The Social Side

(By Adele McEwen)

ETUDE CLUB HOSTESS

Mrs. Floyd Pinkerton was hostess to the Etude club Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Will Pinkerton on Fourth and Jefferson streets.

After a short business session a most interesting program, arranged by Mrs. Frank Ames and Miss Edna Pinkerton was enjoyed by the members.

The subject comprised the study of the opera "Lohengrin" by Wagner, a sketch of the story of the opera being given by Mrs. Ames and Miss Pinkerton. Famous bits of the opera were interspersed, The Bridal March being played as a piano duet by Mrs. Max Hopper and Mrs. Lawrence Pinkerton. Mrs. R. B. McEwen sang the Swan Song. A paper on Italian music and composers was given by Mrs. Olin C. Hadley making the afternoon study most profitable. Chorus practice followed and new work taken up.

Mrs. Will Pinkerton poured and Mrs. Fred Pinkerton served ices from a table centered with bronze colored pom pom chrysanthemums and tall tapers. Mrs. Archie McIntyre and Miss Mildred Bateman were welcomed as new members of the club. Additional guests were Mrs. Fred Pinkerton and Miss Hilda Dickenson.

ARMISTICE DAY OBSERVED

A most interesting meeting of the Baptist Missionary society occurred at the home of Mrs. Charles Betts Thursday afternoon. The rooms were attractively decorated with flags and emblems appropriate to Armistice day and Thanksgiving. A frieze of cut outs including marines, dough-boys, American eagles, turkeys and pumpkins with flag draped portraits of Washington and John and Priscilla were most suggestive of the day. After the program arranged by Mrs. Bollinger and Mrs. Anderson, an appropriate lunch was served consisting of cranberry jelly and old fashioned gingerbread topped with whipped cream, embellished with flags and horns of plenty. Those who assisted in serving wore liberty caps in the National colors. The program follows:

Song "Aemrica"; Prayer, Mrs. Albee; Song, "Joy to the World"; Scripture, Matt. 28:18-20, Mrs. Bollinger; Vocal solo with aither accompaniment, Mrs. Patterson; Roll call, Missionary women; Lesson, "Second Century of Baptist Foreign Missions," Mrs. O. C. Hadley; Vocal solo, "The Gift" Mrs. R. B. McEwen.

SOPHOMORE PARTY

Members of the Sophomore class of the Athena high school made merry Wednesday evening at the R. B. McEwen home on College street. Many clever games and music made the hours pass swiftly. At a late hour a dainty supper was served, an Armistice day motif being used. Additional guests included Miss Mary Jane Cornelison class advisor, Miss Mildred Bateman, Mr. Ralph Stolzheise and Armand Bell.

BAZAAR AND DINNER

The Masterpiece of a Master Producer

Cecil B. DeMille starring William Boyd and Elinor Fair

The Volga Boatman

Here is a real drama, poignant, suspenseful, alluring, deftly woven together by a master producer—the wonder picture of the year. A tremendous picture of modern Russia, romantic yet more than a romance, melodramatic, yet vastly bigger than mere melodrama—a human story filled with tragedy, appeal, humor, remarkably gripping, swift-moving, fascinating, absorbing. Incomparably the greatest film achievement of the decade—Cecil B. DeMille's screen masterpiece.

The Duchess of Buffalo

Zowski!

—the best joke they ever heard in Russia!—the funniest show Connie ever put on the screen! She thought caviar was bird-shot in oil—she didn't know Russian sable from Tom cat—but she did know that ermine looked pretty, and that her sweetie was the handsomest boy in Russia—so it didn't take a troupe of Swiss bell ringers to make her think of wedding chimes.
