Coach Announces Play Cast

With the close of basketball season the interest of the student body has turned to the student play which will be presented the middle of April. Miss Mildred Bateman, the coach, has chosen "Brother Josiah," a comedy in three acts by W. C. Parker, for this year's production and with a carefully selected cast work is already under way. The comedy which centers around the consternation caused by the unexpected appearance of the country brother and his family at a fashionable lawn party of the aristocratic city brother and his family offers some good opportunity for some clever acting. The following students have been selected for this year's play cast:

Josiah Armstrong, a wealthy farmer
.....Clifford Wood
Wellington Armstrong, a wealthy broker.....Weldon Bell
Benjamin Butler Armstrong, Josiah's son.....Wilford Miller
William Le Blanc, a wealthy broker.....Roy DeFreece
Henry Newcombe, a rising young author.....George Gross
Hiram Penstroke, Wellington Armstrong's confidential man.....Eldon Myrick
James, Wellington Armstrong's butler.....Curtis Duffield
Mrs. Wellington Armstrong.....Jessiedean Dudley
Jemmy, wife of Josiah.....Marguerite Moore
Gladys Armstrong, Wellington's daughter.....Alberta Charlton

Student Body

A student body meeting was held Monday at one o'clock for the purpose of informing the students that since basketball season was over that the girls should turn out for physical education and the boys who are not out for track should also turn out for physical education.

Boy's Athletics

The Athena boys did well in the tournament this year. The boys lost the first game to Pendleton by a score of 44 to 17; this sort of woke the boys up for they won every game after that. The boys won the consolation title from Boardman in a slow but rough and hard game.

Track season will soon start as basketball is over. There are several boys who intend to enter the sectional meet this year.

Personal

A number of the high school students attended the basketball tournament Friday and Saturday at Milton.

Areta Kirk was a Pendleton visitor Saturday.

Remember the Maine!

"The Rough Riders"

Theodore Roosevelt

and his victorious horsemen! They took San Jaun Hill by storm! They won millions of hearts! That rough, tough, happy-go lucky outfit—the Rough Riders! Cowboys and college men, hoboes and millionaires, East Side, West Side, Sunny South, Bustling North! The most romantic military organization the world has ever known is coming to thrill you as you've never been thrilled before!

"The Rough Riders" is all that can be desired in clean, stimulating movies. It has realness of story, excellent direction, splendid photography and a superb cast. A picture premiere at the George M. Cohan Theatre last night afforded the most thrilling film fare since 'Beau Geste.'—The New York Daily News.

Norma Shearer's Newest

"The Latest From Paris"

With

George Sidney and Ralph Forbes

This picture is dedicated to the American traveling salesman—and to his bobbed-haired, short-skirted competitor. Norma Shearer plays that charmingly self-reliant, modern figure, the traveling saleslady, in a picture where love and business meet to the entertainment of everyone. Even better than "His Secretary."
