs. C. T. Smith, Monday night.

Dean Willaby is spending a few days in Athena, coming from Condon the fore part of last week.

S. C. Stone, who is one of railway guards at Umatilla, was up from the railroad town over the week-end.

Miss Savannah Smith is returning to Cheney Washington Sunday to attend the winter course at the Normal.

Miss Hilda Dickensen spent the week-end with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom DeFreece at Walla Walla.

Mrs. F. B. Boyd and brother, John Ridenour returned Tuesday from a visit with relatives in Portland and Seattle.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Keen, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Keen, and Miss Thelma Keen were Athena visitors Sunday.

Mrs. Catherine McCool, wife of the editor of the Portland News, is a guest of her sister-in-law, Mrs. L. R. McEwen.

North Watts is driving a new Ford sedan. He will drive it to Corvallis where he enters his second year at O. A. C.

Amos O'Dell will run the village barber shop in Happy Canyon, Pendleton's big night show, during the Round-Up.

Mr. and Mrs. Sims Dickenson and daughter Gladys were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Tom DeFreece at Walla Walla, Sunday.

Miss Juanita Woodruff has returned to Athena. She is staying with her aunt, Mrs. Arthur Coppock for the school term.

George Winship returned Wednesday from a visit at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Winship, in Salem.

Miss Waltha Haynie has returned from a couple of weeks visit with friends in Spokane, and entered Athena high school.

Athena admirers of the Pendleton Round-Up are in attendance every afternoon now while the tryouts of bucking horses are being made.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Logsdon, who spent last week at Wallowa Lake, drove to Vale, Malheur county, to visit Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Clore.

Rev. and Mrs. Lowther have departed for Bridgeport, Wash., where Mr. Lowther will be the pastor of the Methodist church during the coming year.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Myrick, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Woods and Miss Beulah Banister returned home from a fishing trip at Wallowa Lake, on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Payne and small daughter Annabel are visiting relatives in Athena. They are returning to their home in Joseph the last part of the week.

Mrs. M. M. Johns has purchased the residence on Adams street, between Third and Fourth, of Mrs. Jerry Stone, and will make her home permanently in Athena.

Two daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Johnson will attend college this year. Miss Minnie will enter University of Oregon and Miss Helen will attend Whitman college.

Miss Cathrine Froome and Miss Hazel Sanders will leave for Portland next week, where they will visit friends a few days before going to Corvallis to enter O. A. C.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Prestbye will reside in the Stone cottage on North Fifth street. S. C. Stone was up from Umatilla last week and leased the residence to Mr. Prestbye.

Boy Scout meeting at Legion Hall Monday night. All scouts requested to be present. This meeting will be the first since the summer vacation period.

M. L. Watts who is a director representing Umatilla county in the State Highway Scenic Preservation Association, expects to meet with the association at Portland, tomorrow.

Miss Lois Cassil was in Athena on Wednesday to arrange her schedule for music classes for the coming year. Miss Cassil represents the Malen Burnett School of Music of Walla Walla.

Mrs. S. S. Piersol has left on a visit to her son, Russell, at Wasco, Oregon. From there she will proceed to Roseburg, where she will spend several weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Elmer Johnson.

Mrs. Sam Booher and daughter Marjorie returned home from St. Anthony's hospital, Pendleton, where Marjorie had her tonsils and adenoids removed Monday. Miss Marjorie is convalescing nicely.

Miss Lela Schubert is taking a commercial course, including stenography, at Walla Walla business college. Miss Schubert was a member of last year's graduating class at Athena high school.

Lois Wilson, Milton Sills, Theodore Roberts and Helen Ferguson are the Paramount stars who appear in "Miss Lulu Bett," an especially beautiful picture of a splendid story at the Standard tomorrow night. Don't miss this one.

Miss Areta Littlejohn will soon return to University of Oregon to resume her studies. Miss Lucinda Dell will attend the University this year as a freshman. She will be accompanied next week as far as Portland by her parents.

The new pipe line laid under the Main street pavement has sprung a leak, and water is flowing into the basement of Standard Theatre basement. One hole has already been cut into the pavement and a leak stopped, however, other leaks are in evidence.

Fred Fished of Merced, California, and Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Armstrong of Seattle, were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harden, Tuesday.

Mr. Armstrong is assistant manager of the Seattle Times, and Mr. Fisher was formerly engaged in the harness business in Athena.

Miss Lillian Gerking, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Gerking, has been a patient at College Place Sanitarium part of the past week, where Dr. Watts removed her tonsils. She has returned home and with her sister, will soon leave for Spokane to attend college the coming year.

L. M. Watrus, for many years a resident of this county, living on a ranch near Adams, died Monday at Eugene. Mr. Watrus was about 80 years of age. He is survived by his widow, four sons and two daughters. Funeral services were held at Adams yesterday, interment taking place in Athena cemetery.

Miss Edna Pinkerton attended the wedding of her cousin, Miss Rena Hales, and Mr. Clifford Holdman, in Pendleton, Tuesday afternoon. The marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. George L. Clark, at the home of the bride. After a short wedding trip, the bride and groom will return to the Holdman ranch, where they will reside.

A charivari party surprised Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Stockstill and Mr. and Mrs. Glen Arbogast by calling on them unannounced, Monday night. Mr. and Mrs. Stockstill are newlyweds. Mr. and Mrs. Arbogast, former high school students here have been married several months, and reside at Ritter, Grant county. They are here on a visit to relatives.

Liquid Sunshine

We are introducing the new, modern, up-to-date way of cleaning your silver.

Simply dip all flat silver in container, stir thoroughly and wipe while damp with clean, dry cloth.

Works like magic, without labor. Attacks foreign substance only, leaving metal safe and with high polish.

Save your Silver, save time, save yourself. Use Liquid Sunshine, 40c and 65c per can.

Athena Department Store
For Lower Prices, Phone 152

Oil Grease

The Real Neatsfoot Harness Oil at

Prestbye's Service Station
"Where You and Service Meet"

Gas Accessories

Model Cleaners
and Dyers
Pendleton, Oregon

We Clean and Dye everything that is Cleanable or Dyeable. Suits made to order. Give your bundle to the Troy Laundry driver.

Service
At This Store

OUR VEGETABLES ARE FRESH AND SOUND

Eat plenty of fresh vegetables and you will be healthy and happy. Vegetables contain just the things you need to keep your system in fine working order and if you neglect it you may get all run down. Buy from us. The best vegetables on the market are forwarded to us daily. Give us your grocery order today.

THE PURE FOOD GROCERY
Quality Quantity, Service. Phone 171. Athena, Oregon

29 Years Ago

September 15, 1893.

L. A. Githens, book-keeper in Bergevin Bros. store is suffering from a severe cold.

The Butter creek farmers in Morrow county report an abundant crop of hay in their locality, which can be bought at the present time for $4 per ton.

Long Creek Eagle: Ben Carter and Norve Hamilton returned from Umatilla county last week where they have been laboring during harvest.

"There is plenty of work in that country," they said, "if a man will agree to wait for his money."

Robert McBroom, while engaged in unloading grain Tuesday on the farm of Mr. DeGraw, about three miles south of Weston, was suddenly overcome by the heat and fell to the ground in an unconscious condition.

Jack Caviness and Willie Turner of Pendleton, while out on a fishing excursion at Desolation Lake, were visited one night by a huge mountain lion. Although the brute avoided the boys it devoured a venison that the boys had killed the day previous.

John Foss will open school Monday next at the Union school house on Gerking Flat.

Mrs. Fred Rosenzweig and children returned from the mountains this week, with a bountiful supply of huckleberries.

A populist paper, the Living Issue, published at John Day City, Grant county, has suspended. Thus one by one do "the daisies" die.

The Inland Republican family are on the sick list this week and Irving McQuary came to the rescue and got out the sheet. The Press hopes that Mr. and Mrs. Hendricks will speedily recover.

Yesterday noon the Chinamen at Charley Sing's wash house became involved in a free fight, and the way "pig tails" and jargon flew in the air was a caution. They scratched, screamed, pulled hair and fought like demons.

The Churches

Baptist Services
Sunday service, 10 a. m. Special service, Rally day. Morning worship, 11 a. m. Subject, "The Word and Spirit." Evening service, 7:30 p. m. Subject, "The Justice of God."
Thursday, midweek service, 7:30 p. m.
E. B. Johnson, Pastor.

Church of Christ
Bible school, 10 a. m. Communion, 11 a. m. The subject of the morning sermon will be "The Urge of Our Convictions." The evening service will begin at 7:30 p. m. The subject of sermon, "Holding In Remembrance." All are cordially invited to worship with us.
F. E. Russell, Pastor.

Methodist Services
Rev. W. S. Payne of Weston, will conduct services at the Methodist Episcopal church in Athena, Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, a. m. All are cordially invited to attend the services.

THE STANDARD THEATRE

Saturday, September 16

MISS LULU BETT
a William deMille production
A Paramount Picture

Lois WILSON as Lulu Bett, the drudging spinster who thirsted for love

Milton SILLS as the man who picked up the pieces of Lulu's broken romance

Theodore ROBERTS as the hypocritical head of the house where Lulu made her home

Clarence BURTON as the man whom Lulu married before she learned he had another wife

Helen FERGUSON as the runaway flirt who flung a bomb at Lulu's respectability

It's a Good One

International News Two Reel Western 10c-25-35c tax included

Sunday, September 17

Bright, Clean Comedy

CARL LAEMMLE, pres.
GLADYS WALTON
WITH DAVID BUTLER in "The WISE KID"
IT'S A UNIVERSAL

A New Star

at the Standard, supported by a big company
Pathe Review. Admission, 10c-25c-35c, Tax Paid