The Fuller Brush man is coming. Wait for him.

Saturday, May 5th is the last day for payment of first half of 1927 taxes.

Mrs. Wm. McBride and daughter, Mrs. Lumsden are here from Portland, visiting friends.

The M. E. Missionary society will hold a cooked food sale May 5th at the Quality Grocery Store.

The exterior of Steve's Grocery is receiving a new coat of paint, Bill Hendricksen wielding the brush.

Rev. Perry, the new pastor of the Christian church has arrived in the city, and will hold church services Sunday morning and evening.

A woman who is known to Northwest pioneers as one of few successful women stockraisers, Mrs. Ella May Vessey, died recently at Yakima, Washington.

Sam Ash, well known pioneer resident of Wallula, died recently at a hospital in Walla Walla. F. S. LeGrow recalls that in the 70's Mr. Ash was employed by Mr. LeGrow's father in the sheep business.

The cooked food sale given Saturday last by the ladies of the Baptist church netted $35. The Baptist ladies are thankful for the patronage accorded the sale by the public.

George Drumheller, well known Walla Walla wheat and stock man, has filed notice of appeal to the supreme court from the superior court jury verdict of $10,000 against him in favor of Mrs. May Kelly for alleged breach of promise.

The 3 o' 4 Bridge Club was entertained by Mrs. Max Hopper last Thursday afternoon, with three tables at play. Besides club members Mrs. A. A. McIntyre and Mrs. A. W. Logsdon and Mrs. Tom Mosgrove, of Milton, were guests. Mrs. Ravella Lieualen received high club score and Mrs. Dean Dudley consolation. Mrs. Mosgrove received the guest prize. The rooms were made attractive by yellow jonquils presented Mrs. Hopper by Mrs. Cass Cannon. A one course lunch was served by the hostess.

The hospitable home of Mrs. Frank Coppock was opened to the M. E. Missionary society Wednesday afternoon. Twenty-four ladies were present. The rooms were beautifully decorated with cut flowers. Songs were followed by interesting readings given by Mesdames John Tompkins, Louis Stewart and Velton Read. Mrs. Mary Tompkins, Mrs. Perry Hall and Mrs. C. B. Moore were visitors. The hostess, assisted by Mrs. Clarence Hand and Mrs. John Tompkins, served a buffet luncheon. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Louis Stewart.

WAYS NEW AND OLD

We all like to try new things. At this time of the year when the new nuts are in the market let us use them as freely as possible. Nuts are rich in food value—concentrated food—and when properly masticated are entirely digestible. For those who must not eat meat, nuts offer many ways of taking the place of it.

Salads are improved by a tablespoonful or two of minced or finely broken nuts, and cakes and cake fillings are made more delicious by the free use of them.

Nut and Cheese Roast.—Cook two tablespoonfuls of finely minced onion in one tablespoonful of butter until the onion is soft and delicately colored. Add a little hot water if needed to keep from browning. Mix one cupful of grated cheese, one cupful of walnut meats chopped, one cupful of bread crumbs, the juice of half a lemon and salt and pepper to taste. Add the onion, butter, and pour into a shallow dish and bake until brown. Serve with a white sauce.

Pecan and Prune Salad.—Cut a pound of choice prunes into narrow strips, add one cupful of sliced pecan meats, a dash of pepper and salt to season. Beat one cupful of cream until stiff, add two tablespoonfuls of lemon juice. Mix with the prunes and nuts and serve on a curled lettuce leaf with a spoonful of dressing for a garnish.

Chestnut Salad.—Shell and blanch fresh chestnuts. Boil fifteen minutes, then drain and cut into slices, add an equal measure of finely cut tender celery, mix with French dressing and serve on lettuce.

Oyster Fritters.—Mince fine one dozen oysters and stir into the following batter: One and one-half cupfuls of flour, two teaspoonfuls of baking powder, one teaspoonful of salt, a few dashes of cayenne, two teaspoonfuls of minced parsley, three-fourths of a cupful of oyster liquor and milk mixed and one beaten egg. Mix well and drop by spoonfuls into hot fat. Brown and drain and serve hot.

Industry the Keystone

A book is being talked about called "Key Men." A good deal is said in it about industry. No man becomes a key man who is not industrious. Industry is the important word. No one can become rich and prominent without it. Are you a key man? It is a good term. A key man means one who can do something worth while a little better than the average. The average man only "gets along." The key man gets rich. Don't imagine that you can ever succeed without industry. Only loafers demand less work.—E. W. Howe's Monthly.

At a reception in Washington the lion of the evening was a distinguished Arctic explorer. A stout old lady said to him, "It must have been terrible up there, and you must have suffered untold hardships and privations."

"Well, I can't say that exactly," rejoined the explorer with a smile. "The fact is, I've been telling them all this season to large audiences."—Boston Transcript.
