

Press Paragraphs

"Breed of the Sea" Standard Theatre, tomorrow night. W. J. Kirk was a Walla Walla visitor Saturday.

Edgar Adair left Saturday morning for Pottlatch, Idaho.

Charles Booher was in Athena from Adams, Wednesday.

Mrs. W. E. Potts and son Edwin, were in Pendleton Monday.

Henry Frazier of Milton, was in Athena, Tuesday on business.

Mrs. Ralph Singer spent the week end in Stanfield visiting relatives.

Flint Johns finished seeding after a tough season's effort, by working until "pitch dark" Tuesday evening.

William Davidson of Freewater spent Sunday in Athena visiting friends.

Mrs. Fred Gross and Mrs. Claud Dickenson were in Walla Walla Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Cannon and little daughters were over from Walla Walla Sunday.

Mrs. M. L. Watts attended the Country club at Walla Walla Thursday of last week.

Mrs. Ernest Zerba is at College Place sanitarium, where she is receiving treatment.

Mrs. Edgar Forrest was in Athena Monday from her home near Thorn Hollow Station.

The Blue Mountains were dressed in a mantle of white as the result of a snowfall, Wednesday.

Mrs. J. W. Pinkerton spent Tuesday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Maurice Frazier, at Milton.

Mrs. Jennie Gross, Mrs. Arthur Douglas and Mrs. Bryce Baker were Walla Walla visitors Monday.

Miss Edna DeFreece spent the week end in Milton at the home of her sister Mrs. Lowell Hapder.

Mrs. D. B. Banister spent several days with her daughter, Mrs. Raymond Geissel in Milton, last week.

The Methodist Missionary society will meet next Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. J. Crabill.

Marion Hansell and Brooks Anderson met with fine success fishing in the Umattilla river, Sunday.

Mrs. Zeltha McIntyre spent the fore part of the week in Walla Walla visiting her daughter, Mrs. Ralph Cannon.

The Helix Rod and Gun club will give its 15th annual turkey shoot at Helix, next Friday, November 13. There will be trap and rifle range shooting.

The Athena high school foot ball team will play Hermiston high school on the Hermiston grounds, this afternoon.

Mrs. Hugh Onstot and family of Walla Walla, spent Sunday in Athena visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Lee Johnson.

Miss Elsa Ringel has changed her address at Oregon State college, Corvallis, at present it being 2070 Monroe street.

Walter Russell of The Dalles, nephew of Mrs. W. R. Harden and Mrs. Henry Miller visited his aunts Saturday.

Mrs. Fred Kershaw, Mrs. Barbara Willaby, Mrs. Minnie Willaby and Mrs. Minnie DePeatt were Pendleton visitors last week.

"Clubbing a Husband" is to be presented by the Loyal Gleaners in the near future. Watch for later announcements and date.

There will be no Armistice Day program in Athena today. Pendleton is offering an interesting program in observance of the day.

The pie social announced for last week, will be held this evening at the Christian church. Everyone is invited to attend the social.

Mrs. Amanda McArthur has returned from Portland, where last week she motored with Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Leonard of Waitsburg.

Ralph Gillis was in Athena Monday from his farm near Washtucna, Washington. Ralph is in the market for some good work mules.

A new tile chimney decorates the Athena Meat Market building. Mose Banister was the boss when it came to assembling the new smokestack.

Miss Dorothy Geissel and mother Mrs. Dora Geissel spent Saturday in Walla Walla and Milton, visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Geissel.

J. N. B. Gerking of Bend, Oregon is visiting his son George R. Gerking on his farm west of town. Mr. Gerking expects to spend the winter here.

Mrs. Brower (Jennamae Read) of Pendleton spent Saturday with her mother Mrs. G. S. Prestby in this city. Mr. and Mrs. Brower were in Athena Sunday evening.

B. B. Richards returned yesterday from Kelso, Washington, where he was called by the death of his brother, Walter Richards, who passed away at his home in that city, Sunday last.

"Adam and Evil" Standard Theatre, Sunday night.

The last of the mid-week pictures under present schedule will be presented at the Standard Theatre Wednesday night, when Lon Chaney will appear in "The Unknown."

Mr. and Mrs. Baer and two children after visiting at the country home of Mrs. Baer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Pambrun, have returned to their home near Mt. Hope, Idaho.

Curtis Duffield has come from Portland to reside with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Duffield, in Athena. He was a pupil at Jefferson high school in Portland, and has enrolled in the Freshman class at Athena high.

Lee Hiteman of California who is here to spend the winter with his daughter Ezma was pleasantly surprised Friday evening when another daughter, Mrs. Wesley Parrott, arrived from New Hampshire to visit her father and sister.

At Walla Walla Saturday, Wa-Hi trounced the Pendleton Buckaroos by the lop-sided score of 37-0. Friday at Milton, Mac-Hi and Baker played to a scoreless tie in the Eastern Oregon scholastic championship game.

Mrs. S. F. Sharp returned home Saturday from California, after visiting for several weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Heinen. Mrs. Sharp has improved in health during her visit in California.

Rain interfered with a fishing trip Wednesday which was contemplated by Penn Harris and F. B. Radtke, to the extent that these two disciples of Izaak Walton remained at their respective places of business.

Mrs. L. H. Howell of Rosalia, Washington, was here Wednesday to attend the funeral of her brother, the late Gus Schubert. She was accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Ernest Hall, of Steptoe, Washington.

Miss Eloise Bergevin a former resident of Athena and vicinity was married to Michael Estes November 3rd in Vancouver, Washington. Both young people are residents of Pendleton and will make their home there after a short trip to Seattle and Tacoma.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Dudley, and Mr. and Mrs. Verne Dudley left by motor Wednesday for Portland, where they will visit friends for a few days. The brothers, University of Oregon alumni, will be at Eugene today to participate in the university's annual home-coming event.

"Friday" the Fox Terrier owned by Sanford Stone, is said to have developed a dislike for children, and one day this week he nabbed Roland Richards by the leg. Roland was taken to Dr. Cowan's office, where examination revealed that the boy had not been seriously injured.

Miss Ethel Geissel, who has been the inspiration for two bride-to-be showers, was the happy recipient of a third Tuesday evening when at the lodge hall the members of Mignonette Rebekah lodge, of which she is Noble Grand, completely surprised her with many fine offerings and happy felicitations.

Will Campbell is at Bingham Springs, where he is getting out logs which he will use in the construction of a cabin for his summer home at the Springs. With several others, including E. A. Dudley and M. L. Watts of Athena, Mr. Campbell purchased a building lot at the Springs several months ago.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. McFadden arrived home Monday noon after an extended trip to Paris, attending the Legion convention in that city. Mr. and Mrs. McFadden left immediately for Weston and Walla Walla for their children who have stayed in these localities. Barbara in Walla Walla, Billie and Raymond in Weston. Mr. and Mrs. McFadden report a wonderful trip.

The O. D. O. Club met last Friday at the home of Mrs. Clifford Walker with fourteen members present. The afternoon was spent with needlework and conversation. Plans were discussed relative to a party to be held after the holidays. At four o'clock the hostess, assisted by Mrs. William Potts served delicious creamed chicken short cakes, rocks, and coffee. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. H. M. Saulsbury on November 18.

Mrs. O. H. Reeder was hostess to the Etude club, Thursday afternoon. Twenty-one members were present. Mrs. Stone and Miss Pearl Ramsay sponsored a patriotic program: Song by club, Star Spangled Banner; Two piano numbers were given by Miss Zola Keen, followed by several chorus numbers by the entire club. A very dainty lunch was served in patriotic colors. The rooms were tastefully decorated with huge baskets of fall flowers.

Miss Jessieedeane Dudley entertained a number of her friends at a Halloween party at her home west of town last Wednesday evening. The rooms were prettily decorated with colorful fall flowers. Orange and black horns and tambourines were in evidence as favors. Most enjoyable games were played and at a late hour delicious refreshments were served by Miss Dudley assisted by her mother. Orange candles and pumpkins were arranged attractively on the beautifully appointed table. About nineteen friends enjoyed the hospitality of Miss Dudley.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Ameil Schubert was the scene of much merriment last Thursday evening, when a number of school mates of Mrs. Thomas Kirk (Miss LaVone Pittman) entertained in her honor. The party was in the nature of a bridal shower and came as a surprise to Miss Ethel Geissel who was a guest and who with Mrs. Kirk received many useful and pretty presents. Games were played and enjoyed by those present and delicious refreshments were served by Miss Doris and Lorena Schubert and Miss Thena Russell. About 15 friends of the honorees were present.

The J. T. club met at the home of Mrs. Dean Dudley Wednesday afternoon. A delightful afternoon was spent by the members. Mrs. Sheldon Taylor and Mrs. Fred Gross served delicious refreshments. The next meeting of the club will be at the home of Mrs. James Lieuallen at Adams, Friday afternoon, November 25.

Walter Thompson, who filled the position of prescription clerk at McFadden's Pharmacy, while Mr. McFadden was on his Paris trip, returned to his home in Portland, Wednesday.

Charlie Wilson returned recently from a successful deer hunt in Washington. He shot a nice big buck.

Don't fail to see "Clubbing Her Husband."

High School Notes

Junior News Staff.

Editor.....Alberta Charlton
 Classes.....Pearl Green
 Faculty.....Wilford Miller
 Alumni.....Oral Michener
 Athletics.....Weldon Bell
 Student Body.....Emma Ringel
 Society.....Mildred Street
 Grades.....Areta Kirk
 Personal.....Marjorie Wilson
 Advisor.....Miss Bateman

Student Body

After hearing the reports from Weston that the Passion play motion picture was unsuccessful, the high school members did not recommend it to the Athena people. Very few people attended, but $20 was taken in, all of which went to the company.

A new system of bells has at last been installed in the high school class rooms. A separate bell can now be rung to give a five-minute warning to the typing, manual training and sewing class.

Assembly

The four high school classes of Athena high school met in the school auditorium Friday, November 4 at 9:00 for the purpose of singing a few songs.

Personal

Thena Russell was in Walla Walla Saturday.

Dorothy Geissel was in Walla Walla Saturday.

Kathleen Radtke was in Pendleton Sunday.

Ethel Pittman went to Walla Walla Sunday.

The foot ball boys accompanied by Mr. Toole, Mr. Meyers, and some of the high school students attended the foot ball game at Milton between Mac-Hi and Baker.

Areta Kirk went to Walla Walla Sunday.

Faculty

Mr. and Mrs. M. I. Miller entertained Mr. and Mrs. Bryce Baker at a theatre party in Walla Walla Sunday.

Miss Bateman spent Sunday in Walla Walla.

Miss Brodie spent Sunday in Walla Walla.

Mr. Meyer, Mr. Toole and Mr. Miller accompanied the football team to Milton Friday where the championship game between Mac-Hi and Baker was held. The game ended with an 0-0 score.

Miss Sellars, accompanied by Mrs. Barrett, spent Saturday in Pendleton.

Classes

The best typing papers for the week ending November 4 were those of: Alberta Charlton, Helen Hansell, Emma Ringel and Ito Schubert.

FRED H. BROWN, Jeweler
 Pendleton, Oregon

Just Received

Our Fall Shipment of

Pendleton Robes

Blankets, Couch Covers, Etc.

All Beautiful Patterns

We invite your inspection

Phone Your Order To 152

Athena Department Store

THE STANDARD THEATRE

Saturday, November 12

Peter B. Kyne's Great Story

Breed of the Sea

With

Ralph Ince, Dorothy Dunbar, Margaret Livingston

What action! What adventure! A thundering tale of Southern seas! A strange tropical island! And two who came from the end of the earth to meet!

International News

Admission Prices, 10c-25c-35c

Sunday, November 13

Lew Cody and Aileen Pringle

In

Adam and Evil

A Splendid Comedy

Laughs, long, loud and lingering, tumble over each other in this smart farce comedy—the first vehicle of the great new team of Lew Cody and Aileen Pringle. They will surely ride to a partnership of fame with this uproarious riot of marital complications, involving a twin brother from Brazil, whose arrival almost wrecks a hitherto peaceful, domestic home.

Pathe Review

Admission Prices, 10c-25c-35c

Wednesday, November 16

The Unknown

Starring

Lon Chaney

With

Norman Kerry and Joan Crawford

Comedy

Admission Prices 10c-25c-35c

Monuments and Grave Memorials

Beauty and Durability

Let us help you in making your selection. Our service and workmanship is the best to be had, and our prices are very reasonable. We have a very complete stock to select from, of American and Foreign Granite. See what is to be had in your home county before you buy.

Pendleton Marble & Granite Works

Under New Management

T. L. REEDY, Proprietor

MODEL CLEANERS

J. H. BOOHER, Prop.

PENDLETON, OREGON, PHONE 321

Quick Service and Good Work

We Call for Clothing on Monday and Deliver on Thursday. Agency at Whitehead's Shop.

Saturday Special

Weston Mountain

Potatoes

per sack

$1.00

Adair's Cash Grocery

Phone 567—Free Delivery