Ora Rhodes left yesterday for his homestead, and will be absent from his place in the Fair store for the period of a month. His duties there will be attended by Mr. Otto Cannon, a former popular Fair clerk. Mr. and Mrs. James Haworth accompany Ora to his ranch. He orders the Press sent to Madras, Crook county, for the present.

Bids were opened Saturday afternoon for the construction of the new bank building at the corner of Main and Fourth street. Ed Barrett was the successful bidder, and when completed the building will cost about $5,000. The front will be of pressed brick and a cement walk will be put in. The first load of brick was hauled yesterday from Weston by Joe Banister.

The little son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brotherton, who was scalded by falling in hot water last week, is getting along nicely, and will doubtless recover without serious consequences resulting from the burn.

Dan Mays' force of workmen commenced laying the concrete foundation for J. E. Froome's new brick building yesterday. Knott's force came over from Walla Walla and has commenced on the Stahl building.

New ads today—Booher's "Star" saloon, Athena; Troy Laundry, Walla Walla; A. Kunkel & Company, implement dealers, Athena; Henry Keen, barber, Athena.

Miss Areta Saunders has finished her term of school at south Cold Spring and is home for a short vacation. Miss Saunders may accept a spring term on Birch creek.

Charles Booher is running the engine that furnishes power for the rock crusher. W. J. Wilkinson has a number of men excavating and shoveling rock. The new elevator attachment recently put on the crusher does good work.

A strictly amateur baseball team has been organized in Athena, and the first game of the season will probably be played on the Athena ground Sunday. The line up follows: Frank Walsh, captain, pitcher; Clarence La Brache, catcher; George Myrick, 1st base; Henry La Brashe, pitcher and 2nd base; Denver Charlton, 3rd base; Clarence Burden, s. s.; Frank Sanders, c. f.; Carl Stumpf, l. f.; Ross Maloney, r. f.

Monday, while plowing, Sim Kilgore's team became unmanageable. Six horses tangled up but did not get away, Kilgore stopping them by sending the plow deep in the soil. One horse was badly cut and Sim was bruised up considerably.

The force of men at the quarry have made good progress in excavation and the big crusher is now furnishing rock with regularity to the streets. At first some trouble was experienced on account of wet dirt, which caused the jaws of the crusher to fill up.

Carpenters commenced work yesterday morning on the new 50x120 foot building for the Athena Lumber Company.

Jerry Swart, who has been operator at the O. R. & N. station in Athena, will leave shortly for Bolles Junction, where he will act as agent for the company.

Able Jones is assisting his father temporarily on the express wagon.

"THE RESURRECTION STORY" PRESENTATION SUNDAY NIGHT

Music in keeping with the Easter season will be in evidence at the Christian church Sunday night at eight o'clock when a community chorus of about forty voices will present "The Resurrection Story" by Carrie B. Adams.

The chorus will be accompanied by Fred Kershaw and Lawrence Pinkerton, violins and Mrs. Max Hopper at the piano.

Rehearsals for the cantata have been in order for several weeks past and a real treat is in store for those who attend.

Evening services at the several churches of Athena will be dispensed with in order that members may enjoy the music. The best talent in Athena and community is included in the list of soloists and there are a number of pleasing duets, trios and quartets aside from the chorus numbers. The program follows.

Prelude—Mrs. Max Hopper.
 Invocation—Rev. Dwight L. Hackett.

Introduction
 "Rejoice, the Lord is Risen"—Choir.

Part I—The Tragedy
 "There is a Green Hill"—Miss Eva Wells.

"Oh, Come and Mourn"—Chorus by the choir with obligato by Mrs. David Stone.

Violins—Fred Kershaw, Lawrence Pinkerton.

Director—Mrs. R. B. McEwen.
 Accompanist—Mrs. Max Hopper.

A PROGRAM WORTHY OF PUBLIC PRESENTATION

A program worthy of public presentation was given by the Etude club Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Arthur Douglas on Fifth street.

Chinese music was the theme and the setting was distinctly oriental with light from beautiful Chinese lanterns and the walls decorated with Chinese mats; and incense burners placed promiscuously about the rooms.

Those having the arrangements in charge, Miss Lorraine Terry, Miss Dorothy Rodman, Miss Eva Randall were in Chinese costume and the program was announced by the beating of a cymbal and in Pigeon English. The program follows:

Chinese drill, Eva Randall, Lorraine Terry and Dorothy Rodman, Mrs. Max Hopper at the piano; Vocal solo, "Chinese Lullaby," Bowers, Mrs. R. B. McEwen; Piano solo, "Chinese Lillies," Mrs. Hopper; History of Chinese Music, Mrs. O. C. Hadley; Vocal solo, "A China Tragedy," Clayton Thomas, Mrs. Otha Reeder; Reading, "Chinaman's Prodigal," Mrs. McEwen; Chinese dance, in costume, Marjorie Douglas; Piano solo, "Chinese Magician," Klemm, Mrs. Frank Ames; Vocal trio, "Chinese Flower Fete," Cadman, Mrs. David Stone, Mrs. Reeder, Miss Terry, (in costume); Reading, Chinese Excelsior, "Top Side Galah," Mrs. C. M. Eager; "China Girl," Solo, Miss Sadie Pambrun with chorus, Eva Randall, Dorothy Rodman, Edna Pinkerton, Verva Baker, Lorraine Terry (in costume); Pantomime, "A Story of Chinese Love," Dorothy Rodman and Lorraine Terry; Piano solo, "Teacup Tinkles," Mrs. Lawrence Pinkerton.

Following the program the guests places were marked at small tables with miniature Chinese parasols, and noodles, glorified rice, tea and Chinese confections were served.

Special guests included, Mrs. M. I. Miller, Mrs. Dick Thompson, Mrs. Fred Pinkerton and Mrs. Grant Prestbye.

MAY NOT GET BEER

Thirsty Oregonians probably will not be able to quaff the new medical beer even though it may be sold under federal regulations. This opinion was advanced by Deputy District Attorney Leon H. Berhman. He said the Oregon law prohibits the sale of any beverage containing more than one half of one per cent of alcohol and if the new beer can be used as a beverage it cannot be sold in this state.

ENTERTAINS BRIDGE CLUB

Members of the Bridge club were honored, Friday at a buffet luncheon, at the home of Mrs. R. B. McEwen. The table was centered with spring flowers and a St. Patrick's motif was carried out in the color scheme. Three tables of bridge were in play high score being made by Mrs. H. I. Watts, second, Mrs. W. S. Ferguson and consolation, Mrs. W. P. Littlejohn.

PRESCOTT 7; WESTON 6

In the first baseball game of the season, Prescott defeated Weston Sunday, by the close score of 7 to 6. Prescott made five runs off York in the third when Harden went in and slowed up the Washington sluggers. McPherrin caught for Weston, and Herman Geissel held down third base. Weston plays at Hermiston, Sunday.

Harold Dimmick, for two years coach and athletic director at McLaughlin has signed a contract to coach at Walla Walla. Sabin Rich leaves Walla Walla for California.
