21 Years Ago

January 10, 1908

The Normal opened again Monday morning with an increase in attendance after a vacation of two weeks for the holidays. The attendance is considerably increased over the first semester, and it is said that the total attendance is now about 250.

By action of the county court the county tax levy for the year was placed at six mills and the levy will provide the sum of $252,333.32 for the purpose of defraying county expenses and paying its portion of the state tax.

Deputy District Grand Master Millard Kelly installed the following I. O. O. F. officers: Fred Koontz, Noble Grand; Walter Judy, Vice Grand; S. F. Wilson, Corresponding Secretary; E. A. Connick, Financial Secretary; G. W. Gross, Treasurer.

Frank Coolidge is in Spokane on a business trip.

Walter Judy, salesman for Taggart & Co., is confined to his home with illness.

Chas. Gay went up to Waitsburg the first of the week, where he seeks a location.

Chas. Brotherton is taking advantage of the spring weather to get his plowing done.

Miss Lizzie Sheard is employed as saleslady at Jarman's Department store during the big sale.

Mrs. Frank Tharp, Arthur Shick and the children of Otis Whitman are the latest victims of measles.

Sam Booher has leased the Frank

Mansfield place west of town and will hereafter wear the farmer's pleasant smile.

Miss Velma Wilkinson has finished her first term of four months in the Leach district on the mountain, and has accepted the school for another three months term. She is assisted in the school by Prof. English.

Miss Nellie Royse was married on Christmas day, to Mr. Arthur Barrett, on North Yakima. The ceremony was performed in that city, where the two young people will make their home.

At a special school meeting, held Saturday afternoon, Mr. C. A. Barrett and W. R. Taylor were elected to fill the short and long term respectively on the board of school directors. The election was held as the result of the resignations of A. M. Gillis and M. L. Watts.

Twelve dollars worth of dressed pork figured extensively on the Athena market Saturday, and the meat finally found its right place on the block of a Pendleton meat market. For a while it appeared that everybody had a claim on it. Mr. Jerry St. Dennis, a prominent land owner, brought the dressed hog to town. Mr. St. Dennis was in debt to John Bell and Harry McBride. Seeing a chance to "get even" with Mr. St. Dennis, they got possession of the pork and sold it to Sherman for $12. Then it was discovered that the hog was not St. Dennis' property, he having previously disposed of it to Reinhold Harras of Pendleton, to whom St. Dennis should have delivered it. Finally Harras recovered his pork and Sherman reimbursed $12, and the indomitable Jerry went home as usual, with a voluptuous jag.

Sportsmanship

What is good sportsmanship? It is fairness in all sports and games. Good sportsmanship is what a school that is a poor loser in its games needs.

The school that can win in a game and not boast about it, or lose in a game and not criticize the other school is the school that shows good sportsmanship. The world at large loves a good loser and detests a poor one. If a person learns to show good sportsmanship in school, he will carry it through life—"as the twig is bent so will the tree grow."

A school cannot win all games, but above all it can keep in mind the value of good sportsmanship.

Girls Athletics

After a hard fight the Athena six again tasted defeat on the Touchet floor Saturday, January 5, by the score of 28-22.

The girls were not in the best of condition after vacation, but they put up a hard fight and kept in the lead most of the game, until the last quarter; then Touchet began running the score up. A number of substitutions were made for Athena. The line up was as follows: Frances Cannon, Goldie Miller, forwards; Thelma Schrimpf, Marjorie Douglas, Centers; Areta Kirk (captain), Carolyn Kidder, guards.

Substitutions were: Betty Eager, F.; Pearl Green, C.; Loie Montgomery, F.; Beatrice Hiteman, G.; Bertha Price, G.; Arleen Myrick, F.; Patonella Walters, G.

Boys Athletics

Friday night, January 11, Athena Hi boys and girls will clash with the strong Helix Hi teams. Helix nosed out Adams January 5th by one point in an over time period. Athena beat Adams by four points, so this should be one of the most closely contested games of the season. Little is known of the Helix girls as to their ability to cage the ball, but one can expect a strong team from over that way.

January 17th the Athena boys will invade the north to meet one of the strong Eastern Washington basketball teams. On January 17th they will clash with the strong St. John's team, that defeated Wa-Hi in the Eastern Washington tournament last year. January 18th they will take on Cheney Hi, last year's runner up in the Washington state tournament at Seattle. This team of boys was coached by Coach "Pike" Miller while he was teaching in the training school at Cheney. No doubt this will be the strongest team the Athena boys will meet on the trip. The last game of the trip is not definitely settled, but no doubt it will be with either Ewan or Steptoe. Eight or nine boys will be taken on the trip, and no player will be allowed to make the trip who is not up to good standing in his grades.

Personals

Thelma Schrimpf, Walter Huffman, and Virgie Moore shopped in Walla Walla Saturday.

Jack Dow was in Pendleton Saturday.

Harold Kirk shopped in Walla Walla Saturday.

Edwin McEwen and Wilford Miller visited in Walla Walla Sunday.

Wayne Pinkerton was in Milton Saturday.

5th and 6th Grades

Joyce Pinkerton was absent from school last week on account of illness.

The only entrant on the honor roll for the month of December was Eleanor Price.

Jack Holt and Nancy Carroll appear tomorrow night at the Standard Theatre in Zane Grey's fine Paramount picture, "The Water Hole." Sunday night Norma Shearer will be seen in Metro-Goldwyn's "A Lady of Chance," which just ended a run at the Broadway theatre, Portland.

Intelligent Dogs

In the board room of King's College hospital, London, hangs a picture of two fox terriers bringing a collie there for treatment. The incident occurred in 1887, and is well authenticated. The owner of the dogs was a Mr. Hunt, a well known bookseller.

His explanation of the dogs' sagacity was that they lived so near the hospital they must have seen people who had met with accidents taken there for treatment, and they used their knowledge for the benefit of their friend, the collie.

Among strange inventions displayed at the international exhibition of inventions at London the Boston Globe correspondent reports a collar button that cannot be lost, a lopsided umbrella for amorous couples, a brace and bit that drills square holes, and a saucepan that rings a bell when the boiling point is reached.
