

Press Paragraphs

Cecil Hyatt of Weston was in Athena, Tuesday.

Ira Henderson of Weston was in Athena Tuesday.

Rufard Price of Weston was in Athena, Tuesday.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. John Stackley, November 25, 1922 a son.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hyatt of Weston, were in Athena Tuesday.

Chance Rogers is in Portland this week on a business mission.

M. W. Hansell made a business trip to Odessa and Spokane this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Bergevin were Pendleton visitors, Wednesday.

A white Thanksgiving betokens a healthy winter—let it be hoped.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray May of Weston were Athena shoppers, Wednesday.

Whitman defeated Montana, Saturday on Ankeny Field, by the score of 13 to 0.

Sam Booher is home from Condon, where he has been employed for several months.

Miss Maebelle Duncan is in training for a professional nurse at Good Samaritan hospital, Portland.

The Christian Missionary society will meet next Wednesday, December 6 at the home of Mrs. F. B. Boyd.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Baker of Reith, were Thanksgiving Day guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Anderson.

Mr. and Mrs. P. T. Hales of Pendleton were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Pinkerton.

Mrs. Center of Walla Walla, was a guest during the week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. S. LeGrow on Fifth street.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Basler left Wednesday in their Ford car for a visit with relatives at Salem and other valley points.

N. A. Miller, undertaker, has purchased an auto hearse. Art Shick left today for Umatilla, to drive the machine to Athena.

John Froome was in Waitsburg, yesterday, attending his brother's funeral, and was accompanied by a number of friends from Pendleton.

Ralph McEwen is in Portland this week, where he was called on business and incidentally had Thanksgiving dinner with his mother and sisters.

It is reported the health of Mrs. S. C. Stanton who accompanied her daughter, Mrs. Montague, to her home in Arlington, is about the same as when she left Athena.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Booher and children have been visiting relatives and friends in Athena this week. After losing their home and contents by fire several months ago, Mr. and Mrs. Booher left Condon and moved to Baker, where Mr. Booher is employed in a sawmill.

Superintendent Hadley of the Athena schools has returned from Portland, where he was called last week on the account of his father's serious illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Proudfit and daughter Mary, were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Cornwell, of Walla Walla, Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. McFadden are home from their visit to Corvallis and Portland. Mr. McFadden says the University of Oregon-O. A. C. football game was a hum-dinger—after the first ten minutes of play.

Radios operated by C. M. Eager and R. A. Thompson have been equipped with amplifiers. The improvement is appreciated by large numbers of Athena friends who delight in listening to nightly concerts.

Word has been received by Athena relatives that Eugene Stanton is at Mayo Brothers sanitarium, Rochester, Minn., where he is to be treated for ulcers of the stomach.

Patrons and guests of the St. Nicholas hotel were served yesterday with a splendid Thanksgiving dinner, the turkey with all its accessories being prepared to the queen's taste.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dell are in Portland, where they spent Thanksgiving at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Koontz. Miss Lucinda Dell came up from U. of O. and met her parents in Portland.

Mrs. A. C. Froom, who has returned from British Columbia, where she and Mr. Froom are making a farm home, brought with her a splendid lot of pictures of the new home and surroundings.

The O. D. O. club met at the home of Mrs. Lovick Shangle in Milton, Wednesday of last week. After pleasantly spending the afternoon in sewing, a delicious luncheon was served by the hostess.

The many friends of Mrs. M. M. Johns are sorry to learn that she will not return to Athena this winter, but will remain in Portland to receive medical attention. She is at the home of her niece, Mrs. John Rowland, 550 Tillamook street.

It is reported that "The Athena Hog Association" has gone out of business. This week the members of the association butchered the capital stock and the dividends are hanging up in several different woodsheds around town. The association was a success as long as the hog feed held out, it is reported, but when the source was cut off, it was soon found that Zerolene and water was a d-n poor substitute!

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Wood entertained the members of the high school football team at their home west of Athena, Saturday evening. At six o'clock the boys sat down to a fine banquet dinner, after which a number of young ladies came in and the evening was pleasantly spent, socially.

The highway north of Weston at one place was responsible for four automobiles going into the ditch when the cars struck a sheet of ice, covering the pavement. One man came out of a wreck there with a broken leg, and other passengers were more or less bruised.

Last Saturday was an event in the history of the Sunday school class of boys taught by George R. Gerking, when he gave them an outdoor dinner at his home west of town. Eighteen youngsters were conveyed from town and enjoyed to the full the spread of baked bean, weinies etc. that made up the feast. Games and outdoor sports made up the days program.

Mrs. E. A. Dudley is enjoying a visit with her sister, Mrs. Seeley, the wife of Captain Seeley, of Coos Bay. Captain Seeley, who is a well known navigator of Pacific waters, recently had his first accident when his vessel was driven upon rocks and nearly wrecked, during a storm on Coos Bay. He is expected to join his wife here during the week at the Dudley home.

Next Tuesday Mrs. H. I. Watts will be hostess to the Civic club at her home on south 3rd street. Members are asked to bring each material for two aprons. The afternoon will be spent in making these garments for a sale to be held in the near future, in conjunction with a waffle supper, and the date and place will be chosen on that day.

Dr. S. F. Sharp became suddenly ill Wednesday, and was taken to the hospital at Pendleton, for treatment. For a time his condition was considered serious, but at present he is said to be much better. He was stricken with bladder trouble, an ailment from which the veteran physician suffered on a previous occasion, several years ago.

The ladies aid society of the Christian church have set Saturday, December 16 as the date of their annual bazar and chicken dinner, to take place in the dining room of their church building. Bed quilts and comforters, and various articles suitable for Christmas gifts will be on sale. A splendid six o'clock dinner with chicken and all its accompaniments, such as these ladies are famed for will be served. Further notice of the annual event will be given next week.

The J. T. club met at the home of Mrs. Eugene Schimpf last Wednesday. The afternoon was spent at needle work. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Bert Logsdon and Mrs. Jesse Myrick. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Grant Presthly Wednesday, December 13. As there is important matters to discuss, the attendance of all members is desired.

Mrs. R. B. McEwen was hostess Tuesday afternoon at her home on College and 6th streets, to the Star club, for its last meeting until after the New Year. The rooms were aglow with yellow chrysanthemums, and the afternoon was spent cozily in sewing. An appetizing lunch of individual mince pies and coffee was served before the guests departed. Visitors, besides club members were: Mrs. Chas. Norris, Mrs. D. T. Stone and Mrs. D. S. Fisher.

A very pleasant surprise party was given at the Pine Creek home of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Catron last Saturday night. Several car loads of friends with well filled baskets arrived unannounced, and the evening was made merry with cards and dancing. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Carris, Mr. and Mrs. James Rielly of Walla Walla were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Catron.

Cold Weather Snaps

One Lot Dress Goods, 75c to 1.50 per yd. 25c
 Thirty oz. All Wool Army Overcoats 4.89
 All Wool Army Stag Shirts 4.98
 All Wool Army Blankets 2.49
 All Wool Army Shirts, new, 3.49
 Army Belts 19c
 44x72 Nashua Blanket 1.49
 Bib Overalls per pair 95c and 1.39
 Engineers and Firemans Hose 19c
 Mens Wool Shirts, grey, size 15 to 17 1.95

Athena Department Store
 For Lower Prices, Phone 152

THE STANDARD THEATRE

Saturday, December 2

Wallie
 at his Best

International News. 2-Reel Comedy Admission, 10c-25c-35c Tax Included

Sunday, December 3

Second Hand Rose

Gladys Walton in Refined Comedy
 Don't Miss It

Pathe Review. Comedy Admission, 10c-25c-35c, Tax Paid

Wednesday, December 6

Prisoner of Zenda

Admission 10c-25c-35c

Xmas Cards

Make your selection while stock is complete

Prices
 5c to 50c

McFADDEN'S PHARMACY
 Athena, Oregon

Made in Athena

American Beauty Flour

per Sack

$1.65

Cash

$1.75 per Sack, on Time

Eat plenty of fresh vegetables and you will be healthy and happy. Vegetables contain just the things you need to keep your system in fine working order and if you neglect it you may get all run down. Buy from us. The best vegetables on the market are forwarded to us daily. Give us your grocery order today.

THE PURE FOOD GROCERY

Quality Quantity, Service. Phone 171. Athena, Oregon

Neighborhood News

Spring Hollow

The proceeds of the basket social held at the school house Friday night were fifty-nine dollars. This money is the beginning of a piano fund for the school.

Misses Alice and Margaret Neeley of Walla Walla, Miss Blanche Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. Percy Wilson were Thanksgiving dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Pambrun.

Thanksgiving dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Betts were Mr. and Mrs. J. Duncan and Ernest, Mr. and Mrs. Hadley and Miss Morgan.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Pambrun were Walla Walla visitors Friday.

26 Years Ago

Winter is with us in all her glory. Deputy Sheriff Kimberk was in town Monday.

Jabez Cresswell, an Oregon pioneer, died in Pendleton Friday night.

Jay Saling has moved his family to Athena, and occupies the Post house.

Many of our young people enjoy the exhilarating pleasure of sleigh-riding this week.

Chas. Stansell spent Thanksgiving in Athena, with relatives and friends. Charlie is employed in Pendleton.

The snow fall at Walla Walla during November has been 5 1/2 inches, exceeding the snow fall for that month during any year since 1886.

The Ladies' Reading Circle met at the home of Mrs. J. W. Smith yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Lake France entertained the circle, Wednesday of last week.

M. A. Baker of Weston, has a self-registering government thermometer at his home. The lowest point registered was 7 degrees below zero, and was on Thursday night of last week.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Johnson, died at their home on Tuesday. The little one was laid to rest in the Athena cemetery Wednesday afternoon.

Last week's Weston Leader boasted of 4 hogs that when dressed, weighed 1112 pounds. Johnny Froome, of Athena, without trying, beats it easily with 3 dressed porkers, which tipped the scales at 1140 pounds; beating the Weston record 28 pounds, with one hog less.

Tom Montgomery, a well known young man of Helix, left this week for Portland, where he will take a course in a business college.

William Roberts and William Hale, Stage Gulch farmers, have been stuffing a Pendleton paper as to how they slaughter wild geese in their fields. Roberts tickled the reporters ear with the tale of having rolled down hill into a flock of geese and picked up 25. Hales story is not so modest. He used a salmon net, and 125 geese became fast in its meshes.