"Over The Hill"

Miss Jessie Davis of Walla Walla was the guest this week of Miss Vida Greer at the Frank Greer country home.

Mrs. Charles M. Price has been quite ill the past week, suffering from neuritis.

Mr. and Mrs. Harve Driskell of Dayton, Wash., and Miss Bernice Fetter of Freewater were Sunday guests at the home of Mrs. William Driskell.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Woods of Lewiston, Idaho, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Bradley of Adams and Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Woods were dinner guests Monday at the R. Morrison ranch home.

Rev. John B. Coan left for Troy, Idaho, Monday for a brief visit at the home of Rev. and Mrs. I. N. Hughes. He will be accompanied on the return trip by Mrs. Coan and their two children, who have been sojourning for the past two weeks in the Hughes household.

Mr. and Mrs. John Connelly and family and Mrs. Lucy Demond of Dayton, Wash., were guests several days last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Snider.

Mrs. Lizzie Rowland of Portland arrived in town Saturday and will make an extended visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Rowland.

Eldon McIntyre left Saturday for Portland, where he will visit friends before going to Eugene to take up his school work.

Mr. and Mrs. F. N. Giles and family of Kennewick, Wash., were last week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Barney Foster.

The Misses Minnie and Helen Johnson, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Alick Johnson, are leaving this week for Eugene to attend the University of Oregon. Miss Minnie enrolls as a senior, having had two years at Seattle in the University of Washington and one at Eugene. Miss Helen, who is a recent graduate of Weston High, will become an humble freshman in the big Oregon school.

Paul Bulfinch, former Weston boy who is postmaster and also state land appraiser at American Falls, Idaho, motored over to attend the Round Up, and has been visiting his parents and friends at Weston.

Neil Graham of Reedsport, Oregon, has been renewing friendships with boyhood chums at Weston while visiting his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Barnes.

Slight showers fell in this neighborhood on Tuesday and Wednesday nights, but what the farmers are now wanting is a "soaker." Nevertheless, seeding is quite generally in progress, as farmers have begun to appreciate the advantage of getting the seed into the ground as early as possible.

The contract for roofing Fraternity hall was let by the board of managers to C. E. Fuller of Walla Walla, who began work this week. What is known as Durable roofing is used, and is guaranteed for five years. The cost of the completed job will be a little less than $300.

Miss Mildred Fanning, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Fanning, and Carl L. Johnson, elder son of Mr. and Mrs. Alick Johnson, were united in marriage in Pendleton Friday, September 24. After a brief honeymoon the happy young couple will make their home on the Alick Johnson farm near Weston, which the bridegroom is operating, together with other leased holdings, in partnership with his brother Fred. The bride is one of Weston's most popular girls and a student of Weston High. Mr. Johnson is a graduate of Weston High, and took a commercial course at a Portland business college. Both have the hearty congratulations and sincere well wishes of a host of friends in this community.

While E. E. Stanton's Dort car was being towed into Walla Walla by Andy Barnett and was in the act of crossing the street car track between Milton and Freewater, a demountable rim tire jumped off the wheel and rolled away. A stranger driving a Ford quickly stopped his car, hopped out and picked up the tire and drove off before the astonished eyes of Stanton and Barnett, who didn't even have time to get their jaws open and yell at him.

Mr. and Mrs. George Brutscher are being "welcomed home" to Weston after an absence of five years, during which time they have been residents of Newberg. George remarks that Weston looks just as good to him as an old home town can possibly look to any returning citizen after so long a stay in other climes. And he thinks the country here is more than a little bit better than any he saw while absent.

Leonard Bulfinch and Nard Jones left Wednesday for Walla Walla to matriculate at Whitman. The former will major in economics and the latter in English.

Lee M. Lamson, prominent business man of Kennewick who came here for the "spud meeting," was a guest Monday night of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Smith.

Gilbert S. Coffin, a former Weston boy who made such advancement in the profession of banking that he was appointed as federal bank examiner, was united in marriage September 8 at San Francisco to Miss Naomi Meara. The ceremony was solemnized in Grace cathedral, and Lela G. Saling sang for the wedding. Mr. and Mrs. Coffin will reside in Spokane, where the bridegroom will be stationed hereafter. He is a son of Mrs. F. H. Coffin and was born in Weston.

Lowell, the 17-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Richmond, died Tuesday at 10:30 a. m. at the family home in Walla Walla, from abscess of the liver. The funeral was held Thursday afternoon from the Richmond residence. Deceased was a student of Walla Walla High, and a young man of much promise whose untimely death is deeply deplored.

E. R. Jackman of O. A. C. and Fred Bennion, county agent, were engaged this week in completing the second field inspection of seed potatoes in the Weston mountain districts. It is expected that approximately three hundred acres, or three times the acreage of last year, will pass this inspection, and that Umatilla county will have more certified seed potatoes to market than all the rest of Oregon combined.

A noteworthy feature of the excellent exhibits of the Northwest Hay and Grain show conducted at Pendleton during Round Up week under the supervision of Fred Bennion, county agent, was the dry seed treatment demonstration. Copper carbonate is used, and this form of treatment is said to require less seed and result in 25 percent greater germination than the usual methods. Sim J. Culley of Weston is among the many Umatilla county farmers who are experimenting this fall with dry seed treatment. A wheat dusting machine, one of two shown at Pendleton, was tried out this week by Mr. Culley.

The concert to be given at Walla Walla by Miss Zilla Simpson, the gifted young singer whose girlhood years were spent at Weston, has been postponed until next Tuesday, October 3d. It will be held in Walla Walla H. S. auditorium.

The Johnson Construction Co. is making good progress with the new Pine creek road, according to members of the county court who have just visited the scene of activity. They were much impressed with the spectacular and effective manner in which the huge road-grading machine brought from Portland, scoops up the rock and dirt. The contractors say that the job will be completed before snow flies.

The fine condition of the roads offer an inducement for lovers of a buggy-ride to hitch up and take a spin.

Nelson Swaggart, a former resident of this vicinity, but now of the Willamette valley was in the city yesterday.

A reception was tendered to the teachers of the Normal school at Weston, Friday evening. Music and speeches were the features.

Tot, N. A. Miller's little child met with a painful accident last week. While riding his tricycle it ran off the side-walk, throwing him to the ground. One of the wheels struck him in his crippled leg, which swelled up and caused him much pain. The little sufferer is getting along very well at present.

Stahl, the Walla Walla brewer, was in the city Monday.

George Hansell and family left for Yoncola, Douglas county, on a visit to relatives, Monday night.

John, son of Clark Walter, living west of the city is lying dangerously ill with typhoid fever, so Dr Moffit informs us.

Jake Bloch and James Stamper went over to the Umatilla Sunday in quest of the finny tribe. Jake got hold of one that smashed his fishing tackle all to splinters.

We learn there are a number of cases of typhoid fever in the Cold Spring country. Nine men belonging to W. A. Sample's harvest crew are reported to be down with that disease.

Mrs. Jarvis Hurd and two children, returned home on Saturday evening's train from an extended visit in the east. Her brother, Mr. Taylor and a friend whose name is Page, accompanied her home.

Mrs. Willis Bush is lying very ill at home in the north part of the city with spinal meningitis. She was taken sick quite suddenly, and grew gradually worse until she became unconscious, in which state she has since remained. Her many friends hope for her immediate recovery.

High School Notes

A new set of health records has been received for the school Victrola. These records are to be used for folk dancing and physical training.

Several kindergarden chairs have been purchased for the primary room this making the primary equipment quite complete.

The teachers of the Athena public school were guests of Superintendent and Mrs. Hadley at dinner served in the Christian church Thursday evening of this week. Eleven plates were laid.

A new American flag has been purchased for Athena school. The school has been badly in need of one and as soon as it clears up, we hope to have the new flag flying overhead.

The high school coach of Athena, Mr. Basler, has scheduled two football games for the high school team. 14, and an exciting game is expected.

Hermiston has challenged the boys for Armistice day November 11. We expect the boys to go "over the top," and make all the touch downs.

The Churches

Baptist Church

Sunday school, 10 a. m. All high school students, we invite to the study of "The Book of Genesis." The first look of the Bible deals with the Creation of the Cosmos of Plant, Animals and last and greatest of all, "Man." These subjects will be studied in the light of Heathen Myths, History, Science and Revaluation. Morning worship, 11 a. m. Subject, The Fellowship of His Suffering. Evening address, 7:30 p. m. Subject, "Panoramic View of the Nations." For the next seven Sunday evenings, the Book of Daniel will be studied from the stand point of history revaluation and recent discoveries in Ancient cities.

E. B. Johnson, Pastor.
