

Press Paragraphs

Tim McCoy in "The Adventurer" Standard Theatre, Saturday night. Mrs. McNair and daughter Lenore were in Walla Walla Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Boling have moved to Freewater to reside.

Mrs. Naomi Dickenson is here from Portland, visiting relatives.

Umatilla county will receive $10,437.36 from the state school fund.

New service station signs have been put up at "Pink's Place" this week.

Earnest Ross was in Athena Tuesday from his home at Thorn Hollow.

Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Radtke and son Fred motored to Pendleton Sunday evening.

A party of Athena young people spent Sunday on the Umatilla river, picnicking.

F. B. Radtke and son Fred fished in the Umatilla river Monday and Tuesday with fair success.

Mrs. Della Booher and daughter Marjorie are here from Walla Walla, visiting relatives and friends.

Mrs. Peter McIntyre of Alberta is a guest at the home of her cousin, Mrs. Joseph Sheard, north of Athena.

John Thompson, Umatilla river cattleman, was in Athena from his ranch, Monday, transacting business.

Henry Miller is doing the carpenter work in remodeling the residence of Mrs. Theresa Berlin on Adams street.

There are still plentiful quantities of huckleberries in the mountains and lots of people are there to pick them.

Mrs. A. W. Logsdon drove to Pendleton Tuesday and spent the day with her mother, Mrs. D. H. Mansfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Hopper and little son Bobby, returned Sunday from the coast where they spent a couple of weeks.

Mrs. C. L. McFadden and children returned home Monday evening, after spending a week at McDougall's Camp.

Miss Mary Church, who has been a guest of Mrs. H. J. Perry for some time, has returned to her home at Vale.

The ladies of the Baptist church will hold a cooked food sale at Steve's Grocery tomorrow (Saturday) afternoon.

Ralph Tucker, prominent cattleman, was an Athena visitor Wednesday, in company with Clarence Avery of Weston.

Mrs. W. R. Taylor, who has resided at Pendleton since leaving Athena several years ago, has moved to Walla Walla to reside.

G. M. Morrison of Adams was in Athena Tuesday transacting business. His harvest operations are just well under way, so he reports.

Charles Williams, Read Hill and Bob McArthur returned Saturday from a trip to the mountains in the vicinity of Langdon Lake.

George Clore, well known in Athena, will leave Pendleton shortly for his old home at Abingdon, Illinois, where hereafter he will reside.

Have your tubes
Vulcanized
at
Athena Service Station
C. B. MOORE, Prop.

Cool
Refreshing
Satisfying

The finest sodas in Town

Really good sodas—how delicious they can be. Taste them at our fountain. Sodas made with rich, smooth flavors and pure fruit syrups, luscious ice creams, delectable sundaes—all your favorite hot weather "treats"—prepared with a real desire to please you and served in surroundings attractive and clean. Let our fountain be your summer soda headquarters.

McFadden's Pharmacy

"Alias the Lone Wolf" Standard Theatre, Sunday night.

Mrs. Zeltha McIntyre has sold her property on South Third street to Archie McIntyre. She will move to her property on Adams street.

Mrs. H. S. Swift has returned to her home in Athena from LaGrande, where she attended the summer session of Normal school for teachers.

During the hot days the swimming pool at City Park was well patronized. Out of town people enjoyed the swimming as well as the local people.

John Robinson's Varsity Vagabond orchestra from University of Oregon, played for a dance at Rose Grey ball room in Pendleton, Wednesday night.

Mrs. Horace Belknap and daughter of Nampa, Idaho, arrived in Athena Sunday morning to visit with Mrs. Belknap's mother, Mrs. W. S. Ferguson.

The fence back of the Athena Hotel caught fire from an unknown cause Tuesday afternoon, and after a flurry of excitement, it was put out with minor damage entailed.

The George Lieuallen threshing outfit was laid off Saturday afternoon on account of a breakdown. The threshing was fixed by Monday and threshing was continued.

Mrs. Etta Allen and two children, of Wichita Falls, Texas, are visiting Mrs. Victoria Gholson, who is the mother of Mrs. Allen. They expect to remain for several weeks.

Mrs. M. I. Miller and small sons left Monday for a visit with relatives at Cheney, Washington. Her sister, Miss Hazel Land, who has been visiting her, accompanied them to Cheney.

The C. M. Jones family has moved to Athena from Pendleton. They will reside in Mrs. Estes' house on Current Street. Mr. Jones recently purchased the Jack Harman blacksmith shop.

Mrs. F. L. McFadden of Corvallis, Mrs. Koken of Hood River and Muir McFadden of California, mother, sister and brother of C. L. McFadden, are in the city, visiting at the McFadden home this week.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Dudley came down from Bingham Springs Monday. In company with Mrs. Dean Dudley and daughter Jessideane, they went to the mountains Tuesday and picked huckleberries.

Mrs. M. L. Watts motored to Walla Walla Wednesday, taking a group of members of the Eastern Star chapter to St. Mary's hospital, where they visited Mrs. Alta McSherry, who is critically ill there.

Billy Green of Seattle, one of the best known motion picture salesmen on the Pacific slope was in Athena Tuesday, and sold the Standard Theatre another group of "Felix" cartoon pictures, for showing here.

Mrs. F. B. Wood left for Waukesha, Wisconsin, Monday evening, where she goes to attend a Holiness camp-meeting, and also to visit friends in Waukesha. Mrs. Wood will be away from home for about three weeks.

Phillip Murtha completed the harvesting of his wheat crop early this season. He is satisfied with the yield of his grain—around 40 bushels per acre, grading No. 1—but would like to see the market perk up a bit.

Mrs. Celia Burden was pleased to have a young nephew, Roman Neidjelski, of Gilman, Minnesota, visit her for a couple of days last week. He was in company with a group of boys, touring the west in a Ford car.

Owing to a plentiful supply of water in the municipal system, Athena lawns and gardens have been kept in better condition this summer than formerly, when scarcity of water made restriction of use necessary.

Miss Redding, who taught the LaMar school last year will attend Monmouth normal school. At present Miss Redding is visiting her cousin, Mrs. H. S. Swift in Athena. Mrs. Swift will teach at LaMar this year.

Mrs. Lillian Fredericks, Weston instructor who has a piano class in Athena, has recently returned from Portland, where she took a six weeks course in advanced musical subjects at the Kate Dell Marden School of Music.

Mr. and Mrs. F. S. LeGrow left Athena Tuesday by automobile for Phillipsburg, Montana, near which place Mr. LeGrow has a cattle ranch. Range conditions in Montana are good this season, and beef cattle are in prime shape.

Miss Zada Snider, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Snider of Weston, who are well known in Athena, was recently a patient in a Walla Walla hospital, where she underwent a serious operation. Miss Snider is recovering at her home in Weston.

Of interest to Athena friends is the announcement of the marriage at Portland, July 16, of Miss Ruth Proebstel of Weston, to Mr. Lester Richmond, son of Frank Richmond, of Walla Walla. Mr. and Mrs. Richmond will reside at Clinton Court, Walla Walla.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Gilbert visited at the C. M. Eager home Monday evening. They were en route to their home in Portland after three weeks spent with Mrs. Gilbert's parents Mr. and Mrs. Everett Eager, at Dayton, Washington. Mrs. Gilbert is a sister of Mr. Eager.

Farmers who this season delivered their grain in bulk by truck to the receiving stations, are well pleased with this modern mode of transportation. Two or three trucks, depending upon the distance of hauling, proved adequate for handling the output of the combine.

While driving her car recently, Mrs. George Gerking was stung on the foot by a bee. By an unusual display of grit, she managed to keep her hand on the wheel and the car in the road, but soon the foot began to swell and for several days she was unable to wear a shoe.

Mrs. George McDonald and daughter, Mrs. Kenneth White of Pullman, are visiting at the E. A. Dudley home and at the cottage at Bingham Springs this week. They have recently returned from a trip to the beach, in company with Mrs. H. O. Worthington of Pendleton.

Mrs. Frank Ames, who with her husband, is leaving Athena to reside in Pendleton, has been the honoree at several social functions during the week. Mr. and Mrs. Ames have made many friends during their residence in Athena, and their departure from the city is deeply regretted.

Mrs. Dow, wife of Reverend Dow of the Baptist church, accompanied by their son, arrived last week from Halsey, where they have been visiting friends, and joined the pastor at the parsonage here. The family have been in the West about three months, having come from Maine, their former home.

G. A. R. McGrew, formerly engaged in the drug business at Weston and farm owner, died at his home in Portland, Sunday, July 22, at the age of 66 years, after a lingering illness. He is survived by his widow and three sons, Fred E., Raymond L. and George A. R. McGrew, Jr., all of Portland.

Mrs. Minnie DePeatt arrived home Saturday morning by way of Seattle, from Everett, Washington, where she has visited the past six weeks with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ortis Harris. She reports mild weather on the Sound, during the recent torrid season experienced here.

Mrs. R. B. McEwen arrived home Friday morning from Portland, making the trip by auto-bus. With her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Goff of Newberg, Mrs. McEwen visited relatives at Berkeley, and toured other parts of California, including Yosemite Park. She will remain with her family here until fall, when with the boys, she will return to Portland for the school year.

Mrs. Floyd Pinkerton was hostess Saturday evening to a number of young people, when she entertained in the Christian church reception rooms, in honor of her sister, Miss Alfreda Hampton of Genesee, Idaho, and Mrs. Pinkerton's niece, Miss Edna Thompson of Alberta, and Mr. and Mrs. Henderson. Music and games were enjoyed. Mrs. Pinkerton was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. H. J. Perry and others. Refreshing ices were served.

Mrs. S. F. Sharp is at Walla Walla, where her husband and daughter are both in the hospital, seriously ill.

Two new forest fires were burning in the Meacham district yesterday. The larger had burned over 100 acres of timber before it was controlled.

A number of farmers are through threshing and have moved their machines into the shed. Others are just getting their harvesting well under way.

William Hall, well-known reservation farmer was in town yesterday. Mr. Hall suffered a paralytic stroke several months ago, and now walks with considerable difficulty, having to depend on a crutch for assistance.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS
In the County Court of the State of Oregon for Umatilla County. In the Matter of the Estate of Solista N. Pickett, Deceased.
Notice is hereby given that the undersigned has been appointed executrix of the last will and testament of Solista N. Pickett, deceased, by an order of the above entitled Court.

All persons having claims against the estate of said decedent are hereby notified to present the same to me at Athena, Oregon, within six months from the date of the first publication of this notice. All claims must be verified as by law required.

Dated at Athena, Oregon, this 27th day of July, 1928.

Viva Pickett-Prestbye, Executrix of the Last Will and Testament of Solista N. Pickett, Deceased.
J27A24

NOTICE OF FINAL ACCOUNT
In the County Court of the State of Oregon for Umatilla County. In the Matter of the Estate of Martha J. Shick, Deceased.
Notice is hereby given that the undersigned has filed his final account and report in the above entitled matter and that the above entitled Court has fixed Saturday, the 1st day of September, 1928, at the hour of 10:00 o'clock A. M. of said day, as the time, and the County Court room in the County Court house at Pendleton, Umatilla County, Oregon, as the place, for the hearing of said final account and report. Objections to said final account and report, if any there be, should be filed on or before said date.

Dated at Athena, Oregon, this 3rd day of August, 1928.

ARTHUR E. SHICK, Executor of the Last Will and Testament of Martha J. Shick, Deceased. Watts & Prestbye, Athena, Oregon, Attorneys for Executor. A3A31

CHURCH OF CHRIST
The first of the union services was held at the Church of Christ last Sunday evening. Song service directed by H. Jackson Perry and sermon by Mr. Dow, the new Baptist minister. Services next Sunday evening will be held in the Baptist church, sermon by H. Jackson Perry; topic: "Abounding in the work of the Lord." Music will be furnished by the folk of the Baptist church. Everyone is urged to attend these union services during the month of August, as well as the Sunday school and morning worship at one or the other of the two churches. H. JACKSON PERRY, Minister Church of Christ.

JUST ARRIVED

Another Shipment of House Dresses

In all sizes. Get yours while the Assortment is Complete

Phone Your Order To 152

Athena Department Store

CLASSIFIED

For Sale—An International Combine Harvester. Cut only 560 acres since purchased last year. Has been overhauled and is in perfect running condition. Inquire of Henry Koepke, Athena, Phone 32F12.

For Sale—Beautiful piano near Hanford must sell immediately. $10 per month. A rare bargain. Write Tallman Piano Store, Salem, Oregon, for particulars.

Logan Berries—Logan Berries $1 per crate and pick the berries; luscious, juicy berries. F. Heath, Read & Hawley Mountain.

Notice

Those desiring to purchase Hybrid No. 128 seed wheat from me, should order the first of next week, as I will sack only that which is spoken for at that time. H. A. BARRETT.

McRea Weeder

All Steel

Self Dump--Light Draft

Made in 12 ft. Size—No Skips No Bunches—No Stop to Dump

In a demonstration on the Barrett place the light draft of this Weeder was shown when it did perfect work hitched to a 4-cylinder Dodge car.

THE STANDARD THEATRE

Saturday

Tim McCoy

And

Dorothy Sebastian

In

The Adventurer

A Splendid Picture

Tim McCoy takes you now to South America, the last stronghold of red-blooded adventure, for his greatest picture. He spikes a revolution single-handed, saves a dark-eyed senorita, and whirls you through a maze of action, hard fighting and hard riding to a thrillingly romantic climax.

Comedy and News Reel

Admission 10-25-35c

Sunday

Bert Lytell and Lois Wilson

In

Alias The Lone Wolf

"The Perfect Melodrama--The Greatest of All Mystery Stories"

If you like mystery dramas, you're going to enthuse over "Alias the Lone Wolf," the Columbia feature picture at the Standard Theatre, Sunday night. Thrills, baffling mystery and intriguing adventure on the high seas—all these, Bert Lytell screenom's leading portrayer of gentlemen crook roles, with Lois Wilson, brings to the screen in "Alias the Lone Wolf," his new Columbia Pictures starring vehicle. Many of the scenes of the picture are laid on an ocean liner, with the "Lone Wolf" pitted against a ring of international crooks in a keenly exciting duel of wits.

Grantland Rice Sports Reel

Admission 10-25-35c