

Press Paragraphs

Rich Thompson is driving a new Chevrolet roadster.

Mr. and Mrs. Omer Stephens were in Pendleton Tuesday.

Joseph N. Scott was in Athena Monday, from Pendleton.

Athena stores and business houses will close Monday, July 4.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Whitehead were Walla Walla visitors Tuesday.

Mrs. Joe Anderson and daughter Belle spent Tuesday in Walla Walla.

Weeds and grass have been cut at the school house grounds this week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Russell were visitors in Walla Walla Wednesday.

H. A. Barrett spent Wednesday in Waitsburg where he transacted business.

Miss Ethel Pittman is a guest of Miss Wavel Mitchell on Weston Mountain.

R. Alexander of Pendleton and Dr. C. C. Sturgis of Ann Arbor, Michigan visited Athena friends Wednesday.

SWIM in a Jantzen at your favorite pool!

NOTE the men and girls who win admiration at the swimming pool. There's verve and dash to the suits they swim in. . . immaculate fit. . . "boyish" grace. . . Jantzens!

A Jantzen suit imparts that air of trim, athletic poise. Fits perfectly, without a wrinkle. The wool is knitted tightly into fabric of rare flexibility. It is elastic! It conforms closely, smoothly, easily, to your figure.

Come in and see how the Jantzen system of sizing by weight insures you a perfect fit. Color-fast, too, as Jantzens are all dyed-in-the-wool. We have all the popular colors, styles in every size.

Men's Jantzens $5.00
Women's Jantzens $5.00
Children's Jantzens $3.00

Jantzen
The suit that changed bathing to swimming
McFADDEN'S PHARMACY
Athena, Oregon

"Her Second Chance"

Standard Theatre tomorrow night.

M. L. Watts and "Scotty" Kretzer have returned from Seattle after a short visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Mitchell are visiting friends here. Their home is in Portland.

Fay Le Grow has a badly mashed finger, as the result of a car door closing on it.

Win Burden of Toppenish, is here visiting his sister, Mrs. J. D. Huggins in Athena.

Fred Erickson representative of the Continental Oil company was a business visitor here.

Leon Miller is again working at Zerba's Garage, after completing a well-drilling contract.

Miss Margaret French is here from Walla Walla visiting her sister, Mrs. Orel McPherrin.

Mr. and Mrs. John Thompson were in Athena Tuesday from their home on the Umatilla river.

Walter Adams who farms south of Athena, has returned from Seattle where he spent the past week.

Fred Pittman and family spent Sunday on the Umatilla river and Fred had good success fishing.

Miss Mary Appleby of Milwaukee is visiting Miss Hazel Sanders and Miss Kathren Froome this week.

Frank Swaggart of Butter creek, well known in Athena, has entered four horses in the Ukiah races, which will be run July 2, 3 and 4.

Mrs. J. E. Reeder has returned to her home at Tacoma, after visiting relatives at Pendleton and Athena.

Vernard Bell of Pendleton formerly of Athena and well known here was a business visitor here Wednesday.

Clarence Toole, University of Oregon graduate '26, will be athletic coach at Athena high school this year.

Mrs. A. A. Kimball of Pendleton spent Sunday at the home of her daughter Mrs. O. O. Stephens, in Athena.

Mrs. Roy Cannon underwent an operation at St. Mary's hospital at Walla Walla, Tuesday. She is improving.

E. H. Leonard of Waitsburg and President of the First National Bank of Athena was a business visitor here Tuesday.

Mrs. A. Davin and Mrs. Edna Hall of Walla Walla, spent last Friday in Athena, guests at the home of Mrs. Lee Whitehead.

Elmer Merritt went to Pendleton one day this week and met a cousin who resides in the East, and who is touring the coast.

John Banister visited in Athena the forepart of the week. Mr. Banister's description of the Weston flood is a vivid one.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gerking and children have come from Pendleton to the farm west of Athena, to remain during the summer.

Mrs. Bun Moore was operated on Monday at St. Mary's hospital in Walla Walla. Mrs. Moore is reported to be getting along nicely.

Bill Switzer of Umatilla, well known horse man was an Athena visitor Tuesday. Mr. Switzer was en route home from Spokane.

La Vone Pittman will arrive this evening from Lewiston, where she is attending normal school, and spend the Fourth with her parents here.

Mrs. Stella Keen, representative of the local Neighbors of Woodcraft, returned Wednesday evening from the district convention held at Bend.

Mrs. F. B. Boyd left for Sheridan, Montana, Wednesday in response to a telegram announcing the critical illness of her brother, John Ridemour.

Bob Norris of Medford will spend the week end at the Sanders home. He is en route home from a horticultural convention at Moscow, Idaho.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Hirsch have decided not to go east, but to remain in Oregon. However, they will not be residents of Athena, only for a short time longer. They will take up residence at Freewater, where Mr. Hirsch has been advanced to the position of head bookkeeper by the Preston-Shaffer Milling company at its Peacock Mill, in that city.

Miss Dorothea Taylor whose home is in Pomeroy, Washington, is visiting at the homes of Miss Lois McIntyre and Miss Roma Charlton in Athena.

Many Athena people visited Weston Sunday evening and Monday to view the effect of the cloudburst, which struck above that town Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Dudley and their house guest Miss Evelyn Bragg of Portland spent the week end at the new Dudley summer home at Bingham Springs.

Miller & Son have completed boring a well on the Floyd Pinkerton place, west of Athena. The drill stopped at 155 feet, and the water measures 90 feet.

Mrs. J. H. Templeton of Seattle, who was a delegate to the convention of the Federation of Women's Clubs at Walla Walla, was a guest of the at the home of Mrs. James Potts this week.

A total of eleven votes were cast at the school election of District No. 7 Monday, and A. H. McIntyre, present member of the board was elected to serve on the board for another term.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Shick of Walla Walla and Mr. and Mrs. Herschell Shinall of Portland visited Sunday at the home of Mrs. Martha Shick. The party was en route to Portland by motor.

Herbert Parker has taken charge of a chair at the Penn Harris barber shop. It will be remembered Mr. Parker's father conducted a shop here for years and was assisted by his son Herbert.

A large crowd of Athena people contemplate celebrating at Bingham Springs July 2, 3 and 4. Roger's Strand Theatre Band will furnish music for dancing during the three-day celebration.

Ralph Carsten is a very pleased boy. And he has reasons for being so, for he is wearing an artificial limb that greatly facilitates his movements and which assists him in walking very materially.

H. A. Barrett and family were en route home from Walla Walla Sunday when the storm struck Dry creek hill. They were detained at Blue Mountain Station for about an hour but reached home without mishap.

Dolph Thompson, proprietor of Bingham Springs was a business visitor here Wednesday. Mr. Thompson states that preparations are being made for a big crowd as many reservations have already been made.

A fair sized crowd greeted the "Georgia Blossoms" a colored entertainment troupe who appeared in a program at the Legion Hall Monday night. The show was followed by a dance, the minstrels furnishing the music.

Miss Gladys Dickenson experienced a painful accident Sunday when the end of one of her fingers was pinched off in the closing of a car door by her sister Phyllis. The amputated portion of the digit was put back in place by a surgeon.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Johnston of Coquille, Oregon, were in Athena Wednesday and proceeded on to Moscow, Idaho, where they will visit at the George Johnston home. They were on their honeymoon trip, having been married May 21.

The wind and rain storm Sunday evening, put electric power and lights out of commission, except the street lights, for the night. As a result no show was given at the Standard Theatre and business houses and residences were without service.

Anna Q. Nilsson will be seen in "Her Second Chance" at the Standard Theatre tomorrow night. On account of everybody making preparations for observing the Fourth of July, there will be no show at the Standard Sunday evening.

Several automobiles returning from Bingham Springs Sunday evening were stuck on the Thorn Hollow grade, where the highway crosses the canyon, at the end of the gravelled surface, on account of the heavy rain which fell in that section.

Mrs. C. M. Eager accompanied by her daughters, Betty Jane and Virginia left yesterday morning for Portland and Seaside. They expect to be away about two months. They will be joined by Mr. Eager in August and will accompany him home.

Rebekah lodge met Tuesday evening and election of officers was held. Those who will be installed July 12 are: Ethel Geissel N. G.; Charlotte Dickenson, V. G.; Maude Logsdon, Secretary. A committee has been appointed to serve refreshments and it is hoped all the members will be present.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Sigmon who formerly made their home here are Athena visitors. After leaving Athena Mr. and Mrs. Sigmon made their home at Moscow, Idaho for a time. From there they went to Texas and have since been in Kansas and Oklahoma. The visitors will go to Moscow from here.

Miss Maryjane Cornelison visited here this week from Walla Walla, she was en route to Seattle where she will spend her vacation with her mother. September 1st she will enter Columbia college, New York. She will be with her sister who is a senior at that college.

Mrs. McSherry came up from Pendleton and spent Tuesday with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. S. F. Sharp. She was at Arlington Sunday afternoon with her husband, en route from Portland at the time the flood struck Arlington, and she described it as a most terrifying scene.

The Social Side

(By Adele McEwen)

Luncheon at Pendleton

A group of Athena ladies motored to Pendleton Thursday when Mrs. A. A. Kimball, Mrs. Henry Collins and Mrs. Elmer Storie honored Mrs. Glenn Storie and Mrs. Nat Kimball at a bridge luncheon. The eleven tables were gay with old fashioned bouquets of summer flowers. Guests from Athena included Mrs. O. O. Stephens, Mrs. M. L. Watts, Mrs. B. B. Richards, Miss Kathren Froome, Mrs. Forest Zerba, Mrs. Ralph McEwen, Mrs. Bert Logsdon and Mrs. Marion Hansell.

Miss Butler Honored

Miss Helen Butler of Dallas, who has been a guest of her aunt, Mrs. H. I. Watts for the past fortnight, has been the inspiration for a number of delightfully informal affairs. Saturday Mrs. Ralph McEwen complimented Miss Butler when she invited guests to make up several tables of bridge. Mrs. McEwen used brilliant summer flowers for decorations and at the tea hour served seasonable refreshments. Mrs. H. I. Watts held high score and Mrs. Lloyd Michener received the consolation. Miss Butler was presented with a dainty guest prize.

Mrs. H. I. Watts entertained at bridge Tuesday afternoon in honor of Miss Butler. Two tables were in play, Mrs. M. L. Watts making high score and Mrs. F. S. Le Grow the consolation. Dainty ices were served by the hostess following the play. Those present were, Mrs. Max Hopper, Mrs. Bert Logsdon, Mrs. F. S. Le Grow, Mrs. Ralph McEwen, Mrs. M. L. Watts, Mrs. Forest Zerba, Mrs. B. B. Richards, the honoree and the hostess.

Bridge Club Entertained

Mrs. C. M. Eager entertained the Athena Bridge club Friday afternoon. The rooms were attractively decorated with clusters of sweet peas, snap dragons and delphinium. The usual three tables were in play, Mrs. W. P. Littlejohn making high score, and Mrs. F. S. Le Grow receiving the consolation. Mrs. Roseberry was presented with a dainty guest prize.

No Truth in Report

Reports here that the Weston city water works dam had been weakened by Sunday's storm and was liable to go out, proved to be untrue. The normal condition of the dam was not in the least impaired by the storm.

Will Battle Morning Glory

Floyd Pinkerton has purchased an electric drill which he will use in connection with eradication of wild morning glory on a farm he recently purchased west of Athena. The drill, operated by an electric generator will bore holes to receive the bi-sulphate solution at the roots of the growing plants.

The Churches

Baptist Church
Sunday School at 9:45 A. M. Patriotic Sermon at 11:00 A. M. Topic, "A New Decalogue of Patriotism." The common factor in achievement is "Freedom." Young Peoples meeting at 7:00 P. M. Evening song and Praise at 8:00 P. M. Topic, Life an Investment of Faith. Every Tuesday evening at 8:00 P. M. Young Peoples Prayer Meeting. The spirit of our young ought to be an object lesson for the entire community. Thursday evening at 8:00 P. M. Devotional and Bible Study. All cordially invited to services.

Watch value that defies comparison! This lovely watch has a white gold filled engraved case and a dependable 15 jewel Bulova Movement.

FRED H. BROWN, Jeweler
Pendleton, Oregon

Ladies Voile Dresses

In a Variety of Colors and Printed Patterns

These New Voiles are Charming and Snappy

Priced at

$2.65 to $4.95

5 per cent Discount for Cash

Phone Your Order To 152

Athena Department Store

THE STANDARD THEATRE

Saturday, July 2

Anna Q. Nilsson

In

"Her Second Chance"

With

Huntley Gordon and Charles Murray

Adapted from the novel by Mrs. Wilson Woodrow. The drama of Caroline, daughter of the bleak hills of Kentucky, who becomes a dazzling idol of beauty for whom men fight for the privilege of worship. Flashing thoroughbred horses—slashing, wild-eyed jockies—it was the race of the ages—A redblooded triumph for a thoroughbred blue-blooded woman. A drama of fast horses and a beautiful woman staged in Kentucky—Romance-land! A drama of the sport of kings made for the thrilling delight of everyone.

International News

Admission Prices, 10c-25c-35c

Sunday, July 3

No Show

so go somewhere

And

celebrate

The Fourth

Coming:

Harold Lloyd

In

"Kid Brother"

A Standard Bred

Registered Jack

will make the season at my farm
two miles south of Athena

Terms—For single service $5; or $20 to insure.

HENRY KOEPKE, Jr.

Phone 32F5, Athena, Oregon.

To Cure Constipation Forever,
Take Cascara Candy (Cascaria) 10c or 25c at C. C. J. fail to cure, druggists refund money.