

Advertising

The Athena Press circulates in the homes of readers who reside in the heart of the Great Umatilla Wheat Belt, and they have money to spend

The Athena Press

Entered at the Post Office at Athena, Oregon, as Second-Class Mail Matter

Notice!

If this notice is marked RED, it signifies that your Subscription expires with this issue. We will greatly appreciate your renewal—$2.00 per year

VOLUME XLIII.

ATHENA, UMATILLA COUNTY, OREGON, FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 24, 1922.

NUMBER 46

SPECIAL SESSION OF CONGRESS CONVENES

Consideration of Ship Subsidy Bill is Main Business Before the House.

Washington, D. C.—Congress met at noon Monday in special session called by President Harding primarily to consider the administration ship subsidy bill. With only two weeks remaining until the beginning of the regular December session, it is expected to sit continually until adjournment sine die March 3.

PACKER MERGER UP TO HARDING

Washington, D. C.—President Harding will make the final decision for the government on the proposal that Armour & Co. purchase Morris & Co., another of the "big five" Chicago packers, it was indicated in high administration circles.

NEWBERRY RESIGNS SEAT

Says He Would Be "Hampered by Partisan Political Persecution." Washington, D. C.—Truman H. Newberry of Michigan, whose right to a place in the senate has been a subject of long and bitter controversy, has submitted his resignation with a request that it become effective immediately.

Pierce Will Have No Pie Counters

Governor-Elect Pierce will not be embarrassed by the Democratic party chieftains in dispensing political pie. The Democratic party as an organization wants only to assist Mr. Pierce to make good every campaign pledge.

FARMERS, CATTLEMEN SMILING; RAIN DID IT

The rains that fell during the last several days have brought smiles to the faces of the farmers and stockmen of the Umatilla district. They are greatly pleased.

HOLLOW HEART POTATOES

Having had two carloads of potatoes shipped as U. S. 1. rejected in California and sent back because of "hollow heart," potato growers in the Yakima district have asked for an immediate official inspection to find whether any of the crop this year will grade No 1.

DUDLEY-FRIEDLY

Mr. Max Dudley, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Dudley of Athena, and Miss Jaunita Friedly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Friedly of Pendleton, were united in marriage Wednesday afternoon at three o'clock, at the home of the bride's parents.

THE STORM SATURDAY YOU KNOW HOW TIS

One of the biggest pictures in point of interest ever screened at the Standard Theatre, will be shown Sunday night, when "The Storm," Starring House Peters, supported by a brilliant cast, will be exhibited.

THANKSGIVING DAY OBSERVANCE IN ATHENA

Thanksgiving Day will be appropriately observed in Athena. In the evening there will be union services at the Baptist church. The services will be along the lines of significance of the spirit of the occasion as set down by our forefathers in observance of the day.

NEW BISHOP INSTALLED

William P. Remington, formerly bishop suffragan of Montana, Sunday was inducted into office as bishop of Eastern Oregon for the Episcopal church. Bishop Page of Seattle, president of the province of the Pacific, read the invocation service.

Voter's Edict Is Newberry Doom

Resignation of Truman H. Newberry as United States senator from Michigan is put down here as a direct election, in which most of the senators who voted for him and ran for reelection, were defeated.

GAME IS PLENTIFUL

"We could have killed a carload of deer if we had wanted to violate the law," This was the remark of J. G. White of Walla Walla, who, with his brother T. A. White, also of that city, and Dan Kinney of McMinnville, Or., returned Sunday from a hunting trip of several weeks in the Little Salmon river region of the Blue mountains.

WIND HITS COLUMBIA

Wind of such intense velocity that it tore automobile tops to ribbons was encountered by eastbound tourists on the Columbia river highway between Corbett and Crown Point, Tuesday, according to motorists. The wind was from the east. High wind has been prevailing in the Columbia river gorge for two weeks.

TWO MORE FOOTBALL GAMES SCHEDULED HERE

The two remaining football games of the season are scheduled for play on the home gridiron. This afternoon the Umatilla team meets Athena high school. Umatilla is said to be a good team, and an interesting game is anticipated.

INDIAN GIRL AT U. OF O.

Eleanor Houk of the Blackfoot tribe is the first Indian girl to attend the University of Oregon. Her home is in Browning, Mont. a small town situated a few miles from Glacier National Park. She received her grammar school education and a part of her high school education at Carlisle Pa. the largest Indian school in the United States, which was abolished by the government during the war.

VETERANS REHABILITATED

With 1154 injured World War veterans of this district rehabilitated, the Pacific Northwest of the United States Veterans Bureau leads all other districts of the country in the number of vocationally rebuilt former service people as compared with the number entering training. This announcement was made by L.C. Joseph northwest district manager of the bureau, who stated that there are 2767 others in training at the expense of the government now. Only veterans who received disabilities in war service which prevented them from resuming their pre-war vocations were awarded training.

Klan Planning Another Measure

Officers of the Ku Klux Klan announce that efforts will be made to pass a compulsory public school act in the State of Washington. Major L. I. Powell "king klegale of the Pacific domain of the K. K. K." is now in Seattle preparing for the campaign, says the Walla Walla Union. The act will be similar to the one adopted in Oregon recently.

LIVES ON 6c A DAY; SANITY EXAMINED

Because he declared that he bought all the food he needed for six cents a day, Arthur Belour was detained by Spokane police as an insanity suspect. Belour had $872.85 in his pocket when apprehended which he said was his savings as a result of frugal living.

HEARD MRS. SALING SING

Athena friends heard the beautiful voice of Lela Saling in song by radio, last night. Through courtesy of Raymond Geissel the Press family listened to Mrs. Saling's concert numbers, broadcasted from the station at Telegraph Hill, San Francisco. Her singing sounded remarkably clear and the announcer said: "Mrs. Saling hops Mr. Jesse Gordon, at Pendleton, Oregon, Miss Helen Worthington, at Portland, Oregon, and others are enjoying her singing tonight."

GREAT NORTHERN OPPOSES DIVORCE

Continuation of Present Relations With Burlington Is Desired. Washington, D. C.—Ralph Budd, president of the Great Northern railway, attacked the selection of the Great Northern by the interstate commerce commission as the road to be divorced from the Burlington in the proposed consolidation of northwest roads.

CLEMENCEAU GREETED WITH HIGH HONORS

New York.—Georges Clemenceau, war-time premier of France, came to America Saturday on a mission of peace. The fiery old tiger earnestly voiced the purpose of his tour in a brief response at city hall to an address of welcome by Acting Mayor Hulbert.

PERSHING TELLS WAR PLANS

Government Control of All Resources in Event of Conflict Contemplated. New York.—National defense plans of the war department contemplate governmental control of the entire resources of the country under "an efficiency council, or board of control." General Pershing announced here at Madison Square Garden before the Merchants' association of New York.

Legislative Mill Opens Up

KEEPING DRY IS JOB

The biggest job of the prohibition workers is to hold on to prohibition, Miss Agnes E. Slack of England declared in an address before the national convention of the Women's Christian Temperance Union. Miss Slack, honorary secretary of the world union and an English delegate to the convention urged the continuation of hard work because she said the entire world movement hinged upon its success in the United States.

Washington, D. C.—Prices of potatoes have reached the bottom, according to the department of agriculture averaging only 20 to 30 cents a bushel to growers in the West and ranging from 40 to 50 cents a bushel at eastern shipping points. Some western farmers are giving potatoes away to anyone who will dig them and others will not dig them.