

These Cars are DOUBLY guaranteed!

YOU RECOGNIZE the emblems shown below. But do you know what General Motors has done to make each car the outstanding value in its price class? How it is using its great resources to provide each with a finer engine—a stouter chassis—a more beautiful, more lasting body—a finish that defies wear and weather—quality materials in those hidden places where quality is most needed? You'll save money on your new car by clipping the coupon below. Mail it TODAY.

7 models—$525 to $745. The quality car of the low-priced field. 5-speed transmission. Dry-disc clutch. Smooth, powerful engine. Fisher Bodies. Duco finish. Fully equipped.
CHEVROLET TRUCK CHASSIS: 1/2-ton, $395; 1-ton, $495.

5 models—$775 to $975. Has largest 6-cylinder engine in its price class. Fisher Bodies. Duco finish. Beautiful, stylish lines. Value proved by unprecedented sales.

11 models—$875 to $1,190. Gratifies your finer taste. Satisfies every need. Fisher Bodies. Duco finish. 6-cylinder motor. Harmonic balancer, 4-wheel brakes and other new features.

7 models—$1,095 to $1,295. The "six" that is winning and holding goodwill everywhere. Fisher Bodies. Duco finish. Rubber silenced chassis and other tested improvements. 4-wheel brakes.

18 models—$1,195 to $1,995. Everybody knows Buick's worth. Now finer than ever. New models vibrationless beyond belief. 6-cylinder valve-in-head engine. Fisher bodies. Duco finish.

6 models—$2,495 to $2,685. The new and beautiful car designed and built as a companion car to Cadillac. Has V-type 8-cylinder engine. Bodies by Fisher. Duco finish. Now on display.

50 body styles and types—$2,995 to $9,000. The pioneer in the 8-cylinder field. Standard of the world. Duco finish. Bodies by Fisher and Fleetwood. 500 different color and upholstery combinations.

(ALL PRICES F.O.B. FACTORIES)

GENERAL MOTORS

CLIP THE COUPON

GENERAL MOTORS (Dept. A), Detroit, Mich.

CHEVROLET Please send, without obligation to me, illustrated literature describing the General Motors product I have checked—together with the name of the nearest dealer in case I may wish a demonstration. ALSO YOUR PROOFING GROUND BOOK.

PONTIAC

OLDSMOBILE

OAKLAND Name.....

BUICK

LASALLE Address.....

CADILLAC

FRIGIDAIRE Electric Refrigerator DELCO-LIGHT Electric Plants

Press Paragraphs

"The Last Frontier"
Standard Theatre, tomorrow night.
Charles Wood, barber, spent Monday in Pendleton.

A. E. Shick is confined to his home with the flu.
Wade Goodman of Walla Walla was in Athena, Saturday.

Mrs. Armond DeMerritt of Walla Walla, was an Athena visitor, Wednesday.

Miss Blanche Johnson is home from Oregon University for the spring vacation.

James Hodgen is home from Eugene, where he is attending the University of Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Whitehead and sons spent Sunday at Walla Walla, where they visited relatives.

Mrs. Jap Flaughter and son of Freewater are visitors at the Roy Cox home in Athena.

Mr. and Mrs. Jenkins and family have taken up residence in the Rothrock house on Third street.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Martin and family visited at the Charles Boerstler home, at Ferndale Sunday.

Venard Bell, of the Page Machinery company, of Pendleton, transacted business in Athena, Wednesday.

The owner of automobile license No. 178008 wins the five gallons of gasoline at Prestbye Service Station.

Reeve Betts has been elected housemanager of Sigma Tau at Willamette University for the coming year.

Mrs. Horace Belknap and children are here from Nampa, Idaho, visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Ferguson.

Raymond Banister was in town from Weston, Monday. He was nursing a slightly infected hand, caused from a scratch.

Mrs. M. L. Watts returned home Sunday evening from her visit to her daughter Mrs. Adams, at Palo Alto, California.

Miss Dorothy Lee and Miss Jaunita Woodruff, students at Cheney Normal, will spend the spring vacation at their homes here.

"Scotty" Kretzer who is a member of the University of Oregon Glee club is making a tour of valley cities with that organization.

Mrs. J. T. Lieuallen Jr., gave a bridge party Saturday evening at her home near Adams, a number of Athena friends being present.

Mrs. George Sheard was operated on Tuesday in St. Mary's hospital at Walla Walla, and is getting along as well as could be expected.

Sam Rothrock was in town Monday from his ranch west of Athena. He reports a fine crop prospect, and has his plowing well under way.

A. R. Coppock has been home several days from Hot Lake, and is nearly free from rheumatism as the result of treatments he received there.

Louie Ringel and daughter Miss Emma Ringel and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Coppock were dinner guests Sunday at the Charles Williams home.

"Tin Hats," a splendid comedy based on events of the post-war period, will be presented as the mid-week picture, on next Wednesday evening.

An ice cream dance, at which ice cream will be served and brick ice cream will be offered as prizes, is announced for tomorrow night at Legion Hall.

Mrs. Ace Wagner who has been seriously ill is now at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Lieuallen at Weston. Mrs. Wagner is reported to be improved.

Lorain Shick who was compelled to return home from Pendleton, where he held a position with a grocery firm, on account of illness, is able to be down town again.

Gerald Kilgore and son Arthur were in Pendleton Tuesday, going to visit Marvin Kilgore who is a patient at St. Anthony's hospital. Gerald reports him to be much better.

Athena farmers got well under way with their spring plowing this week. With the exception of wet spots in a few fields, the soil is working well, according to reports.

"The Time of His Life," senior class play, will be presented at high school auditorium some time in April. Rehearsals under direction of Miss Bateman, are now being held.

Mrs. James Beamer of Weston, was a recent visitor at the home of Mrs. Jess Gordon, on the occasion of Mrs. Gordon entertaining the Women's Missionary society. Mrs. Beamer honored those present with a vocal solo.

Marion Hansell, Omer Stephens and Guy Matlock went 25 straight in the Oregonian telegraphic shoot, over the Pendleton traps Sunday. Mascot Ramsey again accompanied his Athena shooters to the Pendleton shooting grounds.

Mr. and Mrs. William McLean and Mrs. Belle McLean, spent Sunday at the Ed Potts home near town. Mr. Potts who has recently returned from the hospital in Pendleton, is still in very poor health.

"The Taxi Dancer"
Standard Theatre, Sunday night.
Cleve Stanton, who is at the home of his brother near Prineville, is reported to be improving. With assistance he can walk, now.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Stott and children and Miss Vera Jones of Dayton, Washington spent the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Lee. Mr. Stott is a brother of Mrs. Lee.

The colored Dixie Jubilee Quartet will appear at high school auditorium Tuesday night of next week, under auspices of the sixth and seventh grade classes of the Athena public school.

E. A. Bennett has recently completed papering and decorating at the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. Flint Johns, west of Athena, and enameling the kitchen in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sanders, north of Athena.

Bobby Hales son of Mr. and Mrs. John Hales and Sheldon Lieuallen, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Lieuallen Jr., of Adams will be hosts tomorrow to a number of their little Athena and Adams friends when they celebrate their 2nd birthday anniversary.

Jack Vincent, formerly engaged in the jewelry business in Athena, but now a traveling salesman out of Seattle, was in the city Monday. He is accompanied by his wife and child on his present trip. Mr. Vincent represents a wholesale jewelry firm of Seattle.

J. E. Froom, proprietor of the Athena Hotel, has been in a serious condition this week, due to heart trouble. Mr. Froom has been in poor health since last summer, but most of the time has been able to attend to his duties as landlord of the hotel.

Justin Harwood is now engaged in painting the interior of the new home of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Watts. The Watts home is finished in mahogany and the woodwork of this handsome new residence will give Mr. Harwood full scope in demonstrating the art of painting.

The Athena Cemetery Association has put out poison for squirrels this week. The Association is making preparations to take care of cemetery plots for those who have signed up for permanent caretaking, but will also look after annual caretaking of cemetery plots when directed to do so.

B. B. Richards, who was considering a business proposition which would have necessitated the removal of himself and family to Yakima, has about decided to remain in Athena, his friends will be glad to learn.

Ralph Cannon was negotiating for the purchase of Mr. Richard's insurance business here, in event the latter moved to Yakima.

Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Tharp were over from Walla Walla Saturday, and while here consummated a business deal in which they exchanged their Athena residence on Current street to Dr. Thomas of Milton, in part payment for a farm of 160 acres on Dry Creek, west of Free-water. Virgil Willaby will farm the land which is in alfalfa and wheat, and with his family, moved to the place Monday.

The W. C. T. U. met at the home of Mrs. Betts. Mrs. Bollinger lead a very interesting program consisting of clippings read by Mrs. Bollinger, Mrs. Gerking, Mrs. Gordon, Mrs. Tubbs and Mrs. Lee, and solos by Mrs. O. H. Reeder and Miss Zola Keen, after which delicious refreshments were served. Their next meeting, the fourth Tuesday in April, will be at the Christian church, complimentary to the young mothers.

Mrs. Henry Dell was hostess to the bridge club Tuesday, entertaining with a three-course luncheon at one o'clock. Card tables placed about the living room were centered daintily with bouquets of Melrose sweet peas and sprays of lavender butterfly blooms, and small bouquets of the same pastel shades were everywhere about the rooms. During the afternoon three tables were in play, Mrs. H. I. Watts receiving high score.

Rebekah lodge met Tuesday evening and a very pleasant social hour was enjoyed after business had been transacted. Refreshments were served by Miss Ruth Williams, Miss Velma Schubert and Miss Ethel Geissel. Those who will have charge of the social hour next meeting night, which is April 12, are Mrs. Lloyd Michener, Mrs. Ora Smith and Mrs. Bryce Baker. All members are asked to assist in making a better attendance at the Rebekah meetings.

Mr. Holt, Umatilla County Agricultural Agent, of Pendleton and Mr. Hadley, superintendent of Athena schools, will give talks at the Men's League Meeting this evening at the Baptist church, following the serving of a dinner at 6:00 o'clock. The program will be interspersed with music by The Jolly Joy-Makers and readings. Men are invited to bring their wives and sweethearts. Tickets for dinner fifty cents. If you are unable to go in time for dinner enjoy the program, anyway.

HEY KIDS Just Received

A shipment of nifty 4-piece Boys Suits. Double Breasted Coat, Vest, one pair long, one pair golf Pants. Just the thing you want for Easter.

Size 6 to 17 years

Phone Your Order To 152

Athena Department Store

THE STANDARD THEATRE Saturday, March 26

An Epic of the West in days when danger lurked and led men to valorous deeds.

The Last Frontier

Starring

William Boyd and Marguerite De La Motte

An epical romance of the plains when buffaloes roamed and valiant men fought and died to wrest a vast Empire from merciless savage hordes—A tremendous story of America in its making, of daring feats, of abiding faith and love, treachery and vengeance, aglow with thrill and deep appeal.

International News

Admission Prices, 10c-25c-35c

Sunday, March 27

Harry Millarde's Production

The Taxi Dancer

With

Joan Crawford and Owen Moore

From the story by Robert Terry Shannon

Some picture by the man who made "If Winter Comes," "Over the Hill" and other fine photoplays. Look at the cast: Joan Crawford, Owen Moore, William Orlamond, Marc MacDermott, Gertrude Astor, Rockliffe Fellows, Douglas Gilmore, Claire McDowell and Bert Roach, in the true story of a Broadway "Hostess."

Pathe Review

Admission Prices, 10c-25c-35c

Wednesday, March 30

A Post-war Comedy

Tin Hats

A Big Mid-week Picture at regular prices

The war is over—but the doughboy does his bit of watchful waiting on the Rhine. They fell for the cuties—but that was no part of a doughboy's job in the Army of Occupation. So when they go romantic, you'll laugh your head off at the hilarious complications! More roars than there are holes in Swiss Cheese! Featuring Conrad Nagel, Claire Windsor, George Cooper, Bert Roach and Tom O'Brien.

Comedy

Admission Prices, 10c-25c-35c