

ATHENA HIGH SCHOOL WIN FROM UMAPINE AND ADAMS

The boy's team of Athena high school won two games in the scholastic conference the past week, by winning from Umapine and Adams. The Athena girls' team lost to the Umapine girls, by the score of 19 to 10.

The Umapine boys' game was rather one-sided the score being Athena, 20; Umapine, 5. However, some good basketball was played. The Athena team developed some clever passing and was strong on defense.

Adams was defeated in her new gymnasium Tuesday evening by the close score of 20-17 in one of the fastest and best played school games of the year.

The score at the end of the first quarter was 6-2 in favor of Athena, at the end of the half 12-9 still in Athena's favor. A rally in the last five minutes netted Athena five points and gave her the lead that won the game. As a preliminary, Mr. Miller's second team was defeated 7-2 by the Adams grades. This was one of the best "little" games staged this year.

A doubleheader will be played tonight on the Athena floor between Athena and Helix boys and girls' teams.

GOOD WEATHER CONTINUES

Farmers in this section are rejoicing over the abundant moisture as the result of recent rains. Those farming the lighter soil are already plowing and sowing spring grain; while others are overhauling machinery preparatory to the spring cultivating. The fall wheat is making a wonderful growth due to perfect weather conditions; bright sunshine interspersed with showers. A few ambitious gardeners are already laying off the home plots, studying seed catalogues besides.

PRIZES AT STEVE'S

The Pure Food Grocery store was filled with people after the theatre closed Saturday evening, when the drawing for prizes was made. Delbert Crimmins held the lucky ticket which drew the first prize, a beautiful blanket. H. J. Cunningham drew the second prize, the 41-piece set of dishes. O. E. Lee drew the basket of Heinz' assorted products, the third prize.

CHARLIE CHAPLIN COMING WITH "THE GOLD RUSH"

For two nights next week, Wednesday and Thursday, the Standard Theatre patrons will have the pleasure of seeing Charlie Chaplin in his latest big super comedy, "The Gold Rush." Wherever this photoplay has been seen in the big theatres it has been acclaimed the greatest that Chaplin has ever produced, and without exception, it has been held over for from one to two weeks extra showings.

A number of Athena theatre-goers have seen it, and all pronounce it to be a wonderfully entertaining picture. The Standard is one of the first small theatres to book "The Gold Rush." In order that the entire community may see it from good seats, "The Gold Rush" has been booked for two nights.

Tomorrow night one of the most talked of pictures of the year, "The Unholy Three," will be presented by Metro-Goldwyn at the Standard. Lon Chaney leads the cast in a mystery play which involves the criminal code of a circus trio of crooks, including a hercules, a dwarf and a giant. Sunday night is given over to a fine Paramount picture, Jack London's "Adventure," famous as a novel, wonderful as a photoplay.

WESTON AT KOWW

Athena radios were tuned in on KOWW station at Walla Walla, Wednesday evening, and radio parties heard with much pleasure the broadcasting of the Weston community program. Payant's orchestra selections, the numbers sang by the double quartet, vocal solos by Anna Compton Winn and Virgil P. Cassidy, the talk on the Weston country by C. F. Overhulse, and the fiddling by Jim Ashworth, were the outstanding features of a splendidly rendered program.

MACK SWAIN

Mack Swain, who plays the part of Big Jim McKay, opposite Charlie Chaplin in "The Gold Rush," will be remembered by a number of Athena people. Several years ago, Mr. and Mrs. Swain came to Athena with a stranded theatrical troupe they put on a local show here, and after going to Seattle, reimbursed new found friends here for obligations incurred. On the stage, Swain eventually became successful, later going into screen comedy work.

22 Years Ago

W. T. Rigby is one of the unfortunate that has been caught in the meshes of the Wade failure. He purchased a ranch of Wade, located in the Grand Ronde valley, for which he gave notes for $35,000. Later he paid in $16,800. Wade, previous to this payment had pledged the notes to other parties, and of course did not cancel the notes, but used the money in his own interests. Now Mr. Rigby will have to pay this amount over again and may lose the property mixed up in the deal.

Jim Joshua, one of the best known of the Umatilla Indians, suicided at his home near Thorn Hollow Monday morning. He used a Winchester rifle and sent two bullets into his body, one in his breast and the other in his head. Joshua was one of the brightest and also one of the most conscientious Indians of the tribe, and was considered honest in his dealings. Domestic troubles are said to have caused the deed, and his suicide is said to be the second committed on the reservation in 35 years. Joshua's funeral took place Wednesday.

Mrs. Austin Foss, Misses Nellie Foss, Bethene Swaggart, Lizzie McIntyre, Elida Stackland, Lizzie McKenzie, and Messrs. James Foss, Ora Rhodes and numerous others returned from Pendleton the first of the week, where they attended the Christian Endeavor convention.

R. Burns, general agent for the O. R. & N. Company was in the city Monday. Mr. Burns is a baseball fan of the true blue order and stands ready to lease the Walla Walla grounds, in event Pendleton and Athena organize teams for this year. Mr. Burns is no friend to the league proposition, and favors strictly local talent, with the possible exception of pitchers and catchers.

The wooden buildings at the corner of Main and Fourth streets are being removed for the purpose of making room for the new bank building. The rooms formerly occupied by the Davis shoe shop are being torn down and the photograph gallery will be moved to the lot back of the St. Nichols hotel, on Third street.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Edward Taylor, February 19, 1904, a son. The old "Corner" landmark has disappeared, and excavation for the Stahl building will commence at once.

A. B. McEwen, G. W. Gross and William Tompkins, on Wednesday drove out to the farm of the late Angus McDonald, on Couse creek, and appraised the estate at $11,226.35. They were accompanied by H. O. Worthington, administrator of the estate.

Athena continues to contribute to Alberta investments. Sunday Nick Taitinger, John McIntyre and other land seekers, left for the north country.

Born, February 20, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Tompkins, in this city, to the wife of James Woodruff, a daughter. Mr. and Mrs. Woodruff reside in Sand Hollow.

Charley Brown has been conducting mining operations on Main street this week. It is said Charley panned out a few "colors" on the old "Corner" saloon site.

Rupture Shield Expert Coming to Pendleton

Monday, Tuesday March 1 and 2 at

Dorion Hotel

from 10 a. m. to 4 p. m. Evenings by Appointment

Two Days Only

Returning Every Six Months

(No Charge for Consultation)

Mr. C. F. Redlich, the successful expert says:

"The Perfect Retention Shields," hold the rupture perfectly no matter what position the body assumes or how heavy a weight you lift. They give instant relief, contract the opening on the average case in ten days and strengthen the weak tissues (the real cause of rupture) so that they frequently recover their previous natural retaining power needing no further outside support.

While providing safety and comfort to all old and aggravated cases, the results are most favorable when the rupture is just discovered and still small; it will save you no end of trouble, pain and expenses in the future if you now take advantage of this opportunity. No leg straps or elastic bandages are used. Can be worn while bathing.

Letters from highly satisfied clients available. WARNING: Never wear old-fashioned trusses or elastic bandages with chafing, filthy leg straps, with worthless guarantees and medicines sold by mail. They never hold the rupture at the right place, thereby making it worse and expose the wearer to often fatal strangulation necessitating immediate operation. Let me explain this personally; it costs you nothing.

85 per cent of all children, according to statistics, get rid of their ruptures if fitted with the right kind of sanitary appliance.

No children below 18 months nor ladies accepted on this trip. Business engagements prevent visiting any other city in this section. C. F. Redlich, Rupture Appliance Expert, Home Office, 535 Boston Block, Minneapolis, Minnesota.

Kural England in 1825 Had Little Over China

The Chinese minister of communications sent from Peking a long cablegram of poetic prose felicitating the managers of the Darlington railway exhibition in England on their centennial of George Stephenson's "Locomotion No. 7."

Unless the railway track was laid over the graves of ancestors in an inland province, the spectacle of the puffing monster, once regarded as first cousin to the earth-dragon, would excite far less confusion in the celestial republic today than it did among the honest English yokels of Stephenson's era.

Then, according to contemporary report, "in many bosoms the arrival caused the greatest consternation. They fled in abject terror, many hiding themselves in the church, others seeking consolation in the bottle, while some of the more courageous climbed into trees and at a safe distance from the monster's claws watched it pass."

Reading that account one is inclined to believe that Europe in 1825 was not many leagues in advance of the cycle of Cathay, remarks the Philadelphia Ledger.

Efforts to Ditch N. P. Train Falls

Kelso, Wash. — Northern Pacific passenger train No. 403, northbound, narrowly escaped wrecking Sunday morning about 11 o'clock when it struck a tie and several rocks, which had been piled onto the track in a rock cut on the Lewis place, six miles north of Castle Rock. The attempt to wreck the train is believed to have been the work of a maniac or of some person who had a fancied grievance against the railway company.

"You have got to have a plow!"

"The pick and shovel never built up a country; you have got to have a plow."

The wagon train divides in the desert. One branch bearing of gold in California rushes southwest across the mountains; the main train continues northwestward to Oregon.

At this dramatic point in the film version of Emerson Hough's great story "The Covered Wagon," the old leader of the Oregon train gazes fondly upon his plow which he hopes soon to sink into Oregon soil. He is not distracted by thoughts of California gold. "The pick and shovel never built up a country," he says. "You have got to have a plow."

Since the days of the pioneers of "The Covered Wagon" Oliver plows have been helping build up this country. Sturdy and practical, three generations of American farmers have depended on them to prepare the land. As new methods in construction and improved methods of agriculture were discovered, Oliver quickly put them to the test and passed on to users of Oliver plows the most up to date implements.

You have got to have a plow. This is just as true today as in the days of which Emerson Hough wrote in "The Covered Wagon." Modern Oliver plows and tillage tools assure their users today largest possible yields as did their predecessors of an earlier day.
