

Press Paragraphs

Fred Thompson and Silver King Standard Theatre, tomorrow night. Charles Booher of Adams was in Athena, Monday.

R. A. Thompson spent the week end at Heppner, Oregon.

Dr. J. L. Geyer is spending the Thanksgiving holiday in Portland.

Mrs. C. M. Eager and Mrs. Henry Dell spent Tuesday in Walla Walla.

A. E. Shick is confined to his bed in the west part of town, with the flu.

Mrs. Barney Foster and daughter Arleen were Pendleton visitors Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gross motored to Prescott, Washington, on business, Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Parris moved to their new home near Walla Walla Tuesday.

Mrs. Theresa Berlin spent last Thursday in Athena from her home in Walla Walla.

Edgar Schultz of Rosebud, Alberta, Canada is here visiting at the home of Mrs. Dora Geissel.

Leonard Geissel and Brooks Anderson motored to Portland Tuesday evening. They will return Sunday.

M. I. Miller accompanied by Eldon Myrick went to Cheney, Washington yesterday after a load of furniture.

Mrs. Edgar Adair and daughters Reta and Mabel left Wednesday evening for Idaho to spend the week end.

Mr. Claridge of Portland was in Athena Saturday. He is connected with the Peoria Life Insurance company.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lieuallen, returned from Portland and Bend, Sunday, where they spent their honeymoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Geissel of Milton spent Thanksgiving day in Athena at the home of Mrs. Dora Geissel.

Miss Gladys Dickenson and Henry Knight were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Martin Saturday evening.

Mrs. Laura Froom left Wednesday morning to spend the week end with her daughter Mrs. Cooley of Portland.

S. N. Adkins of New Plymouth, Idaho, visited at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Lew McNair, the fore part of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. George Banister of Walla Walla spent the week end in Athena at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bern Banister.

Miss Lois McIntyre who has been ill in a hospital about ten days, suffering with bronchitis, is reported to be improving.

It is reported that Mrs. Fred Gross has purchased the old Henry Schmitt farm west of Athena, from George Gerking.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Purcell of Weston are the parents of a baby girl, weighing 5 pounds, born to them November 18, 1927.

Mrs. Mamie Swan was in the city the first of the week visiting her daughter, Mrs. Nora Desper, and calling on old friends.

Major Jim Dunning was a gunning up this way the fore part of the week for "E. O." subscriptions. Jim goes out and gets 'em.

Mrs. Della Booher and daughter Marjorie of Walla Walla, spent Sunday in Athena at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Zerba.

Harold Kirk arrived yesterday morning from Portland where he has been attending Hill's Military academy, to visit over the week end with his parents Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Kirk.

Mrs. Charles Henry, Mrs. Lee Johnson and Mrs. Ethel Montague spent Saturday in Pendleton, guests of Mrs. H. J. Cunningham.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex McIntyre and Mrs. A. M. Johnson left Wednesday morning by motor for Eugene, to spend Thanksgiving day.

Mrs. Bert Ramsay left Wednesday morning for Portland where she will visit indefinitely at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Grace Kintzley.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Huggins who have spent several months in Parkdale, where they were employed, returned to Athena, Friday afternoon.

Monday night of this week was the coldest and snappiest, so far this fall. Ice and frost were very much in evidence Tuesday morning.

Mrs. Minnie Willaby who spent several days last week at the home of her son and family, Virgil Willaby, in Freewater has returned home.

Miss Arleen Myrick of Athena and Mrs. Thomas Mosgrove of Milton spent the week end in Helix at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Anderson.

The Royal Gleaners class are earnestly working on the play to be presented in the near future, "Clubbing a Husband." Watch for the date.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Russell and daughter Miss Thena Russell left Wednesday noon for Condon, where they will spend the Thanksgiving vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Eager and family spent Sunday in Walla Walla visiting Mr. Eager's mother, who is a patient at the General hospital in that city.

John Pinkerton is replacing Bryce Baker, during the latter's absence in Spokane and Portland. If in need of any Continental Oil service remember Johnny.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Booher and Harvey Booher of Condon visited last week in Athena with Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Russell, returning to Condon, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. P. DeFreece of Walla Walla and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Cockburn of Milton spent Friday in Athena, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sims Dickenson.

Donald Haynie who formerly resided in Athena with his parents, was up from Pendleton, Sunday. Donald is employed in the J. C. Penney store there.

Little Miss Peggy Hill, wee daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Hill of Walla Walla, spent the past week at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Hill.

The annual dinner and bazaar, to be held by the Ladies Aid society of the Christian church, will be held in the basement of the church on Saturday, December 10th.

On Thursday evening, December 1, officers for the ensuing year will be nominated by Phythian Lodge No. 29, K. of P. All lodge members are requested to be present.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Zerba and family, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Zerba and family and Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Zerba and family attended a family dinner Thanksgiving day in Pendleton, at the home of Mrs. E. A. Mumford.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Walker entertained at dinner Thanksgiving The following out of town guests were, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Parker of Warden, Washington; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Richmond of Walla Walla; Mr. and Mrs. Jake Booher of Pendleton and John Walker and daughter Jennie.

"Spring Fever" Standard Theatre, Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Wood, Mrs. Jesse Myrick, Clifford Wood and Lee Banister left for Portland Wednesday, and tomorrow will attend the Carnegie Tech-Oregon State football game.

Mr. and Mrs. Bryce Baker left Sunday morning for Spokane, returning Tuesday evening. Sunday they will go to Portland where Mr. Baker will receive medical attention for a bone graft.

Mrs. F. S. LeGrow entertained the Bridge club ladies, Friday afternoon. Mrs. Henry Dell received high score for the afternoon. A two-course luncheon was served by the hostess.

Miss Merle Best was up from Pendleton, and spent the week end with Miss Zola Keen. Miss Best was a popular teacher in the Athena schools for two terms, and is now teaching in Pendleton.

Mrs. Emily Walker and daughter Virginia of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, visited last week in Athena and Pendleton. Mrs. Walker was looking after farming interest. Jos. N. Scott is farming her land.

Omer Stephens drove to Hot Lake Tuesday and brought his sister-in-law, Mrs. Thad Stephens, to her home in Pendleton. Mrs. Stephens is convalescing after an operation at the Hot Lake sanitarium.

Mr. and Mrs. George Gerking are making extensive improvements on their farm home west of town. The living and dining rooms have been thrown together and a fire place built large windows added and several rooms redecorated.

The dance given by the Bridge club ladies, Saturday at Legion hall was largely attended and enjoyed by all present. The ladies served sandwiches, cake and coffee at a late hour. The Jolly Joy-Makers orchestra furnished the music.

The baby daughter born to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Beckner at St. Anthony hospital, Pendleton, November 23, died the following day. The remains were brought to Athena for burial, interment taking place this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Marion Hansell returned Monday from Portland, where in company with Henry Collins and Dr. Hanivan of Pendleton, he spent a couple of days with Portland friends on a hunting preserve, shooting ducks, of which they bagged a plenty.

Will Russell has returned from Alberta, where he went after the harvest season was over in Umatilla county. He was at Nanton and Calgary, and when he departed from there last week, he left behind him plenty of snow and below zero weather.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Dudley spent Saturday with friends in Pendleton.

Thanksgiving day was duly observed in Athena. Stores and business houses remained closed, family gatherings were in order, and, as a result, there are fewer turkeys in the community.

A few Odd Fellows and Rebekahs met together Monday evening at the I. O. O. F. and K. of P. hall, when the evening was spent with cards and radio. R. A. Thompson installed a radio for the occasion. After a few hours the party repaired to Kilgore's Cafe for refreshments.

Twelve little friends of Betty Venable were invited to a birthday party given by her mother Friday afternoon. The little guests greatly enjoyed games and much fun was had by all. Mrs. Venable served refreshments and centering the table was a birthday cake containing eight candles.

Eugene Kirk, seventeen year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Kirk, was a member of the Dayton high school stock judging team which made the highest average of any team in the state of Washington. The team went to Kansas City, last week, where they came out second in the National stock judging contest. The pictures of the team appeared in the Sunday Oregonian.

Nominations for officers for the coming year was held Tuesday evening in Mignonette Rebekah lodge and business was transacted after which Mrs. A. M. Johnson, Mrs. Fred Pinkerton and Mrs. Lila Kirk served delicious salad and cake. The president of the Rebekah lodge will meet with the local lodge next meeting night which is December 13, and all members are asked to be present. A committee of five was appointed to serve for that night.

The J. T. club entertained at the home of Mrs. J. T. Lieuallen Jr., in Adams Friday evening in honor of Mrs. Grant Prestbye, who left Saturday morning for Kalispell, Montana, where she will make her home in the future. Bridge was the diversion of the afternoon, Mrs. Max Hopper winning high score. Mrs. Arthur Douglas and Mrs. C. L. McFadden served a dainty two-course luncheon. The next meeting of the club will be at the home of Mrs. C. L. McFadden December 9th. Guests of the club were, Mrs. Bryce Baker, Mrs. E. C. Prestbye, Mrs. Ellis Brower of Pendleton and Mrs. Smith of California.

High School Notes

Junior News Staff.

Editor..... Alberta Charlton
Classes..... Pearl Green
Faculty..... Wilford Miller
Alumni..... Oral Michener
Athletics..... Weldon Bell
Student Body..... Emma Ringel
Society..... Mildred Street
Grades..... Areta Kirk
Personal..... Marjorie Wilson
Advisor..... Miss Bateman

Classes

The typing papers which proved to be best for the week ending November 18 were those of: Ito Schubert, Helen Hansell, Areta Kirk, and Alberta Charlton.

The senior class decided at a class meeting held recently that they would send their rings back, as they are not satisfactory.

Personal

Kathleen Radtke was hostess at a tea at her home Saturday afternoon. Those present were Doris and Lorena Schubert, Thena Russell, Jessideane Dudley and the hostess.

Pearl Greene was in Walla Walla Saturday.

Emma Ringel was in Walla Walla Saturday and in Pendleton Sunday.

Mildred Street spent the week end in Pendleton.

Ethel Pittman and Alberta Charlton spent Saturday in Walla Walla.

Wilford Miller, Walter Huffman, Jim and Roland Wilson went to Helix Sunday.

Areta Kirk, Marjorie Wilson and Armand Bell went to Helix Friday to attend the high school Lyceum.

Entertainment

The usual Friday assembly of the four high school classes was held November 18 for the purpose of singing a few songs. After the singing, yells were given in honor of the Pendleton-Athena football game.

The freshmen-sophomore party was held Friday evening, November 18 at the schoolhouse. Games were played on the gym floor and in the party room. At a late hour refreshments were served. Guests of the classes were: Lois Smith, Reta Adair, Mr. and Mrs. Meyer, Miss Brodie, Miss Bateman, Mrs. Toole and the class advisers, Mr. Toole and Mr. Fredericks.

A Thanksgiving program was presented in the high school auditorium, Wednesday at 2:00 o'clock. The program was as follows: Address of Welcome, Marjorie Montague; Drill, First and Second grades, (a) "Voices from the Cellar," (b) "Rolling Pin Drill"; Playlet, "What the Spirit of Thanksgiving Meant to Teddy," Third and Fourth Grades; Recitation, "Tommy's Thankfulness," Aaron Douglas; Piano duet, "Tales of Hoffman," Betty Eager and Marjorie Douglas; Playlet, "For These, Thy Mercies," Fifth and Sixth grades; Selection, Girl's Glee club; Play, "Thanksgiving at Swallow Lodge," Seventh and Eighth grades; Reading, "When Father Carves the Duck" Carl Calvert; A Fond Farewell, Helen Barrett.

Faculty

Miss Bateman went to Pendleton Sunday.

Mr. M. I. Miller has rented Mrs. Lula Prestbye's home for the remainder of the year. During the Thanksgiving vacation he will journey to Endicott for his furniture.

Alumni

Beryl Hodgen, captain of the Oregon football team, has been pledged to Friars, upper-class honorary. Pledging to Friars takes place twice a year when the most outstanding student leaders are taken into the organization. Membership is one of the highest honors that can come to an Oregon man.

Lois McIntyre is ill with bronchitis in Eugene.

Student Body

A discussion for a "pep" rally was the purpose of holding a student body meeting Friday, November 18, at 1:00 o'clock. A motion was made by Clifford Wood that a football rally be held at 7:15 that evening. The motion was carried and the rally was held.

A fire drill was practiced on Wednesday morning. Every one was out in sixteen seconds.

THE AERO-JACK

for Wind, Rain or Bright Sunshine

Aero-Jacks are made for those who drive. For those who hike or for those who engage in any outdoor activity whatsoever. Slip into an Aero-Jack and feel the warm, soft cloth in the inside, the outside is an impenetrable sheen which defies the onslaught of the elements with the unconcern of a brick wall.

They are windproof, rainproof and will not crack.
Boys and girls, $3.50; Men's and women's $5.00.

Phone Your Order To 152

Athena Department Store

THE STANDARD THEATRE

Saturday, November 26

Fred Thompson

and

Silver King

In

A Regular Scout

The powerful drama of a man's regeneration through the influence of the Boy Scouts! A man bent on vengeance—his accidental association with the Boys—and the manner in which they win him from his mad scheme of vengeance! Then his turn comes to help them—and he risks his life for one of the boys! An amazing story of a man's salvation! A thrilling tale of dangers and hair-breadth escapes! Drama and thrills running neck and neck in a picture that will literally take your breath away. Officially endorsed by The Boy Scouts of America.

International News

Admission Prices, 10c-25c-35c

Sunday, November 27

William Haines

With

Joan Crawford and George K. Arthur

In

SPRING FEVER

Remember William Haines in "Tell it to the Marines," and George K. Arthur in "Rookies," they are cast together in this splendid comedy-drama, full of fun, and what it takes to make a good picture.

Pathe Review

Admission Prices, 10c-25c-35c

Coming

December 3rd

"The Garden of Allah"

MODEL CLEANERS

J. H. BOOHER, Prop.

PENDLETON, OREGON, PHONE 321

Quick Service and Good Work

We Call for Clothing on Monday and Deliver on Thursday. Agency at Whitehead's Shop.

Monuments

and Grave Memorials

Beauty and Durability

Let us help you in making your selection. Our service and workmanship is the best to be had, and our prices are very reasonable. We have a very complete stock to select from, of American and Foreign Granite. See what is to be had in your home county before you buy.

Pendleton Marble & Granite Works

Under New Management

T. L. REEDY, Proprietor

FRED H. BROWN, Jeweler
Pendleton, Oregon