The Umatilla County
Pioneers' Reunion Dates
Set for June 15-16

Weston.—Friday and Saturday, June 15 and 16, 1928, have been selected as the dates of the thirty-sixth annual reunion of the Umatilla County Pioneers association. As has been the custom for more than the third of a century, Weston will be the assembly place of the pioneers and their descendants.

A representative number of Weston business men and citizens attended a meeting at which this action was taken. T. L. McBride, president of the association, presided. A spirit of harmony and good will prevailed, indicating a disposition among the reunion sponsors to put each individual shoulder to the wheel and keep it there.

Selection of the following committees was announced by President McBride:

Finance—Sim J. Culley, S. A. Barnes, T. L. McBride.
 Concessions—C. W. Avery, Jay Smith, Lester O'Harra.
 Program—Clark Wood, Dr. W. H. McKinney, Lance Kellough.
 Publicity—P. T. Harbour, O. A. Adams, Henry Geise.
 Music—S. A. Barnes, W. L. Smock, William Hass.
 Speakers—C. L. Pinkerton, Herman Goodwin, Nelson H. Jones.
 Decoration—Claud Price, Lysle Webb, Carl Brandt, J. W. Wheeler.
 Sports—Newt O'Harra, Walter Webb, Frank Snider, H. R. Pope, T. L. McBride.
 Badges—W. S. Price, Ross King, Ray O'Harra, Harrison Kirk.
 Grounds—Marvin Price, Fred Dupuis, J. A. Kirk, L. B. Davis, P. T. Harbour.
 Reception—J. T. Lieuallen, G. A. Hartman, T. A. Lieuallen, R. Alexander, J. H. Raley, Henry J. Taylor, John Bentley, M. L. Watts, J. A. Fee, S. J. Culley.
 Mrs. W. J. Kirk and son Harold and Alberta Charlton spent Monday in Walla Walla.

Miss Evelyn Sellars accompanied Mrs. Henry Barrett and her daughter Helen to Walla Walla, Saturday, April 7.

Fine Picture Program At Standard Theatre

Beginning with tomorrow night, when Zane Grey's "Born to the West," with Jack Holt, Margaret Morris and Raymond Hatton in the leading roles, an especially fine program is offered.

Sunday night Lew Cody and Aileen Pringle, Metro-Goldwyn superb comedy team, will appear in the Metropolitan comedy, "Wickedness Preferred."

For the mid-week special, the Athena-Weston American Legion Post will present the National Legion picture, "The World War," on Wednesday evening. The proceeds entirely will be given to the swimming pool fund. The theatre is to be donated to the Legion Post free of charge for that night, and the Athena Boy Scouts will sell adult tickets for the show, over town. Inasmuch as the show is a benefit of community interest, everybody is expected to buy a ticket when the Scouts call on them.

Lucille Staggs of Weston spent the week-end at the J. C. Burke home, visiting Dorothy Burke, who is making her home with her grand parents.
