The Garden of Allah

From the story by Robert Hitchens

One of the world's truly great romances has been brought to the screen now through the genius of Rex Ingram. Made on actual locations in Europe and the Sahara Desert, with thousands of Arab tribesmen, this is a production of outstanding beauty and dramatic power. Millions have read the story in book form—millions will thrill now to the adventures of the handsome young Monk who yields to the call of the world without.

Naughty But Nice

Supported by Donald Reed, Claude Gillingwater, Edythe Chapman and Kathryn McGuire

So Naughty she made a rumpus of a Campus—so Nice she turned a sheik into a husband! A mad-cap, mischievous, devil-may-worry, perfectly adorable Colleen. She turns a college upside down to win a sheik that would make any Sheba toss away her slave bracelets in despair. A comedy festival in the grandest and most glorious Moore-manner.
