

The KITCHEN CABINET

(©, 1928, Western Newspaper Union.)

Now blessings light on him who first invented this same sleep! It covers a man all over, thoughts and all, like a cloak; it is meat for the hungry, drink for the thirsty, heat for the cold, and cold for the hot. It is current coin that purchases all the pleasures of the world cheap, and the balance that sets the king and the shepherd, the fool and the wise man even.—Cervantes.

FAVORITE DISHES

A cake that is a little different and one that will be enjoyed is:

Lightning Cake.—Cream half a cupful of butter with one-half cupful of sugar until well mixed, add four beaten egg yolks, three tablespoonfuls of milk and one cupful of flour sifted with one teaspoonful of baking powder. Spread the mixture in a shallow pan and over it spread the frosting given below; dredge with sugar and cinnamon and bake thirty minutes. For serving cut into strips two inches long and one inch wide.

Frosting for Lightning Cake.—Beat four egg whites until light, gradually add three-fourths of a cupful of sugar and a half cupful of blanched almonds. Spread on the uncooked cake and sprinkle with sugar and cinnamon.

Codfish Balls.—Put hot boiled potatoes through a ricer—enough to make two cupfuls. Have ready one cupful of salt codfish, parboiled and shredded; add to the potato with a tablespoonful of butter, seasoning of paprika and a teaspoonful of lemon juice. Beat with a wooden spoon until light and fluffy. Shape into balls, roll in egg mixed with three tablespoonfuls of cold water, then in crumbs. Fry in deep fat. Drain on brown paper. If the balls are made the day previous to serving they will cook better and keep their shape.

Ginger Cream.—Make a custard of the yolks of four eggs and the whites of two, four tablespoonfuls of sugar, two tablespoonfuls of sirup from preserved ginger and one pint of milk. Just before the custard is done add a tablespoonful of dissolved gelatin. Stir until well dissolved and turn into cold molds to chill. Sprinkle each mold with chopped preserved ginger.

Occasionally serve a few raisins mixed with cracked nuts for dessert. It is easier and less expensive of time than more elaborately made dishes.

Drifting Sand Dunes

Menace to Railroads

As one makes the ascent of the Andes from the Pacific port of Mollendo, in Peru, following the line of the Southern Pacific railway, the climb to the divide is broken by two great steps or wide-spreading shelves of desert or pampa.

On the first of these steps, about two hours' steep climb from the sea, and at an altitude of from 4,000 to 5,000 feet, are located the famous drifting sand hills of Peru. The plateau is here about 20 miles wide, the air thin and dry and no trace of vegetation to be seen, only these gigantic crescent-shaped sand dunes dotting the pampa as far as the eye can see. Composed of fine gray crystal sand, they gleam white against the brown of the desert, and their horns point toward the prevailing south wind of this region. They are from 15 to 25 or even 30 feet high, 20 feet in breadth across the thick part of the crescent and sometimes 100 feet from horn to horn. So tightly is the sand packed that the feet of the horses or mules make little impression on it.

These sand hills, called menanos, travel with almost imperceptible slowness, and when they threaten the railway track they can sometimes be diverted by piling up blocks of stone in their paths, otherwise the railway bed has to be altered to go around them. An analysis of the soil of this region shows that it would be very fertile if irrigated from the available snow fields of the Andes, so that it is possible there will come a day when its desolate sand dunes will cease to be.

Ecd News

Jenkins married, and in due course his wife presented him with a son and heir. His friends flocked round to tender their congratulations and, incidentally, smoke Bill's cigars.

Jones was on his way to the house when he met Brown returning.

"Where are you going?" asked the latter.

"Oh, I'm just going round to see Bill and wish him luck with that youngster of his."

"Then you're too late."

"What? Surely it hasn't died?"

"No, the youngster's all right, but the cigar box is empty."

Wyatt and His Cat

It is said that Sir Henry Wyatt, who was a privy councillor under King Henry VII of England, always had his picture painted with a cat beside him, because when he was confined by Richard III in a cold and dark tower, where he had neither food to eat nor fire to keep him warm, a cat brought him regularly every day a pigeon for his dinner and kept the warmth in his body by permitting Sir Henry to caress her. He was an ancestor of Sir Francis Wyatt, one of the early governors of the colony of Jamestown.

22 Years Ago

March 23, 1906

Peter McIntyre left Wednesday morning for Alberta.

Mrs. M. L. Akers was the guest of friends in Pendleton yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Saling spent Sunday at the La Brache home in the country.

Miss Josie Danner has a position as saleslady with the Manassee mercantile company.

Johnny Peebler, of Peebler & Chamberlain, implement dealers, was in Helix yesterday.

Miss Nettie Cannon, teacher in the Walla Walla schools, spent Sunday with friends in Athena.

Mr. C. R. Read and family of Freewater have come to Athena to reside. Mr. Read will be employed in Boddy's meat market as blockman.

Sheriff Taylor arrested Thomas Bowman at Weston a few days ago on a charge of seduction, preferred against him by Condon officials.

Sam Davidson, the receiving end of the Yellow Kid battery, arrived in the city Tuesday from Genesee, Idaho, and is stopping at the Athena Hotel.

J. E. Stanfield, of Weston, was in town yesterday. Mr. Stanfield will be employed in Buel's blacksmith shop and will soon remove here to reside permanently.

With its issue of Friday the last publication of the Adams Advance was pulled from press. The plant will be moved to Helix where Editor Ferguson will commence the publication of the Herald.

A letter to Athena friends announces the arrival of the Robinson family in Richland, Wash. Mrs. Robinson had the misfortune to lose her choice house plants, in transportation, during the cold snap.

Flying kites is now the pastime of the Athena youngster. Marbles are due in a week or two, then the trouble of broken strings and kite tails flapping from telephone and electric light wires will have been forgotten.

A blanket of snow protected the growing wheat in this section during the recent cold snap but in the wheat growing districts west and north of Pendleton, a raging blizzard swept the ground clear of snow and the result is that much of the grain was frozen out, and farmers will be compelled to reseed.

The board of directors in the Athena baseball association has decided to use the old grounds for the games this season. The principal reason for making the change from the Kirk grounds was that the character of soil was found to be too soft for quick drying after a heavy rain. The old diamond is one of the fastest in the state, and considering the fact that all trains will stop at the depot instead of on side tracks, as formerly, the old grounds are much more preferable in every way.
