Odd Expressions That

Had Humorous Origin

The tendency to run words together has given the world some queer expressions. "Mimsy" is one of these "telescope" words that formerly were ever-ready to serve anybody in telling how miserable and flimsy anything might be.

"Act of God" Legally

The legal meaning of act of God is any accident due to natural causes, directly and exclusively, without human intervention, such as could not have been prevented by any amount of foresight, pains and care reasonably to have been expected.

Guideposts of Stone

The variety of metal and wood sign posts to be seen along the roads for the guidance of the automobiling public are being displaced in England for those of stone which are said to be much more durable and more satisfactory in other ways.

Knightly Armor

The weight of Gothic armor of the Fifteenth century varies considerably. For example, a specimen in the Metropolitan Museum of Art, New York, weighs 49 pounds, one in Paris weighs 53, and a third in Vienna weighs 85.

Pointed Question

Before the women's golf championship was played, a certain course was for some days infested by practicing ladies. This gave much disgust to an old gentleman who went out daily to have his hundred up.

Unreasonable

"What did you quit down at the Gold-plated Securities for? I thought you had a good time there." "I thought so, too, till I'd been there a week. I was supposed to be secretary to the vice president, but he was no vice president at all.

Tastes Differ

Heard at the public library: "Is the book in about the other six?" "Please to gimme a Bible story about Queen Elizabeth." "I just love to read books like this and see what the big words are and learn how to use them."

Fred Lockley of the East Oregonian is in town today. Mr. and Mrs. Harry McBride will occupy the Rosenzweig cottage on Jefferson street.

Walter Ely left yesterday for Moscow, Idaho, on a business trip. He will be absent from town for several days.

Mrs. G. W. Bradley, wife of the county treasurer, came up from Pendleton Wednesday and spent the day with Athena friends.

To settle an election wager on the defeat of Hearst, F. G. Lucas will give a man a ride in a wheelbarrow up and down Main street tomorrow afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bell are in La Grande this week where they are visiting at the home of their daughter Mrs. Saunders.

James Feeler, well known to Athena people, came down from Milton, Wash., Saturday evening. Mr. Feeler has gone out of the saloon business and has purchased a ranch.

"Joe," the fine driving horse owned by Dr. J. D. Plamondon, has been very sick. The services of a veterinary, however, have resulted in bringing the horse through all right.

Weston's bridges are once more spanning Pine creek, and the Leader expresses faith in their permanency, predicting that the present structures will withstand the spring floods.

C. W. Ray, wife and son, of Hatton, Wash., are in the city, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Will M. Peterson.

Laurence Lieuallen of Adams and Miss Alice Christian, of Milton, were married Sunday. The groom is a son of T. J. Lieuallen of Adams and is well known in Athena, where he has a host of friends.

A large number of friends spent last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Kirk. The evening was spent in a happy social way.

Henry Barrett is visiting friends in the Willamette valley. This is Henry's second trip to the valley and there is one lady in town who did not hesitate to inform the editor that she was sure there was an extraordinary attraction for Henry "down below."
