

Press Paragraphs

Miss Charlotte Gross was in Walla Walla Sunday.

Charles Keen was in Athena yesterday from Pendleton.

Chance Rogers transacted business in Pendleton, Wednesday.

Mrs. Sims Dickenson and daughter Gladys, were in Walla Walla Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Keller and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Haynie were in Pendleton yesterday.

Mrs. B. B. Richards has received her commission to act as Notary Public for Oregon.

John Wall is home from Condon. He reports that heavy rains fell at Condon, during last week.

Cecil Shove, a former Athena boy, was in the city today from Tacoma. He is a railroad employe.

C. M. Eager is having his parking put in at his residence, corner of Fourth and Jefferson streets.

Fresh pork, spare-ribs and sausage are now in order. A number of farmers butchered hogs during the week.

Maurice Hill of Prescott, and Mrs. C. O. Whiteman of Walla Walla are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Hill.

Concrete sidewalk is being put down by Hiram Knight in front of the property between Zerba's garage and the Legion hall.

Miss Pauline Myrick came over from Walla Walla and spent the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Myrick.

A district convention of Rebekahs will be held at Milton tomorrow. Members of Mignonette Lodge of Athena, will attend.

Mrs. D. H. Sanders again owns the Athena residence she sold to W. R. Taylor. The home is located on Third street, south of Main.

In the current number of the Telephone Magazine appears the picture of Mrs. Harold Haynie, chief operator of the Athena exchange.

A turkey shoot will be held tomorrow on the Legion rifle range south of Athena. Good scores were made by some of the shooters in attendance last Sunday.

Mrs. J. F. Herr was called this week to the home of her son, Herbert, at Richland, Baker county, on account of the young man's serious illness from typhoid fever.

Athena high school football team plays Umatilla here next Friday afternoon. Thanksgiving Day Endicott Washington high school comes here to play the "turkey" game.

Farmers are encouraged with growing grain prospects since the rainfall last week. The moisture reached down to the seed with the result that a fair stand is now assured, should freezing weather hold off for a couple of weeks longer.

Mr. and Mrs. McFadden left this morning for Corvallis, where they will remain until after the Homecoming Day at O. A. C. During Mr. McFadden's absence, Fred McGrew of Weston, will be behind the prescription counter at McFadden's Pharmacy.

Mrs. M. L. Watts and daughter Veranita are pleasantly situated at Moana

Hotel Honolulu, and write Mr. Watts that they had a most pleasant ocean voyage going from San Francisco to the Islands. Excessive heat has been the only discomfort since their arrival.

The J. T. club met at the home of Mrs. William Piper, jr., west of Athena, Wednesday afternoon, and the usual pleasant time was enjoyed by those present. Guests were Mrs. William Piper, Sr., and Mrs. Fred Cross. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Taylor and Mrs. Dean Dudley.

Elmer Stockstill, employed at the Zerba garage met with a painful accident, yesterday. While engaged in mechanical work the sharp end of a file struck him in the eye. The tool cut a gash under the right eyeball. Had it struck one quarter of an inch higher, the eye would have been penetrated.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Belknap of Columbus, Ohio, are in the city visiting at the home of Mrs. Belknap's brother, H. H. Hill. Mr. Belknap has for many years been a locomotive engineer on the Pennsylvania railroad. He and his wife are en route to California, where they will spend a portion of the winter.

Mrs. H. I. Watts, president of the Civic club, and Mrs. F. B. Boyd, chairman of the Park tree committee, drove to Milton yesterday afternoon and visited the Milton Nursery Co., where trees were selected for planting in the Athena City Park. Among the selection are Carolina poplars, (which predominate,) black walnut, maple and a few other species. It is hoped to have the shipment set out before a freeze comes, and the work will be done sometime next week.

Mrs. C. H. Smith and Mrs. Omar O. Stephens were hostesses Wednesday at a one o'clock luncheon in the Elks club at Pendleton, for fifteen of their Athena friends. The list included: Mrs. H. I. Watts, Mrs. R. B. McEwen, Mrs. F. B. Radtke, Mrs. W. P. Littlejohn, Mrs. F. S. LeGrow, Mrs. F. B. Boyd, Mrs. Rex Hopper, Mrs. L. H. Basler, Mrs. Robert Proudfoot, Mrs. David T. Stone, Mrs. H. A. Barrett, Mrs. C. L. McFadden, Mrs. B. B. Richards, Mrs. Henry Dell and Mrs. F. D. Watts and hostesses. The table was centered with a bouquet of rose pink carnations and a four course luncheon served. The party motored down from Athena, and a most delightful day is reported by all.

Born, November 13, 1922, to Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Hansell, a daughter. The young lady has been named Mary Louise.

The ladies of the Missionary society of the Christian church will give a pastry sale on Saturday, November 25.

The Rebekah lodge of this city will be well represented tomorrow at the district convention of the order in Milton.

Mrs. Samuel McBride, of Startup, Wash., was in the city Monday, calling on friends. Mrs. McBride was in company with Mrs. S. A. Barnes with whom she is visiting in Weston.

Mrs. J. W. Pinkerton and Mrs. Floyd Pinkerton returned Saturday from Portland, where they attended Floyd in the Good Samaritan hospital. Late news give good reports of his condition.

F. S. LeGrow, Wednesday joined his friend, John Ankeny of Walla

Walla in a duck hunt in the Crab Creek country.

Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Smith and children, Ernest and Ruth, left early this morning by automobile for their new home at Sunnyside, Portland, where the doctor will immediately enter his practice of medicine. The family have been entertained the past week in the homes of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. McFadden and Mr. and Mrs. R. B. McEwen.

Mrs. George Brace came over from her home on the Umatilla river and spent a portion of the week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Campbell.

Owing to the absence of Mrs. Herr, the meeting of the M. E. church Missionary Society has been postponed until December 8th. The postponed meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. I. F. Davidson.

Mrs. L. L. Montague is here from Arlington, attending her mother, Mrs. S. C. Stanton, who is ill. When she recovers, Mr. Stanton will accompany her daughter home for a visit.

The members of the local American Legion Post are thankful for the assistance of all who participated in the Armistice Day program, and otherwise helped to make the occasion a success.

High School Notes

On the evening of November 24th, the Junior class will hold a pie social at the school house. There will be an interesting program and everybody is invited to come with a pie or a full pocket book. The proceeds of the sale will go to the '23 Athenian fund.

Fourteen new books have been received for the school library. There are books suited to every one's taste: Literature, Fiction, Travel, History, Readings and Drills. The books are being catalogued, ready for distribution the first of next week. This addition raises the library to one thousand eighty four volumes.

After winning the county championship, the football squad is taking a well earned rest. Their next game will be with Umatilla, Friday November 24th.

The Seniors ordered class rings last Friday. The rings will be gold with a very beautiful oval design. The word "Athena" will be engraved in raised letters on the upper part of the oval with the numerals '23 in the center, and the letters H. S. in the lower side.

Last week, being "Good Speech Week," everyone started out with a "Good English Tag." Blanche Wilson had seven tags at the end of the week which was the largest number held by any one. She received, as a prize a snap shot album.

The annual staff has let the contract for the '23 "Athenian," to the bureau of Engraving of Minneapolis. This firm puts out the much noted "Cream of Wheat" add and also, the flour add, "Eventually, Why Not Now."

26 Years Ago

John Gross and wife this week moved to a fruit farm near Milton. Rev. G. Rushing, of the Christian church, is holding meetings in La Grande, this week.

Elsworth G. Marquis and Lulu G. Watrus, both of Adams, were united in marriage at the home of G. W. Rigby, on November 12.

C. A. Barrett has been appointed sole agent for the Buffalo Pitts threshers and extras for all territory between Walla Walla and Pendleton.

Some parties who came across the Woodward road with a band of horses report five feet of snow at the toll-gate. They had a tough time getting across.

Mrs. Eivira D. Fellows, president of Rebekah assembly, for the state of Oregon, was in the city Tuesday, on an official visit to the Rebekah Lodge of Athena.

B. D. Clemons and family have removed to their residence near the chop mill.

The reading club met at the home of Mrs. J. B. Huntington, yesterday afternoon.

R. J. Slater, the La Grande attorney, has located in this city and will practice law. Mr. Slater comes highly recommended, and no doubt will derive a lucrative practice in this section. His family occupy the Lee Mitchell residence, on 5th street.

John and Alex McKay have disposed of their saloon business in Pendleton and are in the city. They contemplate going to Canada to reside.

The school entertainment at the opera house next Wednesday evening, will commence promptly at 7:30. The program will be well worth the price of admission, 10 and 15 cents.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Barger came in on Wednesday morning's passenger from Walla Walla, where they went for medical treatment for their young son, who is troubled with an abscess on the leg.

Fancy Mountain

Spuds

95c

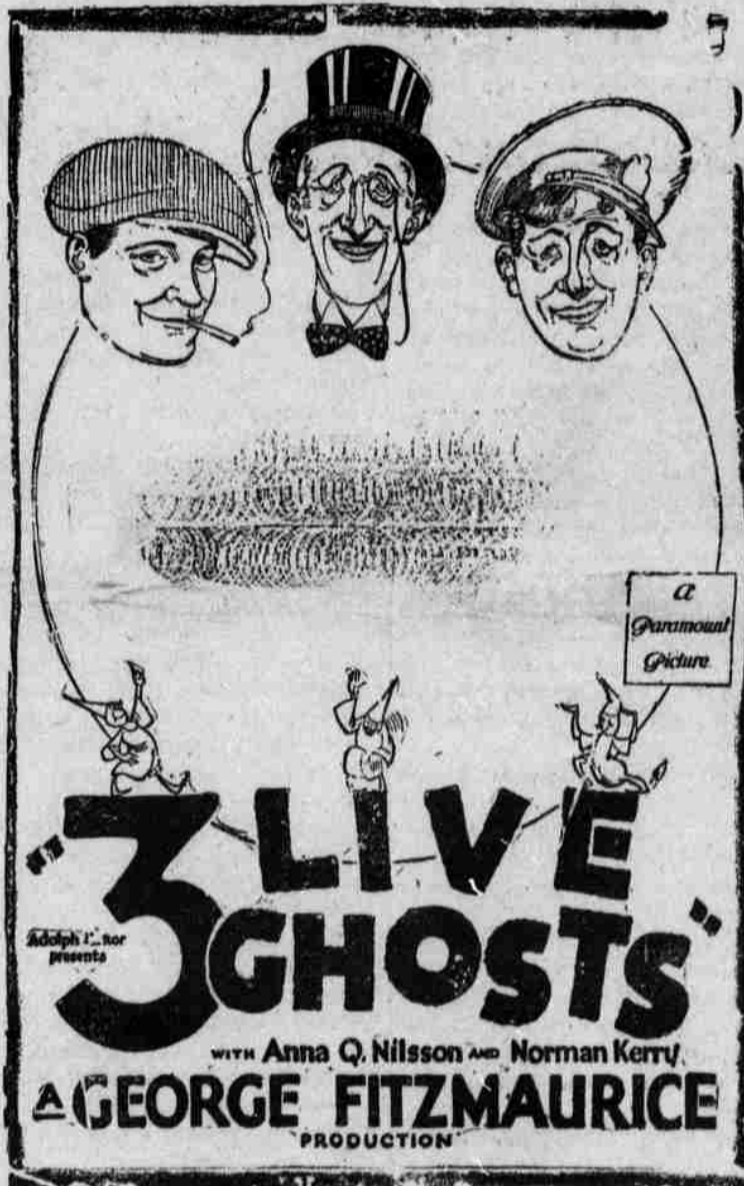

per Sack

Athena Department Store

For Lower Prices, Phone 152

THE STANDARD THEATRE

Saturday, November 18

Anna Q. Nilsson

and

Norman Kerry

International News. 2-Reel Comedy. Admission, 10c-25c-35c Tax Included

Sunday, November 19

Hoot Gibson

In

"TRIMMED"

Pathe Review.

Comedy

Admission, 10c-25c-35c, Tax Paid

Coming Thanksgiving Night

Jan

of the Big Snows

Admission 10c-25c-35c

DR. A. C. FROOM

DENTIST

Expert Crown and Bridgework. See me for free examination and estimation of price, before having your dental work done. Office next door to Hills Jewelry store, Athena.

These long winter evenings are just the time to mount the snapshots secured during your vacation.

Our line of

Photo Albums

is varied and complete. Let us help you to select the best one for your needs. Prices,

50c to $2.50

Photo Albums make ideal gifts at this season.

McFADDEN'S PHARMACY
Athena, Oregon

Made in Athena

American Beauty

Flour

per Sack

$1.65

Cash

$1.75 per Sack, on Time

Eat plenty of fresh vegetables and you will be healthy and happy. Vegetables contain just the things you need to keep your system in fine working order and if you neglect it you may get all run down. Buy from us. The best vegetables on the market are forwarded to us daily. Give us your grocery order today.

THE PURE FOOD GROCERY

Quality Quantity, Service.

Phone 171.

Athena, Oregon