

Press Paragraphs

"Two Arabian Knights" Standard Theatre, tomorrow night. Charles Russell was in Athena from Freewater, Wednesday.

The sale held by H. M. Saulsberry Wednesday was well attended. Mrs. George Bannister, Jr., spent the week with relatives in Walla Walla.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph N. Scott of Pendleton, were in Athena Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Radtke returned Sunday from Eugene and Portland, where they spent a week.

Mrs. Penn Harris has been visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. Yenny, at Walla Walla, this week.

Mrs. William McBride of Portland, spent a portion of the week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Betts. Jack Cunningham, salesman of Frigidaires, and Deleo Light plants, was in town Tuesday from Pendleton.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Henry spent Saturday in Walla Walla, visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alf Johnson.

Mrs. Paul Lieuallen and little daughter have arrived at their home in Adams, from St. Anthony's hospital in Pendleton.

Mr. and Mrs. James Twohy, returning from the East to their home in Portland, spent Monday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Boyd.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Booher with Mr. and Mrs. Jess Booher of Coeur D'Alene, Idaho spent Monday with Mr. and Mrs. Jake Booher in Pendleton.

Athena friends of Mr. and Mrs. Murray D. McLean (Lois Swaggart) of Seattle, will be interested to learn that they are the parents of a daughter. Mrs. McLean formerly resided here.

Mrs. Henry Barrett returned Sunday from Portland, where she visited relatives. Her mother, Mrs. A. B. McEwen has left Portland for California, where she will remain for the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Jenkins.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Walker at their home on Gerking Flat were, Mr. and Mrs. Jake Booher of Pendleton, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Richmond and Ralph, Jr., of Walla Walla, Mr. John Walker and Jennamiae and Mr. and Mrs. William Potts.

For a time the household of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Grey was one of excitement and commotion, when Saturday morning the infant son swallowed a safety-pin. A physician retrieved the pin, and baby was soon O. K. again.

Mrs. Grey has given up the Gross residence on Fifth street, and has discontinued boarding school teachers. Miss Bateman and Miss Brodie are now at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Pinkerton, taking meals at the home of Mrs. Michener.

Mr. and Mrs. Duffield and son have moved into one of the Lilia Kirk cottages.

S. A. Barnes and Nelson Jones of Weston, were in Athena Wednesday evening.

Harry Keller and Charles Taylor of Bend will be here Sunday for a China pheasant hunt.

W. McPherson accompanied Joseph Scott of Pendleton to his farm for a pheasant hunt, Wednesday.

The Christian Missionary Society met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. George Gerking.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Thereon and daughter of Pendleton are visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Read.

Mrs. Matilda Grey, Mrs. Lawrence Pinkerton, Mrs. A. W. Douglas and Mrs. Sarah Gross were in Walla Walla, Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. LeRoy and children, and Mrs. Maud LeRoy and Mrs. Sarah Purvance spent Monday in Pendleton.

Mrs. Lila Kirk and Mrs. W. McPherson visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Austin Foss at Ferndale, last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Clemons and family motored to Albion, Washington, for a few days visit with Mr. Clemons' mother, Mrs. R. M. McClure.

Mrs. Mary Tompkins has been seriously ill the past week and will be taken to Hot Lake Sanitarium for treatment.

The school children are enjoying a two-day vacation this week. Yesterday and today teachers are attending the annual institute a Pendleton.

William Goff left Monday evening for his home in San Francisco, California, after spending a few days in Athena as guest of Miss Pearl Green.

Miss Ethel Pittman will enter a business college in Seattle in a few weeks, to take a business course. Her position as cashier at the Standard Theatre, will be taken by Miss Arlene Myrick.

Ernest L. Crockatt, well known in Athena, has purchased the interest of I. B. Bowen in the Baker Morning Democrat. Mr. Small retires after 50 years of continuous service, and 41 years as editor of the Democrat.

John Kirk was quite seriously injured in a pileup during the Athena-Wa-Hi football game in Athena, last Friday. He is recovering from the effects of the injury, but will be out of the game for some time, at least.

Mrs. W. F. Anderson, sister-in-law of Mrs. M. L. Watts; Stanford Anderson, a nephew, and son Stanfort, Jr., all of Portland, are visiting this week at the Watts home. Mr. Anderson leaves soon for Australia, where for three years he will manage the interests of an American lumber firm.

The annual county convention of the Women's Christian Temperance Union will be held on Friday at Helix. It will open at 9:30 a. m. Delegates at the convention will be from Pendleton, Helix, Adams, Rieth, Athena and Milton. Besides program features, a no-hostess luncheon will be served at the noon hour.

The second fall meeting of the Athena Bridge Club occurred Friday at the home of Mrs. W. P. Littlejohn on Jefferson Street. Brilliant hued flowers were employed by the hostess as decorations and score cards blended with the color scheme. Club members and guests sufficient for three tables were present. Mrs. C. M. Eager holding high score and Mrs. A. A. Kimball received the guest prize. Other guests of the club included Mrs. Sarah Jane Bowles of Walla Walla and Mrs. C. L. McFadden.

Fred Thompson and "Silver King" Standard Theatre, Sunday night.

Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Smith of Portland, accompanied by Dr. and Mrs. Crank and Major Mallory, all of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Gillis were in Athena from their farm home near Washucna, Wash., Monday.

Cleve Myers has taken over the Carsten shoe repair shop, and solicits the patronage of this community.

Henry Dell, accompanied by his son-in-law, Armond DeMerritt, of Walla Walla, is in the mountains, hunting deer.

Miss Lois McIntyre will take a course at Walla Walla Business College. Miss McIntyre will enter that institution next week.

The Otho Reeder residence on Third street, south of Main, is being repainted. William Hendricksen, veteran painter, is welding the brushes.

Mr. and Mrs. George Roller (Florence Gagnon) have purchased a farm near Albany, Oregon, and will move there from California, to reside.

Mrs. Louise Keen, of Santa Cruz, California, has been visiting relatives in Athena and vicinity. Mrs. Keen is the widow of the late John Keen.

Bert Ramsay, who delights in working in his flower garden, brought to the Press office some very fine dahlia specimens grown at his home on Third street.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Pinkerton are enjoying a new Atwater-Kent receiving set which was recently installed in their home by Forrest Zerba, the local selling agent.

Joseph Payant of Weston, was in Athena Tuesday trading with local merchants. Mrs. Payant, who was recently seriously injured in an automobile accident at Weston, has recovered from her injuries.

Jack Calder reports that he has word of the safe arrival of Mr. and Mrs. Chris Thoeny in San Jose, California. Mr. and Mrs. Thoeny motored to San Jose, arriving there September 19, after an enjoyable trip.

Misses Lorena and Dorris Schubert are taking a course at Walla Walla Business college, having entered on their work Monday of this week. Both are graduates of Athena High School, class of '28.

Jim Hodges is again limping around on account of his foot, which some time ago laid him up when afflicted with blood poisoning. The attack this time is not so serious and he expects to resume his work at the Standard Oil plant in a few days.

Ray Jones is driving a new Chevrolet coupe. He is serving as relief mail carrier on route No. 2 out of Weston, in place of Ray Gordon, regular carrier, who is on a visit to relatives and friends in Middle Western states.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Benn, formerly of Athena and Weston, are here on a visit to relatives and friends. Both Mr. and Mrs. Benn (Sylvia Beathe) were formerly employed in the Mosgrove Mercantile Company store in Athena.

Portland came from that city Tuesday evening and were entertained at the homes of C. L. McFadden and Ralph McEwen. The gentlemen of the party spent Wednesday shooting pheasants. Dr. Smith makes an annual pilgrimage to Athena for pheasant hunting.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Wood entertained a pheasant hunting party at dinner, Wednesday noon. Guests were Marion Hansell and Glenn Dudley, Athena; Henry Collins, Guy Matlock, ad Frank Curl, Pendleton; Mr. Buchanan of Hillsboro, Mr. Alexander of Salem, Mr. Easter of McMinnville and Earl Snell of Arlington.

The October meeting of the Christian Missionary society was held Wednesday afternoon at the hospitable home of Mrs. G. R. Gerking west of town. A goodly number of ladies were in attendance and an interesting program given by the various members. Refreshments were served after the devotional and business sessions.

Mrs. M. I. Miller is hostess this Friday afternoon, at her home on Adams street, to the Study club. In pursuance of the study of Oregon history, the subject will be the Discovery of the Northwest Coast, with side readings and general information. New members received at the meeting last week included: Mrs. M. W. Hansell, Mrs. Theresa Berlin, Mrs. Chase Garfield and Miss Bryant. Mrs. Johns, the hostess, was assisted in serving by Mrs. E. C. Rogers.

Mrs. Glenn Dudley entertained informally at bridge Wednesday afternoon in honor of Mrs. C. H. Smith of Portland. The rooms were gay with asters, marigolds and petunias. Two tables were in play and honors were awarded to Mrs. C. L. McFadden, Mrs. A. A. Kimball received the consolation. At the tea hour the guests enjoyed a dainty salad and cakes. Beside the honor guest those from out of town were Mrs. Alec Crank of Portland and Miss Dorothy Koepke of Glendale, California. Others present were, Mrs. H. I. Watts, Mrs. C. L. McFadden, Mrs. A. A. Kimball, Mrs. R. B. McEwen and the hostess.

The O. D. O. met last Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Archie McIntyre. Fourteen members were present. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Pres., Mrs. J. C. Walker; vice-Pres., Mrs. Lewis Stewart; Sec. and Treas., Mrs. Wm. Potts; Reporter, Mrs. Emmet Lee. A social hour followed the business session at which time, Mrs. H. M. Saulsberry, who is leaving soon for Seattle to reside, was presented with a lovely gift. A dainty luncheon was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Virgil Zerba and Mrs. Floyd Pinkerton. The next meeting of the club will be held October 12, at the home of Mrs. Laurence Pinkerton.

"Who will be the next mistress of the White House?"
"And what will she wear?"

Come and see the beautiful display in our window all this week, showing the brand-new, Fall, Paris-designed

WHITE HOUSE PATTERNS

Lovely, Fall patterns created by the cleverest artists in France—
Alluring color combinations in clear, rich tones guaranteed not to fade or run—
PETER PAN is the ideal material for indoor use this Fall and Winter.

Prints, 32 in. wide Plain Colors, 36 in. wide

Athena Department Store

Otis Adams, Weston dealer, drove over to Athena yesterday in one of the new Ford Fordor Sedans. The sedan presented a fine appearance.

A number of football fans will accompany the Athena High School team to Pilot Rock, for the game to be played there tomorrow afternoon.

Charles Lovelace left yesterday morning for California. Mrs. Lovelace will later join her husband, and they will spend the winter in California.

Mrs. M. L. Watts, Mrs. W. F. Anderson, Stanford Anderson and son of Portland, visited Wednesday at the home of Mrs. F. M. Anderson, at Walla Walla.

Athena radios attracted large crowds of listeners when the first game of the world's series was received yesterday, when the Yanks trounced the Cardinals to the tune of 4 to 1.

With the completion of a series of lectures in Illinois this month, Rev. J. M. Cornelison, for 26 years in charge of the Indian mission on the Umatilla reservation, will resume charge of the mission after an absence of two years.

At a quiet wedding in the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. Jackson Perry last Saturday morning, September 29th, Miss Marion McCambridge of Vale, Oregon, became the wife of Jody Laurence also of Vale. Mr. Laurence is a brother of Mrs. Clara Hope of this city, also a close friend of Mr. Perry. Mr. Laurence had witnessed other wedding ceremonies performed by Mr. Perry and decided that they were "tied" forever, so thought it a good plan to have him officiate at his wedding. Mrs. Victor Yeager of Baker, a sister of the groom, accompanied the couple to this city on Friday evening.

With "just married" signs and tin cans galore, the trio left immediately after the ceremony for Unity, Oregon, where the couple in honor of their house guests, Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Smith, and Major Mallory of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph McEwen entertained at dinner Wednesday evening. The hostess served from a table decorated with roses in shades of pink and red, the guests being seated at small tables centered with red tapers. Bridge was played following dinner. Mrs. Crank, and Major Mallory receiving high score and Dr. Crank and Mrs. Kimball claiming the consolation. Others enjoying the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. McEwen were, Mr. and Mrs. O. O. Stephens, Mr. and Mrs. H. I. Watts, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Dudley, Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Richards and Mr. and Mrs. C. L. McFadden.

See
C. M. Jones
for Blacksmithing and
Acetylene Welding
Truck Beds Built to Order

We Recommend
Corona Coffee
for its superior quality
Shaw Coffee sold only in bulk
QUALITY CASH GROCERY

It Pays to Look Well!
To look well you should keep your hair properly cut—your face shaved and massaged—in fact everything in the Barber line. Come in and see Herb Parker and I.
Penn Harris Barber Shop
Agency for Troy Laundry and Twin City Sanitary Cleaners.
Phone 583.

Perfumes
We carry a complete line of Cotys, Houbigants and Hudnuts perfumes—prices
$1.00 and up
McFADDEN'S PHARMACY

Only a few more weeks !!!
Then the end--the finish !!!
Entire stock to be sold during this
CLOSING OUT
SALE
Never Again Such Values
Friday & Saturday Specials

| | |
|--|---|
| A Gigantic Special on Dish Pans 98c | Folding Cardtables for Bridge Parties 2.09 |
| Oak Library Tables at Rock Bottom Prices Get One | Oak China Cabinets at Half Price Now |
| Oak Dining Tables Price Cut in Two Now | People who have pictures framed and chairs repaired here, come and get them or we will sell them. |

N. A. MILLER, ATHENA, OREGON
Those who owe me must come and settle their accounts. I must have my money.