High School Notes

All high school pupils will report at the school house for their report cards, Friday at one o'clock.

The 6th grade had its examinations in physiology and Oregon History Thursday and the 7th grade had its examination in Geography. The 8th grade pupils had their examinations on Thursday and Friday. These were state examinations.

Wednesday at 3 p. m. the pupils of the 5th and 6th grades gave a surprise party for Miss Rodman.

Those on the honor roll for the past six weeks were: Edna DeFroese 92½; Kathleen Radtke 92½; Belle Anderson 92; Jessiedeanne Dudley 91½ and Phyllis Dickenson 90½.

The 5th, 6th, 7th and 8th grades enjoyed their picnic at Bingham Springs judging from all reports given. They said they had plenty to eat and good swimming and the only trouble had was by those who got stuck in the mud. The special guests were George Pambrun, Mrs. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Reeder, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Douglas, Mr. and Mrs. Lee, and Mrs. Eager.

The schedule for final examinations is as follows: Tuesday a. m., English I, II, III and IV; Tuesday p. m., General Science, Biology and Chemistry; Wednesday a. m., Sewing, Algebra, Geometry and Bookkeeping; Wednesday p. m., Latin I and II, Spanish, Typing I and II; Thursday a. m., U. S. History and Civics; Thursday p. m., Geography.

The only two pupils receiving exemptions in all subjects were Belle Anderson and Edna DeFroese. Those receiving exemptions in three subjects were: Phyllis Dickenson, Lavone Pittman, Alberta Charlton, Jessiedeanne Dudley, Kathleen Radtke. Those receiving two exemptions were: Lois McIntyre, Charlotte Gross, Emma Ringel, Genevieve Rogers, Juanita Woodruff and Fred Radtke. Those receiving one exemption were: Doris Schubert, Jennamae Read, Lenore McNair, Lois Johnson, Allen Simpson, Ray Dudley, Leonard Geissel, Dorsey Kretzer, Ethel Pittman, Melvin Coppock, William Coppock, Arthur Taylor, Margaret Lee and Weldon Bell.

Miss Terry's room went out for a nature study hike early Wednesday morning.

The 5th and 6th grade room will have new seats next year.

A new dictionary has been ordered for the 7th and 8th grade rooms.

Fred Pinkerton treated the faculty to ice cream Tuesday. He was voted the best janitor in the world.

The school paper is to be completed soon after school is out.

The Senior class received their pictures Wednesday. Gunnell and Robb of Pendleton did the work.

The school publication for this year will be the "Athenian," a small annual. It will contain pictures of the different classes, football and basketball teams, play cast and high school faculty. Under the heading of athletics there will be summaries of the high school work in basketball and football, tennis and track. The declamatory work will give an interesting summary of the high school play and all declamatory contests. The different class activities will be given for the entire term.

Two other important articles that will appear in the annual are the Senior class wills and Senior class prophecy. Owing to the fact of a larger publication this year, a small fee of fifteen cents each will be charged high school students and twenty-five cents each for those outside of high school.

Those Dear Girls
Madge—Beauty is but skin deep, you know.

Marie—Then don't despair, dear, yours may come to the surface in course of time.

Oregon Trail Coins Authorized
Washington, D. C.—The senate passed a house bill to authorize the coinage of 50-cent pieces in commemoration of those who traversed the Old Oregon trail. Ezra Meeker, famous trail blazer, was a spectator from the senate gallery.

Ousted Regents Carry Cases to Court
Olympia, Wash.—Challenging the right of A. H. B. Jordan of Lowell and Paul H. Johns of Tacoma to serve as regents of the University of Washington, quo warranto proceedings were filed in the supreme court by Werner A. Rupp of Aberdeen and James H. Davis of Tacoma, who were deposed May 4 by Governor Roland H. Hartley on the grounds of "misconduct in office."

Warship Ordered to Bluefields
Washington, D. C.—The Washington government has ordered a cruiser to Bluefields, Nicaragua, to safeguard American interests in Nicaragua. Officials here were surprised that the Nicaraguan congress had declared "a state of war." They pointed out that such action would make it possible under law for the factions, whether revolutionary or federal, to import arms and munitions.

The Churches

M. E. Church
Sunday school at 10 a. m. Morning worship at 11 o'clock. The service will emphasize our Home Missionary day.

Church of Christ
Bible school at 10 a. m. We expect a great crowd as it is the last day of our meet. Glen W. Hutton will bring another great message Sunday morning at the preaching service. Carroll Fairbanks will bring a great message in song. A hearty welcome to all.

D. L. HACKETT.
