"Over The Hill"

J. R. Barnes and family of Athena were guests yesterday of the S. A. Barnes household.

Mrs. Abbie Mays came up from Pendleton yesterday for a visit with her sisters, Mrs. Lillian McMorris and Mrs. Frances Wood.

Mrs. Ethel Root, wife of Dr. Geo. F. Root of Seattle, is here with her baby or a visit with her mother, Mrs. Iven O'Harra. A sister, Mrs. Frank Smith, came over from Walla Walla yesterday to greet the visitor.

The "big deer hunt" is planned by a sextette of Weston gunners consisting of Jess and Frank Pows, Rudolph Proebstel, Sim J. Culley, Otis Adams and Robert F. Reynolds. They are going in two cars to the north fork of the John Day Sunday for a week of sport. (Further publicity depends upon whether or not the writer gets some venison.)

Members of the Weston Stockmen's association to the number of twenty or more, headed by President J. P. Lieuallen, will assemble in Weston tomorrow for their annual convention. Dinner will be served to the visitors and a number of townsmen in the basement of the Methodist church.

Miss Mary Lansdale, formerly of Weston, had the misfortune of being the unwitting cause of the destruction by fire of the school house in which she has been teaching, six miles east of Pendleton. The school house having been raided by vandals, she determined to protect it against them by placing locks on the windows. In attempting to bore a hole with a red hot poker she started a fire inside the double walls which later burst out and consumed the little frame school house in a few minutes. The teacher's desk and records were saved and school will be held as usual in a nearby home.

Sim Barnes and Marvin Price have repainted the picture show screen at Memorial hall and "fixed it up" in a manner which indicates that they are better screen fixers than horse-shoe pitchers.

Mrs. D. F. Lavender is leaving next week for Knox county, Missouri, the early home of the Price family, to visit her two aunts and many cousins. She will stop over in Kansas City to make the acquaintance of her husband's relatives, and on her return trip will visit her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Brockman, in San Francisco. Mrs. Lavender expects to be absent about three months.

The six-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe McAllister was struck by a car in Walla Walla a few days ago and sustained a fractured collar bone and broken leg. The youngster had just been lifted out of one car by his father and was starting to school when the other car hit him. A singular feature of the case is that the surgeons have not yet been able to set the broken leg, because of the unusual strength of the little fellow's muscles. Mrs. McAllister was formerly Miss Lyette Perier of Weston, and her sister, Mrs. John Price, went to Walla Walla yesterday to visit the young patient.

Indications are that the Umatilla County Potato show at Weston October 28 will be quite a successful event. Growers of other produce besides spuds are taking an interest in the show and will help to make it attractive by exhibiting their stuff.

There will be squashes, corn, beans and grain as courtiers in the throne room of King Potato, even though these loyal minions get no prizes. At a recent meeting of Weston Commercial club, Chairman Jones appointed Marvin Price, Clifford Culley and Lester O'Harra as a club committee to assist the potato show committee in receiving and placing the exhibits.

Miss Evelyn B. Hall and Mr. Carl H. Brandt were united in marriage Wednesday, October 11, at 7 p. m. at the Methodist parsonage in Pendleton. The wedding was a quiet one, attended only by Miss Doris Hall, sister of the bride, and Mr. and Mrs. Rulon Smith. The bride is graduate of Pendleton High school, and a charming and popular member of the younger set at the county seat. The bridegroom, who holds a diploma from Weston High, is among the town's most prominent and likable young men. He is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Brandt, and follows merchandizing in the Brandt Department store. Mr. and Mrs. Brandt will make their home in Weston.

J. T. Lieuallen, substantial Adams farmer and democratic candidate for joint representative, was a visitor in Weston yesterday. "Jim" views his prospects this campaign with quite a hopeful eye, saying that his strong stand against tax-eating of every sort promises to gain him support.

C. W. Avery and T. L. McBride, who was accompanied by Mrs. McBride, left Monday for Portland to attend the grand lodge of Pythians as representatives from the local lodge. Mr. Avery will also visit his boyhood home in Corvallis.

Mrs. Nancy A. Jacobs of Portland, sole survivor of the Whitman massacre and one of the most prominent pioneer women in Oregon, was in Weston Monday, the guest of Mrs. I. E. Saling and other friends of "auld lang syne."

N. B. Foster has returned from a pleasant visit to his daughter, Mrs. Frank Bennett, at Minam, Wallowa county. He made two enjoyable trips to Wallowa lake during his stay.

Newton and Herman O'Harra have finished harvesting their bean crop from 26 acres, which yielded 100 sacks of Red Mexicans of good quality, or about 150 pounds to the acre. This is regarded as a very satisfactory crop, and permits a good profit to be made out of summer fallow ground that would otherwise lie idle.

Mr. and Mrs. George Lattin, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Warren, Mrs. Lillian McMorris, Mrs. Lilla Kirk, Mrs. W. J. Gholson and Mrs. Austin Foss comprised a party of Athena and Weston people who drove to Walla Walla Tuesday evening and heard an able lecture along Christian Science lines by Bucknell Young, C. S. B., of Chicago.

An eight-pound son was born Friday evening to Mr. and Mrs. William Fehr at their home on south Broad street.

WIFE RUINS HUBBY'S WHISKY BUSINESS

Orin Osborne, deputy county assessor, a prominent and reputedly wealthy Baker citizen, is in the county jail facing a 30-day sentence and a $500 fine. He pleaded guilty before Justice Allen on a charge of manufacturing and possessing intoxicating liquor.

His home in the fashionable north end was raided by federal prohibition agents and county authorities Saturday night and a small electrically-operated still was found. A small quantity of whisky, wine and beer was confiscated, officials said.

Mrs. Osborne, prominent local church woman, informed the authorities of the existence of her husband's still, the officials added. She is understood to have told the raiders she was tired of having the "boiler" around the house.

Mr. Osborne handed in his resignation today to Assessor Baird. It has not been acted on, Assessor Baird said.

PLANTED BERRIES IN EARS

For several years Dean Clark, a high school student of Helix, has been having trouble with his ears, says the East Oregonian. During Round-Up week he was aware that the irritation was doubly noticeable. Saturday he and his mother came to a Pendleton specialist for an examination. They were astonished when the doctor, after some careful work, extracted an allspice berry from the ear. The berry had lodged against the ear drum and was thoroughly covered with ear wax. The other ear bothered too, so the examination was extended with the result that ear No. 2 yielded berry No. 2. After the berries had been taken from his ears, young Clark recalled that he as a small child had put a berry in each ear, but he had forgotten the action long ago and thought the berries had dropped out. He is hearing much better now, and the pain is practically all gone.

Jay birds, brilliant of plumage and garrulous in disposition, are making frequent journeys to town of late, lured by toothsome morsels to be secured in friendly corn fields found at intervals throughout the vicinity.

Found—At the J. C. Penney Store, a lady's purse containing handkerchief and some money.

For Joint Senator

Umatilla, Union, Morrow Counties

Henry J. Taylor

THE name of Henry J. Taylor, pioneer farmer of Umatilla County, will be on the Democratic Ticket as a farmer candidate for Joint Senator. Mr. Taylor is a consistent advocate of and favors the strictest economy in the expenditure of the people's money and liberal support of the Public Schools. He is opposed to the

for the reason that its adoption will mean the outlay and expenditure of about $3,000,000 for additional school buildings and equipment and an annual expense for interest and maintenance of about $2,000,000 more in addition to the already intolerable load of taxes now upon us, and for the reason that it would destroy parental authority and deprive the citizens of the constitutional guarantee of religious freedom and of the right to give their children a religious education in addition to the education afforded by the public schools. A vote for Henry J. Taylor is a vote in the interest of every fireside in the Senatorial District and in the State of Oregon.
