

Press Paragraphs

Clarence Hand, who has been working on the Koepke farm for the past four years, has terminated his services there and with Mrs. Hand, is temporarily living in Athena.

Mrs. Theresa Berlin was in Athena Tuesday from Walla Walla directing some improvements to the Welch cottage on Adams street which she has leased, and will occupy in about a month.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Swift have taken the Baker cottage on High street temporarily. They left this week for a visit at Heppner, and Mrs. Swift will attend summer Normal school at LaGrande.

J. S. Huffman and family attended the annual school picnic at Lowden, Washington, this week. The Lowden picnic has come to be a 100 per cent affair and is much enjoyed by those participating.

A. A. McIntyre transacted business in Walla Walla, Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Hirsch and daughter Patty of Freewater, were Athena visitors Saturday evening. In company with C. L. McFadden and family they spent Sunday on the Umatilla river.

Jens Jensen is prepared to make truck bodies for new trucks Athena farmers are buying this spring. Jens puts good material into his work, and will make bodies to suit the purchaser on short notice.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Campbell entertained a party at dinner Sunday, including Mrs. R. J. Campbell, Tom Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Campbell, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hunot and family of Pendleton.

Roy DeFreece was taken ill Sunday with a severe attack of appendicitis and was taken to Walla Walla Monday evening by Dr. G. W. Cowan and underwent a surgical operation Tuesday morning.

Miss Marie Foster, who was employed in the offices of the Preston-

Shaffer Milling company here, now has a position with the company at the mill in Freewater, beginning work there on Monday of this week.

The ladies of the Athena Study club enjoyed a picnic dinner Wednesday at the Walla Walla park, with fourteen seated at the table. They were enthusiastic in praise of this pleasant spot as a hospitable place for recreation.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Pinkerton and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Pinkerton and family, Rev. and Mrs. H. J. Perry and family and Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Pinkerton composed a party which picniced on the Umatilla river Sunday.

E. J. Sommerville, republican candidate for sheriff, was in town yesterday from Pendleton.

Charles A. Barrett, Hon. T. J. Kirk and G. W. Bradley attended the republican meeting in Milton last night.

York Dell was in Adams Wednesday and umpired the ball game between the Helix and Adams K. of P. lodges.

Carpenters have been working on the Dudley residence repairing the damage done by lightning a couple of weeks ago.

Helix will celebrate the fourth of July. This was the unanimous decision at a mass meeting of citizens, held Tuesday evening.

Attorney Peterson and James Lieualien, democratic nominee for representative, were electioneering in Milton and Freewater last week.

Miss Alyc Foss, who has been teaching in Montana, is expected to arrive home Tuesday of next week. Miss Foss has been retained to teach for another year in Glasgow, Montana.

Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Smith came up from Pendleton yesterday. Mr. Smith, who has been taking a vacation, will resign his position as O. R. & N. agent, here, and will follow the life insurance business.

Mr. A. M. Gillis, whose health has been failing for some time, contemplates leaving in a couple of weeks for Prince Edwards Island, where he will remain for the summer. It is thought the change of climate will be beneficial to Mr. Gillis' health.

Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Worthington Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Watts and Geo. Gross and Miss Mae Gross left Sunday evening for Portland where they will represent the Athena lodges of Odd Fellows and Rebekahs, at grand lodge which convenes there this week.

The show window at the Manasse store is attracting much attention today. Miss Jeannette Manasse, with her usual good taste and original ideas, has dressed the window in Scotch plaid, in honor of the day, and the sight brings a smile to the face of many a canny Scot.

At the Baptist church Sunday morning, Rev. George T. Ellis will preach the annual union Memorial sermon. The Grand Army veterans extend a cordial invitation to old soldiers and the general public to attend the memorial service. On Decoration Day the members of the local G. A. R. post will march to the cemetery for the purpose of decorating graves.

Out at the mill the boys have organized a baseball team. Mr. Myers is manager of the team and the irreplaceable, elongated "Slim" Miller is catcher for the aggregation. Sunday afternoon the Mill team will play Jack Parker's crack town team, and there is going to be some fun. An admission of 10 cents will be charged, the proceeds of the game to go to the Yellow Kids as a benefit.

Eugene Stanton, who arrived from Montana the other evening, lugged into town a valise with contents gruesome in the extreme. Mr. Stanton's cargo consisted exclusively of a choice collection of rattlesnakes, one of which was the largest ever seen here. It is a little over six feet long and big around in proportion. The snakes are harmless, having had their fangs extracted so that they can be handled safely in shows and other exhibitions.
