Dean Willaby has accepted a position at McBride's Palace drugstore. C. A. Barrett was one of the visitors to the Echo picnic yesterday. David Williams of the Pacific Coast Elevator Co., was in Adams Saturday.

Lee Hiteman and Frank Coolidge attended the Eagles' picnic at Echo yesterday.

Dr. Fred Lieuallen of Helix, was in town Saturday, and witnessed the ball game.

Mrs. A. M. Gillis gives an ice cream social at her home this afternoon and evening.

Colonel Wood came over from Weston Saturday, and "rooted" vociferously for the Yellow Kids.

Fred Koontz, until recently in the employ of Ed Manasse, has accepted a position as salesman with Ely & Scott.

James Foss is home from his ranch in Crook county. He says frost has damaged fruit and crops to some extent in that section.

The program for the Caledonian Picnic, which will be held in Athena May 25 and 26 will be printed in Tuesday's Press. The committee did not have it prepared for today's issue.

G. W. Bradley and T. J. Kirk, candidates respectively for county treasurer and state senator on the republican ticket, went down yesterday to the Echo picnic, to interview the voters in that vicinity.

A large Chinese kite attracted considerable attention in Athena yesterday. It swayed over Athena all of yesterday afternoon and was rigged out with rubber bands through which the wind produced discordant notes.

While driving horses recently at his ranch near Madras, Crook county, O. A. Rhodes had the ill luck to have a horse fall on him, injuring his leg considerably. However no bones were broken and Ora will soon be sound as ever.

Sunday evening a horse owned by Arthur Coppock was frightened by a passing automobile, broke from the hitching post and ran away. Fortunately, the carriage to which the horse was hitched did not turn over, and both horse and rig arrived at the Coppock farm east of town without damage.

At the home of the bride's parents in this city Sunday evening, Mr. Ernest A. Bostwick and Miss Carrie O. Booher were united in marriage by Rev. Geo. T. Ellis. The officiating clergyman reports that it was a very pretty wedding, a number of friends and relatives being present. A wedding supper was served. Mr. and Mrs. Bostwick will reside on a farm west of Athena.

Fire At LeGrow Home

The home of Mr. and Mrs. LeGrow narrowly escaped destruction by fire shortly after noon yesterday. The fire started in the kitchen when a can of roof cement was being heated in a vessel of water. The cement bubbled out of the small can into the blaze and soon a portion of the kitchen ceiling was afire. When Justin Harwood went into the kitchen after the cement, he was met by flames and had a hot time in keeping the fire from spreading. An alarm was turned in but the fire was put out without damage from water.
