

22 Years Ago

October 7, 1904

The St. Nichols baggage cart has seen a lot of hard service and all kinds of usage, but it apparently draws the line at being ridden by an inebriated passenger. Yesterday the cart filled with baggage was standing in front of the hotel when a fellow with a "jag" came along and sat down on it. The cart is a two-wheeled affair with a push handle, and like a bucking cayuse, it reared backward, throwing man and baggage to the ground with a thud.

A farewell party was given Miss Irma Weir at Epworth hall Monday evening, prior to her departure for a six months' stay in the east, by Mrs. McBride's bible class, of which she was a member.

York Dell and James Foss will leave tonight for Portland. They are delegates from Pythian Lodge No. 29, K. of P., to the Knights of Pythias grand lodge, which convenes at Seaside next week.

A reception and donation party was given at the M. E. church Tuesday evening for the purpose of welcoming the new pastor, Rev. Ed Baker and his wife into their field of work in this city. Mr. Will M. Peterson was called upon to make the address of welcome, and responded in his usual happy manner.

The family of G. W. Pittsworth have moved to Helix to reside.

The condition of S. C. Stanton remains about the same as for the past several weeks.

The brick work on the new lodge building will be completed next week, weather permitting.

Louie LaBrache has been fishing again, as his friends in town can attest, having received indubitable proof of the fact.

East Oregonian: William Littlejohn has resigned his position as night miller at Walter's mill and entered the employ of the Preston-Parton company at Waitsburg. He has worked in the Custom Mills for a number of years, and Mr. Walters refers to him as a very able man in his line.

"Dad" Luna has established a blacksmith shop in the building at the corner of Main and Second streets, formerly occupied by A. Kunkel & company, implement dealers.

Miss Velma Backus came down from Spokane Tuesday and Wednesday accompanied Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Reeder to Tacoma, where she will make her home with them.

Col. Wood has returned from the world's fair and is once more down to the monotonous grind that falls to the lot of the country editor.

October 11, 1904

N. A. Miller has received his membership certificate of the State Undertakers' Association. Mr. Miller also has the honor of being a member of the board of examiners of the association.

Frank Nowitski has recovered from a protracted illness with fever in the hospital at Pendleton, and is again at work in W. R. Miller's harness shop at Weston. Mr. Miller is not able yet to resume work.

Jacob Bloch, who some time ago sold his grocery store in Spokane, for the present is keeping books for a Pullman, Washington business man.

A. B. McEwen is suffering from a case of blood poisoning at his home in this city. His foot is badly swollen, having started from a small pimple.

B. B. Hall, for five years deputy county clerk and recently appointed chief assessor, has resigned to take a position in the Farmers' Bank of Weston.

Miss Ollie Bryson, whose home is on the mountain east of Weston, has entered the 8th grade in the Athena school.

Honesty Still Best Policy

Why are nice women nice? Because of the knowledge that being nice pays, and is easier than being tough.

The greatest sermon ever written, or ever will be written, is that honesty is the best policy. No one man wrote this sermon; all men lived, proved it. Those who violate the sermon know better; they are actuated by meanness, recklessness. Many of them are put in jail; a few hanged; all punished in one way or another.—E. W. Howe's Monthly.

Since You're So Wise

From a ladies' paper: "When the gay bard of Avon fondly inquired, 'What so rare as a day in June?' he was probably thinking of the smiles and tears and tenderness of the wedding day."

Now tell us what James Russell Lowell was thinking of when he wrote "To be or not to be."

This is the Difference

Ten percent of the farms of Oregon have electric service, all from regulated utilities.

Less than three percent of the farms of Ontario, Canada, enjoy the benefits of such service.

In Oregon the regulated utilities are extending their lines as fast as business conditions reasonably permit. Gradually but steadily that service to rural communities is increasing.

Ontario, served in part by the provincial government, serves the centers of population.

Government operation means political operation.

Political operation is after the votes.

The Housewives' Council "Water and Power" Amendment gives an inexperienced board absolute authority to spend fifty-three million dollars from the sale of state bonds, for which all property in the state would be mortgaged. The farmer-taxpayer helps to guarantee the debt, but the Ontario experiment shows who gets the service.
