

Press Paragraphs

"Chang" the super-special Standard Theatre, tomorrow night. Mrs. J. F. Kershaw has been ill for the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Ferguson were in Walla Walla Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. S. LeGrow were Walla Walla visitors Tuesday.

Mr. Charles Murray of Freewater was an Athena visitor Sunday.

Mrs. Ralph Hassell of Pendleton was a visitor in Athena Monday.

E. A. Bennett repapered the ceiling of the Athena Hotel lobby, this week.

Mignonette Rebekah lodge met Tuesday evening with a good attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. O. O. Stephens and Mrs. Bollinger were Walla Walla visitors Tuesday.

What with slight snow fall and fog during the week, winter weather still prevails in this district.

Mrs. Arthur Douglas, Mrs. C. M. Eager and Mrs. Lloyd Michener were in Walla Walla Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Wilson and son Samuel were down from Pomeroy for the week-end, visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Kirk have leased the Lumsden farm on Dry Creek and are moving this week to their new home.

A large ice pond at the Amel Schubert home affords pleasant past time each evening to lovers of ice skating.

Mrs. Jack Cockburn, nee Ada De-Freeze, of Milton, underwent a major operation for goitre in Portland, Monday.

The revival meetings at the Baptist church were continued over for this week, closing with the services tonight.

V. R. Wilks a former employe on the McEwen ranch, accompanied by his bride has been visiting friends here the past week.

Mrs. Velma Cox and babe of Endicott, Washington are visitors at the M. I. Miller home. Mrs. Cox and Mr. Miller are brother and sister.

Mrs. W. J. Kirk and Mrs. Frank DeFrees spent the week end in Walla Walla at the bed side of their mother who is ill in that city.

Miss Mae Belle Duncan was taken to St. Mary's hospital by ambulance Monday afternoon. Miss Duncan is suffering from a heart attack.

Mrs. J. W. Pinkerton, Mrs. Minnie Willaby, Floyd Pinkerton and Mr. LeRoy attended church services at the Christian church in Pendleton Sunday evening.

Bill Wheatley writes the Press that he arrived at the LeGrow stock ranch in Montana where he is working, and wants the Press mailed to his address at Phillipsburg.

Many Athena matrons were guests yesterday at a function at the home of Mrs. Ralph Hassell in Pendleton, held in honor of Mrs. Ellis Brower formerly Jennamie Read.

Those who attended the piano class recital of the Athena Branch, Malen Burnett School of Music, at the high school auditorium, Wednesday evening, were well entertained.

Mrs. F. S. LeGrow was in Walla Walla Tuesday where she visited her little niece, Sarah Jane Bowles who has been ill the past week at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Bowles, at Clinton Court.

Among the students who will graduate in the January class at Benson Polytechnic School at Portland, is Wayne Swaggart, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Swaggart. Wayne majored in the technic course.

Little Jack Baker of Olympia, Washington, son of J. Albert Baker, captain in the officer's reserve corps, and who is now in training at Fort Sill, is in the city and will visit at the home of his uncle, Bryce Baker, for some time.

Beatrice Fairfax's "Lovelorn" Standard Theatre, Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McPherson are driving a new Essex sedan.

B. B. Richards and George Gerking drove to Milton yesterday, on business.

C. L. Woodward who has been critically ill at Walla Walla for some time, is reported to be slowly improving.

Mrs. E. E. Tate and daughter, Joan, of Helix, were recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Wilson, parents of Mrs. Tate.

The apportionment of $7,500,000 for road improvement in national forests has been approved by Secretary of Agriculture Jardine. Allotments include Oregon $1,074,899.

On February 10, in connection with the Lincoln Day program at Mac-Hi, Milton-Freewater, Athena high school will meet the Mac-Hi basketball team, in a scholastic game.

Under direction of Luella B. Pinkerton, the Weston schools very creditably presented "Windmills of Holland" at Weston high school auditorium, last evening. A number of Athena people went over and witnessed presentation of the operette.

Billy Pinkerton is taking a regular course of gymnastics in order to limber up the muscles of his left arm, which was fractured last fall, during the seeding season, when he fell in front of a drill and was run over.

He tells the boys that he is getting in condition for the fishing season.

Mrs. H. A. Barrett entertained the Bridge club ladies last Friday afternoon at her home. Three tables of bridge were at play.

Mrs. Bryce Baker and Mrs. Clarence Toole were guests of the club. Mrs. H. I. Watts received high score. Mrs. C. M. Eager second and Mrs. W. P. Littlejohn consolation. Mrs. Toole won the guest prize. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

Miss Doris Schubert, who will graduate from Athena high school in May, has accepted the position of bookkeeper for Rogers & Goodman, Athena hardware firm. Miss Schubert is advanced in her studies, and devotes forenoons to her work at the store, at present under direction of Mrs. Paul Lieuallen, who formerly held the position.

Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Finley, former residents of the Helix neighborhood, recently celebrated their golden wedding anniversary at their home in Glendale, California. Their two sons and two daughters, one of whom is Mrs. A. O. Carden of Pendleton, motored to Glendale to be present at the anniversary celebration. Mr. and Mrs. Finley came to Umatilla county in 1870, and for many years were active in church work at Athena.

Those in the sixth grade who received an average of above ninety per cent during January were: Mary Jane Miller and Walter Singer.

Those in the fifth grade who received an average of above ninety per cent during January were: Arleen Foster, Aaron Douglas and Hugh Steele.

Miss Bateman spent the week-end in Walla Walla and Milton and attended the Mac-Hi-Pilot Rock basketball game.

Mr. Miller and Mr. Meyer were in Pendleton Saturday.

Miss Brodie attended the Stanfield-Athena basketball game Saturday.

Carl Calvert was out of school Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday on account of a sprained knee.

Armand Bell is absent from school on account of illness.

Lorena Schubert was absent from school Monday.

Jack Moore was in Walla Walla Saturday.

Weston Leader: Phil Murtha and Eldon McIntyre rode in on horseback Saturday from the country north of town. They said that washouts in the roads had rendered them impassable except for old-time methods of travel.

Dean Pinkerton and Norman McIntyre came home from Walla Walla to spend the week-end with their parents.

A student body meeting was held Monday for the purpose of appointing a committee to send flowers to Ray Johnston, who has been sick for the past few days. Vice-President, Helen Hansell presided.

High school assembly was held in the auditorium Friday morning, January 20. Songs were sung and yells were given in honor of the teams who played Stanfield Saturday night.

The senior class made $25 on their cooked food sale held Saturday, at The Pure Food Grocery.

Those in the sixth grade who received an average of above ninety per cent during January were: Mary Jane Miller and Walter Singer.

Those in the fifth grade who received an average of above ninety per cent during January were: Arleen Foster, Aaron Douglas and Hugh Steele.

Miss Bateman spent the week-end in Walla Walla and Milton and attended the Mac-Hi-Pilot Rock basketball game.

Mr. Miller and Mr. Meyer were in Pendleton Saturday.

Miss Brodie attended the Stanfield-Athena basketball game Saturday.

Carl Calvert was out of school Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday on account of a sprained knee.

Armand Bell is absent from school on account of illness.

Lorena Schubert was absent from school Monday.

Jack Moore was in Walla Walla Saturday.

Weston Leader: Phil Murtha and Eldon McIntyre rode in on horseback Saturday from the country north of town. They said that washouts in the roads had rendered them impassable except for old-time methods of travel.

Dean Pinkerton and Norman McIntyre came home from Walla Walla to spend the week-end with their parents.

A student body meeting was held Monday for the purpose of appointing a committee to send flowers to Ray Johnston, who has been sick for the past few days. Vice-President, Helen Hansell presided.

High school assembly was held in the auditorium Friday morning, January 20. Songs were sung and yells were given in honor of the teams who played Stanfield Saturday night.

The senior class made $25 on their cooked food sale held Saturday, at The Pure Food Grocery.

Those in the sixth grade who received an average of above ninety per cent during January were: Mary Jane Miller and Walter Singer.

Those in the fifth grade who received an average of above ninety per cent during January were: Arleen Foster, Aaron Douglas and Hugh Steele.

Miss Bateman spent the week-end in Walla Walla and Milton and attended the Mac-Hi-Pilot Rock basketball game.

Mr. Miller and Mr. Meyer were in Pendleton Saturday.

Miss Brodie attended the Stanfield-Athena basketball game Saturday.

Carl Calvert was out of school Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday on account of a sprained knee.

Armand Bell is absent from school on account of illness.

Lorena Schubert was absent from school Monday.

Jack Moore was in Walla Walla Saturday.

Weston Leader: Phil Murtha and Eldon McIntyre rode in on horseback Saturday from the country north of town. They said that washouts in the roads had rendered them impassable except for old-time methods of travel.

Dean Pinkerton and Norman McIntyre came home from Walla Walla to spend the week-end with their parents.

A student body meeting was held Monday for the purpose of appointing a committee to send flowers to Ray Johnston, who has been sick for the past few days. Vice-President, Helen Hansell presided.

High school assembly was held in the auditorium Friday morning, January 20. Songs were sung and yells were given in honor of the teams who played Stanfield Saturday night.

The senior class made $25 on their cooked food sale held Saturday, at The Pure Food Grocery.

Those in the sixth grade who received an average of above ninety per cent during January were: Mary Jane Miller and Walter Singer.

Those in the fifth grade who received an average of above ninety per cent during January were: Arleen Foster, Aaron Douglas and Hugh Steele.

Miss Bateman spent the week-end in Walla Walla and Milton and attended the Mac-Hi-Pilot Rock basketball game.

Mr. Miller and Mr. Meyer were in Pendleton Saturday.

Miss Brodie attended the Stanfield-Athena basketball game Saturday.

Carl Calvert was out of school Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday on account of a sprained knee.

Armand Bell is absent from school on account of illness.

Lorena Schubert was absent from school Monday.

Jack Moore was in Walla Walla Saturday.

Weston Leader: Phil Murtha and Eldon McIntyre rode in on horseback Saturday from the country north of town. They said that washouts in the roads had rendered them impassable except for old-time methods of travel.

Dean Pinkerton and Norman McIntyre came home from Walla Walla to spend the week-end with their parents.

A student body meeting was held Monday for the purpose of appointing a committee to send flowers to Ray Johnston, who has been sick for the past few days. Vice-President, Helen Hansell presided.

High school assembly was held in the auditorium Friday morning, January 20. Songs were sung and yells were given in honor of the teams who played Stanfield Saturday night.

The senior class made $25 on their cooked food sale held Saturday, at The Pure Food Grocery.

Those in the sixth grade who received an average of above ninety per cent during January were: Mary Jane Miller and Walter Singer.

Those in the fifth grade who received an average of above ninety per cent during January were: Arleen Foster, Aaron Douglas and Hugh Steele.

Miss Bateman spent the week-end in Walla Walla and Milton and attended the Mac-Hi-Pilot Rock basketball game.

Mr. Miller and Mr. Meyer were in Pendleton Saturday.

Miss Brodie attended the Stanfield-Athena basketball game Saturday.

Carl Calvert was out of school Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday on account of a sprained knee.

Armand Bell is absent from school on account of illness.

Lorena Schubert was absent from school Monday.

Jack Moore was in Walla Walla Saturday.

Weston Leader: Phil Murtha and Eldon McIntyre rode in on horseback Saturday from the country north of town. They said that washouts in the roads had rendered them impassable except for old-time methods of travel.

Dean Pinkerton and Norman McIntyre came home from Walla Walla to spend the week-end with their parents.

A student body meeting was held Monday for the purpose of appointing a committee to send flowers to Ray Johnston, who has been sick for the past few days. Vice-President, Helen Hansell presided.

High school assembly was held in the auditorium Friday morning, January 20. Songs were sung and yells were given in honor of the teams who played Stanfield Saturday night.

The senior class made $25 on their cooked food sale held Saturday, at The Pure Food Grocery.

High School Notes

Junior News Staff.

Faculty.....Wilford Miller
Classes.....Areta Kirk
Student Body.....Pearl Green
Boy's Athletics.....Oral Michener
Girl's Athletics.....Alberta Charlton
Personal.....Marjorie Wilson
Grades.....Mildred Street
Alumni.....Weldon Bell
Entertainment.....Emma Ringel
Advisor.....Miss Bateman

Boy's Athletics

The Athena boys lost the game to Stanfield Saturday night by a score of 18-16. The Athena boys did well as two of their star players, Johnston and Myrick, were missing. Johnston is sick, and Myrick has a large boil on his arm and was unable to play. The line-ups were as follows:

Athena 16	Stanfield 18
Miller (6)	F (1) Topaez
Wood (2)	F (3) Rees
Gross (6)	C (2) Gifford
Knight	G (12) Baker
Pambrun	G Herely

Substitutions for Athena were: Moore (2), Michener, and Crowley. Substitutions for Stanfield were: Bebe.

Girl's Athletics

The girls journeyed to Stanfield last Saturday night and were badly defeated by a score of 34-10. The Athena girls were in high spirits of winning the game, but the Stanfield girls got the jump and ended the first half with a score of 20-2. The next half several substitutions were made, and at the end of the game the score was 34-10.

Alumni

Dean Pinkerton and Norman McIntyre came home from Walla Walla to spend the week-end with their parents.

Student Body

A student body meeting was held Monday for the purpose of appointing a committee to send flowers to Ray Johnston, who has been sick for the past few days. Vice-President, Helen Hansell presided.

Entertainment

High school assembly was held in the auditorium Friday morning, January 20. Songs were sung and yells were given in honor of the teams who played Stanfield Saturday night.

Classes

The senior class made $25 on their cooked food sale held Saturday, at The Pure Food Grocery.

Grades

Those in the sixth grade who received an average of above ninety per cent during January were: Mary Jane Miller and Walter Singer.

Those in the fifth grade who received an average of above ninety per cent during January were: Arleen Foster, Aaron Douglas and Hugh Steele.

Faculty

Miss Bateman spent the week-end in Walla Walla and Milton and attended the Mac-Hi-Pilot Rock basketball game.

Mr. Miller and Mr. Meyer were in Pendleton Saturday.

Miss Brodie attended the Stanfield-Athena basketball game Saturday.

Carl Calvert was out of school Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday on account of a sprained knee.

Armand Bell is absent from school on account of illness.

Lorena Schubert was absent from school Monday.

Jack Moore was in Walla Walla Saturday.

Weston Leader: Phil Murtha and Eldon McIntyre rode in on horseback Saturday from the country north of town. They said that washouts in the roads had rendered them impassable except for old-time methods of travel.

Dean Pinkerton and Norman McIntyre came home from Walla Walla to spend the week-end with their parents.

A student body meeting was held Monday for the purpose of appointing a committee to send flowers to Ray Johnston, who has been sick for the past few days. Vice-President, Helen Hansell presided.

High school assembly was held in the auditorium Friday morning, January 20. Songs were sung and yells were given in honor of the teams who played Stanfield Saturday night.

The senior class made $25 on their cooked food sale held Saturday, at The Pure Food Grocery.

Those in the sixth grade who received an average of above ninety per cent during January were: Mary Jane Miller and Walter Singer.

Those in the fifth grade who received an average of above ninety per cent during January were: Arleen Foster, Aaron Douglas and Hugh Steele.

Miss Bateman spent the week-end in Walla Walla and Milton and attended the Mac-Hi-Pilot Rock basketball game.

Mr. Miller and Mr. Meyer were in Pendleton Saturday.

Miss Brodie attended the Stanfield-Athena basketball game Saturday.

Carl Calvert was out of school Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday on account of a sprained knee.

Armand Bell is absent from school on account of illness.

Lorena Schubert was absent from school Monday.

Jack Moore was in Walla Walla Saturday.

Weston Leader: Phil Murtha and Eldon McIntyre rode in on horseback Saturday from the country north of town. They said that washouts in the roads had rendered them impassable except for old-time methods of travel.

Dean Pinkerton and Norman McIntyre came home from Walla Walla to spend the week-end with their parents.

A student body meeting was held Monday for the purpose of appointing a committee to send flowers to Ray Johnston, who has been sick for the past few days. Vice-President, Helen Hansell presided.

High school assembly was held in the auditorium Friday morning, January 20. Songs were sung and yells were given in honor of the teams who played Stanfield Saturday night.

The senior class made $25 on their cooked food sale held Saturday, at The Pure Food Grocery.

Those in the sixth grade who received an average of above ninety per cent during January were: Mary Jane Miller and Walter Singer.

Those in the fifth grade who received an average of above ninety per cent during January were: Arleen Foster, Aaron Douglas and Hugh Steele.

Miss Bateman spent the week-end in Walla Walla and Milton and attended the Mac-Hi-Pilot Rock basketball game.

Mr. Miller and Mr. Meyer were in Pendleton Saturday.

Miss Brodie attended the Stanfield-Athena basketball game Saturday.

Carl Calvert was out of school Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday on account of a sprained knee.

Armand Bell is absent from school on account of illness.

Lorena Schubert was absent from school Monday.

Jack Moore was in Walla Walla Saturday.

Weston Leader: Phil Murtha and Eldon McIntyre rode in on horseback Saturday from the country north of town. They said that washouts in the roads had rendered them impassable except for old-time methods of travel.

Dean Pinkerton and Norman McIntyre came home from Walla Walla to spend the week-end with their parents.

A student body meeting was held Monday for the purpose of appointing a committee to send flowers to Ray Johnston, who has been sick for the past few days. Vice-President, Helen Hansell presided.

Advance Showing of Spring Goods

Peter Pan in Fancy Patterns and Colors, New Voiles in dainty Patterns, also Plain Colors. Printed Soiesette, Dover Prints, Genuine Nana Prints, Crepe back Satins, Clingless Pongee, Percales, Indian Head, Cretons, Flaxons, Etc.

New House Dresses $1.49 and $1.98

Ladies' Munsing Silk Hose--Spring Colors

Phone Your Order To 152

Athena Department Store

THE STANDARD THEATRE
Saturday Night January 28

Wildest of the Wild--

Mightiest of the Mighty!

Chang

The Ruthless

Epic of the Jungles--Eat or be eaten! Attack or be attacked! This is the underlying motif of Chang.

Danger!--A terror of the forest comes!
--the jungle shivers and cowers!

Chang!--The Picture approved by all!

Has won more critical approval than any Picture!!

The most thrilling scenes a motion picture camera ever recorded. Two men risked their lives so that audiences the world over could be thoroughly thrilled. More drama than a Crook picture! More comedy than a slapstick farce. More thrills than a Western, that's the Mighty Chang!

INTERNATIONAL NEWS
and COMEDY REELS

PRICES: 10-35-50c

Sunday, January 29
Beatrice Fairfax's Great Romance
The Lovelorne

With

Sally O'Neil, Molly O'Day and Larry Kent

If you've ever wondered what takes place when lovers lay bare their hearts in the columns of Beatrice Fairfax's world-famous newspaper feature, here is your chance to find out.

Pathe Review

Admission Prices. 10c-25c-35c

The KITCHEN CABINET

(© 1928, Western Newspaper Union.)

You will never be sorry for thinking before speaking, for forgiving and forgetting, for being generous to the poor and kind to the needy, for living a square and fair life, for doing your level best--for all these you will never be sorry.--F. D. Van Amburgh.

OLD FASHIONED CANDIES

Everybody likes peanut brittle and it is the easiest candy in the world to make. Take two cupfuls of sugar, put into a smooth iron pan and place over the heat, stir and melt; when a good brown add two cupfuls or less of crushed peanuts. Pour into a buttered pan and allow to cool.

Break up into pieces when