

Specially Built for Hillside Harvesting!

1. Can be used with equal success on hillside or level fields.
2. A real 2-man machine. Bagging platform, centrally located, well balanced. Men work close together.
3. Header platform is parallel to ground at all times. No grain skipped.
4. Operates equally well up hill or down.
5. Cylinder, 24" long, runs on self-aligning, enclosed ball bearings.
6. Five square feet of grate surface beneath cylinder and main beater provides for immediate separation of 80 to 90% of grain at the cylinder.
7. Wide separator (44") permits straw to spread thinly over straw racks for thorough separation.
8. Air blast of shoe fan is distributed evenly over entire area of shoe screen, whether machine is going up or down hill.
9. Recleaning device in addition to shoe—similar in action to fanning mill. Cleans grain thoroughly.
10. Power-operated leveling device. The operator merely moves a clutch lever—the power does the rest.
11. Screens are automatically leveled.
12. All bearings supported on brackets attached solidly to the frame, not to sheet metal siding.
13. Auxiliary engine same as used in Harvester trucks and tractors. Ball-bearing crankshaft.
14. All drive chains are short. Double roller chain and cut steel sprockets on cylinder drive.

High School Notes

The high school took their annual Bingham Springs trip on Saturday, April 30. The Sophomore class prepared the breakfast at Meacham Creek, and the Junior and Freshmen prepared dinner. The Seniors prepared supper at Thorn Hollow. Swimming and hiking were enjoyed. The alumni were invited and the high school and grade school faculty were also guests of the school. Not many years ago the high school made the Bingham trip in one truck. The transportation committee this year found that two trucks and twenty-four cars were necessary. About one hundred Athena people made the trip this year.

Stafford Hansell, who has been unable to attend school for several months, is now finishing his first semester's work.

The student body election is to be held to-day.

Final examinations are to start next Tuesday afternoon. Those who have an average of 90 per cent or better for the past semester will be exempt from examinations.

Maxine Martin was out of school on account of measles this week. This is the first time that she has been either tardy or absent during the last two years.

Dr. Davis a representative of the University Apparatus company of Berkeley, California was a business caller recently.

The Senior class will have charge of the final assembly program this morning.

The Freshman class gave a play at last Friday's assembly. The play used was "68-70 Berkeley Place," by Whitney Darrow.

The tennis match between Helix and Athena resulted in a victory for the Athena players. Helix won in the boys singles and doubles, but lost in the girls' singles, and doubles and also in the mixed doubles. Athena high school was represented by the following players: Dorsey Kretzer, Arthur Taylor, Fred Radtke, LaVone and Ethel Pittman.

The four upper grades expect to go to Bingham Springs for a picnic tomorrow.

Miss Rodman's room finished a spelling contest last Friday. The losers and Miss Rodman treated the members of the room to ice cream and cake.

Mrs. Guerny (Areta Littlejohn) visited the high school classes Monday afternoon.

The state eighth grade examinations are to be given next Thursday and Friday. State examinations will also be given to the seventh grade in Geography and to the sixth grade in Physiology and Oregon History.

Gale and Dale McLean have been out of school several days on account of illness.

The high school annual is to be out the first of next week. It is hoped that some school cuts may be run in the Press next week.

The senior class went on their annual picnic Thursday.

The Touchet school board inspected our school building Wednesday. They were particularly interested in the gymnasium.

Several high school people expect to go to Bingham Springs tomorrow. They will go as private individuals, not as school parties.

The eighth grade class is doing some extra work in grammar every evening after supper, in preparation for the state examinations.

Special Community Meeting in Masonic Hall

All Athena and vicinity is invited to meet in the Masonic Hall on Tuesday May 10, at 8 p. m. to consider the question of forming a local unified church. Miss Lorraine Terry will lead us in an old-fashioned gospel "sing" and a quartette from the community will furnish the special music. Clifton Phillips will speak on "Local Unity" and there will be an open discussion on the subject. Come, work, pray and express yourself freely but kindly. Let the best interests of God's kingdom in this community be your first consideration. Let our motto be "Liberty in detail, unity in principle and brotherhood among all the followers of our common Christ." One Triune God, one book, one aim and one hope ought surely to be enough to constitute one church at this little stopping place called Athena.

CLIFTON PHILLIPS.

Friends of Jim Phillips of Pendleton will be pleased to hear that he is convalescing satisfactorily after an operation for appendicitis. Mr. Phillips is at St. Anthony's hospital in Pendleton.

The Social Side

(By Adele McEwen)

Mother's Day Observed

The annual Mother's Day tea was given yesterday afternoon when mothers, and friends of the Etude club were charmingly entertained at the attractive home of Mrs. Max Hopper on south Third street.

Tulips and narcissus about the rooms made an effective decoration. The program presented included delightful numbers appropriate to the spirit of the day, as follows: "Happy Song," Etude chorus; Greetings, Mrs. Hadley; Vocal duet, (a) "There's a little room within my heart," (b) "Over the hill," Mrs. David Stone and Mrs. B. B. Richards; Reading, "Man," Mrs. C. M. Eager; Vocal solo, Mrs. Otha Reeder; Piano duet, Mrs. Max Hopper and Mrs. Lawrence Pinkerton; Musical reading, "Mother," Miss Mildred Bateman; Vocal solo, Mrs. Stone; Vocal trio, "Southern Melodies," Mrs. Floyd Pinkerton, Mrs. Lloyd Michener and Miss Dorothy Rodman; Vocal solo Miss Lorraine Terry. Following the program a social hour was enjoyed when dainty refreshments were served from a table centered with sweet peas and delphinium. Pink tapers with lavender tulle bows added further to the dainty effect.

Luncheon at Sunset Inn

Mrs. James Lieuallen Jr., Mrs. Clarence Tubbs, Mrs. Duff and Mrs. Ravella Lieuallen were hostesses at a delightful luncheon at Sunset Inn Friday at one o'clock. The tables were attractively decorated with wild flowers, yellow violets predominating. Following luncheon bridge was played, guests sufficient for ten tables being present. High score was made by Mrs. Harold Barnett and Mrs. Missenger held second honors. Guests from Athena were Mrs. E. C. Prestbye, Mrs. C. L. McFadden, Mrs. Max Hopper, Mrs. Ralph Cannon and Miss Edna Pinkerton.

Jolly Twenty-five Elect

The annual election of officers of the Jolly Twenty-five club occurred Friday when the members were entertained at the home of Mrs. Grant Prestbye. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Mrs. Ross Payne; vice-president, Mrs. C. L. McFadden; secretary, Mrs. Herbert Hales; treasurer, Mrs. William Piper. The rooms of the Prestbye home were daintily decorated with tulips and apple blossoms and following the business session the hostess served delicious refreshments.

Hosts at Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ames entertained a group of friends at dinner Thursday evening. Spring flowers in shades of red and white were used for decoration, and following dinner bridge was enjoyed, three tables being in play. Mrs. Grant Prestbye received first honors and Mrs. Victor Hirsch, the consolation. Guests who enjoyed the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Ames included Mr. and Mrs. C. L. McFadden, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Prestbye, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. McEwen, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Douglas, Mrs. Grant Prestbye and Mrs. Victor Hirsch.

Entertained at Bridge

Mrs. H. I. Watts entertained the Bridge club at her home on south Third street Friday afternoon. The usual three tables were in play and Mrs. R. B. McEwen made high score, Mrs. W. P. Littlejohn receiving the consolation. The hostess served candies and delicious punch during the afternoon.

Attend Tournament

A group of Athena people who motored to Walla Walla for the Golf tournament at the Country club included Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Dudley, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. McEwen and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Koepke. The party was later entertained at supper at the home of Mrs. Lorton at Clinton Court. Additional guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Glafke and Mr. Glafke Sr.

The Elks Race Meet

There will be no harness events and only running races will be held at the Elks race meeting at Pendleton, May 20, 21 and 22. There will be over 100 horses stabled at Round-Up park to participate in the races. Some of the runners have raced at Tia Juana and other tracks, and among them are horses from the George Drumheller and Harry Walters stables. Fay LeGrow of Athena, is a member of the race committee.

Card of Thanks

We desire to express our heartfelt thanks to all the kind friends who extended their loving help and sympathy during the illness and death of our beloved mother.
