

Press Paragraphs

Verne Dudley spent the week end in Walla Walla.

Mrs. Robert Lee was in Athena from Milton, Monday.

Mrs. Lew McNair and daughter Lenore, are visiting in Spokane.

Mrs. J. C. Baker was a business visitor in Walla Walla, Tuesday.

Pat Lonergan of Pendleton transacted business in Athena Wednesday.

Dr. Sharp was a business visitor in Walla Walla the first of the week.

Mrs. W. B. Shaffer and daughter of Waitsburg visited Athena friends Monday.

George Strand, prominent farmer of Pendleton spent Wednesday afternoon in Athena.

Mrs. A. B. McEwen was a guest one day last week of Mr. and Mrs. William Booher.

Mrs. Mae Johns and son Flint spent Monday in Walla Walla, on a business mission.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Miller are moving to Tacoma where they are locating temporarily.

Mr. and Mrs. James Phillips of Pendleton are making a two week's tour of Canada, by automobile.

Mrs. William Booher visited from Wednesday to Friday of last week with her son Jake Booher, in Pendleton.

A. M. Gillis who formerly lived in Athena but who now makes his home at Washuena, was an Athena visitor Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Vern Smith and little daughter of Weston, have been at the C. L. McFadden home in Athena this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Zeph Lockwood drove to Hot Lake Sunday to see Mr. Lockwood's mother who is under the care of Dr. Phy there.

Mrs. Ernest Benefiel, Mrs. Inez Nissen and Mr. and Mrs. Tracy and children were visitors Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. John Harden.

Lew McNair, who is employed in the Athena Department store left Sunday morning for Portland, where he will spend his vacation.

Mrs. N. C. Dickenson left for Milwaukie, Oregon Tuesday morning after an extended visit with relatives and friends in Athena and vicinity.

Mrs. Dickenson resides with her daughter, Mrs. Ruth Chandler.

Mrs. Alma Koontz is visiting this week at the home of friends near Pendleton, and will proceed to Portland where she will reside.

Mrs. Nellie Taggart is here this week from Spokane, visiting relatives, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Foss and L. J. Foss and Mrs. Mattie Mitchell.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Johnson and Miss Marvel McCrae of Walla Walla, spent Sunday in Athena, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Martin.

Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Smith, son and daughter of Portland, are enjoying a motor trip through Yellowstone Park and other points of interest, this week.

Miss Dorothy Geissel who has spent the past two months visiting with relatives and friends in Eugene and Portland, returned home Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Bonnett and children and Mrs. Fern Wirtz of Renfrow, Oklahoma spent the fore part of last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Jones.

Mrs. Fred Kershaw and daughter Frederica returned Tuesday evening from Payette Lake, Idaho, where they have been sojourning for the past three weeks.

Lawrence Pinkerton and family departed Tuesday for Seaside where they will enjoy an outing. The party went by motor and will visit Seattle, Tacoma and Canadian points before returning home.

Miss Pearl Ramsey who for the past six months has been taking a marcelling course at La Grande, has finished the work and will open up a shop in Athena soon.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. McFadden have been at Portland this week, where Mr. McFadden took advantage of "buyer's week" and purchased stock for his pharmacy.

Jens Jensen who operates a blacksmith shop in Athena is spending his vacation at Wallowa Lake. E. L. King is substituting in the shop during Mr. Jensen's absence.

Louis Bergevin and family will leave the latter part of the week for Ione where Mr. Bergevin has rented an extensive wheat ranch and where they will make their home.

Jesse Myrick and Arnold Wood and families have returned from a camping trip east of Kamela. A pleasant outing was enjoyed and the vacationists brought home spoils consisting of thirty gallons of huckleberries.

"Dad" Welch returned from Walla Walla Tuesday, where he went to consult Dr. Keeler. A small cancerous growth was removed from Mr. Welch's face, by Dr. Keeler.

Excavation of the basement for the new home of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Watts, at the corner of Jefferson and Fourth streets is being made this week under supervision of Mr. Gore.

A number of the young people of Athena attended the dance given at Freewater's open air pavilion Saturday night. The Jolly Joy-Makers orchestra from Athena furnished the music.

Miss Ethel Geissel, linotype operator for the Athena Press, will leave on a vacation trip to Portland and Eugene next Friday evening, where she will be the guest of relatives and friends.

Returning from the family vacation this week, C. M. Eager proceeded to get busy with the handle of a paint brush. The exterior of the Eager home would indicate that Roe "knows his onions."

J. E. Jones, local rural mail carrier, who has been absent from his work for six weeks, Monday returned to take over his mail route, which has been in the capable hands of his son Ray Jones.

Word from the hospital is to the effect that Dr. Dell, pioneer Athena resident, is gradually growing weaker, and that all hope of his returning to his home here in improved health, is given up.

Mrs. Bert Logsdon went as far as Pendleton Saturday evening where she joined her sister Miss Velva Mansfield and Sunday morning they left by motor for Portland, where they spent the fore part of this week.

In a letter to friends in Athena Mrs. S. C. Stanton who several months ago left here for Prineville, to visit her son, Will Stanton states she is in much better health. Mrs. Stanton had been very ill prior to her departure.

Mr. and Mrs. John Stacklie of Longview, drove up to Athena Saturday and returned home Tuesday. They came after their sons who have spent several weeks at the home of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Bern Banister.

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Reeder and sons and Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Gholson Saturday morning drove to Kamela after huckleberries. They returned Monday night with a large picking, having secured between 12 and 14 gallons.

Jesse Hawthorne and Reece Hawthorne who have been guests for the past two weeks of George Gross, left for their home in Hood River, Monday evening. They were accompanied back by George who will visit them for a while.

Miss Jeanette Miller is here from her home at Marshfield, visiting friends. Miss Miller taught in a school near Marshfield last year, and will take up her work again in September. Her father, W. C. Miller, is at Lakeview, Oregon, where he is employed.

While Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Russell were engaged in picking 14 gallons of huckleberries in the Kamela district, last week, someone entered the cellar at their home in Athena, and stole about 40 quarts of blackberries and raspberries. Mrs. Russell had just finished canning the fruit prior to going on the huckleberry trip.

Mrs. J. B. Anderson who has been with her mother, Mrs. Truelove who is at the home of her son L. A. Truelove near Lebanon, returned to Athena Saturday. Mrs. Anderson was called to the bedside of her mother who has been seriously ill, she reports her mother improving.

Mrs. A. B. McEwen who now makes her home in Portland visited old friends in Walla Walla Tuesday and Wednesday of this week, including Mrs. Mary Tompkins, Mrs. William Piper Sr., and Mrs. Steele, well known here as Mrs. Ed Broughton.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Pinkerton, Floyd Pinkerton and family and Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Frazier of Milton, left Wednesday morning on a motor-trip to the Sound cities and into British Columbia. At Bellingham, they will be guests at the wedding of Glenn C. Hutton, where Floyd will act in the capacity of "best man."

Ray Logan who made his home here formerly visited Athena friends Wednesday. Mr. Logan now makes his home at Truckee, California and has charge of a construction crew of the Southern Pacific in that division.

Mrs. D. L. Hackett was hostess to the Christian Missionary society Wednesday afternoon at the parsonage. Mrs. Mattie Mitchell was leader of the program and refreshments were served by Mrs. M. M. Johns.

Bryce Baker, Penn Harris and Alfred Pambrun will leave Saturday night for Clearwater, Idaho on a fishing expedition. They will return next week.

Miss Amy Purcell of Fresno, California is visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. Marion Hansell. Miss Purcell is engaged in home missionary work.

Glen Dudley is attending the Legion convention now in session at Marshfield. Mr. Dudley made the trip in his new Chrysler sedan.

Mr. and Mrs. Flint Johns and family and Mrs. M. M. Johns will leave soon for a two weeks visit in Portland, Vancouver and Seaside.

Myrtle Davis of Weston is visiting her sister, Mrs. Horace Payne of Athena. She will spend two weeks here before returning home.

Frank Killian and "Tiny" Taylor were in Athena Wednesday to receive some cattle which they will drive to Palmar Valley for range.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant Prestbye are planning a motor trip to Canadian points. They will visit Calgary and other cities in Alberta.

Miss Lizzie McKenzie of Portland, visited in Walla Walla this week being the guest of Mrs. J. S. Fallon and daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Heath were visitors here Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Heath make their home on West Mountain.

H. G. Mulkey and son Lester who have been in this vicinity during harvest left Wednesday for their home at Newport.

N. A. Miller with Ralph Carsten left Wednesday for Hidayay springs where they will spend the next two weeks.

Rev. Carrol Fairbanks, popular evangelistic singer, has been the guest of friends here during the week.

J. N. Scott of Pendleton and Ralph Cannon of Athena attended the funeral of William Anderson Wednesday.

Cliff Culley, local distributor of the Hudson and Essex cars was in Athena, Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Jennie Proebstel of Weston is spending the week at the country home of Mrs. Lilla Kirk.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Lieuallen and Miss Jennamae Read will motor to Portland next week.

Miss Hazel Sanders spent the week end as the guest of Miss Velva Mansfield in Pendleton.

Mr. and Mrs. Olin C. Hadley and son Ronald have been enjoying an outing at Oceanside.

Mrs. H. A. Barrett and Mrs. W. S. Ferguson were visitors in Walla Walla Monday.

George Finch has especially fine tennis shoes on display in his shop window.

Mrs. Sherman and daughter Maude spent Saturday in Walla Walla.

R. B. McEwen was a business visitor Tuesday in Walla Walla.

I. Durnberger of Seattle was a Monday visitor in Athena.

James Lumsden was here Wednesday from Weston.

James Cook of Walla Walla spent Tuesday here.

Jess Gordon is driving a new Hudson sedan.

Baptist Church

Sunday school at 9:45 a. m. Here is a place to prepare for self improvement too. Morning worship at 11:00 a. m. Topic, Convention Echoes. Read Ecclesiastes 7:29. Junior and Senior Young people meet at 6:00 and 7:00 o'clock respectively. "Learn to labor and to wait." Song and Praise service at 8:00. Theme, S. O. S. Text Mt. 8:25. This is a cry of distress but also cry that brings help. Young Peoples Prayer League Tuesday evening at 8:00, and mid-week meeting Thursday evening at 8:00. If you are not a worshipper elsewhere worship with us. All invited.

Trunks, Bags and Suitcases

When going on your Vacation you will want a Bag, Suitcase or Gladstone Bag. We have them at following prices

Suitcases at	-	-	$2.00 to $12.50
Bags at	-	-	98c to $9.50
Gladstones at	-	-	$16.50
Trunks at	-	-	$9.00 to $18.00

Come in before you go and look them over

5 per cent Discount for Cash

Phone Your Order To 152

Athena Department Store

THE STANDARD THEATRE

Saturday, August 7

Jane Novak, Kenneth Harlan and Sigrid Holmquist

In

Two Shall Be Born A Great Melodrama

IN WHICH A BRAINY YOUNG AMERICAN POLICEMAN OUTWITS A GANG OF FOREIGN CROOKS

A gripping drama of old-world hate and intrigue laid in New York City, depicting the thrills of a gripping story of pathos and humor, on a par with the beautiful and interesting photoplay "Thunder Mountain" shown at the Standard Theatre last Saturday, with Leslie Fenton in the leading role—a big, fine special at regular admission prices.

International News

Comedy

Admission Prices, 10c-35c

Sunday, August 8

Betty Bronson

Stars in the Epic film version of Bret Harte's Story of the California gold rush,

The Golden Princess

"The days of old, the days of gold, the days of '49" live once again in all their rollicking, romantic and rip-roaring glory in Paramount's stirring, adventurous melodrama, "The Golden Princess," which introduces Betty Bronson as an honest-to-goodness movie star. Her superb performances in "Peter Pan," "Are Parents People" and "Not So Long Ago" have won her a place among the stars. No better choice of starring vehicle could be made than this golden romance of California boom days.

Pathe Review

Comedy

Admission Prices, 10c-35c

Coming:

The Johnstown Flood!

Vacation Needs

Kodaks and Films, First-aid Kits, Jantzen Swimming Suits, Stationery, Vacum Bottles, Creams and Lotions etc.

McFADDEN'S PHARMACY

Steve Has Just Received

A New Line of

Men's Wear

Come and Look it Over

Don't Overlook Our Grocery Department

We carry every kind of fresh fruit and vegetables in the market. Cabbage, Beets, Carrots, Lettuce, String Beans, New Corn on the Cob, Blackberries, Raspberries, etc.

STEVE'S GROCERY

Quality Quantity, Service.

Phone 171.

Athena, Oregon