"THE FRESHMAN" COMING TWO NIGHTS NEXT WEEK

Harold Lloyd in his big comedy production, "The Freshman," comes to the Standard Theatre for two nights, next Wednesday and Thursday. To satisfy yourself if this is not one of the best pictures of the year, ask anyone who has seen it.

It is not often that the smaller reel subjects take almost equal prominence with the feature subject on a photoplay program, but in this instance, they do.

In connection with "The Freshman," there will be shown on both nights "Flashes of the Past," a two-reel chronological review of principal world events of the last ten years beginning with Roosevelt's African big game hunt down to the inauguration of President Coolidge.

Just imagine seeing the French call to arms; Joffre at the Marne; Russia battling through Galicia; the exodus from Belgium; the Czar swept from his throne; Wilson signing declaration of war; Pershing arriving in France; "Over There" Marines at Chateau-Thierry; the depth bomb; the flame projectors; tanks in battle; the 27th Division; great sea battle taken by Pathe cameramen, and down to the world flight and the funeral of Lenin, all from the film files of Pathe News as they have been carefully preserved.

Tomorrow night the Standard will present Henry B. Wathal, Roy Stewart and Marguerite Snow in "Kit Carson Over the Great Divide," a satisfying Western picture. Sunday night the irrepressible Raymond Griffith, supported by Viola Dana and that grand old man of the screen, Theodore Roberts, will be seen in Paramount's clean-cut, clever comedy-drama, "Forty Winks." S'there you are.

THE EASTER CANTATA WELL PRESENTED SUNDAY NIGHT

The Christian church was filled to the doors Sunday night when the Athena community chorus presented the Easter Cantata, "The Story of the Resurrection" by Carrie B. Adams.

The altar was beautifully decorated with blossoms, spring flowers and Easter lilies.

A prelude by Mrs. Max Hopper and Invocation by Rev. D. L. Hackett preceded the Cantata.

The chorus of about thirty-five voices was much enjoyed and portrayed the Easter story most effectively. Soprano solos worthy of mention included "There is a Green Hill Far Away," by Miss Eya Wells and "Christ the Lord is Risen Again" by Mrs. David Stone and "Whosoever Believeth Shall Live," by Miss Jennamae Read.

A well balanced mixed quartet which gave several numbers was made up of Mrs. Floyd Pinkerton, Mrs. Arthur Douglas, Mr. George Gerking and Mr. C. M. Eager.

Miss Lorraine Terry's rich contralto has received much praise and with Jennamae Read and C. M. Eager in the trio, "Awake, Awake Glad Soul Awake" was one of the features of the program. Mr. Justin Harwood appeared to advantage in recitative numbers while the bass solos were well carried by Mr. Lewis

Stewart and Mr. C. M. Eager. Other soloists enjoyed were Mrs. D. L. Hackett, Mrs. Lloyd Michener and Miss Dorothy Rodman.

The male quartet, George Gerking, Mr. Charles Dudley, Mr. Lewis Stewart and Mr. C. M. Eager sang "All Hail."

The chorus was well supported by Mr. Lawrence Pinkerton and Mr. Fred Kershaw, first and second violins and Mrs. Max Hopper at the piano. An interlude by Miss Lois Johnson pianist, was a feature.

Credit is due Mrs. R. B. McEwen who directed the production, and Mrs. B. B. Richards who had charge of the decorations.

Many out of town people were present for the occasion and the chorus feels well repaid for its efforts in this first presentation.

A CANDY PULL

A group of young people was entertained Tuesday evening at the Lew McNair home when Miss Lenore was hostess at an old fashioned candy pull. Music and games were enjoyed while the taffy simmered and then each guest took a hand in proceedings. Those present were, Edna DeFreese, Dorothy Geissel, Thena Russell, Ethel Pittman, Phyllis Hodgson, Emma Ringel, Harold Kirk, Oral Michener, Wayne Pittman, Ralph McEwen Jr., Edwin McEwen and the hostess.

H. A. Barrett was a Walla Walla visitor Monday.

EASTER MORNING SERVICES AT THE ATHENA CHURCHES

Smiling skies and singing birds greeted Athenians on Easter morning. Heavy showers for several days preceding made the sun seem all the brighter and brought out seasonable flowers in profusion.

Easter was fittingly observed in Athena Sunday morning, the services at the various churches being largely attended and sermons and music commemorating the season were much enjoyed by the congregations.

The following program, the musical numbers directed by Mrs. David Stone, was enjoyed at the Christian church. Prelude, Miss Lois Johnson; Doxology; Invocation; Response; Hymn, "Crown Him With Many Crowns"; congregation; Anthem, "Love Divine," chorus choir; Communion hymn, "My Jesus I Love Thee," communion; Offertory; Announcements; Scripture Reading; Morning prayer; Solo, "There is a Green Hill Far Away," Gounod, Mrs. David Stone; Sermon, "The Power of the Resurrection"; Invocation hymn, "Just As I Am"; Benediction.

At the Baptist and Methodist churches the program was largely composed of numbers by children from the Sunday schools. Spring flowers were used for decoration and the little folks were recipients of appropriate Easter gifts from their teachers.
