Camp Fire Girls

(By Hilda Dickenson, Guardian)

The Wauna Campfire girls were entertained by Peggy Moore, Mildred Hansell and Hilda Dickenson at a Treasure Hunt at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lieuallen in Adams on Friday afternoon of last week.

The girls masqueraded as pirates bold and bad. Their costumes were colorful and entertaining. The watchword of the afternoon was "Yo! Ho! Ho! and a bottle of rum!" but the Treasure Hunt revealed the rum as soda-pop and a big freezer of ice-cream.

Miss Laura Haynie, a campfire girl from Freewater and Ila Carlyle were guests for the afternoon.

Valerie Cannon, Laura Ross and Velma Ross are new members of the group.

An informal business meeting was held for the purpose of working up honors on wild flowers. Plans for serving a public lunch to raise money for honor beads and a camping trip were discussed.

Dainty refreshments were served at five o'clock and the girls ended the afternoon of fun by taking snap shots of each other to prove they were true pirates at a real Treasure Hunt.

Jean Zerba and Arleen Myrick invited the campfire girls to come to an early morning hike yesterday. The girls left town at five a. m. They cooked their breakfast along the creek near Koepke's ranch. They earned some honors on fire making and campfire cooking. Their breakfast consisted of kababs; a delicious campfire secret. The girls returned to town about ten o'clock and went for a swim in the new pool. Some of the girls passed the pollywog test in swimming.

The new Jantzen 'Twosome' combines smartness with swimming freedom

NEWEST of models is the Jantzen "Twosome!" Distinctive two-piece appearance... the comfort and swimming freedom of a one-piece suit. Plain and bizarre-striped uppers, white-belted trunks of navy blue. This is the suit you'll see smart folk wearing at all the fashionable beaches... at Miami, Atlantic City, Brighton, Deauville... almost everywhere.

Why are the reasons why world-wide favor has turned to Jantzen. Foremost is its perfect fit. Tightly knitted from long-fibred-wool by the Jantzen-stitch process, a Jantzen graces your body lightly, snugly, smoothly... without a wrinkle. Being extremely elastic, it retains its shape.

See the new models now on display here! Solid colors, bright hues, gala stripes. Color-fast; being literally dyed-in-the-wool. Jantzen's size-by-weight system assures you a perfect fit.

Ask for your copy of the "Jantzen Color Harmony Guide". The key to individual harmonious swimming attire.
