

Press Paragraphs

"A Thief In Paradise"

Standard Theatre, tomorrow night. B. B. Richards transacted business in Weston, Tuesday.

James Duncan transacted business in Pendleton, Wednesday.

Boise McEwen completed his season's harvest run Sunday.

Colonel Lucas, shoe salesman, was in Athena from Weston, Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sharpe of Walla Walla, were in Athena Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wade Goodman of Walla Walla were in Athena, Saturday.

Richard Thompson finished harvesting a good crop of wheat, Wednesday.

Clarence Whiteman and daughter were in Athena Wednesday, from Freewater.

Penn Harris and "Dutch" McPherrin fished with poor luck in the Umattilla, Monday.

Miss McKenzie is spending several days at the home of her brother Alec near Adams.

Hugh McEwen, well known business man of Milton was an Athena visitor Wednesday.

Frank Curl, well known reservation farmer called on business friends here Tuesday.

Miss Helen Eubanks of Walla Walla was the guest of Athena friends Saturday night.

Bill Dixon of Freewater and Herman Geissel spent Saturday night and Sunday at La Grande.

Miss Phyllis Hodgen Tuesday went to Duncan where she will visit her sister, Mrs. Martin McLaughlin.

M. A. Baker whose home is in Adams, was a week end guest of his daughter, Mrs. H. A. Roseberry.

Miss Thena Russell left Friday morning for Condon, where she will visit her sister, Mrs. Elmer Booher.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Thompson will go to Montana for a visit at the home of Mrs. Thompson's brother.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Johnson of Walla Walla were Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Martin.

E. O. Comery and sister of Pendleton, spent Sunday in Athena, visiting with Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Harman.

Mrs. A. L. McEwen spent Sunday night in Walla Walla visiting at the home of her mother, Mrs. Hugh McCool.

The cover design of the current issue of the Oregon Sportsman Magazine is of the fish hatchery at Bingham Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Johnson of Walla Walla were Sunday visitors in Athena at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Stanton.

Tom Robertson, manager for the grain firm of Balfour, Guthrie & Company at Pendleton, was in Athena, Wednesday.

C. E. (Buzz) Fiske has purchased three hundred and twenty acres east of Blue Mountain station. The purchase was made from the Harder estate.

Sam Thompson and daughter, Miss Thelma Thompson of Pendleton and Fred Kiddle of Island City, were guests of Athena friends Monday night.

Pola Negri in "Flower of the Night" Standard Theatre, Sunday night. George Corder visited this week in Walla Walla. And while in that city was a guest of his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Lester Snyder.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Hansell entertained Misses Edna Pinkerton, Hilda Dickenson and Lois McIntyre at dinner Wednesday.

R. McArthur and Charles Williams have gone to Rifle Range in search of huckleberries. They contemplate being gone two weeks.

William Hall who has been seriously ill has been moved to his home at the mouth of Meacham creek where he is improving slowly.

C. L. McFadden, who owns a drug store at Helix, which is managed by Charles Wilson, made a business trip to that town Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Read and Mr. and Mrs. W. McPherson spent Sunday at High Ridge. They brought home six gallons of huckleberries.

Mrs. J. B. Anderson was called this week to the bedside of her mother, who is ill at Lebanon, Oregon. Mrs. Anderson left for Lebanon Monday.

A. C. McIntyre, Pendleton attorney, had his automobile stolen from in front of the Methodist church in Pendleton, Sunday, while attending services.

John F. Thompson, well known cattle man of Gibbon and George Bruce merchant at Thorn Hollow were here Wednesday, transacting business.

Funeral services for the late W. W. Brown, who formerly resided at Helix, were held at Pendleton, Tuesday. Mr. Brown died Sunday at the age of 40.

Mrs. Dora Scott of Los Angeles, who visited here last week is a guest at the John Norvell home in Helix. Mrs. Scott and Mrs. Norvell are cousins.

Mrs. J. C. Baker spent several days this week visiting in Walla Walla, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Jeffries. Mrs. Baker is a sister of Mr. Jeffries.

Mrs. William McBride and daughter Mrs. James Lumsden left for Montavilla, a suburb of Portland. Mrs. Lumsden is recovering from a serious operation.

E. L. King blacksmith, employed by Jens Jensen was forced to undergo an operation on his leg, as the result of an injury caused by being kicked by a mule.

Mrs. Ida Banister, who has been absent from the telephone office where she is employed, will return this week, after spending her vacation in this locality.

Raymond Murphy, bright little lad, who is popular with everybody, will enter the Chemauwa Indian School in September to complete his schooling and to learn a trade.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stamper of Weiser, Idaho arrived here Tuesday and are visiting with Mrs. Stamper's sister, Mrs. George Myrick and other relatives near here.

It is said the season has been favorable for grouse and other upland birds with the result shooting when the season opens promises to be better than it was last year.

Miss Seville Marty of Pendleton was hostess at a miscellaneous show given in Pendleton, for Mrs. Harry Schrum (Evelyn Snyder) who with her husband are leaving next week for Portland to reside. Misses Lois Johnson, Blanche Johnson and Lois McIntyre attended from Athena.

Dorsey Kretzer is ill with pneumonia at his home in the west part of town. He has been working at the Clarence Tubbs ranch and was brought to town Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Russell returned Monday from a camping trip. Mrs. Russell stopped in Elgin and visited her aunt, while Mr. Russell went on to the Minam where he fished.

Mrs. Fred Kershaw and mother Mrs. Barbara Willaby and Miss Fredrica Kershaw left last Friday for Payette Lake in Idaho, where they will enjoy an outing for about three weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Hamp Booher drove up to Dayton, Washington, Monday, taking Mrs. Della Booher and daughter Marjorie, home. Mrs. Booher and daughter visited in Athena for several days.

The Baptist summer assembly is in session at McMinnville, and Miss Ruth Williams and Miss Jaunita Woodruff are delegates from the B. Y. P. U. Miss Margaret Lee is the delegate from the Athena Baptist Sunday school.

Mrs. Charles DeHaas, a former teacher in the Athena schools, was in the city Monday from her home at Cove, Oregon. Mrs. DeHaas was en route to Connell, Washington, to join her husband, and will return in about two weeks.

Miss "Jerry" Cassatt popular teacher in the McEwen district during the past year, was here last week visiting friends. Miss Cassatt has returned to her home in Yakima. She will teach at Helix during the coming school year.

An Indian Carnival is in progress at Spokane and numbers of Indians from different parts of the country are in attendance. A party of about twelve en route there from the Umattilla reservation departed from here Wednesday morning.

Charles Norris went down to The Dalles Monday. Mr. Norris is contemplating removing from Athena, and left Monday with the intention of seeking a location to engage in the harness business.

The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Coppock has a mild attack of infantile paralysis. Drs. Kealor of Walla Walla, and Sharp of Athena, held a consultation Wednesday. The affliction so far is confined to one of the child's feet.

Mrs. A. B. McEwen and Miss Lizzie McKenzie of Portland visited Mrs. William Tompkins in Walla Walla and were accompanied on their return here by Mrs. Tompkins, who is now visiting at the Arthur Coppock home south of Athena.

Mrs. Jacob Narkaus, Mrs. Lizzie Lansdale and Miss Mary Lansdale of Pendleton were recently lost for a while, while picking huckleberries near Kamela in the Blue Mountains.

Ralph McEwen had a break down yesterday, or he would have finished harvest work on the Barrett Pine creek ranch Saturday. The yield is averaging 25 to 27 bushels per acre.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Hirsch, daughter Patricia and Mrs. Mehrer, Mrs. Hirsch's mother, will leave for a brief motor trip down the Columbia Highway to Portland and then to Seaside. Mrs. Mehrer who is visiting here from her home in Dakota, will start east upon her return from the motor trip.

Miss Kathren Froom, who has been visiting friends in California, will return to her home in Athena, about August 1.

Miss Ruth Rothrock is visiting at the home of her mother in Athena. Miss Rothrock has a splendid position in Berkeley California, where she teaches in the high school of that city.

The car belonging to Ida Banister suffered a broken fender and other minor injuries when the steering gear refused to function, and the driver ran into a ditch at the side of the highway. Mrs. Banister was not hurt.

Mrs. F. J. De Freece and Miss Edna De Freece left by motor yesterday morning for La Grande where they will visit relatives. They will be joined in Pendleton by Mrs. Howerton of Silverlake, Kansas, a cousin of Mrs. De Freece, who will go to La Grande with them.

Huckleberries from Lester, Washington are selling readily in the Athena market at $1.75 per gallon. There are a few huckleberries in sheltered spots where the bloom escaped injury from frost in the Blue Mountains, east of Athena, but on the whole, the crop is light.

A faculty member of Linfield, college situated at McMinnville spoke at the Baptist church Sunday morning. The address was most interesting and the object to create interest in the college and the money raising campaign now on. Funds raised will be used for new buildings.

Ralph Cannon has purchased the Bill Booher residence on Third street. Several years ago Mr. Cannon sold the residence to Mr. Booher, and now purchases it back. Mr. Booher has purchased the Della Booher cottage on Third street, where Mr. and Mrs. Charles Norris have been residing.

A force of young workers have been engaged in digging a well at the Otho Reeder residence on Third street. At a depth of 9 feet, water was struck in such quantity that the diggers were forced to cease operations. The crew personnel is Herbert, Howard and Daniel Reeder, Bobby Zerba and Donna Jean Logsdon.

Mrs. Elmer Stockstill has received news of the death of a niece, small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Hyman of Ringling, Montana. Mrs. Hayman is a sister of Mrs. Stockstill and was Miss Audrey Finch before her marriage. Mrs. Hayman was en route by train to Mullan, Idaho to visit her mother when the death occurred.

Mrs. Ruth Chandler and daughter Naomi returned to Milwaukie, Oregon Friday night. They have been visiting relatives and friends in Athena. Mrs. N. C. Dickenson, Mrs. Chandler's mother who resides with her and who accompanied her daughter here will remain for a couple of weeks longer, before returning to Milwaukie.

Lovely garden flowers with roses predominating centered the table Friday when Mrs. E. C. Prestbye entertained at luncheon, honoring Mrs. Justin Harwood. Other guests present were Mrs. Victor Hirsch, Mrs. Mehrer, Mrs. Jennie Gross, Mrs. Bryce Baker, Mrs. Grant Prestbye. The hours following luncheon were spent in chat.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Koepke Sr., arrived by motor Wednesday evening to spend the remainder of the summer with their son Henry Jr. They have motored here from their home at Glendale, California and met with an automobile accident near Medford. Mrs. Koepke was slightly injured and the party was delayed while the damaged car was repaired.

Al Swaggart, who is here from Portland, looking after the harvesting of his wheat crop, is still a base ball fan. He pins his faith in the Montavilla team in the greater Portland league, and read with delight the 13-inning victory over the Port team last Sunday. Back in "Yellow Kid" days Link was yelling for Brown and Willard, when they went into the pitcher's box. Now the only ball player on earth for him is Midget Harkins, tiny left fielder for Montavilla.

UMATILA-CHICKENS PAY

Poultry production on a commercial scale is the most profitable activity that can be carried on by Umattilla project farmers adapted to it, is the belief of Harry Spinning. He started in with a few chickens five years ago. Today he has a flock of 9.5 hens producing eggs at a rate of 60 per cent, with warm summer weather prevailing.

THE PICTURE PROGRAM

Saturday night, First National's fine picture, "A Thief In Paradise," with Doris Kenyon and Ronald Colman in the leading roles, will be the feature offering on the program at the Standard Theatre. Sunday night Pola Negri will be presented by Paramount in "Flower of the Night," supported by a cast of Famous Players.

Headquarters For Harvest Supplies

Gallon Fruit, Catsup, Pickles, in glass Container. Fresh Vegetables and Fruit daily.

Harvest Hose, per pair.....	12 1/2c and 15c
Harvest Shirts, each.....	89c and $1.00
Harvest Gloves, per pair.....	20c to $2.50
Harvest Shoes, per pair.....	$2.25 to $5.00
Bib Overalls.....	$1.29
Sack Needles.....	$1.00

Overalls, Jumpers, Koveralls, Khaki Pants, Khaki Hats, B. V. D.'s

Phone Your Order To 152

Athena Department Store

THE STANDARD THEATRE

Saturday, July 24

Samuel Goldwyn

Presents

A Thief In Paradise

With Doris Kenyon, Ronald Colman, Aileen Pringle in a Thrilling Romance where

Beauties Play Polo Match In Their Bathing Suits

Love and mystery 'gainst fashion's beauty. A thousand wonders in one speeding hour. A thousand creations to delight the eye. Just the picture for Fitzmaurice to make—just the kind you've been looking for. See! Divers fight the perilous China seas for pearls. Fashion's playground. A polo match of picked beauties—blondes vs. brunettes in bathing suits. Society splendor. An aeroplane honeymoon. The undersea dance—symbol of man's eternal quest. Frisco's Bohemia—and Hawaiian Dancing maids performing in an artist's studio. The most astounding revelation of originality and beauty conceived.

International News

Comedy

Admission Prices, 10c-35c

Sunday, July 25

Pola Negri

In

"Flower of the Night" California In 1856

A Colorful Romance In A Spanish Setting

Romance and adventure sweep through this story. The hordes that rushed to California from the four corners of the globe to create a mighty Pacific empire amid confusion, disturbed the Edenlike peace that was enjoyed by the Spanish populace. The hills gave up their gold. Life was cheap. Rev. ery gained a new climax. San Francisco teemed with reckless humanity. The old order of Spanish culture in America gradually gave way before the onslaught of the gold seekers. But romance did not die. Rather it flourished as never before in the environment of the tumult. This picture is a rapid succession of big, superb, dramatic scenes from the very beginning when a thrill is handed the audiences by showing a powerful hydraulic jet washing away the side of a hill to glean its gold.

Pathe Review

Comedy

Admission Prices, 10c-35c

Steve Has Just Received

A New Line of

Men's Wear

Come and Look it Over

Don't Overlook Our Grocery Department

We carry every kind of fresh fruit and vegetables in the market. Cabbage, Beets, Carrots, Lettuce, String Beans, New Corn on the Cob, Blackberries, Raspberries, etc.

STEVE'S GROCERY

Quality Quantity, Service.

Phone 171.

Athena, Oregon