

Press Paragraphs

"Human Hearts"
A story the whole world Loves. Standard, Christmas night.
Charles Rose was over from Weston, Tuesday.
Fred Pitman of Weston, was in Athena Tuesday.
Mrs Andy Rothrock was a Pendleton visitor Tuesday.
John Hyatt of Weston, spent the day in Athena Tuesday.
Misses Joyce Johnston and Mildred Stanton were in Pendleton, Saturday.
J. H. Samuels is employed temporarily at Haynie's grocery store.
Mr. and Mrs. Hamp Booher of West-ton, were in Athena, Wednesday.
Mr. and Mrs. Robert Proudfit and daughter were in Walla Walla, Saturday.

Miss Hazel Sanders is home from O. A. C. for the holiday vacation period.
Mr. and Mrs. Robert Raymond were in the city this week from Prineville.
Dr. Watts and son Worth were in Athena from Pendleton a short time Tuesday.
Mr. and Mrs. McCorkell of Reed and Hawley Mountain, were in Athena, Saturday.
Lucinda Dell is home from University of Oregon, to spend the holidays at her home here.
Alex McCorkel and William Purcell of Weston, transacted business in Athena, Wednesday.
Born at College Place sanitorium, December 20, 1922, to Mr. and Mrs.
Harry Keller, a daughter.

Miss Kathren Froome arrived home the first of the week from O. A. C. for the Christmas vacation.
Mrs. Lloyd Michener is employed in the J. C. Penny company store during the rush of the holiday trade.
E. C. Prestbye is the local representative for "Three-in-One" life insurance. See him about it.
A number of rooters accompanied the basketball team to Adams, for the game played Tuesday evening.
French Criglar came over from his home at Frecwater to attend the funeral Wednesday, of the late H. P. Millen.
Alf. Coppock and family were down from Colfax, over the week end. They were called here by the death of his sister.
Miss Marquerite Raymond, of Portland, was in the city Saturday attending the funeral of her aunt, Miss Mattie Coppock.
Miss Maude Sherman will arrive home tomorrow from Philamoth, where she is teaching the primary department in the school.
The chinook which began Tuesday, took practically all of the snow and the grain fields are now exposed to freezing weather conditions.
A. M. Meldrum of Spokane, formerly pastor of the Christian church of this city was here this week in the interest of Spokane University.
Mrs. Charley Vaughn is here from Pendleton, visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. James Huggins. She will remain until after the holidays.
A number of farmers have killed their hogs this week, and brought the meat to Bert Logsdons meat market where it will be cured for them.
Tomorrow night the Legion Post will give its dance at Legion Hall.
As this is the holiday dance, a large crowd is expected to be in attendance.
All who contemplate participating in Christmas coral singing, including members of the Etude Club, will meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Proudfit.
Wednesday with the assistance of the chinook, the county road equipment succeeded in making the highway passable between Athena and Weston.
Mr. and Mrs. Bert Ramsey and daughter, Mrs. Penn Harris, returned Tuesday evening from Portland. A couple of fine Persian cats accompanied the party home.
Mr. and Mrs. R. B. McEwen were guests at a University of Oregon alumni banquet at Pendleton Wednesday evening, where Mrs. McEwen was one of the speakers.
Miss Doris Thompson arrived yesterday from Salem, where she is living with her aunt, Mrs. Merle Roby, and attending high school, and will spend the holidays with her parents here.
Mrs. Dessa Nordean of Loon Lake
Washington, and Mrs. Della Booher of Condon, are in the city, and will spend the holidays at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Russell.
Charles Norris is recovering from a surgical operation performed for relief from hernia. During Mr. Norris' enforced absence from his harness shop, Mrs. Norris is attending to business.
Wayne, the little son of Mrs. Ida Babister, was seriously injured one day this week, while coasting on the Weston hill. The lad remained unconscious for several hours after being hurt.

The total amount clear from the recent apron sale and waffle supper given by the Civic club is reported at $50. In last week's issue in reporting donations to the supper, the names of Preston Shaffer Mill company for flour, and Mrs. C. A. Barrett and Mrs. C. M. Eager for milk, were inadvertently omitted. For these and several other minor donations, the club is grateful.
A number of members of Pythian Lodge No. 29, K. of P. attended an interesting meeting of Damon Lodge at Pendleton, Wednesday evening.
Officers of the Supreme and Grand Lodges were present, and the Bible used by Rathbone in the organization of the order was used in initiatory work.
A good sized audience was present at the Christian church, Friday evening, when Dr. Burger lectured on the organization and purposes of the Ku Klux Klan. Dr. Burger's address is spoken of by those who heard it, as being a masterly one.
Sleighs were requisitioned to convey a goodly number of people to the cemetery Wednesday, when the funeral of the late H. P. Millen was held.
Automobile conveyance was absolutely out of the question on account of soft deep snow in places on the highway.
Dorwan Phillips circulated a subscription paper this week, soliciting funds for the purpose of assisting the Baptist church in financing the yearly salary of its pastor. Mr. Phillips, who recently became a member of the church, was successful beyond his expectations.
Dr. S. F. Sharp has so far recovered from his recent illness that he was able to be removed from the hospital at Pendleton, to his home in Athena.
The doctor is slowly regaining his health, although at this time he is very weak. He was brought to his home here, yesterday.
Mr. and Mrs. Ross Catron were up from their ranch in the basin, northwest of Athena, Tuesday morning.
Mrs. Catron is partial to her flock of Rhode Island Red pullets over any other variety. She is gathering eggs for market this winter.
The manager of the Standard Theatre takes pleasure in recommending the next two pictures to be screened there, "Beyond the Rocks" and "Human Hearts," as being among the best produced by Paramount and Universal this year.
The conditions of the roads were such the fore part of the week that country people were unable to come to town to do their holiday trading.
However, the roads are in passable shape now, and merchants report brisk trade.
J. E. Jones, rural mail carrier, reports that he has seen large numbers of Chinese pheasants feeding at places along his route. The birds, so far this winter, have had plenty of food in the fields.
Mrs. Chester McCollough is here from Tekoa, Washington, visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs.
John Harden. Mrs. McCollough came here to attend the funeral of the late H. P. Millen.
Mrs. McSherry, has returned to her home in Tacoma. She remained here until the condition of her father, Dr.
S. F. Sharp, took a turn toward improvement.
Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Read are at the home of Robert Coppock, Mrs. Read's father, in Athena, for the winter.
A large number of Christmas trees have been sold by the Pure Food grocery, during the last few days.
The members of the Pendleton basketball team attended the school play at the auditorium, last night.
Mrs. O. O. Stephens visited at the home of her mother, Mrs. Kimball, in Pendleton, one day this week.
Miss Areta Littlejohn will arrive home tomorrow from University of Oregon to spend the holidays with her parents.
The Weston school was well represented at the play last night by the attendance of a large number of students.
Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Lieuallen jr., of Adams were in Athena, Monday.

Xmas Candy and Nuts

Our line of Christmas Candy and Nuts is complete Note the Special Xmas Prices

Candies

Mixed Candy, per lb.	16c, 20c, 22c, 25c
Extra Fancy Hand Made French Bon Bons, per lb.	39c
Thompson's Leader Chocolates, per lb.	25c
Thompson's Dandy Chocolates, per lb.	35c
Thompson's High Grade Chocolates, per lb.	50c

Nuts

Fancy New Brazil Nuts, five lbs.	$1.00
Large Fancy Filberts, four lbs.	$1.00
Soft Shelled Almonds, three lbs.	$1.00
Large No. 1 Soft Shell Walnuts, three lbs.	$1.00

5 per cent Discount for Cash

Athena Department Store

For Lower Prices, Phone 152

Holiday Greetings

from

The Quality Store
of Portland, Oregon

Genuine Pleasure

Long After Other Gifts
Are Discarded

Perfumes, Toilet Articles Stationery and White Ivory, Perfumes, Domestic and imported stock, the most complete to be found anywhere.

Toilet Goods

That lend youth and beauty. Various makes.

Stationery

The kind that denotes refinement and good taste.

White Ivory

Every article is grained and finished from the tusks of some great elephant, so perfectly that it seems to come only

McFADDEN'S PHARMACY
Athena, Oregon

xmas
Joy

depends to a great extent on Christmas cheer Our Holiday Goods this year are not limited to good things to eat

We Have Toys

THE PURE FOOD GROCERY

Quality Quantity, Service.

Phone 171.

Athena, Oregon

Miss Marquerite Raymond, of Portland, was in the city Saturday attending the funeral of her aunt, Miss Mattie Coppock.
Miss Maude Sherman will arrive
home tomorrow from Philamoth,
where she is teaching the primary
department in the school.
The chinook which began Tuesday,
took practically all of the snow and
the grain fields are now exposed to
freezing weather conditions.
A. M. Meldrum of Spokane, formerly pastor of the Christian church of this city was here this week in the interest of Spokane University.
Mrs. Charley Vaughn is here from Pendleton, visiting her parents Mr.
and Mrs. James Huggins. She will
remain until after the holidays.
A number of farmers have killed
their hogs this week, and brought
the meat to Bert Logsdons meat market where it will be cured for them.
Tomorrow night the Legion Post
will give its dance at Legion Hall.
As this is the holiday dance, a large crowd is expected to be in attendance.
All who contemplate participating
in Christmas coral singing, including
members of the Etude Club, will meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Proudfit.
Wednesday with the assistance of
the chinook, the county road equipment succeeded in making the highway passable between Athena and Weston.
Mr. and Mrs. Bert Ramsey and
daughter, Mrs. Penn Harris, returned Tuesday evening from Portland. A couple of fine Persian cats accompanied the party home.
Mr. and Mrs. R. B. McEwen were guests at a University of Oregon
alumni banquet at Pendleton Wednesday evening, where Mrs. McEwen
was one of the speakers.
Miss Doris Thompson arrived yesterday from Salem, where she is living with her aunt, Mrs. Merle Roby, and attending high school, and will spend the holidays with her parents
here.
Mrs. Dessa Nordean of Loon Lake
Washington, and Mrs. Della Booher
of Condon, are in the city, and will spend the holidays at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Russell.
Charles Norris is recovering from
a surgical operation performed for relief from hernia. During Mr. Norris'
enforced absence from his harness
shop, Mrs. Norris is attending to business.
Wayne, the little son of Mrs. Ida Babister, was seriously injured one
day this week, while coasting on the Weston hill. The lad remained un-

THE STANDARD THEATRE

Saturday, December 23

"Beyond the Rocks"

Featuring

Gloria Swanson and Valentino

International News. 2-Reel Comedy Admission, 10c-25c-35c Tax Included

CHRISTMAS NIGHT

House Peters

Edith Hallor, Gertrude Claire, Mary Philbin, Russell Simpson, Ramsey Wallace, Geo. Hackathorne IN A STUPENDOUS DRAMA OF LIFE

"Human Hearts"

Dedicated to the Mothers of The World by Carl Laemmle
Directed by King Baggot

Pathe Review.

Comedy

Admission, 10c-35c-50c, Tax Paid

The Churches

BAPTIST CHURCH
Progressive sermon, Sunday, at 11 A. M. Evening address, "Why Were the Wise Men Wise?" 7:30. All welcome.
E. B. Johnson, Pastor.

CARD OF THANKS

To all those who rendered assistance in any way for the beautiful floral offerings, and for the expressions of sympathy during our recent bereavement, we extend our heartfelt appreciation and thanks.

And may kind hands be extended to you when your hours of sorrow come.
Robert Coppock and family.

CARD OF THANKS

To all, and especially the Knights of Pythias lodge, who so kindly assisted us and extended sympathy during the illness and death of Mr. Millen, we express our sincere thanks.
Mr. and Mrs. Harden and family,