

Press Paragraphs

Edgar Adair was a Pendleton caller Monday.

Miss Hilda Dickenson was in Walla Walla Monday.

Mrs. Elmer Stockstill has been ill at her home this week.

Mrs. Ray Young has been a victim of the flu this week.

Rachel Smith has been ill this week and absent from school.

Miss Pearl Green is confined to her home on account of illness.

A. M. Gillis spent Wednesday in Athena, transacting business.

Mrs. A. W. Logsdon is ill at her home on South Third street.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Walker visited relatives in Milton Sunday.

The Etude club met at the home of Mrs. Bryce Baker, Thursday.

Wm. McLeod and John Walker were business visitors in Pendleton Monday.

Mrs. B. B. Richards was a visitor of friends in Walla Walla Wednesday.

Mrs. Lew McNair has been confined to her home with illness this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Cunningham were Athena visitors Saturday evening.

Miss Marie Foster is making her home with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Pinkerton.

A number of cases of flu are reported in this community by local physicians.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Kirk and Mrs. Lloyd Michener were in Walla Walla Tuesday.

Miss LeVenie Marcus visited at the home of Miss Lois McIntyre over the week-end.

Superintendent of Schools Meyer was ill at his home on the West Side, this week.

Charles Pinkerton of the Farmer's Bank of Weston, was in Athena Monday evening.

Mrs. Frank DeFreece visited her daughter, Mrs. Lowell Harder, in Milton Tuesday.

Mrs. Maurice Frazier and daughter of Milton are visitors at the Floyd Pinkerton home.

Tom Mosgrove, Milton-Freewater merchant, was a business visitor in Athena, Saturday.

Mrs. Arnold Wood, Mrs. A. L. McEwen and Mrs. A. H. McIntyre were in Pendleton Monday.

Mrs. Emory Staggs of Weston, under went a surgical operation Tuesday at Walla Walla.

Harold Barnett was operated on for appendicitis at St. Anthony's hospital in Pendleton Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Parris and children spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Parris in Walla Walla.

Jack Holt, in Zane Grey's "Mysterious Rider," will be shown at the Standard Theatre tomorrow night.

Miss Hilda Dickenson was an over Sunday guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lieuellen at Adams.

The Ladies Bridge club will meet with Mrs. Henry Dell, to-day. This will be the last meeting of the season.

After taking several weeks vacation C. M. Eager resumed his duties as local Union Pacific agent, Monday.

Will Russell has returned from Tacoma, where he was a patient in the veteran's hospital, for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Douglas of Pendleton spent the week-end at the home of their son, A. W. Douglas, and family.

Rev. and Mrs. Carl McConnell of Walla Walla visited Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. McFadden.

Mrs. Frank Ames is in Walla Walla the past week. Mrs. Ames is under medical care after the extraction of a tooth.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Pinkerton Saturday February 25th a daughter. Mother and child are doing nicely.

Herman O'Harra has leased his land holdings near Weston to Newt O'Harra, and has left for Seattle to seek a location.

Garth and Joyce Pinkerton are both patients with the flu at the home of their grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Pinkerton.

Mrs. Lillian Dobson was here Sunday from Stage Gulch district near Pendleton. Mrs. Dobson is teaching the school there.

Samuel S. Nelson, for thirteen years Union Pacific agent at Weston station, has been transferred to Riparia, Washington.

Pearl Ramsay, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Kilgore and Mr. and Mrs. John Tompkins were Athena visitors in Walla Walla, Tuesday.

Blaine and Ray Hansell spent Friday at the home of their brother Marion Hansell, and left Saturday morning for The Dalles.

Otis Lieuellen and Laurance Lieuellen of Adams were in Athena Monday evening to witness the Pendleton-Athena basketball game.

Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Zerba and family were in Walla Walla Sunday visiting Lowell Zerba who is a patient at the General Hospital.

Mignonette Rebekah Lodge met Tuesday evening with a good attendance. Mrs. McKay and Mrs. Fred Pinkerton served refreshments.

Ray Johnston was out of the Pendleton-Athena game Monday night on account of illness, a relapse from former sickness of a couple of weeks ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Justin Harwood were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Hirsch at Freewater, and attended the minstrel performance at Umapine, Monday night.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Dudley, who have spent the winter months at Long Beach, California, are expected to return to their home here shortly after March 1.

As a special attraction, and at regular admission prices, the Standard Theatre will present Lon Chaney in "Mr. Wu" on next Wednesday evening, March 7.

Athena friends are in receipt of the announcement of the marriage of Miss Savannah Smith on November 6th last to Mr. W. L. Knox, and they present reside in Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Al NorDean and son drove down from Spokane and spent the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Russell, Mrs. NorDean's parents. They returned to Spokane Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Kirk, Mrs. Frank DeFreece, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Toole and F. B. Radtke were in Walla Walla Saturday evening. The men folks witnessed the Whitman-O. S. C. game.

Four Athena music pupils taking part in a recital of Mrs. Lillian Fredericks' class last week in the Weston school assembly room were: Helen Hansell, John Kirk and Barbara and Robert Lee.

The O. D. O. club met last Friday at the home of Mrs. Flint Johns with Mrs. Lewis Stewart as assistant hostess. A goodly number was in attendance. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostesses.

Fred Radtke has ascertained that the season on white fish is always open, and he has vowed to go angling for them soon in the Umatilla river. A run of these fish is now on and good catches are being made.

The Misses Marguerite and Francis Taylor and Melba McKinnon of Nanton, Alberta, have arrived in Walla Walla, where the Misses Taylor will enter upon a trained nurse course at one of the hospitals of that city.

The women of the local Baptist church are sponsoring expensive improvements on the interior of their church building, including repapering painting and new light fixtures, the work to begin in the near future.

The boys and girls who have been escorted to all outside games by O. O. Stephens and Arnold Woods were hosts and hostesses to them Sunday when the youngsters took Steve and Woods to dinner then to a show. All declare a good time.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. McEwen entertained a party of friends Saturday evening at 500 in honor of Mrs. McCool and Tom McCool (mother and brother of Mrs. McEwen) when three tables were at play. Mrs. Ross Catron held high score and Mr. McEwen the consolation. A two course luncheon was served by the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Catron entertained a party of friends Thursday evening at 500. Three tables were at play. Mrs. McCool of Walla Walla winning the prize for high score and Wm. Potts the consolation prize. The guests were treated with three readings given by Tom McCool which was very much enjoyed. At a late hour the hostess served refreshments.

The S. D. or Mystery club met at the home of Marguerite Moore Tuesday 28. The girls answered roll call with a current event. They decided to change their banquet for the mothers to a tea to be given the 31st of March. Mrs. Bollinger will be the hostess. Dainty refreshments were served, after which the girls adjourned to meet at Goldie Miller's home March 13.

Ten members of the O. D. O. club met last Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Flint Johns, where they were very pleasantly entertained by the hostess and her assistant, Mrs. Louis Stewart. An interesting letter addressed to the club by a former member, Mrs. Melville Johns of Wilmar, California, was listened to with much pleasure and appreciation. The next meeting will be held on March 9 at the home of Mrs. Lawrence Pinkerton with Mrs. Virgil Zerba as assistant hostess.

Notice
Farmers Grain Elevator customers and prospective customers who are buying trucks are requested to come and measure the elevator scale dump, before arranging for their bulk grain tanks. LEE WILSON, Manager.

CHICKS
That Lay Earlier

Now is the time to order Collins Chicks for winter layers. Collins Chicks lay sooner than ordinary chicks. They have a country-wide reputation for reliability of breed and rapid development into profitable layers.

Collins Chicks are from purebred flocks which are rigidly inspected, blood-tested and culled.

The chicks are guaranteed vigorous, big and husky. We can now supply you Leghorns, Rocks, Reds, Black and White Minorcas 15c and up.

Safe arrival by Parcel Post guaranteed.

100 per cent live chicks guaranteed. Get Collins Chicks for profit.

Freewater Hatchery
C. T. Collins, Prop.
Freewater, Oregon

High School Notes

Junior News Staff.

Faculty.....Wilford Miller
Classes.....Areta Kirk
Student Body.....Pearl Green
Boy's Athletics.....Oral Michener
Girl's Athletics.....Alberta Charlton
Personal.....Marjorie Wilson
Grades.....Mildred Street
Alumni.....Weldon Bell
Entertainment.....Emma Ringel
Advisor.....Miss Bateman

Entertainment

A delicious two course dinner was given in honor of the high school students at 6:30, Friday evening, February 24, by the Athena business men. The Methodist church ladies served the dinner in the Masonic Hall. M. I. Miller was toastmaster and other speakers were: Arnold Wood, Clarence Toole, Ray Johnston, C. L. McFadden, Ethel Pittman, Mrs. E. C. Rogers, Jessiedean Dudley, F. B. Boyd, Lee Meyer, Roy DeFreece and O. O. Stephens. After the banquet a dance was given at the Legion Hall with music furnished by an orthophonic victrola. The dance was the opportunity for a number of students to try dancing for the first time.

A pep rally was held Tuesday at 3:15, February 21, for the Athena-Weston game. Thena Russell led the yells and the high school songs.

Personal

Dorothy Karr visited school Tuesday.

Ray Johnston, Roy DeFreece, George Pambrun and Clifford Wood went to Walla Walla Saturday to have their pictures taken.

Omar Stephens and Arnold Wood were hosts at a chicken dinner in Pendleton Sunday. Those present were: Areta Kirk, Pearl Green, Weldon Bell, Ethel Pittman, Clifford Wood, Alberta Charlton, Oral Michener, Marjorie Wilson, Wilford Miller, and the hosts Arnold Wood and Omar Stephens.

Ethel Pittman, Kathleen Radtke and Helen Hansell were in Walla Walla Saturday.

Ray Johnston was absent from school Monday and Tuesday on account of illness.

Boy's Athletics

The Athena boys won a basketball game from Weston Wednesday, February 22. The game was nip and tuck in the first half the score was 10 to 9 in favor of Athena. The last half was less exciting as Myrick, Athena's star forward, got lucky and began dropping them in from all angles. The score at the end of the game was 34 to 19 in favor of Athena.

The boys enter the Sectional tournament Friday morning. They meet Pendleton first. Eight men are all that are allowed to represent this school.

Grades

The boys' basketball team of the seventh and eighth grade played a ragged game with Helix here, Saturday evening, February 25. The score was 14-9 in favor of Athena.

The girl's basketball team of the seventh and eighth grades played a close game with the freshman-sophomore team of the high school Saturday evening, February 25. The score was 8-6 in favor of the grade team. Following the two games light refreshments were served by the two grade teams.

Girl's Athletics

The Athena girls' basketball team played the Weston girls Wednesday evening, February 22, at Weston. At the half the Athena girls had run up a high score which stood 22-4 in their favor. During the last half the Athena girls did not score and the Weston girls scored two baskets. The final score was 22-8.

Classes

The junior class made six dollars and seventy five cents by selling candy at the Athena-Pendleton game, Monday, February 27.

The freshman and sophomore classes have decided to give a class play for assembly.

Alumni

Dean Pinkerton and Norman McIntyre attended the high school banquet Friday night. They stayed in Athena for the week-end.

"Lefty" Kretzer spent Sunday in Pendleton.

Faculty

Miss Sellars and Mrs. Rominger were dinner guests at the E. C. Rogers home Thursday evening.

BAPTIST CHURCH
Sunday school at 9:45 A. M. Prof. T. N. Carver of Harvard recently said, "a new moral discipline, is needed, which will fortify us against demoralizing influences of prosperity." No better place than in the Sunday school to start to grow the leaders to bring it about, for no one seems to be in sight to act now as world leader. Preaching at 11:00 A. M. Topic, Messages from the Sea. B. Y. P. U. at 6:30 P. M. Song and praise at 7:30 P. M. Topic, Restoring Sight and Healing Sinners. Mid-week meeting every Thursday evening at 7:30 P. M. You are cordially invited to all meetings.

Foley's Kidney Cure
makes kidneys and bladder right

Look We are giving absolutely Free

With every 4-15c packages S. O. S. one genuine Wearever Aluminum Sauce pan. Just the size every Woman wants in her kitchen.

4 packages S. O. S. 1 Sauce pan 60c
4 Cans Yellow Cling Peaches 89c
10 lb. Red Mexican Beans 69c

Phone Your Order To 152

Athena Department Store

THE STANDARD THEATRE

Saturday, March 3

Jack Holt

In

Zane Grey's

The Mysterious Rider

Who Is He? THIS mysterious masked Lothario with flowing scarf and screaming steed? Riding through the stilly stretches of the night—where does he go—whence does he come? Hoofs follow—nearer—nearer! What has he done? Don't miss Zane Grey's latest mystery melodrama! It's headed this way!

International News

Admission Prices, 10c-25c-35c

Sunday, March 4

William Haines

In

The Smart Set

With

Jack Holt, Alice Day and Hobart Bosworth

Haines scores a thousand laughs and a thousands thrills in this sparkling comedy romance! You'll say so! Lifts the lid on doings of the gay, giddy younger society crowd.

Pathe Review

Admission Prices, 10c-25c-35c

Wednesday Special

East Meets West in a Film Sensation

Lon Chaney

In

Mr. Wu

The sinister shadow of Mandarin Wu, the merciless code of the Orient, stepped in between the romance of East and West. Lon Chaney will sweep you off your feet as the mysterious Wu in this dramatic sensation! Renee Adoree will touch your heart as the young flower of Old China! And what a supporting cast!

Regular Admission Prices