

The greatest car values in each price class

CHEVROLET

$525 to $745—The quality car of the low priced field. 3-speed transmission. Fisher Bodies. Duco finish. Fully equipped. 7 models. Also TRUCK CHASSIS: 1/2-ton, $395; 1-ton, $495.

PONTIAC

$775 to $975—Most powerful "six" in its price class. Fisher Bodies. Duco finish. Beautiful lines. Value proved by unprecedented sales. 5 models.

OLDSMOBILE

$875 to $1190—A fine car at moderate cost. Powerful 6-cylinder motor. Handsome Fisher Bodies. Duco finish. 4-wheel brakes. 11 models.

OAKLAND

$1095 to $1295—A "six" that is winning and holding goodwill on performance. Beautiful bodies by Fisher. Duco finish. 4-wheel brakes. 7 models.

BUICK

$1195 to $1995—Famous valve-in-head 6-cylinder engine. New models vibrationless beyond belief. Fisher Bodies. Duco finish. 18 models.

LASALLE

$2495 to $2685—General Motors' new and beautiful car designed and built by Cadillac. 8-cylinder V-type engine. Bodies by Fisher. Duco finish. 6 models.

CADILLAC

$2995 to $9000—Pioneer 8-cylinder car. 50 body styles and types by Fisher and Fleetwood. 500 color and upholstery combinations. Duco finishes.

[ALL PRICES F. O. B. FACTORIES]

GENERAL MOTORS stands back of these quality cars. A double guarantee back of every one. Decide which car best suits your purse. Then clip and send the coupon. We will send you free full information about that car, together with a wonderfully interesting illustrated little book about General Motors' Proving Ground where its cars must prove their superiority before they are offered to you. Act today. Mail the coupon NOW, before you forget.

GENERAL MOTORS

CLIP THE COUPON

GENERAL MOTORS (Dept. A), Detroit, Mich.

CHEVROLET  Please send, without any obligation to me, illustrated literature describing the General Motors product I have checked — together with the name of the nearest dealer in case I may wish a demonstration. ALSO YOUR PROVING GROUND BOOK.
 PONTIAC
 OLDSMOBILE
 OAKLAND
 BUICK
 LASALLE
 CADILLAC

FRIGIDAIRE  DELCO-LIGHT
 Electric Refrigerators Electric Plants

Press Paragraphs

Tim McCoy in "War Paint" Standard Theatre, tomorrow night.

Grant Prestbye made a trip to Portland this week.

R. R. Beckham was here from Freewater Wednesday.

Mrs. W. S. Ferguson shopped in Walla Walla Tuesday.

Lorain Shick is employed at Herman Hoffman's garage.

Dr. W. H. McKinney was elected mayor of Weston recently.

Fred Radtke was a business visitor in Walla Walla Monday.

Roy Kirk of Thorn Hollow transacted business here Monday.

Mrs. F. L. Pittman motored to Milton for the day Wednesday.

Nesmith Ankeny of Walla Walla visited Athena friends Tuesday evening.

Ed Lyons, prominent Walla Walla farmer was an Athena visitor Monday.

Miss Edna DeFreece who has been ill for several weeks is now able to be out.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Prestbye and Mrs. H. I. Watts motored to Walla Walla Tuesday.

Louis Bergevin, prominent stock raiser of Gibbon made business calls here Wednesday.

Good Friday was observed by many in Athena and vicinity when spud crops were planted.

Mrs. Emma Patterson is spending the week as a guest at the home of Mrs. John Phillips.

Leon Miller is again employed in the mechanical department at Zebra's Athena Garage.

The Methodist Missionary society will meet Wednesday afternoon April 27th in the basement of the church.

A number of Athena base ball fans went to Adams Sunday to see the game between Lowden and Adams.

Mr. and Mrs. Penn Harris expect to begin keeping house in Athena, about the first of the coming month.

Mrs. Ella Martin of Ellenburg, mother of Earl Martin, will spend the summer at the home of her son here.

Mrs. F. S. LeGrow visited her mother Mrs. Sarah Jane Bowles at Clinton Court in Walla Walla this week.

Mrs. Kelly formerly Mrs. Belt, who taught the Athena eighth grade four years ago, was a school visitor Wednesday.

Louis Keen and H. M. Sausberry are among the farmers who have finished summer fallow plowing, west of Athena.

Mrs. Arnold Wood left Tuesday evening for Spokane, where she went to visit her mother, Mrs. Greenwood who is quite ill.

Mrs. George Gerking is in Spokane this week, where her brother is critically ill, submitting to a major surgical operation.

Wild Horse creek was muddy Saturday, much to the disappointment of the small boy toting a cane pole and a can full of worms.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Swaggart have been up from their home at Portland this week looking after matters at the ranch north of Athena.

Miss Hilda Dickenson and Miss Edna Pinkerton were dinner guests last evening of Mr. and Mrs. Armond DeMerritt at Walla Walla.

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Whiteman and children were over from Walla Walla Sunday, visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Richards.

"The Winning of Barbara Worth," will be featured as the big mid-week picture presentation at the Standard Theatre, next Wednesday evening.

Mrs. J. F. Wright has gone to Big Timber, Montana, where she will spend several months, visiting at the home of her son, Richard Wright.

Mr. and Mrs. Otha Reeder and Mrs. W. J. Gholson motored to Walla Walla Saturday and attended the funeral of the late Harvey Shelton.

J. O. Hales will build a $10,000 home at Pendleton. Mr. Hales who retired from his farm near Adams, is one of the county commissioners.

The Union Pacific system announces that it will observe "Raisin Week," April 25th and April 30th, by serving the fruit in their dining cars.

Mary Harder has sued her husband, William Harder, for divorce, alleging desertion. The parties live at Milton, and are well known in Athena.

George Shaver of Union, who has had a number of horses and mules for sale in Athena for several weeks, has moved the stock to Freewater this week.

The ladies of the Athena Rebekah lodge will be guests of the Freewater Integrity lodge this evening. Those desiring to go are asked to meet at the lodge hall at 5 o'clock this evening where transportation will be arranged.

Mr. and Mrs. William Shick, Mrs. Harold Fletcher and daughter of Walla and Mr. and Mrs. Herschel Shinnall and children of Portland, spent Sunday visiting in Athena, at the homes of Mrs. Martha Shick and A. E. Shick.

"Just Suppose"

Standard Theatre, Sunday night.

Mrs. Charles Smith and Mrs. Bun Moore were in Weston Saturday, where they visited at the home of Mrs. Moore's sister, Mrs. Roscoe Dickenson.

C. E. Miller and Leon Miller returned Monday from a trip into Eastern Washington, where they went to investigate a well boring proposition.

Mr. Hale, cashier of the Bank of Freewater was a business visitor here Tuesday. Mr. Hale recently acquired controlling interest in the Freewater bank.

Mrs. W. McPherson was a Weston visitor Tuesday at the home of Mrs. E. B. Gillette, who has been in ill health for some time, and left for Portland Thursday.

Harold Crawford, architect for the Tum-a-Lum Lumber company, came over from Walla Walla Saturday, and was entertained at lunch at the B. B. Richards home.

Billy Pinkerton and F. B. Radtke were among the fishermen who went to the Umatilla for the opening day of the trout season. "Got enough to flavor the skillet," quoth Billy.

Posters are out announcing the high school play, "The Time of His Life," which will be presented at high school auditorium, Tuesday evening, April 26, beginning at 8 o'clock.

Billy, the 6 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. F. N. Johns injured his right arm painfully Saturday, when he fell from a fence and sprained the ligaments, no bones being broken however.

John Davidson, formerly guard at the Oregon penitentiary, came up from Salem and is visiting at the homes of his daughters, Mrs. Fred Pinkerton and Mrs. Alex McIntyre, in Athena.

Miss Thelma Thompson of Pendleton will entertain at luncheon Friday in honor of Mrs. Glenn Dudley. Other guests from Athena will be Mrs. Henry Koepke Jr., and Mrs. R. B. McEwen.

Increased interest is noted in the Granges of the county. Meetings of the different Granges have recently been well attended, and a number of new organizations have taken place during the past year.

Practically all the trees left in the city park at the present time, are those planted some years ago. The old cottonwood trees have died on account of the creek washing down so low that all moisture is drawn off.

The ladies of the W. C. T. U. will devote next Tuesday afternoon complimentary to the young mothers and women of Athena and vicinity, at their meeting at the Christian church. A program will feature the occasion.

Little Miss Margaret Cunningham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Cunningham former residents of Athena, and who now make their home in Pendleton, was struck by an automobile one day last week and bruised considerably.

During the high velocity of the winds over the week end, tourists coming up the Columbia bound for Washington destinations, were routed over the Pendleton-Walla Walla highway, for the reason that ferries were forced to suspend operations.

Bryce Baker went to Portland Saturday to see the specialist who some months ago performed an operation on Bryce's injured arm. His arm has been gradually getting better since the operation was made. Wilbur Harden accompanied him on the trip.

Mrs. Lilla Kirk's mother who makes her home with her daughter in Athena, is reported seriously ill and Mrs. Kirk's brother, Charles Bone who resides at Spokane, and a sister, who lives near Wenatchee, have been sent for and are expected to arrive this week.

Tom Norman's last year's onion patch has afforded a generous supply of green onions to whoever wanted them this spring. The supply will soon disappear, however, when Bert Taylor, who has leased the ground, will plow them up and seed the plot to alfalfa.

Mrs. M. M. Johns arrived home Saturday morning from Wilmar, California, near Los Angeles, where she has visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Melville Johns since Christmas. Mrs. Johns spent last week in Portland visiting her sisters and other relatives and friends.

Observing her 10th birthday anniversary, Mrs. E. O. Venable entertained in honor of her daughter Eloise, at the farm home west of Athena, Easter day. A number of Eloise's young friends were present. An egg hunt was the feature of entertainment. Refreshments, including ice cream, were served.

Mignonette Rebekah lodge will meet Tuesday evening April 26 at 7 o'clock p. m., and only business will be transacted. Members attending will be able to attend the high school play at the school house, which commences at 8 o'clock. Those ladies who were to have served at this meeting will not be requested to do so, but will serve at the meeting of May 10th.

Men!

WE CARRY A COMPLETE AND UP-TO-DATE STOCK OF MENS' WORK SHOES. A WONDERFUL VARIETY IN STYLES AND LASTS TO CHOOSE FROM, IN SUCH MAKES AS "BUCKINGHAM AND HECHT," "THOROGOOD" AND "WOLVERINE ALL HORSEHIDE"—THE SHOE THAT WEARS 1000 MILES AND ALWAYS STAYS SOFT.

Prices

$2.50 to $12.50

Phone Your Order To 152

Athena Department Store

THE STANDARD THEATRE

Saturday, April 23

Peter B. Kyne's War Paint

With

Tim McCoy, Pauline Starke, Karl Dane

You'll be carried to the old West of Indian adventure and heart-warming romance by this swift-moving film by the country's most popular tale-writer. Feats of daring and horsemanship such as you've never seen—a whale of a story by one of the greatest fiction writers—hundreds of Indians on the war-path—plus a love-story that'll warm your heart! Don't miss it!

International News

Admission Prices, 10c-25c-35c

Sunday, April 24

"Just Suppose"

Richard Barthelmess

In a new Role--a Fresh Triumph

You asked for Dick in an entirely new role—here he is. You'll be glad you asked—happy to see him again—because "Just Suppose" is the Prince of Pictures. You'll say so.

Pathe Review

Admission Prices, 10c-25c-35c

Wed. April 27--Mid-week Special!

"The WINNING of BARBARA WORTH"

With

Ronald Colman and Vilma Banky

The Book that thrilled millions

Now a screen masterpiece that will enthral millions! It's coming for a big mid-week night at the Standard, next Wednesday April 27. You'll gasp at this tremendous production, thrilling with sweep and action—engrossing with its vivid and colorful romance. You'll see, talk about and long remember this mighty drama of strong passions and high ideals.

Comedy

Admission Prices, 10c-35c-50c