

Press Paragraphs

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Shick motored to Walla Walla, Sunday, where they were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Shick.

Mrs. Charles Alspach of Helix, spent Thursday and Friday in Athena, where she visited with Mrs. Arthur Jenkins.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith and Mr. and Mrs. George Johnston, made a business trip to Moscow, Idaho, Saturday. The party returned home Sunday.

The topic for B. Y. P. U. next Sunday is Arranging Life's Values. The hour, 6:30. The place, Baptist church. The leader, Mrs. Bollinger.

Hobart Peringer who farms near Havana visited here Wednesday.

C. H. Banister was here from Holdman Wednesday transacting business. W. E. and Edmund Potts made business calls here Wednesday. They are prominent Helix farmers.

W. L. Rayborn well known Weston man was an Athena visitor Wednesday.

Roy Hyatt and family of Weston mountain were Athena visitors for a time Tuesday. They were en route to Pendleton.

Mr. and Mrs. Lucien Gagnon and Clarence Gagnon and family will leave Friday by motor for Los Angeles where they contemplate spending the winter. They will visit their daughter Florence, who now makes her home in the Southern metropolis. John Tompkins was in Athena Wednesday from Helix.

Mr. and Mrs. Dolph Thompson were Wednesday visitors motoring here from Bingham Springs. Mrs. M. L. Watts and Mrs. W. S. Ferguson were Walla Walla visitors Monday.

Rev. and Mrs. Bollinger spent Monday in Walla Walla.

Mrs. John Ankeny of Walla Walla and Mrs. Harriet McArthur of Portland visited at the home of Mrs. F. S. LeGrow Tuesday.

Mose Banister who has been suffering an attack of the influenza is able to be out again.

Mr. and Mrs. James Sturgis, Will Switzer and Mrs. Henry Collins visited Athena friends this week.

R. Wallen of Adams transacted business here Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. S. LeGrow motored to Pendleton Tuesday on a business mission.

Mrs. W. P. Littlejohn has returned home after several days visit at the home of her daughter Mrs. Guernsey who makes her home at Haines.

A. M. Gillis of Washtucna, was a visitor in Athena this week.

Jack Cunningham former Athena resident was a Wednesday visitor here from Pendleton.

Emmett Lee and family motored to Winona last Friday to spend the week end at the home of Tracy Lee, a brother. Miss Dorothy Lee who is attending Normal school at Cheney was also at Winona and enjoyed visiting with her parents.

Harry R. Breeder of Yakima, Washington was here this week buying potatoes from various growers in this vicinity and Weston. The potatoes will be shipped to Yakima.

Miss Ruth Proebstel, Helen Eubanks and Jerry Cassett visited at the R. B. McEwen home last week end motoring here from Walla Walla.

Dr. and Mrs. Stone former Athena residents who now make their home at The Dalles, visited Athena friends Saturday. They were en route home from Thornton, Washington. Miss Jennamae Read who is seriously ill at her home here shows slight improvement.

A number of Athena people motored to Walla Walla Saturday where they witnessed the football game between Washington and Whitman at the new stadium.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Roseberry of Fowhattan, Kansas are here and contemplate spending the winter with their son H. A. Roseberry.

The Christian church will observe their regular Rally Day in the Sunday school next Sunday November 7. See regular church notice. You and your family are invited to come.

Mr. and Mrs. T. P. DeFrees of Walla Walla spent Friday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sims Dickenson.

Mrs. Zeltha McIntyre and Miss Kathryn McIntyre left this week for Hoquiam, Washington, where they will visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Shelley. They will make the trip in Mrs. McIntyre's new Whippet car, which she recently purchased.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Cockburn of Milton were in Athena Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Claud Dickenson, Mrs. Fred Gross and Miss Gladys Dickenson motored to Dayton, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark Mace, who formerly resided here and who now make their home at Grandview, Washington, spent Saturday and Sunday in Athena, as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Logsdon.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Carl Pendleton (Grace Zerba) November 1, 1926, at Lakeview, Oregon, a son.

Mr. and Mrs. William Booher have returned from Pendleton, where they visited their son, Jacob Booher.

Mrs. E. C. Prestbye left Wednesday for Seattle, where she will visit at the home of her father, Mr. Pickett. She will also attend the wedding of her sister Miss Marvel Pickett who is to be married there November 17. Mrs. Ida Banister will substitute at the telephone exchange for Mrs. Prestbye.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Logsdon Wednesday motored to Waitsburg, where they attended the funeral of little 5 year old Flora Cockburn, who was burned to death there Monday. The little girl was a great niece of Mr. Logsdon.

Mrs. George Banister Jr. of Athena and Mrs. Raymond Geissel of Milton returned to their homes Saturday evening after spending two weeks in Portland. Mrs. Geissel also visited in Longview, at the home of her sister, Mrs. John Stacklie.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Anderson of Helix, were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Myrick.

Beginning tomorrow night, all shows at the Standard Theatre will begin promptly at 7:45, until further notice.

A wonderful story of World sea warfare, "Mare Nostrum," will be shown at the Standard Theatre tomorrow, for one night only, at 10c-35c-50c admission prices. This is a Rex Ingram picture, one of the best of the season. Sunday night Richard Dix in "Womanhandled."

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Davidson and Mrs. George Davidson of Milton, spent Sunday at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Bollinger.

Mignonette Rebekah lodge will meet Tuesday, November 9, and as this is to be the last meeting before the convention will be held all members are urgently requested to be present as most important business is to be discussed at this time. The convention date is Tuesday November 23.

Found—A pair of eye-glasses and case. At Press office.

Way Cleared for C. M. & S. P. Sale. Chicago.—The way for the sale of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railway was cleared of all apparent obstacles when the United States circuit court of appeals refused to grant a petition for a mandamus to force Federal Judge James H. Wilkerson to allow an appeal from his order denying minority bondholders the right to intervene in the bankruptcy proceedings.

Portland Gets 1928 Scottish Rite Meet. Omaha, Neb.—The supreme council of thirty-third-degree Scottish Rite Masonry, in annual conclave here, voted to hold its 1928 meeting at Portland. The 1927 convention will be held at Washington, where it meets every odd year.

High School Notes

The boys have started a Round Robin basketball tournament. The high school boys have been divided into five different teams. The captains, who are letter men of the senior class are, Dalberth Taylor, Arthur Taylor, Fred Radtke, Dorsey Kretzer and Dale Stephens. In order to make six teams the eighth grade has entered a team, with Wayne Pittman as captain. The various teams are practicing Monday, Wednesday and Friday, of this week. The first game will be between the "Taylor Brothers" teams, on Monday evening, November eighth.

A straw vote taken in high school Tuesday resulted as follows; Pierce 34; Patterson 20; Haney 24; Steiwer 24; Stanfield 8.

The girls of Athena high school are giving a cake and candy sale at the Pure Food Grocery store, Saturday November 6; for the purpose of raising money for new basketball suits for the girls.

Mrs. H. A. Barrett and Mrs. Vic Hirsch visited the grades Tuesday. Bruce Samuels, who attended school here last year, visited in the primary room Wednesday.

E. A. Zerba, clerk of school district No. 29 has completed a census of the district. He finds that there are 145 children of school age. There are 79 boys and 66 girls.

Next Thursday, Armistice Day, will be a school holiday.

There were no tardy marks in Mr. Miller's or Miss Rodman's rooms during the last report month.

Roland Richards, Lucille Barrett, Robert Lee and Marjorie Montague of the sixth grade presented arguments favoring the leading political candidates, before an assembly of high school pupils Tuesday afternoon.

Those getting one hundred in spelling in the third grade for the month are: Annabel Payne, Doris Jenkins, Jack Miller and Cecil Clemons. Those getting one hundred in spelling in the fourth grade for this month are: Arleen Foster, Barbara Lee and Fern Carstens.

Mrs. Payne visited the third and fourth grades Friday afternoon.

Ruth Williams visited the third and fourth grades one day last week.

The fourth grade geography class has worked out on the sand table a lumbering project which is very attractive.

The Haggerty intelligence tests were given in the second, third and fourth grades this week.

Microscopic slides showing the textile fabric of wool, cotton, silk, artificial silk and linen have been prepared by the biology class.

About $100 worth of equipment has been added to the science room.

The high school and four upper grades were dismissed Monday afternoon, to hear the campaign speech of Governor Walter M. Pierce, at the Standard Theatre. They returned to the school house at 2:30.

Friday morning at a general assembly, Margaret Lee, Sarah Belle Jantzen and Lenore McNair gave talks on different phases of the election. These talks were as follows: Margaret Lee, Primary, Election and Senators; Lenore McNair, Candidates for Governor; Sarah Belle Jantzen, the proposed amendments for the State of Oregon.

Oral Michener was absent from school two days on account of illness. Clifford Wood, Dalberth Taylor and Dale Stephens attended the Washington-Whitman football game at Walla Walla Saturday.

Margaret Lee was in Winona, Washington, over the week end. While there she visited with her sister Dorothy, who is attending Cheney Normal.

All of the teachers were in Walla Walla Saturday and most of them witnessed the football game between Whitman and the University of Washington.

The high school teachers were dinner guests at the M. W. Hansell home Tuesday evening.

Motion Pictures to Teach Surgery.

Montreal. — American motion pictures entered a new scientific field, that of medicine and surgery, sponsored by one of the world's leading medical societies, the American College of Surgeons. Will H. Hayes, head of the picture industry, joined with the scientific men in the plan to give the entire world the benefit of medical and surgical pictures. The board of regents of the college adopted the report of a special committee advocating the use of movies.

Poisoning Husband Charged to Widow. Tillamook, Or.—Mrs. Eva N. McGee, widow of Dr. W. G. McGee, who died August 17 under circumstances regarded as suspicious, was arraigned in circuit court here on an indictment charging first degree murder by administration of poison. The indictment followed an autopsy performed by Dr. Robert L. Benson, Portland pathologist.

LACKERJAC

The New

Rainproof Blazer Coat

This new Blazer is dressy, warm and absolutely rainproof. Cuffs and bottom are wool knit with Corduroy collar to match

It comes in Brown, Grey and Black

Price $6.95

Phone Your Order To 152

Athena Department Store

THE STANDARD THEATRE

Saturday, November 6

Rex Ingram's

Mare Nostrum

Our Sea

With

Alice Terry and Antonio Moreno

The picture with a thousand thrills, a world of power and beauty mark this Ibanez romance of the World War as fought on the sea, played against the back ground of the colorful Mediterranean, directed by the man who made "The Four Horsemen." The fascinating story of a beautiful spy and the officer she had dragged down into the whirlpool of intrigue and betrayal, where both win redemption in moments of a mighty, blazing drama that cannot be forgotten.

It took a year to make the picture

International News

Comedy

Admission Prices, 10c-35c-50c

Sunday, November 7

Richard Dix

In

"Womanhandled"

Pathe Review

Comedy

Admission Prices, 10c-35c

Wednesday, November 10

"In the Name of Love"

With

Ricardo Cortez, Greta Nissen, Wallace Beery and Raymond Hatton

In picturizing, under the title "In the Name of Love," Bulwer-Lytton's famous love-classic of the last century, "The Lady of Lyons," Paramount brings to the screen one of the finest stories ever told. This glorious romance-epic, which made theatrical history on two continents and served as a starring vehicle for some of the notable stage personalities of the past seventy-five years, has been modernized and brought up-to-date, so that the millions of film fans may enjoy a splendid entertainment.

Comedy

Admission Prices 10c-35c

Gifts

For Every Occasion

Complete line of all the latest Novelties, just received

McFADDEN'S PHARMACY

Some New Arrivals At Steves

New line of Hats and Caps for Men and Boys Winter Underwear

Slip-overs, Blazers, and Sport Coats

Negligee Shirts

Hose and Neckties

Celebrated Alaska Buckskin Gloves

Fonda Gloves

We specialize in Fresh Fruit, Vegetables and Groceries of all kinds. If we haven't them, they are not on the market.

STEVE'S GROCERY

Quality Quantity, Service.

Phone 171.

Athena, Oregon