The Volga Boatman
 Mare Nostrum

... she visited the family of her brother, Grover Bowles on the stock ranch. Her mother, Mrs. Sarah

... will hold its annual meeting in the county library club room at Pendleton, tomorrow, beginning at 10 a. m. An instructive program has been formulated for the occasion.

The party of hunters comprising Bert Logsdon, Sheldon Taylor, Dean Dudley, George Finch of Athena and Emory Worthington of Pendleton returned to their homes Tuesday afternoon. George Finch and Bert Logsdon were the successful hunters each bagging a deer.

Guests last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Watts were: Mr. and Mrs. Press Anderson of Seattle; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Anderson of Portland, both the gentlemen being brothers of Mrs. Watts, and Stanford Anderson, a nephew, with his wife and twin children, of Portland, and Mrs. Markham Anderson of Walla Walla.

E. A. Dudley has purchased 385 acres of farm land near Dayton, Washington, and an additional 325 acres has been leased. Twenty head of mules and farm equipment was secured with the land deal. Verne Dudley will operate the holdings. The farm purchased by Mr. Dudley is well improved and is situated about two miles from Dayton, near the Washington state highway.

The O. D. O. club met Wednesday afternoon October 13 at the home of Mrs. Joyce Smith with 17 members present. The afternoon was pleasantly spent. Mrs. Lawrence Pinkerton and Mrs. Floyd Pinkerton honored Mrs. George Johnston with two lovely tributes written and read by them. After which the club presented Mrs. Johnston with a beautiful Indian robe. Mrs. Johnston and family are moving to Prescott, Washington. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Jesse Smith and Mrs. Joyce Smith. The next meeting of the club will be held Wednesday afternoon October 27 at the home of Mrs. Archie McIntyre. Guests included Mrs. Gray, Mrs. Harden and Mrs. Hadley.
