Hal E. Hoss Files His Formal Declaration

Oregon City.—Hal E. Hoss, of Oregon City, has filed his formal declaration for the office with the secretary of state's office. Mr. Hoss will use as his slogan on the ballot at the primary election, May 18, "Trained in business and state administration; endorsed by 121 newspapers; efficient service."

Mr. Hoss, who recently resigned as private secretary to Governor I. L. Patterson, has his campaign headquarters at Oregon City, where he was manager of the Oregon City Enterprise for seven years prior to serving in an official capacity for the state.

Incorporated with his filing declaration, Mr. Hoss made the following pledge.

"If nominated and elected I will during my term of office give to the people of the state of Oregon an efficient and economical administration of their affairs, so far as they would come under my jurisdiction. I would make an earnest effort to aid in the development and utilization of our natural resources and local manufacturing business by urging that state business go to Oregon producers and Oregon firms whenever possible. I would consider myself at the service of the public and would have their interests only to serve."
