

Press Paragraphs

Lorain Shick has returned from a trip to Portland.

Green Estes was in town from Pendleton, Wednesday.

Glenn Dudley spent Sunday with friends at Pendleton.

Methodist ladies Bazar and dinner next Saturday, December 4th.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Hopper were visitors in Walla Walla Tuesday.

Mrs. F. S. LeGrow and Mrs. Henry Dell spent Tuesday in Walla Walla.

Mrs. L. McNair will be hostess to the Study club next Friday afternoon.

Jack Cunningham, now of Pendleton, made business calls in Athena Tuesday.

Ralph Tucker prominent Weston farmer was a business visitor here Wednesday.

The past week has been a stormy one. Sudden skies with much rain-fall and fog, has been dished up by the weather man.

Mrs. Raymond Geissel of Milton, spent the week end in Athena, at the home of relatives.

N. A. Miller spent Thanksgiving day in Walla Walla, at the home of his son Roll Miller.

The Christian Missionary society will meet at the home of Mrs. Stella Keen next Wednesday.

Mrs. Celia Burden has as her guest this week, Mrs. Wendell Taylor (Alice Gaines) of Medford.

Mrs. Martin McLaughlin, of Duncan, was here this week, visiting at the home of her mother, Mrs. Hodgen.

Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Kirk were here from the Milton-Freewater district, Tuesday, attending the Rebekah convention.

Mrs. Jennie Barrett left Wednesday for Portland where she will spend the winter with her daughter Miss Areta Barrett.

Charles Wilson, who went to Portland to witness the football game Saturday, remained in the metropolis to visit friends.

Mrs. Jack Cunningham and daughter Pat, spent Tuesday in Athena, when Mrs. Cunningham attended the Rebekah convention.

Miss Jennamae Read, who was operated on at Walla Walla, and who has been in a most critical condition, is reported to be slowly recuperating and now gives her relatives hope for recovery.

Mrs. S. F. Sharp who has been receiving treatment in St. Mary's hospital in Walla Walla, has returned to her home in Athena.

Mrs. John Rothrock of Pendleton, spent the week end in Athena, at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Harden.

Mr. and Mrs. Armond DeMerritt of Walla Walla and Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Littlejohn, were Thanksgiving guests at the Henry Dell home.

Mrs. Bert Logsdon entertained Mrs. Dora Sexton, president of the Rebekah assembly, at her home in Athena, during Mrs. Sexton's stay here.

C. M. Eager and family motored to Pendleton Thursday where they were present at a family dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bond.

Radio Station KGW at Portland broadcasted the results of the O. A. C.-Marquette football game Thursday and the Army-Navy game in Chicago tomorrow.

Mrs. George Gerking has received word that her brother, Archie Postwick is very ill in Spokane. Mr. and Mrs. Gerking will drive to that city to attend the sick man.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Raymond and son Warren, of Mitchell, Oregon, are in Athena and are visiting at the home of Mrs. Raymond's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cass Cannon.

Mrs. W. K. Wall had as guests the first of the week, her brother, E. J. Muir of southern Oregon, and his wife. Mr. Muir and Mrs. Muir had been visiting their son at Covc.

C. L. McFadden and family returned Tuesday evening from Portland and valley points "Pete" witnessed the U. of O. vs O. A. C. football game at Corvallis Saturday.

Mrs. Phillip Yenny, Mrs. Bertha Yenny of Walla Walla; Mrs. Nellie Taylor of Pendleton and Mr. and Mrs. Bert Logsdon were guests at dinner of Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Zerba, Thursday of last week.

Mrs. William Campbell and son Robert left Wednesday morning for Portland, where she will consult specialists concerning her son Robert's eyes. They contemplate being away about a week.

The patrons and pupils of LaMar school, north of Athena, participated in a Thanksgiving program at the school house, Wednesday evening.

The program numbers included recitations etc., after which all present thoroughly enjoyed a fine dinner.

Mrs. H. S. Swift is teacher at LaMar, and the evening's program was under her direction.

Stanfield Standard: Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Coppock were house guests of School Superintendent J. O. Russell over the week end. They had an opportunity to enjoy the "Feast of the Red Corn." Mr. Coppock is a prosperous farmer from Athena.

Wild duck is beginning to grace the table of the successful hunter. The main flight of migratory fowl is reported to be coming in at this time, and fortunate hunters having access to protected preserves, will have some sport from now until the season closes.

The picture program at the Standard for the week is George O'Brien and Anita Stewart in "Rustling For Cupid," tomorrow night; Richard Barthelmess and Dorothy MacKaill in "Ranson's Folly," Sunday night; Raymond Griffith in "Hands Up," Wednesday night.

Mrs. M. M. Johns left Saturday for Portland where she will enter the Portland Sanitarium for the purpose of submitting to a surgical operation. Her son, Flint Johns, went down to Portland Tuesday to be with her. Her many Athena friends hope for her early recovery.

Mrs. Herschel Shinall of Portland, spent Thursday visiting in Athena at the homes of Mrs. Martha Shick and A. E. Shick. She came here from Walla Walla, where she had been visiting her mother, Mrs. I. E. Severson. Mrs. Shinall will be remembered as Olive Shick.

Weston Leader: Snipper Snider is demonstrating his skill as a truck operator while hauling material from the McKay Creek dam to Weston for the new building of the Snider Wood-works. A corrugated iron structure was bought from the government by the local concern.

Herman Geissel, Norman McIntyre and John Pinkerton motored down to Arlington Saturday night on a goose hunt. Sunday the geese flew high and handsome, out of shooting range, so the boys had no shooting. They contemplate making a trip in the near future, when they will make special arrangements with the weather man to give them a day of goose weather—whatever that means.

Despite the inclement weather, quite an audience was present at high school auditorium, Wednesday afternoon, when the Athena schools rendered the Thanksgiving program. The pupils of the grade schools and the high school department contributed to the success of the program. Immediately after rendition of the program, school was dismissed for the Thanksgiving holiday period.

Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Lee and children, left Wednesday afternoon for Harrison, Idaho, where they will visit the remainder of the week. They will be guests at the home of Mrs. Lee's brother T. A. Stott. Dorothy Lee who is attending Cheney Normal school will also be a guest at the Stott home. Miss Lorraine Terry will accompany the Lee family as far as Rosalia, Washington, where she will visit at the home of her parents, during the Thanksgiving holidays.

High School Notes

The 5th and 6th grades, entertained assembly Friday morning, with a short program.

Those receiving 100 in spelling for the past week in the second grade were: Virginia Eager, Gayle McLean, Teddy Miller and Glen Moore.

The high school took the quarterly tests the first of the week.

The school board met recently and decided that the Christmas vacation should start Thursday evening December 23. School will convene again January 3. Arrangements were also made to trade in two old typewriters for new ones.

Word was received recently that G. W. Hall, who preceded Mr. Hadley as head of the Athena schools, is the victim of cancer and the doctors say he will not live more than two weeks.

Those receiving 100 last week in spelling in the Fifth & Sixth grades are: Leo Geissel, Marjorie Montague, Maxine Moore, Ralph Moore, Howard Reeder, Ronald Richards, Wendell Shigley, and Lowell Jenkins.

Miss Sellars is spending the Thanksgiving holidays in Portland. Miss Terry is at her home at Rosalia, Washington.

Mr. Stolzeise witnessed the football game between Whitman and Willamette at Walla Walla Thanksgiving day, after which he left for his home in Salem. Miss Bateman is at her home in Milton. Miss Cornelson went to Walla Walla for the Home-coming between Whitman and Willamette. Mr. Miller and family were in Walla Walla. Miss Rodman remained in Athena and Mr. Hadley and family were dinner guests of Mrs. Dubois and Miss Allen of Adams.

The Round Robin basket ball tournament, which has been in progress at the high school for the last two and a half weeks, was concluded Tuesday evening. This tournament was planned to give every boy in high school a chance to play and show what he could do in the way of making baskets. There were six teams entered, five from the high school, and one from the grades. The high school teams were captained by the Senior basket ball lettermen. The teams finished the tournament with the following percentages, each team having met every other team.

	W	L	Standing
Kretzer's team.....	5	0	1000
A. Taylor's team.....	3	2	.600
Radtke's team.....	3	2	.600
D. Taylor's team.....	3	2	.600
Steven's team.....	1	4	.200
Fittman's team, (G) 0	6	.000

The tournament was enjoyed by all and it also gave Coach Stolzeise a chance to see all prospective school players working under playing conditions. He is quoted as being well pleased with the prospects for this year.

The Junior class entertained the Senior class and the faculty at the home of Clifford Woods last Friday evening. Various games and dancing furnished the entertainment for the evening after which delicious refreshments were served.

Mrs. Fred Hansch of Holdman completed the painting of the interior scenery for the stage Tuesday. This scenery will be used for the first time at the high school play, next Friday evening.

Pendleton Robes

Just received a shipment of the famous Pendleton all wool Indian Robes in beautiful colors

Price

$10.00 to $21.00

Phone Your Order To 152

Athena Department Store

THE STANDARD THEATRE

Saturday, November 27

Peter B. Kyne's

Fine Western Story

Rustling For Cupid

Love, Hate and Justice in the Cattle Country

With

George O'Brien and Anita Stewart

This famous story by Peter B. Kyne, a romance surrounding a New Mexico cattlemen's feud, was filmed along the of Irving Cummings who produced "The Mexican border under the direction of Johnstown Flood," Fox Films spectacular creation that set a new high light for cinema productions.

International News

Comedy

Admission Prices, 10c-35c

Sunday, November 28

Richard Barthelmess

In

Ranson's Folly

Supported by Dorothy MacKaill

Flaming days of Indian wars! Nights of prairie love—a drama of the days when the West was young—a drama that will live on and on—a daring wagger that was won at a terrible cost—adaring prank by an amazing boy that swept him out of a cavalry saddle into the world of Adventure.

Pathe Review

Comedy

Admission Prices, 10c-35c

Wednesday, December 1

Raymond Griffith

In the Corking Comedy

Hands Up!

Heads up! The "Covered Wagon" of comedy, "Hands Up," is here! His High Hat Highness hitting the heights of hilarity! Ray's in the army now—and sh! he's a spy. And a scream! "Hands Up," a spectacular super-comedy of Civil War days, wins the laughs hands down.

Comedy

Admission Prices 10c-35c

Coming Wednesday December 8

"The Keeper of the Bees"

Candy Specials

Peanut Cluster

1-2 lb. 27c

Walnut Cream Paddie

1-2 lb. 27c

Assorted Chocolates

Full pound 39c

McFADDEN'S PHARMACY

Steves

Grocery and Furnishings Store

Toys-Toys-Toys

One of the finest line of Toys ever carried in Athena. A big, new stock to select from. We also have a big line of Presents for Men and Boys. Comprising Shirts, Handkerchiefs, Silk Socks, Ties, Etc

Neatly packed in Christmas Boxes

Remember, we carry a full line of Vegetables and Fruits for the Holiday and Party table

STEVE'S GROCERY

Quality Quantity, Service.

Phone 171.

Athena, Oregon

The Churches

Methodist Episcopal Church
Church school at 10: A. M. Be sure to be with us for the morning worship which will be in charge of Dr. Hisey at 11 o'clock. Tuesday evening at 7:30, choir rehearsal and preparation for the Christmas program.

Baptist Church
Sunday School at 9:45 A. M. Devotional at 11:00 A. M. Topic, Humanity's Search. Junior Young People at 5:30 P. M. Senior at 6:30 P. M. Song and Praise service at 7:30 P. M. Topic, Who are Excluded? All weekly services as per schedule. Sunday services well attended but let us strive to do better for the oncoming evangelistic meetings are not far off. Do not forget the Men's Meeting at the church Friday evening at 7:30 P. M. We can have just as good Men's League here as at other places if we get in and boost. The world demands real men; here is one place to learn its needs and help.

Church of Christ
Bible School 10 A. M. Remember the "Hold that Line" contest and be present promptly at 10 A. M. Preaching and Communion 11 A. M. Subject, How a Man Who Lived Three-thousand Years ago Felt Toward God. Remember that the evening service will be at Adams one more evening. You are most cordially invited to come to Adams. This will be the last night of the Revival Meeting that is being held there. The Christian church choir will sing for this service. The subject will be "The Judgement." Come, help us make the closing service, the best service.