

Press Paragraphs

"Winners of the Wilderness" Standard Theatre, tomorrow night. Louie Ringel has purchased a new Studebaker sedan.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Ferguson are driving a new Chrysler coupe.

Mrs. S. F. Sharp was brought home from the hospital, Wednesday.

The J. T. club is meeting today at the home of Mrs. Arthur Douglas.

A blustery reminder of winter was ushered in with a light snowfall, Wednesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Slosson of Dryden, Washington, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Jones.

Mrs. Raymond Geissel of Milton visited with relatives and friends in Athena, a portion of this week.

Mrs. Ida Banister is seriously ill at her home in Athena. Mrs. Cora Geary, nurse, is caring for her.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Logsdon are having some remodeling done to their home in the south part of town.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Whitehead moved Monday into the L. J. Foss residence in the north part of town.

The Women's Missionary society of the Baptist church met with Mrs. Jess Gordon on Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Gibbs of Parkdale, were week-end guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Chamberlain.

Edward K. Lane, a stockraiser of Arlee, Montana, was here this week, visiting at the home of his nephew, C. L. McFadden.

The owner of automobile license No. 177809 is the winner of five gallons of gasoline at Prestbye's service station this week.

The ladies of the Baptist church will hold a cooked food sale at O. O. Stephens' Pure Food Grocery on Saturday March 12th.

Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Liabley who reside near Pocatello, Idaho, stopped at the Lee home in Athena a few days this week on their way home. They had spent the winter in Seattle and Portland.

Milton Sills in "Paradise" Standard Theatre, Sunday night. All members of Pythian Lodge No. 29 K. of P. are requested to be present at the meeting to be held, Thursday evening, March 17.

Miss Frederica Kershaw who spent the week end with her parents in Pendleton, was in Athena Sunday, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Kershaw.

Most of the holes for blasting the remainder of the Thorn Hollow grade have been bored, and blasting along the right of way is now in progress.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Betts and Rev. and Mrs. E. M. Bollinger drove to Dayton Wednesday to hear Dr. Oscar Lowry in his Tabernacle Union revival meeting.

Mrs. A. E. Shick, who was operated on several weeks ago in the Walla Walla Valley General hospital, was brought home Sunday and is convalescing nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Huggins spent a portion of last week visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Riley Burden near Umapine. Mrs. Huggins is a sister of Mr. Burden.

There will be a St. Patrick's silver tea at the Baptist parsonage home of Rev. and Mrs. Bollinger on St. Patrick's day Thursday afternoon March 17, given by the ladies of the church. For everybody.

A St. Patrick's carnival dance will be given tomorrow night at Legion Hall. Special novelties will be in order for this occasion, which is among the series of every other Saturday night dances now being sponsored by the local American Legion Post.

A number of Athena people attended the style show sponsored by the American Legion in Pendleton Wednesday evening and last evening.

Miss Velva Mansfield, sister of Mrs. Bert Logsdon and who formerly resided here with her parents, was one of the models.

The O. D. O. club spent a pleasant afternoon at the country home of Mrs. Harry Saulsbury. The afternoon was spent in needlework and chat.

The next meeting of the club will be at the home of Mrs. Roy Cannon on Wednesday afternoon of March the sixteenth. Mrs. Lee Whitehead was taken in as a new member. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess.

T. E. Messenger, highway patrolman has been transferred from the Echo highway sector to the Athena division, taking the place here of Robert Cutler, who had been on this division since the highway was completed.

Mrs. Arthur Douglas entertained a party of friends at bridge Tuesday evening. Five tables were in play.

Mrs. Eager and Mr. Ames winning high scores. The hostess served dinner to her guests at 6:30, prior to bridge playing.

Mrs. Claude Dickenson will be hostess to the Study club at her home this afternoon. Last evening Mrs. Dickenson gave a shower and reception, honoring Mrs. Raymond Geissel of Milton, at which many of her Athena friends were present.

Wednesday, making a day of it, members of the local Christian church assembled and thoroughly cleaned the church building, from basement to gallery. At noon, lunch was provided the workers, coffee being made and served by the pastor.

The members of the Etude club entertained their husbands and the cast of the operetta "Once In a Blue Moon" at Legion Hall, Wednesday evening with a dancing party. Dancing was enjoyed from eight until eleven when refreshments were served at Kilgore's Cafe.

H. W. Liles, an elderly man who spent the winter at the mountain ranch of J. E. Jones, died at a Walla Walla hospital Saturday evening. He formerly was employed at the Ferguson sawmill. He is survived by three daughters, one residing at Spokane, the second at Dryden, Washington, and a third at San Francisco.

A fine special picture, Rex Beach's "Winds of Chance," will be shown as one of the Standard Theatre's mid-week better photoplays, next Wednesday evening, March 16. This picture was made at Wallowa Lake and in the Wallowa mountains by First National Pictures Corporation and it stars Anna Q. Nilsson, Hobart Bosworth, Viola Dana and Ben Lyon.

"Mignonette Rebekah" lodge met Tuesday evening, and after the meeting closed, those present repaired to Kilgore's Cafe, where they enjoyed delicious refreshments. It has been decided to have a social hour after each meeting of the lodge and refreshments will be served. Those on the committee for next meeting night, March 22, are Miss Ruth Williams, Miss Velma Schubert and Miss Ethel Geissel.

Mrs. Ralph B. McEwen was hostess at a large luncheon Saturday afternoon, when her tastefully decorated rooms were arranged to seat thirty-six guests, at small tables. The affair was given in honor of Mrs. Verne Dudley of Dayton and Mrs. Glenn Dudley of Athena, recent brides, and Miss Mildred Lorton of Walla Walla, who became the bride of Henry Koepke, Jr., Wednesday, March 9th. Yellow daffodils and pussy willows were used, the dainty yellow being carried out at the tables in gauze over linen, and lighted tapers. An interesting innovation in serving a four course luncheon was the "fingers before forks" idea, where all table silver was dispensed with, appropriate viands being provided saving embarrassment to the guests. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Henry Barrett and Mrs. C. M. Eager. The afternoon was passed with bridge, eight tables being in play, the high score going to Mrs. W. P. Littlejohn.

High School Notes

At a recent meeting of the senior class, Granville Cannon was selected as class orator for the graduation exercise. "Try, Trust, Triumph" was selected as a class motto. The class colors are to be pink and blue, and the class flowers are Forget-Me-Not and Roses.

Mr. D. T. Santo of Walla Walla took pictures of the various grade and high school classes recently.

Superintendent H. E. Inlow of the Pendleton schools visited the grades and high school recently. As a result of his visit two Athena teachers have been asked to apply for positions in Pendleton.

Lawrence Lieuellen and Carl Christian of Adams were recent business visitors at the school.

Mr. Stolze, accompanied by Mr. Pearson of Umapine and Mr. Lang of Echo, drove to Salem last Friday evening arriving there about 3 A. M. Saturday morning. They returned in time for their school work Monday.

The local tryout in declamatory work was held in the school auditorium last evening. The winners will speak in the sectional contest at Adams next Thursday and Friday evenings. The grade contest is Thursday and the high school contest is Friday.

Miss Sellars' room gave the assembly program last Friday. The program consisted of a scare crow drill, a reading, a song by four girls and a little play. Several parents were present for the program.

The state basketball tournament is underway at Salem. La Grande, Pendleton, Salem, Eugene, Tillamook, Astoria and Washington high of Portland are playing.

Loren Basler, former Athena coach passed through Athena with his basketball team from Boise, Idaho, en route to Moscow for the Idaho state tournament.

The pupils of the third and fourth grades, who washed their teeth every day last month were: Genevieve Barrett, Doris Jenkins, Maurine Edger, Jack Miller, Barbara Lee, Arleen Foster, Laurence Stamper, Miss Terry presented each with a tube of tooth paste.

Those who received hundreds in spelling in the third and fourth grades for the month are: Doris Jenkins, Barbara Lee, Aaron Douglas and Arleen Foster.

New method of killing mice by coach of Athena high. Ask him, he knows.

Lorena Schubert returned to school Monday, having been out on account of illness.

Kathleen and Fred Radtke were in Walla Walla Saturday.

Dorothy Geissel spent the week end in Milton, visiting friends.

Miss Cornelison and Miss Bate-man were in Walla Walla Saturday.

Lenore McNair, Jennamae Read and Lois Johnson were in Walla Walla Saturday.

Two public men in Washington were one day talking of the traits of a certain member of congress, who has a way of permitting himself to get "all hot up" over trifles and who generally makes a great to-do with respect to the accomplishment of small things.

"Yes, sir," observed one of the men first mentioned, "that chap invariably latches a Corliss engine to a gullet."

The Churches

Baptist Church
Sunday school at 9:45 A. M. Devotional at 11:00 A. M. Topic, A Sure Identification. Junior Young People meet at 5:30 P. M. and Seniors at 6:30 P. M. Both of these societies are splendidly equipped for an aggressive campaign; help the leaders to make them prosper. Evening Song and Praise at 7:30 P. M. Topic, "Thaw." Mid-week meeting Thursday evening at 7:30 P. M. Choir rehearsal at the parsonage Friday evening. You are cordially invited to service.

Church of Christ
The Sunday school has had good attendance the last two weeks and we wish to keep on the upgrade. If you are not attending a Sunday school remember that you are invited here. The song service, communion, and preaching at eleven A. M. The morning sermon will be "A Refused Crown." The Christian Endeavor will meet at 6:30 P. M. We are having good meetings now and invite you to attend the Junior Endeavor. The sermon for Sunday evening will be "Faith." You will be interested in this subject. Come! Invite your friends, and let us reason together. We will open the Bible and see what it says to us on this important theme. Come! A welcome awaits you!

New Spring Goods Arriving

36 inch Printed Fabrics, per yard.....	25c
32 inch Printed Soiesettes, per yard.....	50c
40 inch Printed Bermuda Voile, per yard.....	45c
36 inch Printed Indian Head, per yard.....	50c
36 inch Keyston Faulards, per yard.....	60c
36 inch Peter Pan in colors, per yard.....	55c
36 inch Colored Pongee, per yard.....	95c
36 inch Plain Voile, per yard.....	40c
36 inch Independence Percales, per yard.....	35c
36 inch Devonshire, per yard.....	40c

Ladies Silk Hose

All late colors, per pair 89c, $1.50 and $2.25

5 per cent Discount for Cash

Phone Your Order To 152

Athena Department Store

THE STANDARD THEATRE

Saturday, March 12

Winners of the Wilderness

With

Tim McCoy and Joan Crawford

If you don't thrill to this one, see your doctor--A great romance of the Golden West in the days of Braddock and old Fort Duquesne.

A romance with a kick in it! Against the background of early pioneering days, Indian warfare and intrigue! Thousands of Indians--feats of horsemanship to amaze you! A new kind of Western!--One founded on historical events transpiring in Colonial days.

International News

Admission Prices, 10c-25c-35c

Sunday, March 13

"Paradise"

With

Milton Sills and Betty Bronson

Another Sills Triumph!

By the ironical whim of a heartbroken father he was willed Paradise island—a hellhole masked by the beauty of the tropics—it would make him, or break him—but there are men who are not easily broken—and he was one of these. A South Sea romance—a drama of the Pacific that rings out with the clash of brawny men fighting for a dot of land at the world's edge—and a girl! One of the truly big pictures of the season.

Pathe Review

Admission Prices, 10c-25c-35c

Special! Wednesday, March 16

The Big Picture

"Winds of Chance"

Filmed In Wallowa Mountains

With

Anna Q. Nilsson, Hobart Bosworth, Viola Dana, Ben

Lyon and Victor McLaglen

Comedy

Admission Prices 10c-25c-35c

Going to Paint?

Then use

SHERWIN-WILLIAMS PAINT, PREPARED

MADE TO PAINT BUILDINGS WITH, OUTSIDE AND INSIDE

and you'll get satisfaction. It's the best protection you can give your house.

It is made from the highest quality materials.

It does not powder, flake off or crack.

It forms a tough, durable film that wears and looks well for the longest time.

Its colors are clear, bright and lasting.

It costs less by the job than any other paint made.

The full color card shows 48 handsome shades. S. W. P. is put up full measure, always.

McFADDEN'S PHARMACY

Cotton Double Blankets

and

Pendleton Woolen Robes

Ladies' Chiffon Hose

$1.15 and $2.00

We Guarantee All Ladies' Hose

Complete Line of Children's Hose

All sizes

STEVE'S GROCERY

Quality Quantity, Service.

Phone 171.

Athena, Oregon