

Press Paragraphs

"Light of Western Stars" Standard Theatre, tomorrow night. Dr. W. G. Cowan has purchased a new Oakland sedan, a fine car. Mrs. C. M. Eager was in Walla Walla Wednesday on a business mission.

Dennis Truelove of Harrisburg, is a guest at the Anderson home, this week.

Mrs. Mary Hopper and son Hubert visited at the Max Hopper home in Athena yesterday.

Mrs. Nellie Taylor and her mother Mrs. Leeper were here from Pendleton Wednesday.

Mrs. Eli May and son Lewis of Union, spent last week visiting relatives and friends in Athena.

Mrs. Johnnie Wicks of Colfax, spent Saturday at the home of Mrs. Minnie Willaby. They are cousins.

A portion of the Athena Meat Market has been given a new concrete floor and linoleum covering.

A. G. DeMerritt left Thursday for Marshfield. He has been a guest at the Henry Dell home for some time.

Mrs. George Ayers of Wallula was a recent guest at the homes of Mrs. M. M. Johns and Mr. and Mrs. Flint Johns.

Mrs. M. L. Watts and Mrs. M. M. Johns spent Tuesday afternoon in Pendleton being guests of Mrs. Joseph Scott.

Weston Leader: Mrs. Isabella Taylor of Colfax, Washington, is visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. William McCorkell.

Reverend and Mrs. Bollinger have taken possession of Mrs. McIntyre's cottage on Adams street, during her absence in California.

Miss Agnes Warner of Arlington, arrived in Athena Wednesday evening, and will be a guest of Mrs. W. McPherson indefinitely.

Miss Dorothy Lee who has spent the past week in Dayton at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Stott, returned to Athena Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Zerba and sons visited a couple of days last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Beckner, at Nolin.

Floyd Pinkerton is busy putting up his first crop of alfalfa and is being assisted by Rev. Glen Hutton and Rev. Carroll Fairbanks.

"Not So Long Ago" Standard Theatre, Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Cunningham spent the week end in Spokane, Mr. Cunningham going on business.

Mrs. Julia Hodgen who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. McLaughlin at Duncan, is back at her home in Athena.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Zerba and daughter Beth returned Monday from a motor trip to Portland, Seattle and other Sound points.

Fred Radtke Sr. and Fred Radtke Jr. have returned from a fishing trip up the Umatilla river. They brought home a basket full of fine trout.

Mrs. A. B. McEwen will arrive in Athena from Portland Saturday to spend Memorial day. She will be the guest of relatives here for a time.

Al Green a friend of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Baker and who is from San Diego, stopped at the Restaurant Friday and visited the Bakers for a short time.

Wilbur Harden returned Sunday from a short visit to Salem and Eugene. He was on the Oregon campus and met Beryl Hodgen and Scotty Kretzer.

F. S. LeGrow who underwent a minor operation at a Walla Walla hospital last week is reported improving. He is able to sit up for a time each day.

Miss Hazel Miller is here from Seattle, visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Miller. She accompanied Dr. and Mrs. Root, (Ethel Duncan) down from Seattle.

Joe Key of Weston, was in town Tuesday. He took home a supply of paint and oil from Rogers & Goodman's, which will be used to paint a barn and machine shed.

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Whiteman and family and Mr. and Mrs. James Parsons of Walla Walla were dinner guests Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Richards.

The pole line that carries the light and power for Athena people has been under inspection this week, a number of new poles having been set and transformers installed.

Misses Lois McIntyre, Edna Pinkerton, Helen Hodgen and Hilda Dickenson will spend the week-end with Miss Frederica Kershaw, at Washington State college, Pullman.

Louis Bergevin has disposed of his crop and land lease on the reservation, and will probably rent a ranch in Morrow county. George Lieuallen purchased the Bergevin lease and farming outfit, while Barney Foster and Arthur Bergevin took the wheat crop.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Baker and Mrs. Bob Cutler motored to LaGrande and Elgin Saturday. They visited with friends and returned to their homes in Athena, Monday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Chandler Bloom were dinner guests Sunday at the R. B. McEwen home. They were en route to their home in Portland from Spokane where they spent the past week.

Miss Dorothy Koepke who spent the week end here visiting her brother Henry left Monday for Los Angeles. She expects to take special work during the summer session at Stanford.

Mrs. John Stacklie and children arrived in Athena from Longview Sunday and will make an extended stay in Athena, visiting at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Bern Banister.

The J. T. club will meet at the home of Mrs. H. J. Cunningham, Tuesday at 12:30 p. m. and go to the home of Mrs. Eugene Schimpf, where a picnic dinner will be enjoyed by the members.

Miss Jennamae Read, Miss Blanche Johnson and Mrs. Jennie Gross returned home Monday evening after spending the week end at Eugene. Miss Johnson expects to enter the University next fall.

F. T. Chamberlain, formerly of the Round-Up service station at Pendleton, has leased the Prestbye Service Station here, and has taken possession. He will be assisted in operating the station by his wife.

Orville Kanary who has been a visitor at the Koepke ranch for the past two months left for his home in Los Angeles. He was accompanied as far as Eugene by Henry Koepke where they spent the week end.

Mrs. H. A. Barrett entertained the Bridge club Friday afternoon at her home on Fifth street. Snap dragons and Calendulae were used for decoration. Two tables were in play, Mrs. C. M. Eager winning high score.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Waggoner Friends of Rev. and Mrs. Dwight L. Hackett have received cards from them at Ceres, California. They state that they are having a splendid trip, particularly enjoying the fresh peaches that are now in market.

of Portland, visited this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Watts. Mrs. Waggoner and Mrs. Watts are sisters. Mr. Waggoner is in the real estate and loan business at Portland. They returned to Portland Wednesday.

Mrs. Zeltha McIntyre left for Santa Rosa, California Friday, being called there by the serious illness of her sister. Miss Kathryn McIntyre accompanied her as far as Portland, and will go on to Tillamook to visit her sister.

Rebekah Lodge held their last meeting of the month Tuesday night with a fairly good number present. After business refreshments were served. An invitation was extended this lodge by Pauline Rebekah lodge of Pendleton, to a picnic which is to be held June 6, and all who can are requested to go and take a basket of edibles. Where the picnic will be held will be announced in next week's Press.

"Mike" Standard, Wednesday-Thursday.

Friends of Mrs. E. L. Barnett of Portland receive word that she has returned to her home from the hospital where she underwent a major operation. She is slightly improved and hopes are entertained of her early recovery.

O. O. Stephens and son Dale, Marion Hansell and "Dutch" McPherrin enjoyed a fishing trip up the Umatilla, Wednesday. On their return they put on display at Steve's Grocery the finest lot of trout seen at Athena in a long time.

W. E. Bennett, former Athena high school teacher, was in the city Wednesday from Mitchell, Wheeler county, where he is the principal of the Mitchell union high school. He reports the crop prospects not flattering in Wheeler county.

Mrs. T. P. DeFreece who has been seriously ill at her home near College Place is reported improving. Friends and relatives were much alarmed at her condition as she suffered a severe hemorrhage as the result of high blood pressure.

M. I. Volwiler returned Tuesday from Delta, Utah where he has been looking after his farming interests, and with Mrs. Volwiler and children, he left for Utah Wednesday morning where they will reside permanently. They are making the trip by motor.

A large group of friends treated Mr. and Mrs. Claud Dickenson to an old time charivari Tuesday night. All sorts of noise-making contrivances were brought into play. Mr. Dickenson was equal to the occasion and generously treated the whole crowd.

Miss Pearl Ramsey who spent last week visiting her parents returned to La Grande Sunday to resume her studies. She was accompanied by a party of friends including Miss Hilda Dickenson, Miss Edna Pinkerton, Mose Banister, Dr. Cowan and Paul Lieuallen.

Mrs. F. L. Pittman was a guest of honor at a birthday dinner Tuesday at the Pittman home in Athena. Other guests included, Mrs. Nellie St. Dennis, Arlee and Ronan St. Dennis and Junior Payant of Weston. Mrs. Pittman was the recipient of numerous attractive gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Chet McCullough and son Elsworth of Tekoa, Washington, are here from their home and are visiting with Mrs. McCullough's parents Mr. and Mrs. John Harden. After a few days visit here they will go to La Grande where they will visit Mr. McCullough's mother.

A number of Athena tennis enthusiasts motored to Helix Tuesday afternoon where they enjoyed several exciting sets with Helix representatives. The Athena players who made a splendid showing were, Misses Hilda Dickenson and Ethel Pittman, Bryce Baker, E. C. Prestbye, Cy Hodgen and Grant Prestbye.

Sunday week ago the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Lieuallen at Adams was damaged by fire. No one was at home when the fire started, presumably from electric wiring, the family being at Milton. One room was scorched where the flames were confined by willing workers, who removed furniture from the dwelling and quenched the fire.

The Farmers Grain Elevator company will install a new Fairbanks dial beam scale of 18,000 pounds weighing capacity. Installation will take place in time to take care of the new crop storage at the elevator. Lee Wilson, manager, informs the Press that all of last year's wheat taken for storage at the elevator, has been shipped out with the exception of about two carloads.

Guests who have been at the E. A. Dudley home for the past two weeks are Captain and Mrs. George Seeley of Seattle, and Mr. and Mrs. Victor McDonald of Long Beach, California, who will be here until after the Pioneer's picnic at Weston. Captain Seeley is a retired sea captain, and Mrs. Seeley is the sister of Mrs. Dudley. They have made many voyages around the world. Mr. McDonald is Mrs. Dudley's brother.

In an automobile collision last Sunday near Everett, Washington, Rev. and Mrs. O. D. Harris came near being the victims of a couple of careless drivers who in attempting to pass their car on a bridge, threw them into the bridge guard. Both front wheels were broken, and the car was thrown across a large timber, thus saving it from going to the ground, many feet below. Mr. and Mrs. Harris had their three children in the car, but no one was hurt except a bad shake-up.

The Athena Study club met Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Mattie Mitchell, and after the study hour, election of officers was held. Mrs. F. B. Boyd was chosen president, Mrs. Lew McNair vice-president, Mrs. Mattie Mitchell secretary-treasurer and Miss Myrtle Potts custodian. The club having finished a course of study of early American authors, decided to discontinue meetings until September, when another subject will be taken up. The ladies are planning a picnic as a pleasant wind-up of a very agreeable year's work.

MEN WANTED

To Wear Our

Mens work shirts, Blue and Grey at - - 89c
 Mens seamless hose, Brown and Grey 2 pair 25c
 Mens seamless U. S. hose per pair - - 15c
 Mens overalls per pair - - - $1.29

Special

Large can Pineapple each 29c
 Brooms at . . . . 49c
 Get a package of our Cheese Snax,
 they are delicious

Phone Your Order To 152

Athena Department Store

THE STANDARD THEATRE

Free Tickets for this show to
 MR. LUCIEN GAGNON

Saturday, May 29

Zane Grey's

"The Light of Western Stars"

"The Light of Western Stars," the latest of the Zane Grey novels to be transferred to the screen by Paramount, is a roaring western romance of the picturesque Arizona border, packed with vital drama, heroic deeds and dark villainies—a leaf torn from the gripping story of the West in which is pictured the last desperate stand of banded outlawry on the remaining vestige of frontier America.

Pathe Review

Comedy

Admission Prices. 10c-35c

Free Tickets for this show to
 DAD WELCH

Sunday, May 30

Betty Bronson and Ricardo Cortez

In

Not So Long Ago

A romantic comedy of the days when old New York was young—when Times Square was a pasture and Broadway just a cowpath. Produced with great charm and color by the director of "Little Old New York." "Peter Pan" in pantlettes. The belle of New York, not so long ago, when horse-cars rattled through the streets a mile-an-hour, and bicycling was a thrill!

International News.

Comedy

Admission Prices, 10c-35c

Two Nights, Starting Wednesday June 2

Everybody's Talking About Mike!

You'll laugh at the scrapes that Mike falls heir to, and gasp at her thrilling escapes. She lives in a deserted box-car and found romance a-top a runaway train. It's the most exciting photoplay story ever filmed—the great mail robbery—the lone car with three kids abroad sent hurtling down a cliff—but wait till you see this perfect picture of hilarious comedy, blood-curdling thrills and golden romance! You'll laugh! You'll cry! You'll adore it!

Marshall Neilan's

Uproarious success based on his own story

MIKE

Featuring the new wonder girl

Sally O'Neill

FORD STERLING, CHARLES MURRAY, WILLIAM HAINES

Comedy

Admission Prices 10c-35c-50c

"Take home a brick"--

The following flavors to pick from:

Vanilla Maple Strawberry
 Fruit Salad Chocolate
 Special Brick

McFadden's Pharmacy

Fonda Gloves

Best On the Market

are made of Alaskan Buckskin, retain their shape and outwear all others

Canvas Gloves

15c, 20c, 25c

High Quality Vegetables are again on the Market

--We have the kind the big stores sell

THE PURE FOOD GROCERY

Quality Quantity, Service.

Phone 171.

Athena, Oregon