

Press Paragraphs

"Her Sister from Paris"
Standard Theatre, tomorrow night.
Mrs. C. M. Eager was in Walla Wednesday.

H. A. Barrett made a trip to Milton Sunday.
Mrs. M. L. Watts spent Wednesday in Walla Walla.

Ralph and Edwin McEwen are at Pine Creek ranch north of Athena.
Mr. and Mrs. Sims Dickenson and family were in Walla Walla Sunday.

Mrs. Alma Kooz of Portland is a guest at the country home of Mrs. W. P. Willaby.

Dr. Cowan who suffered a sprained ankle while playing tennis, is able to be around.

Mrs. B. B. Richards and Mrs. W. P. Littlejohn were Walla Walla visitors Monday morning.

Miss Lenore McNair left Sunday for a two weeks visit with relatives and friends in Ontario.

Little Virginia Eager who has been suffering with a case of measles is convalescing nicely.

F. B. Radtke and son Fred fished with fair success on the Umatilla river, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Mrs. Fred Kershaw has returned home from Pullman, Washington where she visited her daughter Fred-erica.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon Taylor, May 14, 1926, a daughter. The little lady has been given the name Delores G.

"Paths to Paradise"

At the Standard, Sunday night.
Miss Pearl Ramsey is here from LaGrande and is visiting at the home of her parents on Third street.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Douglas and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gross are moving from their town homes to their ranches this week.

Henry Booher is assisting the Rogers & Goodman mechanical force in assembling the new International harvesters, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Dwight L. Hackett left Monday morning by motor for California points where they will visit for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. O. O. Stephens and son Dale and Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Richards and son Roland spent Monday evening in Pendleton.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bryan of Pasco, spent Sunday as guests of Mrs. J. C. Baker. Mr. Bryan and Mrs. Baker were school mates in Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Harford of Pendleton were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. McPherson Wednesday.

Miss Blanche Johnson and Miss Jennamae Read accompanied by Mrs. Jennie Gross left Wednesday for Portland. They will return Sunday.

Mrs. Bert Logsdon, Mrs. H. J. Cunningham, Mrs. W. R. Harden, Mrs. Delbert Crimmins and Miss Gladys McLeod visited the Integrity lodge in Freewater, Tuesday evening.

Mrs. C. T. Mehrer of Scotland, North Dakota, arrived here Tuesday morning and is visiting at the home of her son Victor Hirsch. Mrs. Mehrer expects to spend the summer here.

"The Fighting Heart"

Wednesday night at the Standard.
Mrs. Dill Maloney of Walla Walla who accompanied Mrs. Robert Tharpe also of that city, visited a short time with Mrs. Charles Norris, Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Zerba returned from Lebanon, Friday. They having taken Miss Lola Stockstill that far, on her way home to Grants Pass.

Cleve Stanton who has been employed in Ione for the past two weeks in preparing farm machinery for harvest, returned to his home Sunday.

Wilford Miller's new dog was saved from death by poison, by Dr. Cowan, Wednesday. Eldon Myrick's dog also got a dose of the poison, and was saved.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Murtha and children drove down to Newberg, where they are guests this week of Mrs. Murtha's mother. They will return home Sunday.

Leonard Geissel spent a few days this week in Milton visiting at the home of his brother, Raymond Geissel. Miss Maryjane Miller is also visiting at the Geissel home.

Mrs. Charles Smith and Mrs. Don Wilks and daughter left Sunday for Hood River, where they will visit a couple of weeks with Mrs. Smith's daughter, Mrs. Savannah Davis.

Mrs. Julia Hodgson accompanied her daughter, Mrs. Martin McLaughlin who has been here for a week, to her home in Duncan. Mrs. Hodgson will be gone for about ten days.

Chris Uber of Belmont, Washington motored to Athena with some friends Monday and visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ace Wagner. He returned to his home yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. S. LeGrow left for Walla Walla Tuesday evening. Mr. LeGrow was forced to undergo another minor operation as a result of the failure of proper healing from a former operation.

Mrs. Bert Logsdon and daughter Donna Jean visited in Pendleton Friday, with Mrs. D. H. Mansfield. Mrs. Rose Miller, Miss Dorothy Geissel and Miss Ethel Geissel accompanied Mrs. Logsdon to Pendleton.

The M. E. Missionary society will meet at the home of Mrs. W. O. Read next Wednesday afternoon. The society extend their thanks to the ladies of the town for their patronage extended the Parcel Post sale.

Dale and Gale McLean who have resided with their grandparents and who attended the Athena school returned to their home in Washtucna, their father and mother having come down for them, going home Monday.

Friends of Mrs. C. A. Barrett and little granddaughter Beverley Jean will be glad to welcome them home from Portland this week. They have been in the metropolis since before Christmas and have been spending their time with Miss Areta Barrett.

Mrs. Floyd Pinkerton entertained her Sunday school class Tuesday afternoon at her country home west of Athena. The little folks spent the hours playing games and the hostess served a delicious lunch. The party returned to Athena at about six-thirty in the evening.

Ronald Hadley entertained a number of his little friends at a party at the home of his parents Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Hadley, in the north part of town. Those who enjoyed the games and refreshments, which were served by Mrs. Hadley were, Doris and Dale Jenkins, Clara, Lenore and Stanley Volwiler and Dale and Gale Moore.

Athena and community are basking in intermittent sunshine and showers this week, affording perfect growing weather for wheat and other crops. It has been stated by those who should know that with very little more moisture a bumper wheat crop is assured.

The Bridge club was charmingly entertained last week at the home of Mrs. Lloyd Michener on Jefferson street. Two tables were in play, Mrs. H. I. Watts making high score. Mrs. Marion Hansell received the guest prize. The club will meet with Mrs. H. A. Barrett this week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Stott and children of Dayton, Washington, spent the week end in Athena at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Lee. Mrs. L. G. Stott who accompanied them down, will remain here for a week. Miss Dorothy Lee returned with her aunt and uncle to Dayton.

Mr. and Mrs. Chandler Bloom of Portland were visitors at the R. B. McEwen home Monday. They were en route to Spokane where they will spend the week. They were traveling by motor. Mr. Bloom is manager of the offices of the American Steel and Wire Company of Portland.

The high school board met last Tuesday evening, and decided to install a heating stove and a sink in the domestic science room. Bids will be received for calsoning the high school rooms and for slating the black boards. An additional sewing machine will be purchased for the sewing class.

The J. T. club met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Zeph Lockwood. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Lawrence Pinkerton and Mrs. James Lieuallen. The next meeting of the club will be held at the home of Mrs. Eugene Schimpf, when a one o'clock picnic dinner will be enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. Cass Cannon and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Cannon and family left Saturday for Prineville, where they will visit relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Cass Cannon will remain there all summer and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Cannon will return to Athena. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Cannon will reside in the Cass Cannon home and care for the place during their absence.

Three great pictures are booked for showing at the Standard Theatre in the near future. Saturday night, May 29, the return of "The Light of Western Stars" is announced. Wednesday and Thursday nights, June 2 and 3 Sally O'Neil is coming in her fine big photoplay, "Mike." For Friday and Saturday nights, June 25 and 26 John Barrymore in "The Sea Beast," has been booked. These are the three pictures that are being raved over everywhere, and it was only by mere chance that the Standard has succeeded in booking them for early showings.

AT IMMIGRANT SPRINGS
Members of the Jolly Twenty-five club with their families spent a very pleasant day last Sunday at Immigrant Springs. In spite of the inclement weather and intermittent showers, almost the entire membership was present and the spacious Lieuallen cabin made a cozy shelter for the picnickers. Games were played in which old and young participated and the feature of the day was the bountiful and delicious lunch served from overflowing baskets. The club picnic is an annual affair and one looked forward to with much pleasurable anticipation by the members and their families.

JOINT MASONIC MEETING
A big joint meeting of the Masonic lodges of Athena and Weston was held Saturday evening at Masonic Hall of Dolph lodge in Athena, where initiatory work was held. The Weston lodge attended in a body, and after the lodge session, the Masonic brethren repaired to the Athena Restaurant where a banquet supper of 45 covers were spread. Dolph lodge enjoyed the hospitality of the Weston lodge on Friday evening previous to the Athena meeting.

RECITAL WEDNESDAY NIGHT
The pupils of Miss Hanna's Malen Burnett School of Music class will be heard in recital at high school auditorium, Wednesday evening, beginning at 8 o'clock. Miss Opal McNichols, who has appeared here before in recitals, will give three numbers on the Wednesday evening program.

Baptist Church
Sunday school at 9:45 a. m. The teaching branch of the church. Preaching and divine worship at 11 a. m. Topic, "Resurrection Power." The body transient, the Soul Eternal. Junior young people at 5:30 p. m. Miss Margaret Lee in charge. Senior young people at 6:30, boost for the young. Evening song and praise service at 7:30 p. m., theme "Play Ball, God is the Umpire." Mid week meeting every Thursday evening at 7:30. All cordially invited.
E. M. BOLLINGER, Pastor.

The Athena Department Store

Cordially Invites
Every Woman
To Visit

The Notions Dept.

of Our Store

During the Month of May

Standard Designer Patterns

Bias Tapes
Edgings
Ribbons
Elastic Combs
Buttons
Snaps
Hooks and Eyes
Handkerchiefs
Crochet Thread
Embroidery Thread
Mercerized Thread
All Colors
Longerie Tape
Bath Caps
Belts
Gloves

Rubber Aprons
Sanitary Aprons
Sanitary Belts
Bob Hair Nets
Bob Hair Pins
Watch Ribbons
Clocks
Watches
Dress Shields
Stationery
Inks
Scissors
Shears
Garters
Embroidery Hoops
Pins
Needles

Phone Your Order To 152

Athena Department Store

THE STANDARD THEATRE

Free Tickets for this show to
MISS VERA MILLER

Saturday, May 22

Constance Talmadge

In

Her Sister From Paris

The New Comedy Triumph

Direct from Paris with a whole French Musical Comedy Show! All the beauties of a Follies Bergere with drama and humor mixed in—it's just right for you, with Ronald Colman. Our Constance as the snappy French dancer who vamps 'em all with twinkling eyes and flashing toes until she has to vamp her own husband—and then, gales of laughter, spicy touches, and all with that Frenchy atmosphere to thrill you.

Pathe Review

Comedy

Admission Prices, 10c-35c

Free Tickets for this show to
JIM WILSON

Sunday, May 23

Raymond Griffith

Featured In Another Good One

Paths To Paradise

With Betty Compson and Brilliant Cast

Did you see "The Night Club" and "40 Winks"? Raymond Griffith is in "Paths to Paradise" too! 'Dude from Duluth' plays high-hat crook in New Paramount Comedy. All roads lead to laughter in "Paths to Paradise." No speed limits—no traffic traps—no gloom—along the Paths to Paradise. What a team! What a theme! What a scream! He was so crooked he went to sleep in a French horn. You'll lose all your troubles on the Paths to Paradise.

International News.

Comedy

Admission Prices, 10c-35c

Wednesday, May 26

George O'Brien

In

"The Fighting Heart"

From the story "Once to Every Man"

with Billie Dove, J. Farrell MacDonald, James Marcus. Round after round of entertainment—a knockout for thrills. Proving that the man with a fighting heart will never be conquered. Ambition swept him to Broadway—love brought him back to Main Street. A Fighting Heart can get up after the count of nine and score a knockout. A drama with a punch.

Comedy

Admission Prices 10c-35c

The Greatest Treat In Town

Our Toasted Sandwiches and Chocolate Malts can't be beat

Try 'em and be convinced

We have just installed a 100 per cent mechanically refrigerated fountain and will handle a complete assortment of bricks and bulk ice cream at all times.

We cordially invite the public to inspect our new equipment.

McFadden's Pharmacy

Fonda Gloves

Best On the Market

are made of Alaskan Buckskin, retain their shape and outwear all others

Canvas Gloves

15c, 20c, 25c

High Quality Vegetables are again on the Market

--We have the kind the big stores sell

THE PURE FOOD GROCERY

Quality Quantity, Service.

Phone 171.

Athena, Oregon