

Specially Built for Hillside Harvesting!

1. Can be used with equal success on hillside or level fields.
2. A real 2-man machine. Bagging platform, centrally located, well balanced. Men work close together.
3. Header platform is parallel to ground at all times. No grain skipped.
4. Operates equally well up hill or down.
5. Cylinder, 24" long, runs on self-aligning, enclosed ball bearings.
6. Five square feet of grate surface beneath cylinder and main beater provides for immediate separation of 80 to 90% of grain at the cylinder.
7. Wide separator (44") permits straw to spread thinly over straw racks for thorough separation.
8. Air blast of shoe fan is distributed evenly over entire area of shoe screen, whether machine is going up or down hill.
9. Recleaning device in addition to shoe—similar in action to fanning mill. Cleans grain thoroughly.
10. Power-operated leveling device. The operator merely moves a clutch lever—the power does the rest.
11. Screens are automatically leveled.
12. All bearings supported on brackets attached solidly to the frame, not to sheet metal siding.
13. Auxiliary engine same as used in Harvester trucks and tractors. Ball-bearing crankshaft.
14. All drive chains are short. Double roller chain and cut steel sprockets on cylinder drive.

one o'clock. An interesting program followed the luncheon. Roll call was answered by tested recipes all over the world; Devotional: Song O Zion; Haste; Drama, Aunt Elizabeth's Missionary tea, Mrs. Zerba, Mrs. C. L. McFadden, Mrs. Beulah Davidson; Solo, "Be near me Lord," Mrs. Ralph McEwen; Election of officers.

At Country Club
Mrs. M. L. Watts was hostess last Thursday at a one o'clock luncheon, at the Walla Walla Country club, having as her guests Mrs. M. M. Johns and Mrs. F. B. Boyd of this city, and Mrs. Lillian Fredericks of Weston.

31 Years Ago

May 8, 1896

Born—Near Helix, on May 1, 1896, to the wife of Frank King, a girl.

Charles Henry will leave soon with a big eastern sheep drive in the capacity of packer.

Saturday night some one effected entrance to Max Lewin's grocery store, and took away with them something like $75 in cigars, tobacco and canned goods. No clue to the burglars has been found.

Frank Henry arrived from La Grande Sunday, and has taken charge of the Athena band.

Last Thursday night Pythian Lodge No. 29, K. of P., conferred three ranks on Reed Hill. Several Weston brethren were in attendance.

Charles Stansell, Nate Finkerton and Sam Bocher left Wednesday for the Robinsonville mining district, where they will prospect this summer.

Sovereign, the populist orator spoke in Weston Wednesday night.

James A. Howard, candidate on the democratic ticket for county recorder and Thomas J. Hailey, democratic nominee for judge, were in town yesterday shaking hands with the boys.

Born, in Athena, May 6, 1896, to Mr. and Mrs. Max Lewin, a boy, weight 10½ pounds.

Several families, friends of Dr. L. Dell, gathered simultaneously at his residence on the night of April 30, and gave him a thorough surprise. The occasion was marked by the doctor's 58th birthday.

A gang of horse thieves have been operating in Union and Baker counties for some time past. Sheriff Kilbourn, of Baker county, is said to have been close on the trail of the thieves, at a point on Snake river, and scattered them. It is estimated that the gang have in the neighborhood of 300 horses which they are endeavoring to drive out of the state.

Little Ida Hiteman came near meeting with a serious accident Wednesday evening. The little girl was put on the family horse on Main street for a ride home. The horse, while perfectly gentle is possessed of considerable life, and starting on a smart gallop, soon increased its speed to a swift pace. At the alley near the Hiteman home, Ida fell off to the ground, but received no injury. Henry Barrett, who was riding like the wind on his horse, was just in the act of reaching for the little girl, when she fell.

Beautiful lavender sweet peas and rose colored snap dragons made an attractive centerpiece and cards in the same shades marked the places of the guests.

Mrs. R. B. McEwen as toast mistress introduced the following: Mrs. Max Hopper, who spoke of "Past years and last year"; Mrs. Lloyd Michener, "Next year and future years"; Mrs. C. M. Eager, "Operettas, past and future"; Miss Mildred Bateman, "The departing"; Mrs. B. B. Richards, "The Stickers";

This being the last meeting of the year for the Etude club a brief business session was held, following the luncheon.

Entertained School Faculty
Mrs. B. B. Richards and Mrs. O. O. Stephens entertained the faculty of the Athena school at dinner at the Richards home Thursday evening. A cluster of beautiful old fashioned flowers in pastel shades formed the centerpiece and dainty baskets of rainbow tints marked the ten covers. Those who enjoyed the hospitality of Mrs. Richards and Mrs. Stephens were, Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Hadley, Mr. and Mrs. M. I. Miller, Miss Mildred Bateman, Miss Mary Jane Cornelison, Mr. Stolzheise, Miss Lorraine Terry, Miss Dorothy Rodman and Miss Evelyn Sellars.

Club Honors Miss Johnson
Miss Lois Johnson will be honored next Thursday afternoon, May 19, when the Etude club will entertain at tea at the home of Mrs. Max Hopper on south Third street. Friends of Miss Johnson are invited to call between the hours of 2:30 and 5 o'clock. During the afternoon the honor guest will appear in piano numbers for the entertainment of the guests and will be assisted by Miss Margaret Mitchener of Walla Walla who will read several selections. Miss Johnson who is a popular member of the 1927 graduating class of the Athena high school is a talented and accomplished pianist. Her technique is remarkable and her clarity of interpretation makes her playing worthy of highest commendation.

Teachers Given Reception
A reception in honor of Miss Lorraine Terry, Miss Dorothy Rodman and Miss Savely was given by members of the Christian church in the church parlors Monday evening. The rooms were beautifully decorated with spring flowers and apple blossoms. A delightful program was rendered as follows: Piano duet, "Spanish Dance," Moskowsky, Betty Jane Eager and Marjorie Douglas; Vocal solo, (a) "A heart that's free," (b) "Molly's eye," Mrs. David Stone; Reading, Poems, Mrs. Clifton Phillips; Piano solo, "Valse Chromatique" Lois Johnson; Greetings, Rev. Phillips; Vocal solo, "Carmena," Jennamae Read; Monologue, "Women's rights," Mrs. C. M. Eager; Vocal trio, "Southern melodies," Mrs. Floyd Pinkerton, Mrs. Loyd Michener and Miss Dorothy Rodman.
The program was followed by games and delicious refreshments. The honor guests who have taught in the schools here for several years will not return to Athena and each was presented with a dainty gift as a token of the friendship of their hosts.

In Honor of Daughter

A dainty and charming color scheme in shades of lavender and yellow, was used by Mrs. W. P. Littlejohn when she entertained at luncheon in honor of her daughter Mrs. Guernsey of Haines, who visited here. Sweet peas and buttercups centered four tables and place cards and confections in the same colors marked the sixteen covers.

Following luncheon bridge was played, Mrs. H. A. Barrett receiving a dainty award for high score. Mrs. F. S. Le Grow received the consolation prize. Guests for the occasion included, Mrs. B. B. Richards, Mrs. Lloyd Michener, Mrs. C. M. Eager, Mrs. R. B. McEwen, Mrs. W. S. Ferguson, Mrs. Henry Dell, Mrs. H. A. Barrett, Mrs. M. L. Watts, Mrs. Glenn Dudley, Mrs. H. I. Watts, Mrs. Henry Koepke, Mrs. F. S. Le-Grow and Mrs. Frank Ames
