

Press Paragraphs

"Spoilers of the West" Standard Theatre, Saturday night, Charles Norris spent Tuesday in Pendleton.

Mrs. Paul Lieuallen of Adams was in Athena Tuesday.

Mrs. Cora McIntyre was a Walla Walla visitor Monday.

James Gorman of Portland was an Athena visitor Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Kirk were Walla Walla visitors Saturday.

Barney Foster transacted business in Pendleton Wednesday.

Grover DeSpain was in the city from Pendleton Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. I. Miller were Walla Walla visitors Saturday.

M. I. Miller refereed a basketball game in Weston Tuesday evening.

Miss Vena Marcus of Adams is ill at the Alex McIntyre home this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Wilks are in Athena again after a few months absence.

Mrs. Belle Edwards left Tuesday for Heppner, where she will visit her daughter.

Mrs. Lewis Keen and son are temporarily residing in the Christian parsonage.

Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Harder and daughter were in Athena Sunday visiting relatives.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. James Cresswell has been ill for the past two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Cunningham were Athena visitors from Pendleton, Saturday evening.

Marjorie Douglas spent the weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Brower, in Pendleton.

Mrs. Ida Bannister is ill and was removed to St. Mary's hospital Tuesday, for medical care.

Born—At Walla Walla, Washington, January 14, 1928, to Mr. and Mrs. Armond DeMerrit, a son.

Jessiedean Dudley and James Hodggen were dinner guests at the Frank DeFreece home Sunday.

Miss Edna DeFreece is spending the week-end in Milton, visiting her sister, Mrs. Lowell Harder.

Mrs. D. H. Mansfield of Pendleton was a visitor Saturday and Sunday at the A. W. Logsdon home.

Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Hansell attended the funeral of Mrs. Mildred Burroughs in Pendleton Wednesday.

Another war was waged on Athena coal bins as the result of the cold-snap the fore part of the week.

C. L. McGinnis, who years ago conducted a saloon at Weston, died recently at Wenatchee, Washington.

Mrs. M. L. Watts and Mrs. H. I. Watts were guests at the Country club in Walla Walla last Thursday.

The Christian church Missionary society met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. R. A. Thompson.

Mrs. Richard Thompson underwent a minor surgical operation at St. Mary's hospital, Walla Walla, Saturday.

Mrs. George Finch has returned from Portland, where she was called on account of serious illness of her sister.

Miss Elizabeth Hollwager of Walla Walla, spent Sunday in Athena at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Richards.

Mrs. Stella Keen and Miss Zola Keen are hostess this afternoon to the Study club, at their home on Fourth street.

Mr. and Mrs. Penn Harris have moved into the cottage on Jefferson street, recently vacated by Mr. and Mrs. John Stanton.

Mrs. H. I. Watts entertained a few friends Friday afternoon when two tables of bridge were at play. Mrs. C. M. Eager receiving high score Mrs. H. A. Barrett second score while Mrs. F. S. LeGrow received consolation. Popcorn, candy and punch were served during the afternoon.

Zane Grey's "Forlorn River" Standard Theatre, Sunday night.

Mrs. Verne Smith of Weston was in Athena Friday.

Mr. Toole and his Athena high school bookkeeping class investigated the accounting system at the Rogers & Goodman store, Tuesday morning.

Pupils of the Malen-Burnett Athena branch School of Music will be heard in a piano recital at the high school auditorium, next Wednesday evening. The public is cordially invited.

A large number of Athena friends of the late Mrs. Eugene Shrimp attended her funeral in Weston Sunday. The Jolly Twenty club, of which she was a loved member, was present.

Mrs. E. C. Prestbye has returned from an extended visit with relatives at Seattle. Mrs. Prestbye went to Seattle before the holidays, and Mr. Prestbye went over and spent Christmas.

Ralph McEwen returned from Portland Tuesday, after spending several weeks with Mrs. McEwen and sons, Ralph Jr., and Edwin. Mr. McEwen will get his farm outfit ready for spring work.

J. C. Harwood is driving a new Pontiac sedan. "Hardy" we believe, gave up his old Jewett with a pang of regret. He had driven it many thousands of miles, and it was good for many more.

The food sale which Mrs. Jess Smith's division of the Baptist women's society had expected to hold on Saturday January 21 has been postponed until Saturday, January 28 on account of bad roads.

Section Foreman Ramsay of the Northern Pacific, says there is serious need of culverts on the new highway leading north from town, to handle flood waters so that the N. P. tracks may be protected.

J. N. York, prominent Weston farmer, who was kicked by a horse during the Arthur Douglas sale, Wednesday of last week, was not seriously injured as was first reported, and has recovered from a minor injury.

A carload of Oliver plows and Superior drills arrived this week at the farm implement department of the Rogers & Goodman store. Clarence Barney and Brooks Anderson have been engaged in setting up the machinery.

Elmer E. Clever, former resident of this county, died at his home in Portland, Tuesday after a long illness. Before he died he expressed the wish that his body be cremated and his ashes scattered in the Blue Mountains.

Miss Louise Porter, teacher in the third and fourth grades of the Athena public schools, has resigned on account of ill health. Her place has been taken by Mrs. M. I. Miller. Miss Porter resides with her parents at Freewater.

On account of ill health Miss Frederica Kershaw has been compelled to resign temporarily as head of the music department of the Ontario, Oregon, high school. Miss Kershaw is at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Kershaw, in Athena.

The two light cases of smallpox in the Mayberry family, residing on the West Side, are convalescent and the quarantine will soon be lifted. No new cases have been reported in the city. A number of sore arms are being carried as a result from vaccination.

It may be of some interest to Jinks Dudley, who is wintering at Long Beach, California, to be informed that Steelheads are beginning to run in the lower Umatilla, and that a number of his Athena cronies are preparing their fishing tackle to catch a few.

Owing to floods to the north, west bound O. W. R. & N. trains have been running late on the Washington division, between Spokane and Pendleton.

Again Sand Hollow and Greasewood have been on a flood rampage, and uniting with the waters of Wild Horse creek, the highway at points west of Adams was again overflowed. No material damage resulted from the freshet, which was caused by snow melting on the higher land to the north.

A trial fusion of the Baptist and Christian churches of Hermiston has been entered into in an effort to combine the membership and resources of the two bodies. If the trial unification of the two bodies proves successful, the merger will be made permanent.

Mrs. M. M. Johns went to Vancouver, Washington last week where on Sunday she helped to celebrate her sister and husband's golden anniversary. Mrs. Johns left Tuesday evening for California, where she expects to spend the remainder of the winter with her son Melville and family.

The Methodist Episcopal church missionary society will meet at the home of Mrs. Wm. McPherson, next Wednesday afternoon. Members are requested to bring needle work.

Harry McBride, farmer of upper Wild Horse creek, is contemplating engaging in the dairy business on an extensive scale.

The Etude Club entertained their husbands Thursday evening in the Christian church party room. It was in the nature of a costume party and some very clever and unique costumes were in evidence. Games were the diversion of the evening, and were planned by a committee. Refreshments were served.

This evening at 7:30 the people of Athena will be given a musical treat at the Baptist Church. A choir and orchestra consisting of forty voices and pieces from the First Baptist church of Pendleton will render selections consisting of gospel songs, Negro spirituals and melodies, orchestra and single vocal selections. This choir and orchestra is the best trained church musical organization in eastern Oregon. Rev. Bollinger says you will miss a treat if you fail to hear these young people in their christian musical service.

High School Notes

Junior News Staff.

|                       |                  |
|-----------------------|------------------|
| Faculty.....          | Weldon Bell      |
| Classes.....          | Areta Kirk       |
| Student Body.....     | Pearl Green      |
| Boy's Athletics.....  | Oral Michener    |
| Girl's Athletics..... | Alberta Charlton |
| Personal.....         | Marjorie Wilson  |
| Grades.....           | Mildred Street   |
| Alumni.....           | Weldon Bell      |
| Entertainment.....    | Emma Ringel      |
| Advisor.....          | Miss Bateman     |

Faculty

Miss Porter, the third and fourth grade teacher, has been forced to withdraw from school for a few weeks on account of illness. Mrs. M. I. Miller is taking her place.

Miss Bateman attended the Mac-Hi-Pendleton basketball game Friday evening, in Milton.

M. I. Miller refereed basketball games at Weston Friday and Monday evenings.

Mr. and Mrs. Toole attended the Mac-Hi-Pendleton basketball game Friday evening.

Mr. Fredericks, who has been teaching civics, is now teaching biology, and Mr. Toole is now teaching one division of freshman algebra. Mr. Meyer is teaching the new class in economics.

Student Body

Monday morning, January 16, Mr. Meyer gave a short talk before all the students on the beginning of the second semester work, the rules of school, and regulations of the courses.

Those exempt in all four subjects for last semester were: Alberta Charlton, Jessiedean Dudley, Helen Hansell, Marguerite Moore, and Kathleen Radtke.

Mr. Toole's bookkeeping class and biology class were all exempt.

Dorothy Geissel has been busy this week collecting student body fees for this semester.

Classes

An economics class has been opened up for the second semesters work. This will follow civics and will be taken by all seniors.

The senior class will hold a cooked food sale, Saturday, January 21, at the "Pure Food Grocery", beginning at 10 o'clock.

The junior class discussed ways of raising money for the junior-senior banquet at a class meeting Wednesday afternoon. It was decided to sell candy at the home basket games.

Girls' Athletics

The girls' basketball team, which has been nicknamed by some as "The Fighting Six," has scheduled a game with Stanfield at Stanfield for Saturday night, January 21. The girls have been victorious by large scores in their first three games of the season, but it is expected that this will be a hard contest.

Personal

Weldon and Armand Bell were in Walla Walla, Saturday.

Emma Ringel was in Pendleton Saturday.

Oral Michener, Clifford Wood and Eldon Myrick went to Milton Friday night to see the Mac-Hi-Pendleton basketball game.

BAPTIST CHURCH

Sunday school at 9:45 A. M. followed by discourse by Rev. Neil J. Barnes at 11:00 A. M. Junior and senior young people at 6:30 P. M. song and praise at 7:30 P. M. Message by Evangelist Barnes. You are invited to service.

Weston Mountain Spuds

$1.25

per 100 lb sack

Phone Your Order To 152

Athena Department Store

THE STANDARD THEATRE

Saturday, January 21

Tim McCoy

In

Spoilers of the West

With

Marjorie Daw and William Fairbanks

Friend or Enemy? She had fought him tooth and nail—and then the out-laws she led, thirsting for his blood, had him in their power. A terrific climax—a surprising ending—in Tim McCoy's finest outdoor romance!

International News

Admission Prices, 10c-25c-35c

Sunday, January 22

Jack Holt

In

Zane Grey's

"Forlorn River"

With

Raymond Hatton and Arlette Marchal

A BURN-'EM-UP action tale of the cattle country, its renegades and its rustlers. Done in such a fashion as to make other so-called "westerns" seem slow-motion pictures by comparison.

Pathe Review

Admission Prices, 10c-25c-35c

Coming January 28

Chang

Admission, 10c-35c-50c

MODEL CLEANERS

J. H. BOOHER, Prop.

PENDLETON, OREGON, PHONE 321

Quick Service and Good Work

We Call for Clothing on Monday and Deliver on Thursday. Agency at Whitehead's Shop.

Jensen's Blacksmith Shop

Caterpillar Hitches

of All Kinds

Weeders Made to Order

Let us do this work now, while we all have plenty of time, and get it out of the way.

Jens Jensen, Athena