

Fred Steiwer
Republican
 For
U. S.
SENATOR

The strongest opponents of Fred Steiwer in the fight for the Republican nomination for U. S. Senator are democrats. They are boosting the incumbent because they believe they can easily defeat him in the general election. They know that they cannot defeat Steiwer.

If you desire to keep republicans in the U. S. Senate cast your primary vote for Fred Steiwer.

Alfred E. Clark

of Portland

Candidate for the Republican nomination for United States Senator

Read a few of many unsolicited press comments—

The Portland Daily News, speaking of the Senatorial candidates, said:

"If we were entirely businesslike in the conduct of our public affairs, intent only upon getting the best man available for the money, there is no doubt whom we would employ."

"We would employ a man of proved achievement, proved honesty, proved fearlessness and trustworthiness. We would employ a big man. And that man is Alfred E. Clark of Portland."

The Toledo Leader: "Mr. Clark is a man who has had a world of experience, has the age, the dignity and the ability to represent the people of this great state in the national law making body as they should be represented."

Eastern Clackamas News: "There are few men in the state who are as well qualified for Senator as Mr. Clark."

The Condon Times: His (Mr. Clark's), knowledge of public affairs, his prominence as a lawyer and his reputation as a speaker will prove valuable assets should the people desire to send him to Washington.

Senator Stanfield Renders Great Service to Oregon

In an address sent to and read before the Portland Advertising Club, Wednesday, April 21, 1926, United States Senator Robert N. Stanfield said:

"When I entered the U. S. Senate, March 4, 1921, agriculture was in dire straits, prices were down, producers were hard up and the banks and loan companies in farming communities were unable to realize on the notes they held. Quick action was necessary to relieve the agricultural distress.

Works Hard, With Gooding,
 For Emergency Tariff

"After repeated efforts I succeeded, assisted by Senator Gooding of Idaho, in overcoming the objections of Senator Penrose, Chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, to an emergency tariff on farm products, and on May 27, 1921, the Emergency Tariff Bill became law. This Act placed protective duties on 28 of the principal farm products, including wheat, corn, potatoes, onions, cattle, meat, wool, butter, cheese, milk, apples, cherries and nuts.

Stanfield Comes to Rescue With Amendment

"On May 20, 1921, the Stanfield Bill was introduced "to preserve the livestock industry of the United States, to release for commercial, agricultural and industrial purposes certain funds of banks, livestock loaning and trust companies, to amend the war finance corporation act, and for other purposes."

"The Stanfield Bill, or its principal provisions, became a law on August 24, 1921, the Senate Committee on Agriculture submitting its main features through Senator McNary as an amendment substituted for the Norris Bill, along with other provisions. Under its terms the War Finance Corporation made advances for agricultural relief amounting to $298,000,000, of which the banks, trust and loan companies of Oregon that serve agriculture received $6,696,000.

Drafted Into Relief Service by Treasury Department

"As soon as the War Finance Corporation was prepared to function under this law, and at the request of the Treasury Department, I went West, where I spent months assisting and advising with the bankers, thereby enabling them to procure the needed help quickly and before it was too late to save them. Fortunately, very few failed in Oregon in comparison to other states.

Forced to Keep Silent to Protect the Banks

"Much was said about my absence from the Senate during this time, but I was forced to keep silent and go about my work without referring to my mission, because if the people had known why I was in the West and what I was doing, suspicion would have been directed to every bank I entered, and to every banker with whom I talked. Until the banks could turn their frozen paper into liquid assets, my silence was imperative to avoid embarrassment to them and the defeat of the relief needed and sought."

Dr. J. A. Best

Candidate for Republican Nomination for

STATE SENATOR

If I am nominated and elected I will during the term of my office stand for rigid economy in expenditures; against enactment of unnecessary laws; for reduction of taxes; against public officials buying private property at forced sale for private gain; for extension of market roads; for building up the business interests of the state; for better education; for conservation of state resources; for a Board of Pardons and the abolition of all unnecessary state commissions; for the promotion of the farming, stock raising, mining and lumber industries of the state; for the moral advancement of the people and the suppression of scandals in public affairs. I will protect the interests of the Pendleton Round-Up at all times, I desire to have printed upon the ballot "Economy, public decency, tax reduction, extension of market roads and better primary education."
