Athena Boy Scouts
(By Scout Master LeRoy)
Those that made the trip to Walla Walla Saturday for a swim in the "Y" pool had the pool to themselves and made good use of the fine accommodations for swimming.
Thanks are due Wayne Pinkerton who missed seeing his former Mac-Hi teammates play Pendleton, by taking a car load of boys to Walla Walla for the swim.
A stormy evening and a country social kept a few of the boys from the meeting but there was a good turn out and plans were laid for a system of Patrol meetings. Each patrol will meet as a unit once a month for regular patrol work and advancement. The first patrol will meet this week, the second patrol next week and so on for the four patrols. Herbert Reeder is acting patrol leader and Walter Edger assistant patrol leader for the first patrol for the present, until Stafford Hansell can be with us again. The first patrol will put on the eats at the next regular meeting. Tuesday evening.
The impressive scout tenderfoot ceremony is being worked on by the boys who will now be able to put it on in first class style for all new members and visitors.
We are starting to remodel the hall for our games and activities.

Most of the patrols are full now and we are starting an advancement race between the patrols.
Stafford Hansell the scout treasurer and Carl Calvert the very able Junior assistant were busy with the check book this week and paid up around town.
We miss "Pike" Miller our assistant scoutmaster and athletic trainer but as he has all he can handle at school, we are doing without his services for the present.

Old White House Gates
The office of public buildings and grounds says that the White House gates on Pennsylvania avenue at Jackson place between the White House grounds and the State, War and Navy building, were put there during Grant's administration between 1870 and 1874.
This land was originally the White House grounds. The gates were placed there to shut off that road as a public thoroughfare at night. These gates were removed because they had served their purpose and were to some extent an obstruction to traffic.

Excellent Rule
"How do you manage to remember so many things, Sarah?" inquired the mistress of her housemaid. Then Sarah made reply with the infallible rule for memory training.
"I'll tell ye, ma'am," said she. "All my life I've never told a lie. And when ye don't have to be taxin' yer memory to be rememberin' what ye told this one or that one, or how ye explained this or that, ye don't overwork it, and it'll last ye, good as new, for ever."
